It shall be our carneat andcavor to the desirable family journal—one that shall be our carneat and profit by act inchaer of the family circle. Believing that no country or locality can benefit itself by destroying or crippling the interests of any other, we shall oppose, both in national and inter-national politics, all measures based upon selfahuess; and sustain such doctrines only, as recognize the fundamental idea of universal progress. In national affairs, particularly, that class of measures which look to the advancement of one section, at the appairont expense of another, shall continue to receive our carnest and unqualited condemnation. It will be alike our daty and our choice, to oppose the precent wicked spirit of sectional hate, which now prevails to a fearful extent, and which, unless soon checked and replaced by words and acts of kindness and mitual concession, must uiterly destroy the best governmental structure over reared We shall advocate peace, fraternal harmony, and friendly national intercourse, because they are just, and desirable, and in no other spirit can American Liberty be sustained. We appeal to all conservative, national men to aid as larger than the control of the control of the spirit can American Liberty be sustained. and in no other spirit can American Liberty be sustained.

We appeal to all conservative, national men to all using the good work before us. It is only through the addumet well sustained local papers that our principles can ever prevail, for it is by means of county organizations that a national triumph is achieved; and a county Democracy that neglects to sustain their paper, always beholds the bilk of the party engulphed in the chiripool of fainticism, error, and sectional hatredding well as the party engulphed in the chiripool of fainticism, error, and sectional hatredding well as the party engulphed on the chiral beautiful to the man stand firm, and add his influence towards doing our common day. Our friends must not forget that we are in a minority, here, and that the want of favoritism from officials who control public paironage, renders their cash patronage more desirable and necessary. more desirable and necessary.

But we do not wish to be understood as intimating that our patronage is, or should be, confined to any class; and men of all parties are respectfully invited to embrace the advantages resulting from sending in their orders, and we doubt not that all who are not blighed, by bigotry, to their own and the public good will continue to do so. doubt not that all who are not bliqued, by higher, to their own and the public good will continue to do so.

We prefer being judged by our efforts, rather than by a glittering array of buncombe promises. During the past year a large sum has been expected for new type, etc., for the Dimocral, and further improvements will be made, as our patronage warrantee.
