Hundreds of stimulants have been invented and sold purporting to be specific in the various diseases and derangements to which the delicate form of woman reader her subject. The result of all these stimulants has been to impart momentary activity to the nervous system and take vigor to the muscles; but this relief has been succeeded by a depression and prostration greater than before; and the repeated attempts of invalids to build themselves up by these false remedies, have finally ended in destroyer what little vital organization was left.—But in using "her have's Holland Bitters," you will find no such diseastous results. It is a purely vegetable compound prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Berthave. Under its inducace, every nerve and muscle receives new strength and vigor, appetite and sleep return, and finality, perfect health. See advertisement in such screening.
