By this time the two goat-teed musicianers and Squire Dawkins had gone into a lady remarked to us a day or two since, as the tavern and left Zeke and I standin' she exhibited the portrait of an only child, gone out on the door steps. When I found to the "spirit land;" which was one of there warn't anybody round but us two, I

"Darned little, says he. "It ain't going to do you nor I any good, anyhow. The loved ones are not always."

"How I should regret, it, had I not secured this precious memorial of that dear one." So thought we. The loved ones are not always. You see, Jonathan, that you are leader with us, and while we can call them ours, every now, and I'm head base singer of the one should secure such a memorial; especially Spotsdown choir, and your sister Sal is since they can have them so truthfully taken by head gal singer. You know, too, that the that successful artist, A. B. TUBBS, of Binggals in general, all over the village, think hamton. a tarnal sight of head singers." Well, this new mewsic, you see, will make a thunderation noise, and drown all our voices chock out. Then we shall be sewed up and entirelydone to. We shall bayeto shut up shop and go home. Then we shall be laughed and snickered at by all the gals in town, and finally druy off to t'other side of sun down, or somewher else." f sun down, or somewher else."

kick up a muss in our choir, and kick the mewsic out on't the same time. These chaps with the instruments, you know, can't speak much English." "And can't read any," said he.
"That's just the idea," says I, that's goin' to do the whole, bizziness.' "How!" say Zekc.

"Wait till to morrow mornin' and you'll see," says I. "You know I lead the sing-in'?"

"Sartin I do." "And find the tunes in the psalm book?" "Eggsactly," says he. "And give them out to the singers?"

"Yes," says he.
"And these ere chaps can't read any English?"

"Not a smudgeon," said he.
"Nuff sed Zeke. Wait till the first hymn is gin out to-morrow morning.", Well, the next morning came as was expected, and it was one of them ere kind of summer mornings you generally read about. The sun riz in all his glory at half past four o'clock, and at ten, when the meetin began, it was not enough to boil eggs in the shade. A long time before the second bell rung, the meetin' house was crowded ram jam full. All the choir was there and the forin musicioners besides. Wall, about a quarter after ten, in come the minister, and a plaguay genteel, stiff-lookin' sort of a chap tew. He walked up the broad aisle, into the pulpit, as though he owned the meetin' house and everybody in it. Soon as he got there he hemmed and hawed a little, blowed his nose a great deal, took up the hymn book

"The choir will sing, if they please, the two hundred thirty-third hymn, short, par-ticular metre; hymn two hundred thirty-

Then he read the hymn in a sort of silkand worsted kind of voice, as soft as soaked saw-dust. Whilst he was doing this I picked out the tune, and it took two of them to sing that tune with me now I tell you. I picked out a long metre tune for the singers. Then we all stood up to sing, instruments in front. Jest before we begun, I whispered to Sal and Zeke Jones. and sex I-

"Put in all you know," and you'd bet-ter believe they did it. Wall, I led off the singin' double quick time, so that we got through the first stanza afore the .musicianers had played half their tune out. Howsomever they kept on playing while Lawsville Centre, Susq. co., Pa. we stopped to breathe, and then the congregation began to snicker, and the minister's face looked like a mammouth specimen of blood beet cut in halves. I waited patiently for the music to stop, and arter a while it did. Then we was just a goin' to sing again, when the Italian chap, the big flddler, you know, walks up to me, shakes his bow in my face, and says— "You much diabols, you—vat you call —spile de mewsicke. Spose a you do it again, 'ver much I spile your head."

"You will hey?" says I., "Then I guess I'll spile yours in advance." Then I up with my fist without any more adew, and planted it under Mr. Vinegar's left ear. Very directly, of course, he fell, and our Sal being in the way, like a tarnal fool, he struck smack agin her, and she fell too. Then Mr. Sledgehammer. the German man, hit me from behind an awful louder on the back of the head. Zeke Jours hit him at the same time and place, the rest of the male singers rushing forward to put in for a share, tumbling over us as we all lay prostrate on the floor. and of course there was a very beautiful and general muss all around the choir.

Then some of the gals sung out "mur der!" some of 'em "fire!" and some of 'em "hallelujah l" Some of the congregation, too, sung out "call the constable!"-a sailor chap in the gallery sung out "call the watch?"-one of the deacons ran up into the pulpit, and the minister thinkin' he was comin' to kill him, shied the big Bible at the deacon's head, and then jumped out of the pulpit window.

In the meantime Sal pulled all the stashers off the Italian's face, and takin me for the German violinist, slapped my chops most tremendously. Then both of the musicianers got up and Zeke Jones and I kicked em out of the meetin house, and the congregation kicked us out arter em. Sal got her bran

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOS-The proprietors and manufacturers of HOS-TETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BIT-TERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a repu-tation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bit-ters for the last year amounted to over a half-million bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in these sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the discuses resulting therefrom.

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily, as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recupe-rate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorations that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as cians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fover and agne, caused by malaria, diarrhoea, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial. Stomach Bitters, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

Are you sick, feeble, and complaining! Are you out of order, with your system deranged, and your feelings uncomfortable! These symptoms are often the prelate to serious illness. Some it of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a limely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humans—purify the blood, and let the fundament of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions of the body into vigorous scirity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural fauctions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering, and disease. While it it this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural section of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health sgain. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common compleint, is also true in inamy of the deep seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect explay them when surely, cured by the same ineans. None who know the virtues of these Pills, will neglect to enabley them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

This is a pirrely registable compound, purpared on strictly actually principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professer, Borchave. Its reputation at home preduced its introduction here, the demand commencing with those of the Fatherland scattered over-the face of this mighty country, many of whom brought with them and handed down the tradition of its value. It is note offered to the American public, knowing that its truly scenderful medicinal circlus must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have born impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raining up the dropping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

NOTICE—Whoneve expects to find this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the alck, weak and low spirited, it will prove a grateful aromatic cordial, coassessed of singular remedial properties. STOMACH OR LIVER.
