THE MONTROSE DEMOCRAT. IS PUBLISHED THURSDAYS, BY A.J. Gerritson.

OFFICE ON PUBLIC AVENUE THREE POORS ABOVE SEARLE'S HOTEL.

TERMS.—$1,50 per annum in ADVANCE; otherwise $2 will be charged—and fifty cents per annum added to arreanges, at the online of the Publisher, to paydeness of collection, etc. Abvacz payment preferred. ADVERTISEMENTS will be inserted at the rate of $1 per square, of ten lines or less, for the first three weeks, and 25 cents for each additional week-pay down. Merchants, and others, who advertise by the year, will be charged at the following rates, viz.; For one syrere, or less, one year, with changes, 83

MONIBOSE DEMOCRATIONS

We Join Ourselves to no Party that Does not Carry the Flag and Keep Step to the Music of the Whole Union.

VOL. 18. }

See yonder little flower,

You've crushed beneath your tread, The sunshine and the shower

Bent on its bended head. Though bowed, it is not broken,

It rises up again—
And sheds a sweet perfume across

The hungry desert plain.

In many ways God blesses you!

You've love to cheer your heart You've strength and bracing health;

For those, full many a lordly peer

Would yield up all his wealth.

The man who ralls so much at Fate, But makes himself her slave!

Which long in dust have lain !

Wand'ring many a weary mile, By the lordly banks of Ganges— By the softly flowing Nile;

Travelers wander, seeking eve Ruins which may tales unfold Of the rude, barbaric spleudor

Of the mystic days of old.

Watch as pligtims at a strine— For a glance of those half-hidden Castled crags along the Rhine. Oer all antient lands they wander.

Ever with a new delight;

Seeking ruins which are sacred

Crumbling fane or fallen turret. Rulned mosque or minaret.

Teaches not the solemn lesson

Which we learn but to forget.

Everywhere around are scattered Ruined lives and broken hearts. Wrecks of manhood far more shattered Than these fragments of lost arts.

And we need not go to seek then

Far from our own native land.

But when eyes and hearts are heavy

Gazing on them, comes the thought.

That, though corniced aisle and column

Soon shall crumble into nought, .

Within God's most glorious land.

Samphire Gatherer's Story.*

BY ARTHUR HUME PLUNKETT.

Still these darkened human rains. All rebuilt shall one day stand, Beauteous fanes and noble structures, Clements descended.

give it in his own words:

Near us many ruins stand.

To their wonder-loving sight,

But they know not that around them,

Close at home, are rains spread,

Strange as those that glimpees give them
Of the ages that are dead.

And they watch with straining vision-

And hopes shall rise and bear rich fruit.

RUINS.

Never despair! it kills the life! And digs an early grave!—

Un! rouse ve to the work !-

Resolve to victory gain!

Over rea and over desert,

Then like the tender flower,

Be ye, O, weary man!

Deny it if you can!

MONTROSE, PA., THURSDAY, MARCH 14, 1861.

NO. 11.

BUSINESS CARDS.

WM. H. COOPER & CO., & BANKERS,-Montrose, Pa. Successors in Post, Coop. & Co. Office, Lathrops'new building, Turnpike st.

J. B. N'COLLUN. McCOLLUM & SEARLE, A TTORNEYS and Counsellors at Law, Montrose, Pa Office in Lathrops' new building, over the Bank. HENRY B. McKEAN,

A TTORNEY and Counsellor at Law, Towarda, Pa Office in the Union Block. jes 58 tf DR. E. F. WILMOT,

C RAPUATE of the Allopathic and Homeopathic Col-Clicke of Medicine.—Great Bend, Pa. Office, corner of Main at I Elizabeth ats, nearly opposite the Methodist Church. L. W. BINGHAM & D. C. ANEY,

PHYSICIANS, SURGEONS AND DENTISTS—New Millford Borough, Pa. DR. G. Z. DIMOCK,

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, --Montrosa, Pa. Office over Wilsons' Store; Lodgings at Searle's Hotel. D3. WILLIAM. W. WHEATON, ECLECTIC PHYSICIAN & SURGEON DENTIST.

MITH DR. MYRON WHEATON.

Mechanical and Surgical Deutist, receiptly of Bluehamton, N. Y. tender their professional services to all who appreciate the Reformed Practice of Physics, careful and skillful operations on Teeth; with the most scientific and approved styles of platework. Teeth extracted without pain and all work warranted.

Jackson, Jame 18th, 1889.

DR. H. SMITH & SON, SURGEON DENTISTS.—Montrose, Pa.
Somec in Lathrops' new building, over the Bank. All Deutal operations will be performed in good style and warranked.

J. C. OLMSTEAD: J. L. READ.

DRS. OLMSTEAD & READ. WOULD ANNOUNCE to the Public that they have entered into a partnership for the Practice of MEDICINE & Surgery, and are prepared to attend to all calls in the line of their profession. Office—the one formerly occupied by Dr. J. C. Oimstead, in DUNDAFF. my 73m.

DR. N. Y. LEET, Physician and Surgeon. Friendwille. Pa. Office opported to the Jackson House.

DR. LEET gives particular attention to the treatment of diseases of the East and Evr. and is confident that his knowledge of, and experience in that branch of practice will enable him to effect a cure in the anost difficult cases. For treating diseases of these organs no fee will be charged unless the patient is benefitted by the treatment.

[August 30th, 1860.

SOUTHWORTH & VADAKIN, ATANUFACTURERS AND DEALERS in Italian and American Marble for Monuments, Headstones, Tomb-Tables, Mantles, Sinks and Centre-Tables, And dealers in Marbleized plate for Mantles, Centre-Tables, &c. * Stop a few doors cast of Searle's Hotel on Turnpike steet, Montrose, Pa. 604 y*

WM. A. SNOW, JUSTICE OF THE PEACE.—Great Bend, Pa. office on Main street, opposite the Western House. api

JOHN SAUTTER, TASHIONABLE TAHOR.—Montrove, Pay Shop aver 1. N. Bullard's Grocery on Main-street. Thankful for past favors, he solicits a continuance—pledwing himself to do all work satisfactorily; Cutting done on short notice, and warranted to fit. Montrose, Pa, July 2th, 1860.—tf. P. LINES,

NASHIONABLE TAILOR.—Montrose, Rai Shop in Phenix Block, over store of Read, Watrous & Foster. All work warranted, as to fit and finish, Cutting done on short notice, in best style. Jan 200

JOHN GROVES, MASHIONABLE TAILOR,—Montrose, Pa. Shop a near the Bandist Meeting House, on Turnpike street. All orders filled promptly, in first-rate style. Cotting done on short notice, and warranted to fit.

L. B. ISBELL, DEPAIRS Clocks, Watches, and Jewdry at the A shortest notice, and on reasonable terms. All work warranted. Shop in Chandler and Jessin's store, MONTHOSE, Pa. octast WM. W. SMITH & CO.,

PROF. CHARLES MORRIS.

BARBER and Hair Dresser, Montrose, Pa. Shop in basement of Serie's Hotel, HAYDEN BROTHERS, WHOLESALE DEALERS IN YANKEE NOTIONS FANCY GOODS. NEW MILFORD, P.1.

P. E. BRUSH, M. D., HAVING NOW LOCATED PERMANENTLY, AT destruction seemed inevitable. In this into the arms of his wife." Springville.

Office at D. Lathrop's Hotel. DR. J. S. SMITH The INVENTOR, and DENTIST, I S Practicing Bental Surgery in New Millord, having I flooms in the New Millord Hotel, in a pleasant-town, of good and intelligent people. dec 20

IS THE PLACE TO BUY YOUR HARNESSES,

AND GET THE WORTH OF YOUR MONEY.

HOME-INSURANCE COMPANY, Of Nov-York.

CASH CAPITAL, ONE MILLION DOLLARS. ASSETTS 1st July 1660, £1,481,619.27. LIABILITIES, " 43,068.68.

BILLINGS STROUD, Agent.

L. of the Alloyathic and Homorpaint Colleges of Ned-tone, would return his sincere thanks to the people of Git. Bend and vicinity, for the very liberal patronage with which they have favored him, and he hopes by a strict at-testion to business to merit allowal share of the public confidence.

Great Bend, January 22d, 1861.

Dandelion Coffee. HEALTHY beverage. One pound of this Coffee will make as much as two pounds of other Coffee. For by ABEL TURRELL.

COURAGE. Keep up your courage, friend, Nor falter on the track. Look up, toil bravely on, And scorn to languish back! A true heart rarely fails to win-A will can make a way—
The darkest night will yield at last this time he kept his eyes fixed on the sky. Pressing cautiously with his feet against the chalk, his body almost at right angles with the cliff, his hands grasping the rope, or sheltering his face from showers of stone and dirt which it dislodged, he had got about a hundred feet from the top, when suddenly slipping from the eliff. Clements knew better. He tried a last of her was enough.

"On he went. To regain his footing was impossible. Father and I kept gradually lowering the rope, and with his face down under the cliff, and landed a boy, who disappeared like a flash in the rocks. to the cliff, his hands outstretched catching at each object as he passed, enveloped in a shower of chalk and stones, which he hand not the power to avoid, gasping and panting for bre th, poor Mr. Clements slided for about another hundred feet.

Hars the cliff arched invested to speak; the men rested on their oars, and the boat gently rose and sank on the waves. At last the silence-was broken; something dark was hurled down the cliff Here the cliff arched inwards, forming an as a short distance from the boat. It fell immense hollow, like yonder rock, and heavily on the rocks. 'God forgive him, swinging to and fro, and round and round, he's tossed over,' muttered one of the as it were betwixt heaven and earth, men. And so it was. The poor man on down he went. At one moment the wide the lookout was asleep near the top of the ocean met his dizzy gaze, at another, flocks of startled birds flew around his head, uttering their shrill and argry cries. Again, sir, he found himself sliding down against the side of the cliff, his flesh all torn, and his body and arms in absolute forture from the pressure of the grow. Again the pressure of the grow. Again the side of the cliff, his flesh all torn, and his body and arms in absolute forture from the pressure of the grow. Again the pressure of the grow. Again the side of the grow. Again the diffing from one of the king's cutters. from the pressure of the rope. Again in ment was to be lost, and straining every agony he made a frantic effort to gain a nerve they bore out to sea. footing, but in so doing, fistened one of the were out about two miles from his legs in a narrow opening in the rock. shore, when some of the men declared it

"Horribe, was he long thus?" "Not long, sir. Father soon discover. ter us, when they find they have lost their man may not be, in any case, surrendered as a slave?"

"It was here, sir, that Mr. Clements ed that there was no weight or pull upon priz." "Twas here, sir, that Mr. Clements descended."

"How fearful!" I exclaimed, scargely daring to look down a precipice at least six hundred feet deep.

To repeat the words that had occupied moment, he incomplete the words that had occupied moment, he nearly an hour and complete the words and notice and it was sinking for the constitution in one section, while as a slave?

And might it not be well, at the same in at ll events, and are glad of my predictive slaves, now only partially surrentime, to provide by law for the enforced time, to provide by law for the enforced text to do it, I will neither affirm nor defered, would not be surrendered at all by the other.

To repeat the words that had occupied to the was unconscious as to whether. The devils had scuttled to all the prival hour and or descention mone, section, while as a slave?

And might it not be well, at the same in at all events, and are glad of my predictive slaves, now only partially surrentime, to provide by law for the enforced text to do it, I will neither affirm nor defered, would not be surrendered at all by which guarantees that "the citizens of whether."

To repeat the words that had occupied to all the prival hour and the was unconscious as to whether. The devils had scuttled to all the prival lives and immunities of citizens in the constitution in one section, while find the surrent function in one section, while and in the same in the rope, and are glad of my prediction at all events, and are glad of my prediction to at all events, and are glad of my prediction to at all events, and are glad of my prediction to at all events, and are glad of my prediction to at all events, and are glad of my prediction to at all events, and are glad of my prediction to at all events, and are glad of my prediction to at all events, and are glad of my prediction to at all events, and are glad of my prediction to at all events, and are glad of my prediction to at all events, and are glad of my prediction to at all events, and are glad of my prediction to at all which his wife and sister were in the fre- present mattered not. He remained a few events of that dreadful night." quent habit of passing hours in a little bay moments motionless on the rock. His or inlet near the house. He hastened name was again called, it sounded from all their offers, Clements insisted upon descending the cliff in the hope of placing ing upward toward the back, and partly wife. You can imagine better that I can his wife upon some rock or spot where filled with weeds, stones and sand. Here, describe, what must have been their feelthe might remain in safety till the arrival Mrs. Clements and her sister had been ings in such a place and at such a time. driven to take refuge from the rising tide. Good evening, sir." Thus far had the samphire gatherer got They had landed from the boat on the Lincoln's Inaugural Address, in his story, which he was relating to may rocks, at some distance below the cave, in Lincoln's Inaugural Address. AT SIMITES:

as I was strolling along the ciffs, when the hope of finding an outlet or pathway by which they could escape up the cliff.

NEW MILFORD, PA, and pointed to the spot where Mr. After a long and hopeless search, they be the Government itself, I appear before its organic law for its own itermination.

The THE PI ACE TO BILL VOLD.

Clements descended. Well, sir, when we found we could had just time to climb into the cavern on the execution of his office. not persuade him to let-one of us go down over the fallen rocks under the arch, when in his place, father, as usual, secured a the water, sweeping in closed up all en- for me to discuss those matters of admin- States be not a government proper, but crow-bar into the earth, a few feet from trance to any but a swimmer. Although istration about which there is no special an association of States in the nature of a the edge of the cliff, and then twining the the tide was fast rising, the ladies cheered rope once round it, so as to give us the each other with the hope that they should steadier hold on Mr. Clements, fastened escape. Fortunately the darkness at the it under his arms. We then made him back of the cavern was sufficient to prechange his cont, for one of our frocks, such vent their discovering how high up the

as you see the common people wear in water generally rose, these parts, and taught him how to put "As you might imagine, Mr. Clements their property and their peace and both feet against the side of the cliff—as was sometime before he recovered his These has payer been any reason. both feet against the side of the cliff—as was sometime before he recovered his twere thus, and made him take the rope senses. His wife was kneeling beside between his hands just above the knot, him, chafing his brow, when her sister the most ample evidence to the contrary firmed by the history of the Union itself. and told him to lean out from the rock as started up, calling their attention to the far as he could, and to work downwards rope by which he had descended. We bottom, wait for a quarter of an hour; and rising, till at last the waves broke at if at the end of that time I give no signal their feet, and each instant threatened for you to pull me up, you will know that their destruction. The ladies were all haste you can, and get a beat from — I am ready now, said he in a faint voice, I am ready now, said he in a faint voice, where it is washed by the salt-mater. It is ushed for picking.

The there are the reaction of the States to compose a new the set among the States to compose a new t fear. Never was a man so frightened as he was at that moment. Well, sir, father he was at that moment. Well, sir, father and those who were in her were silent as is essential to that balance of power on to circumstances. he was at that moment. Well, sir, father and those who were in her were shell as it cargo of a french smuggler, lying a few miles off, political fabric depend. And we denounce that her crew, assisted by some fisher, the lawless invasion, by an armed force, sight of him.

It was part of the cargo of which the perfection and endurence of our the UNION UNBROKEN AND THE LAWS TO the cliff. Down he went. We soon lost that her crew, assisted by some fisher, the lawless invasion, by an armed force, men, were about to land, and they had of the soil of any State or Territory, no Constitution and laws, the Union is un-"Working with his feet, as father told taken shelter in the cavern, having been matter under what pretext, as among the him, we slowly supplied out the rope as alarmed at the approach of a boat up the gravest of crimes." he required it, he moved safely down for coast. Fortunate it was that Mr. Clem. PROTECTION FOR ALL THE STATES. a bit, then he rested on a jeting rock. All ents prevented the ladies from calling out ers of stone and dirt which it dislodged, he had got about a hundred feet from the top, when suddenly slipping from the cliff, his face and chest were swung violently and, dangerous chance, but it was his against it. He endeavored to gain his only one; while the men had their heads en to all the States when lawfully demandfooting against the rock, and in doing so to the opening at the cavern, watching broke through a resolution which he had the boat pass the sight of which had formed, and looked beneath him. It was driven them into it, he lifted the ladies a rare sight that, for the first time. Well gently into the end of the bont. They do I remember how my head swam as I couldn't hear them for the noise of the looked at the water far, far below, and the waves; there was plenty of room for them, waves which one could see and not hear and he drew a sail over them, and was as they broke over the shingles. Pres- just stepping in himself when one of the ence of mind, on which Mr. Clements had men turned and he had only time to conso vannted himself; where was it then? ceal himself under the bows of the boat; He was about to pull the rope, but he before she was again moving silently out thought of his poor wife, and one thought of the cave with, as her crew little sus-

Vain was the struggle to release it, sir, was a lost job, and that they could go no Mr. Clements was either too weak and further Mrs. Clements was quite sensefaint, or the limb too firmly secured in less with cold and exhaustion, but her the rock. All his efforts were useless, sister listened eagerly to what the men and I shudder at the bare recollection said. They had some angry words, but while I tell it, we continued to supply the meaning of their conversation she did the rope! Hanging by his leg, head downwards, there he lay, the cormorants flit astern of the larger one, which they drew ing round him, and joining him in his to it, and entered one by one, the last man frightful shricks." calling out, as he stepped in, 'Now then, boys, pull for your lives, they'll make at dence to be introduced, so that a free they left him in the cave?" home only to have all doubts removed as to their identity, and hurrying back to the spot where he first observed them, he made an effort to swim; found that he found to his extreme terror, that the boat had more strength than he thought; swam forward through the darkness up the cavity the light of Mrs. Clements and that the period, fifteen different and greatly mind is so constituted that no party, can the life of Mrs. Clements and that Retinguished citizens have, in succession, reach to the audacity of doing this. Think "He held on to the boat for a few min-

"And his sister?"

"The ladies were both there, sir. The cavern was about fifty feet in depth, slop. the cavern where Mr. Clements found his thought themselves of the bont, and to you to address you briefly, and to take, Following his example, and taking a their extreme terror, found that it had in your presence, the oath prescribed by press provisions of our National Constituseat on the grass, he continued his tale, been carried away by the rising tide, the Constitution of the United States to be tion, and the Union will endure forever, which now partly covered the rocks. They taken by the President before he enters it being impossible to destroy it, except had just time to climb into the cavern on the execution of his office. I do not consider it necessary at present strument itself. Again, if the United > anxiety or excitement. UNREASONABLE APPREHENSION. Apprehension seems to exist among the made it? One party to the contract may people of the Southern States, that by the violate it, break it, so to speak, but does accesssion of a Republican administration, their property and their peace and per-

I now reiterate these sentiments, and in the Unic doing so I only press upon the public at-States.

ed, for whatever cause, as cheerfully to one section as to another.

FUGITIVES FROM SERVICE.

whom such service or labor may be due." It is scarcely questioned that this pro-vision was intended by those who made it for the reclaiming of what we call fu-gitive slaves, and the intention of the law giver is the law. All members of Congress swear their support to the whole Constitution—to this provision as much as to any other. To the proposition, then, that slaves, whose cases come within the terms of this clause, and "shall be delivered up, their oaths are unanimous. Now if they would make the effort in good temper, could they not, with nearly equal unanimity, frame and pass a law by means of which to keep good that

If the slave is to be surrendered, it can be of little consequence to him or to others by Government can give them. which authority it is done. And should

IMMUNITIES OF CITIZENS. Again In any law upon this subject, ought not all the safeguards of liberty

"What became of Mr. Clements when any of them, trusting to find impunity in All profess to be content in the Union, if factory after separating than before? Can baving them held to be unconstitutional. all constitutional rights can be maintained.

I shall continue to execute all the excontract merely, can it be peaceably unmade by less than all the parties who it not require all to lawfully reseind it? SECESSION ILLEGAL.

The sun had set, and they always make a horrible screeching if you go down the Cooking. Partor, Office and Shop purposes; for Wood; cliff after they are gone to roost; and that of the most favorable terms for Cash, are properly to the most favorable terms for Cash, are properly to ple of pulls and we'd pull him up directly.

New Millord, oct. 23th, 1800

The sun had set, and they always make a horrible screeching if you go down the an horrible screeching if you go down the shall have boats here soon—we are safe—where it exists. I believe I have no law, where it exists. I believe I have no law, where it exists. I believe I have no law, where it exists. I believe I have no law, while the exists. I believe I have no law, where it exists. I believe I have no law, where it exists. I believe I have no law, where it exists. I believe I have no law, where it exists. I believe I have no law, where it exists. I believe I have no law, where it exists. I believe I have no law, where it exists. I believe I have no law, where it exists. I believe I have no law, where it exists. I believe I have no law, where it exists. I believe I have no law, where it exists. I believe I have no law, where it exists. I believe I have no law, where it exists. I believe I have no law, where it exists. I believe I have no law, where it exists. I believe I have no law, where it exists.

and his teeth all the while chattering with not hear her until she was within the cave, and control its own domestic institutions, the authority of the United States, are in- and limitations, and always changing easi-

THE UNION UNBROKEN AND THE LAVE TO

THE UNION UNBROKEN AND THE LAVE TO

BE ENPORCED.

Therefore consider that, in view of the Constitution and laws, the Union is unbroken, and, to the extent of my ability, as a permanent arrangement, is wholly inadmissible, so that, rejecting the majority pressly enjoins on me, that the laws of the Union be faithfully executed in all the States.

ry. I trust this will not be regarded as a menace, but only as the declared purpose of the Union, that I will constitutionally defend and maintain it. In doing this There is much controversy about the there need be no bloodshed or violence, delivery of fugitives from service or labor. and there shall be none, unless it be forc-The clause I now read is as plainly written in the Constitution as any other of its pro-

"No person held to service or labor in one State under the laws thereof, escaping and to collect the duties on imports; but into another, shall, in consequence of any law or regulation therein be discharged from such service or labor, but shall be delivered up on claim of the party to whom such service or labor may be discharged of force against or among the people any whom such service or labor may be due? NO OFFICERS TO BE FORCED UTON HOSTLE shall be so great and so universal as to hands of that eminent tribunal. these offices, the attempt to do so would be so irritating and so nearly unfeasable withal, that I deem it better to forego for a time the uses of such offices. MAILS TO BE CONTINUED.

that difference is not a very material one.

The mails, unless repelled, will continue to be extended.—

The mails, unless repelled, will continue wrong and ought not to be extended.—

The mails, unless repelled, will continue wrong and ought not to be extended.—

The mails, unless repelled, will continue wrong and ought not to be extended.—

This is the only substantial dispute.

The fugitive slave clause of the Constitution, and the law for the suppression of the foreign slave trade, are each as well and the law for the suppression of the foreign slave trade, are each as well and the law for the suppression of the foreign slave trade, are each as well and the law for the suppression of the foreign slave trade, are each as well and the law for the suppression of the foreign slave trade, are each as well and the law for the suppression of the foreign slave trade, are each as well and the law for the suppression of the foreign slave trade, are each as well and the law for the suppression of the foreign slave trade, are each as well and the law for the suppression of the foreign slave trade, are each as well and the law for the suppression of the foreign slave trade, are each as well and the law for the suppression of the foreign slave trade, are each as well and the law for the suppression of the foreign slave trade, are each as well and the law for the suppression of the foreign slave trade, are each as well and the law for the suppression of the foreign slave trade, are each as well and the law for the suppression of the foreign slave trade, are each as well and the law for the suppression of the foreign slave trade, are each as well and the law for the suppression of the foreign slave trade, are each as well and the law for the suppression of the foreign slave trade, are each as well and the law for the suppression of the foreign slave trade, are each as well and the law for the suppression of the foreign slave trade, are each as well and the law for the suppression of the foreign slave trade, are each as wel The course here indicated will be fulany one, in any case, be content that his lowed, unless current events and experiitself. The great body of the people abide oath shall go unkept, on a merely unsub- ence shall show a modification or change stantial controversy as to how it shall be to be proper; and in every case and exi-kept? existing, and with a view and a hope of a peaceful solution of the national troubles. known in civilized and humane jurispru- and the restoration of fraternal sympathics and affections. That there are persons, in one section or another, who seeks to destroy the Un- without restriction in one, section, while nearly an hour, and omitting the numer- or he was ascending or descending, until and it was sinking fast. She said one ileges and immunities of citizens in the To those, however, who really love the WM. W. SMITHAC CO.

CARRET AND GIAIR MANUFACTURES, Floor on Substitution of Mais street, Montroys, Par.

C. O. FORDHAM,

MENUFACTURES of Date of Mais and the Construction of Mais and the Constitution of Mais and the Construction of Mais and the Con shore, strongly resembling the one in feet of water; the depth-around for the before Mrs. Clements recovered from the conform to, and abide by, all those acts the unreal ones you fly from? Will you which stand unrepealed, than to violate risk the commission of so fearful a mistake?

> It is searcely seventy-two years since Is it true, then, that any right plainly laws among friends? Suppose you go to found to his extreme terror, that the boat had been deserted by its occupants, who forward through the darkness up the cave had been seen wandering on the rocks ern—he struggled—sank—rose again—save the life of Mrs. Clements and that administered the Executive branch of the sister.
>
> In the track of the larger vessel in time to resemble the struggled—sank—rose again—save the life of Mrs. Clements and that distinguished citizens have, in succession, reach to the andacity of doing this. Think if you can of a single instance in which a distinguished citizens have, in succession, reach to the andacity of doing this. Think if you can, of a single instance in which a distinguished citizens have, in succession, reach to the andacity of doing this. Think administered the Executive branch of the Executive branch of the Sovernment. They have conducted it from their impending danger was impossible. The tide was rising fast, and their forward—recled and—and—fell exhausted destruction seemed inevitable. In this enter through many perils, and generally written provision of the Constitutional right, it might; in a moral deprive a minority of any clearly written provision of the exhausted into the arms of his wife.
>
> This country, with its institutions, belongs to the people who inhabit it. When-added, as he turned away on liss path, "one of these days, when you are strolling on the rocks below, sir, you will look at that periol, fifteen different and greatly mind is so constituted that no party, can distinguished citizens have, in succession, reach to the andacity of doing this. Think administered the Executive branch of the Executive branch of the Executive branch of the made one more effort—felt the sand, the same plainly written provision of the Constitutions, belongs to the people who inhabit it. When-added, as he turned away on liss path, "one of these days, when you are strolling of the same plainly written provision of the Constitutions, belongs to the people who inhabit it. When-added, as he turned away on liss path, "o der great and peculiar difficulty. A dispoint of view, justify a revolution. It revolutionary right to dismember or overonly menaced, is now formidably attempt- tal one. But such is not our case. All AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION—THE ed. I hold that in contemplation of the the vital rights of minorities and of indiuniversal law and of the Constitution, the viduals are so plainly assured to them by Union of these States is perpetual. Per- affirmation and negations, guarantees and petuity is implied, if not expressed, in the prohibitions in the Constitution, that confundamental laws of all National Govern- troversies never arise concerning them. CONTROVERSIES ON THE CONSTITUTION.

But no organic law can be framed with administration. No President can anticipate; nor any document of reasonable and I should, under existing circumstanlength contain, express provisions for all ces, favor rather than oppose, a fair oppor-

MAJORITIES AND MINORITIES.

If the minority will not acquiesce, the majority must, or the Government must. I understand a proposed amendment to cease. There is no other alternative for the Constitution—which amendment howcontinuing the Government but acquise, ever, I have not seen-has passed Con-arbitrarily secde again, precisely as portions of the present Union now claim to irrevocable.

secede from it? All who cherish distanton rowns of the executive. sentiments are now being educated to the exact temper of doing this.

Is there such a perfect identity of inter-

Job Printing of All Rieds. DONE AT THE OFFICE OF THE DIMOCRAT, BEATLY AND PROMPTLY

AND AT "LIVE AND LET LIVE" PRICES. THE office of the Montrose Democrat has recently been supplied with a new and choice variety of type, etc., and we are now prepared to print pamphlets circulars, etc., stc., in the best style, on short notice.

Handbills, Posters, Programmes, and Business, Wedding, and Ball CARDS Justices' and Constables' Blanks, Notes

Deeds, and all other Blanks, on hand, or printed to order Job work and Blanks, to be paid for on delivery.

DECISIONS OF THE SUPREME COURT. I do not forget the position assumed Doing this I deemed to be only a sim.

Doing this I deemed to be only a sim.

ple duty on my part, and I shall perform to be decided by the Supreme Court.—

Nor do I deny that such decisions must it so far as practicable, unless my rightful be binding in any case, upon the parties masters, the American people, shall with hold the requisite means, or in some other authoritative manner, direct the contracases by all other Departments of the Government. And while it is obviously possible that such decisions may be erroneous in anygiven case, still the evil effect following it being limited to that particular case, with the chance that it may be overruled, and never become a precedent for those cases, can be better borne than could the evils of a different practice. At the same time, the candid citizens must NO OFFICERS TO BE FORGED UTON BY SECTIONS.

Where hostility in any interior locality shall be so great and so universal to select the proper than the people will have ceased to be their own rulers, having to that extent practically resigned their government into the prevent competent resident citizens from Nor is there in this view any assault holding Federal offices, there will be no upon the Court or the Judges. It is a attempt to force obnoxious strangers duty from which they may not shrink to among the people for that object. While to decide cases properly brought before the strict legal right may exist in the them, and it is no fault of their if others. Government to enforce the exercise of seek to turn their decisions to political purposes.

SLAVERY THE SUBSTANTIAL DISPUTE. One section of our country believes that slavery is right and ought to be ex-tended, while the other believes that it is thought and reflection on the part of the enforced, perhaps, as any law ever can be in a community where the moral sense of by the dry legal obligation in both cases. and a few break over in each, This, I think, cannot be perfectly cured, and it ed according to circumstances actually would be worse in both cases after the separation of the sections than before.

RESULTS UNDER SECESSION. The foreign slave trade, now imperfectly suppressed, would be ultimately revived:

we cannot remove our respective sections

Is it possible, then, to make that intercourse more advantageous or more satisaliens make treaties easier than friends can make laws? Can treaties be more war, you cannot fight always, and when throw it.

PEOPLE'S RIGHTS. I cannot be ignorant of the fact that many worthy and patriotic citizens are desirons of having the National Constitution amended.

While I make no recommendations of amendments, I fully recognize the rightful a provision specifically applicable to every authority of the people over the whole question which may occur in the practical subject, to be exercised in either of the possible questions. tunity being afforded the people to act Shall fugitives from labor be surrender. upon it. I will venture to add, that to ed by national or State authority? The me the Convention mode seems preferable, Constitution does not expressly say May inasmuch as it allows the amendment to Congress prohibit slavery in the Territo- originate with the people themselves, in-ries? The Constitution does not express stead of permitting them to take or reject ly say. From questions of this class a proposition originated by others not espring all our Constitutional controversies, pecially chosen for the purpose, and which and we divide upon them into majorities. might not be precisely such as they wo'd not wish to either accept or refuse. THE LAW OF MARCH FOURTH.

and told him to lean out from the rock as far as he could, and to work downwards with his feet, and look up, and keep a look-out for stones and rubbish which he had descended. We were pulling it up, and he shook his head look-out for stones and rubbish who now the rope might dislodge. We told him all this, sir, and bade him not be frightened at the birds, as they would not hurt him —the sun had set, and they always make a norrible screeching if you go down the official fafter they are gone to roost; and that well knew that the birds after they are gone to roost; and that well knew that the rope might dislodge. We told him as it disappeared over the edge of the their inspection. It is found in nearly all tuition; it was formed up part up to ticles of Association in 1773.

It is found in nearly all tuition; it was formed up part up to ticles of Association in 1774.

It was matured and continued by the dept which in turn, will divide and ruin the published speeches of him who now it cless of Association in 1775.

It was matured and continued by the Declaration of Independence in 1776. It was matured and continued by the pose, directly or indirectly, to interfere when the sun had set, and they always make a normal set. It matters not, he said, they always make a precent of the purpose in 1776. It was matured and continued by the pose, directly or indirectly, to interfere when the intentition of slavery in the States where it exists. I believe I have no law the intentition of slavery in the States where it exists. I believe I have no law the intention of the present Union now claim, to their inspection. It is found in nearly all tuition; it was formed up part of their inspection. It is found in nearly all tuition; it was formed up part of their inspection. It is found in nearly all tuition; it was formed up part of their inspection. It is found in nearly all tuition; it was formed up part of their inspection. It is found i

The Chief Magistrate derives all his authority from the people, and they have conferred none upon him to fix terms for the separation of the States. The people themselves can do this also if they choose,