THE MONTROSE DEMOCRAT. 1 2-12" A telegram from Chicago states TERMS $1:50 PER ANNUM, IN ADVANCE.

A. J. GERRITSON. EDITOR, PUBLISHER, AND PROPRIETOR, some days past

MONTEDSE THURSDAY, JUNE 8; 1861.

THE UNION. THE CONSTITUTION AND ALL THR LAWS.

-A second engagement has been had ticulärs next week.

Forem or July .- It is about time that arrangements were commenced for a good old fashioned celebration of "The Fourth" patriotic address, beautifully spiced with a glowing tribute to our glorious Union, and an appropriate and well-timed appeal to all to cherish the Union sentiment in their hearts. All true Union people were highly pleased with the tone of the sew as they should have been) were offenthe next issue of the Montrose Republican contained a low-minded article, abusing him for making a "Union" speech in Montrose. If we could have as good a Union speech here this year, it would be quite as well received and far more fully appredisted and we venture to predict that even the most rampant sectionalist would so far respect the true patriotic sentiment of the country as to refrain from expressions of disapproval.

Let the American Fourth of July be now bet the American Fourth of July be now peake, somewhat over eighty thousand properly celebrated by the People, every men. Of these from five to six thousand where: for if now is not the time to do are at Cairo, about ten thousand at Cinso, heartily, when is it? The threatened connati, and the remainder say sixty-five danger of losing the benefits of the work of July 4th, 1776, is now upon us, and to rebel lines in Virginia. As the forces fail in rendering the due homage of pa-which compose this latter body are the triots, would exhibit an absence of the objects of most immediate interest in this fire of patriotism, which, though in times vicinity, we propose to take a glance at of peace and harmony, has necessarily slumbered, has not by any means become dierly skill-with which the grand old con-

Then All Hail the Fourth of July!

We learn that a Union Pole and large assemblage of the people of the vicinity, accompanied by cheering, firing of

The Governor has appointed Hon. thorough investigation may be had, and that the heavy hand of justice may fall , upon the thrice guilty robbers, be they and so posted as to concentrate either it is those who rob their country's volunteers. But because we will unsparingly Montrose by the organ that is supposed to represent the administration view of the matter.

Mr. Abbott, late a Philadelphia Mem- In Baltimore and at Fort McHenry, there but now honored, resting place, in the ose of overthowing its whole constitution ber of the Legislature has been added to are five full regiments and a battalion of heart of the Empire State! The light, al authority. the Committee. Mr. Haywood had pre-volunteers and a battalion of regulars, in viously been requested to report wherein the troops needed relief, and in a telegram village of Hampton and the point on and the Fifth Regiment, Col. McDowell, are suffering badly. Their blouses and pants are of all colors, made of damaged goods of inferior quality, mostly of 'shod-dy,' and some of Kentucky Jean.' The blankets are of the quality of ice blankets, not fit for horses. The shoes are of wretched material. The heels come off, and they triotic motto "The Union, the Constituare constantly ripping. Many are almost is that their appearance was so bad, that talks about us in the following rapturous General Mansfield said they were not fit style of panegyric:to take to the field."

We were willing (and so expected) that the administration should remove and submit to his violation of the Constievery office-holder who did not give it his tution, proves that they never were the ed field, or the field of Barracks, where vote; but we are disgusted to hear the safe repositories of freedom. A people the enemy is miserable and unhealthy food, cry of "no party" raised by a party, in who were once free and surrendered their and garments which the winds of Heaven time of war, and to hear promises made that "no removals are to be made for political reasons," when a directly contrary aging friends, if the parties-politicallyare not driven further apart; for not conhave abated much. The women and chil. the Government out of large sums, for course of abuse, threats, and, in many casshores of Maryland. Freedom of speech patriots, not Christians, thus prey upon them, towards men whose whole lives are a good pattern of patriotism for the newly-established standards of public sentiment. The great mass of honest men in nal conservative to a fault, takes strong would be a new drill, not found in Harthe Republican party are innocent of any grounds as to the right of the President intent to do wrong to their fellow citizons, but the presses and the men who endeavor to give tone to public sentiment, oughly, and demonstrates beyond cavil would establish a tyranny over men's that Mr. Jefferson exercised the right Railroad. It is rumored that the transminds, to which Old John Adam's Sedi. of a suspension on the mere ground of an portation of goods South by this ront will tion law was but an initiatory step, and both in Florida and in New Orleans, ex- of Southerners for the North by railroad with which the "Reign of Terror" could ercised the same powers, and in the case through Louisville is unprecedented, and sessee compete. But thanks to the good of the Whisky Insurrection the same is partly attributed to the stoppage of the work of our Patriot Fathers we have a thing was done. But the existing state boats on the Mississippi river. Constitution, able not only to preserve of affairs affords a justification infinitely mored that if the trade over the Nashville itself, but also the liberties of its adherman. rents. The sooner that newly-fielded "patriots" discover this, the better for Lieutenant Slemmer and his original have determined to permit no, aggression any longer in connection with your adthemselves and the peace of the country command from Fort Pickens have arrived from any quarter. The Memphis Bulletin ministration.

perity it will deserve. Harper is not to

-Knickerbocker and Peterson have not been received.

GIBSON AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY .- The Gibson Agricultural Society will meet at ! here, as well as elsewhere. Americans the Academy building on Saturday, June feated, and finally entered the Senate of has long enough endured the machinations can really appreciate the day now, to an 15th, at 1 o'clock p. m., for the election of the United States when but thirty-five of a few factious rebels in your midst. extent they never have before. At the tre officers of the society for the ensuing years old. We doubt that another Amer. Armed traitors have in vain endeavored the South, it is the duty of the Govern- this city and elsewhere, we have do doubt relebration in Montrose, last year, the or year, and the transaction of other importator delivered an excellent, historical, and ant business. G. H. Wells, Pres. SETH ABEL, Sec.

In response to an inquiry in regard address; yet a malignant few (not so the War Department. But I should as soon expect to hear that the orders of the ded because the speaker did not disgrace Government were directed towards the the occasion by a partisan harangue-and overthrow of any other kind of property as of this, in negro slaves."

> Gen. Harney has since been removed. Gen. Lyon has been appointed in his stead.

Birdseye View of the Army. Under the call of the President of the United States upon the militia of the country to suppress the unlawful combinations usurping the powers of Government in the Fort Monroe, at the mouth of the Chesathousand-are concentrating with threattheir present whereabouts and movements. so that our readers may judge of the solextinguished in the hearts of all true men querer of Mexico is directing the uprisent people of the country in the work of crushing out the rebellion.

On the Virginia side of the Potomac, opposite Washington, there are seventeen and Flag were raised at Birchardville. District militia and several detachments last Saturday, June 1st. The ladies of regular cavalry and artilery, amounting had made the Flag , and due prepora- in all to about seventeen thousand mentions having been made, the patriotic This force is strongly entrenched for the defence of the Capital, and at the same house and at the very threshold of the on their part, time menaces the Manassas Gap junction very room where Washington once slept, Now that we "raising," took place in presence of a defence of the Capital, and at the same with the Orange and Alexandria railroad and is now ringing from mountain to upon you to fly to arms and support the an important point as its capture cuts valley, through the risen North! Ells- General Government; sever the conneccinity, accompanied by cheering, firing of —an important point, as its capture cuts valley, through the Tisen North! Ells General Government; sever the connections, and address was delivered by off the Harper's Ferry rebels from the worth has fallen—the young, accomplishtion that binds you to traitors; proclaim Eld. A. Virgil, of Greene, N. Y. The main bodies in the interior. In immediate ed and gallant soldier the patriot hero- to the world that the faith and loyalty so of habeas corpus nor authorize any military rue Union sentiment is universal at Union sentiment is universal at Efficient regiments of volunteers in the city cause of his country, with his unartial still preserved in Western Virginia and of Washington, augmented by fifteen huncloak around him"—with the Stars and that you remain true to the stars and dred of the District militia and a thousand. regulars. These bodies make up about and the secession flag in blood, beneath Jacob Fry, Jr., of Montgomery, and Benj. sixteen thousand troops inside of the his feet! His blood, freely shed—among Haywood, Esq., of Schuylkill, a committee to investigate the frauds in the State supplies for Volunteers. It is hoped that a thirty-three, thousand men immediately armed men, who will come from the bloody under the eye of General Scott. Supporting this force at Washington. men high or low in public or private life. there or at Harper's Ferry, are ten regi-If there be lower depth of moral treason, ments at Chambersburg, embracing eight thousand five hundred men; and seven force, whose idolatrous allegiance to their regiments at York, Harrisburg, and on leader must be rivetted by deeds of physidenounce such double-dyed piracy, the about six thousand men; the two diviscry of "traitor" is raised against us in ions summing up fourteen theusand five and one at Parkersburg, Virginia, making together a column of twenty-five hundred. Mr. Abbott, late a Philadelphia Mem- In Baltimore and at Fort McHenry, there all some four thousand eight hundred strong. Occupying Fortress Monroe, the

> WHEW !- The Clarksville (Tenn.) Chronicle, which was a famous Union paper during the last campaign and supported Bell for President with the noble and pation, and the enforcement of the laws," is

The people of the North are, at this moment, more abject slaves than the blacks which they oboy the mandates of a tyrant, the souls of slaves.

Alexandria wears an exceedingly. course is being pursued. It will be no dull aspect-like that of a Sabbath day. tault of the Administration and its man- Many of the stores on the wharf are entent with proscription, the most infamous dren are leaving daily for the hospitable, they pay enough, will, like Hessians, not res, actual violence is being practiced by is apparently unrestricted, except when the poor and suffering Volunteers! too open and violent in the presence of

The National Intelligencer, a jourto suspend the habeas corpus. In its paper of Thursday an editorial article of change.

Senator Douglas.

volume, to which we wish the high prost ca-perhaps in the world. Entering the mand. he was a stranger and a Yankee adventue ton this morning probably. Register of a Land-Office, Secretary of State, Judge of the (State) Supreme Court, thrice elected after being once degan political life with sofew advantages- at the polls. ever held so many and such desirable stations before he had passed the meridian "I must premise by saying that I have and fertility of resource which command no special instructions on this head from the respect of antagonists and the admiration of his many devoted friends.

not earnestly pressed til 1852, when he banks, although frequently urged by received, on one ballot in the Democratic many of your prominent citizens to do National Convention, more votes than any of his competitors—92 out of 288, a concentration of the vote on Gen Frank. lin Pierce. In 1856, he was again a candidate, and on the 16th ballot received 121 votes to 168 for Mr. Buchanan, and 6 for Gen. Cass. Again the prudence of the Convention overbore its most generous considerable share of the Delegates had thirty years of political gladiatorship had religiously respected. already made a deep impression, at the ning, with its telegraph, flashes his praise, tyr's is "the seed of the Church!" his country's vengeance and triumph!-Binghamton Republican.

A Patriot Martyr.

Stripes waving in victory over his head, stripes. ground like the iron men of Cadmus.

Fraud of Army Contractors. One of the most disgraceful and disbarefoot. The report among the troops as hot as a salamander for disunion. It gusting spectacles which the present war reveals, is the dishonesty and capidity of contractors, speculators and middle men, between the Government and the poor Volunteers, who have left the comforts on a cotton farm, and the readiness with peaceful pursuits, of home, to serve their country on the field of battle; or, what is worse, and more dangerous, on the tent; liberties without a struggle, always had should not visit roughly, at the peril of their falling to pieces. Yes, the practical enemy is strong butter, half-starved or diseased meat, musty flour, stale vegetables, and blankets, and other garments, which libel the name they label. And all this tirely closed, and the Secession sentiment comes from the selfish fraud and rascality Out upon such infamous imposture! Such pirates should be tarred and feathered and rode on a rail, for the exercise and amusement of the same Volunteers. It > dee, but one very conscryative, practical and necessary .- Binghamton Republican. -Immense quantities of freight for the South are now going over the Nashville of Southerners for the North by railroad rebuke to his own party chief. Below we vance into Kentucky and take possession of the road. The Union men of Kentucky at Acquis Creek, and the rebel battery be outdone in the things that culture and ing presence, or personal following, in a about the same time, and occupy Parkersover, so many hitherto-loyal men in the loons, made of very poor material, were mainly Southern-born community to whom burg. Col. Kelly is in possession of GrafSouth. They evidently embrace rebellion paid for at the rate of $5 each, when they could have been obtained at retail for the condition of the condition of

Gen. McClellan's Proclamation.

CINCINNATI, May 25, 1861 To the Union Men of Western Virginia :

of the appointed life of man. He has dearest rights, they now seek to inaugu- return to the Union without forfeiting men who are ostentatiously and constantsince served fourteen years in the Senate, rate a reign of terror, and thus force you their rights and privileges as sovereign ly appearing before the public in the guis to the intention of the Administration to or throughout seven successive Congress to yield to their schemes and submit to States. The same Constitution that has interfere with slavery, Gen. Harney said : es, always evincing a vigor of intellect the yoke of the traitorous conspiracy, digprotected them will continue to protect ing black-mail upon the Logislature and nified by the name of the Southern Conthem. Of course, justice must have its Government contracts, not to take natu-So early, we thin k, as 1844, when bare-your magnificent railways. The General ly more than thirty years of age, Mr. Government has heretotore carefully ab-Douglas was regarded as a probable can-didate for the Presidency; but he was Ohio, or even from posting them along its ernment is fighting for nothing more than

> It determined to await the result of the A supposed party exigency finally led to State election, desirous that no one might State election, desirous that no one might abuse themselves of their fatal error—and the Government, if need be, but not our be able to say that the slightest effort had Northern men cannot be held guiltless heroic troops; be able sufferer. Give been made from this side to influence the who strive to deepen it.—Harrisburg Paour soldiers, gentlemen peculators! stout coats and warm blankets, good meat, and free expression of your opinions, although the many agencies brought to bear upon you by the secessionists were well known. You have now shown, under the most adimpulse, dictating this time the nominal verse circumstances, that the great mass tion of Mr. Buchanan. In 1860, he was a of the people of Western Virginia are ly arrested upon the charge of having third time brought forward, and now led true and loyal to that beneficent. Governon, every ballot, being at length declared ment under which we and our fathers have on the Northern Central railway, and in-> ting Vice-President Breckinridge to run work of destruction. The General Gov. against Mr. Douglas, which he did, to the ernment cannot close its ears to the do. ernment cannot close its ears to the de man and show cause why he should be cre, wilfully palm off upon the Governpertain defeat of both. Mr. Douglas had mand you have made for assistance. I detained. General Cadwallader refused ment sleezy and rotten blankets, and rusthe large popular but Mr. Breckinridge bave ordered troops to cross the river.— to appear, but sent word to the Chief Justice that he was anthorized by the Presi-The election of Mr. Lincoln had long been as enemies only to armed rebels, who are inevitable. Mr. Douglas on whose nat- preying upon you. Your homes, your writ of habeas corpus in such cases, and in urally strong constitution the excitement, families and your property are safe under the exercise of the discretionary power excessive labor and free habits for nearly our protection. All your rights shall be close of the late session went home from by the traitors to induce you to believe Washington probably to die. N. Y. our advent among you will be signalized appear and answer for contempt, which tioned in connection with there infamous ment and a fine of $75. by an interference with your slaves, understand one thing clearly; not only will serve—whereupon Judge Taney then read to stop these outrages upon our brave eral of the Commonwelth. We are in A wail of sadness, deep and long, we will on the contrary, with an iron comes up from Alexandria—from the very hand, crush any attempt at insurrection

Now that we are in your midst, I call

G. B. McCLELLAN, Major General Commanding.

Important Letter from Camero WASHINGTON, May 30, 1861. Six-Your action in respect to the neground like the iron men of Cadmus.

It may be said that Ellsworth was service of the Rebels is approved. The rash and impulsive, and sacrificed, indis- Department is sensible of the embarrasscreetly, a noble, valuable life. But he was ments which must surround officers, conthe colonel of a fighting regiment—a fiery sidering military operations in a State, by the laws of which slavery is sanctioned. The Government cannot recognize the rethe North Central Railroad, amounting to cal daring! He dared, he wrought, he jection by any State of the Federal oblifell! and his sacred remains repose in gations, nor can it refuse the performance the East Room of the White House—are of the Federal obligations resting upon ithundred. There are also moving upon wept over by the President, by all the self. Among these Federal obligations, Harper's Ferry two regiments at Gratton great ones of the land, by his comrades, however, none can be more important by the people, and are borne in triumphant that that of suppressing and dispersing state through great cities to their humble, armed combinations formed for the purp-The light: al authority.

While, therefore, you will permit no the thunders of cannon roll his eulogium. interference by the persons under your A Nation mourns over its fallen hero! command with their relations of persons the troops neededrelief, and in a telegram village of Hampton and the point on the troops need to the Governor he James River, known as Newport News, patriot soldiers, weep, and emulate and State, you will, on the other hand, so are nine regiments of volunteers and a take courage. If ye fall, ye will also be long as any State within which your mili-regiment of regulars, amounting to about mourned and honored, and the starry ban-tray operations are conducted is under Glorious life! Glorious death! Ye held to service under the laws of any regiment of regulars, amounting to about men of your country will be your immortal the control of such armed combinations, fully executed, and enforce the decrees of ers any persons who may come within blood of Ellsworth is one of the seeds of your lines. You will employ such persons in the services, to which they may be labor by them performed, of the value of it, and the expenses of their maintenance.

be reserved for future determination. SIMON CAMERON, Sec. of War. To Major-General BUTLER.

passing Acquia Creek at noon, the steam trial and execution without affording the good prospects before him and then and yet they were in error; the sugar had gun-boat Freeborn and Anacostia were opportunity for defence, to which every wound up by telling her that he didn't innot been poisoned, but the men were igthe Navy Department ordered two menof-war down to the support of Captain

Washington, and the battery is located at the people. On all sides of us, in all comthe terminus of the Richmond, Fredricks munities everywhere there are multitudes burg and Potomac Railroad. Vessels can battery. Corruption of the Administration.—

The Administration of Gov. Curtin has become so steeped in corruption and imbent of the intrinsic virtues they belaim. In control of the Attorior this state and distinct nationality of the South. cility that the stomach of the Attorney General has revolted. Rank indeed must be the rascality which would compel such be the rascality which would compel such compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, which Colds, Sore Throat, Bronches, Asthma,

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE. Harrisburg, May 24, 1861. To Andrew G. Curtin, Gov. &c.:

RESPECT, I cannot consent to continue

Restoration, Not Conquest.

that Senator Douglas died on the 3d, at this Senator Douglas at this Senator Douglas died on the 3d, at this Senator Douglas died on the 4d Douglas died on the 4 except as subjects; and inferiors. Upon ites received contracts for furnishing parts political arena poor, undistinguished, un. The Fourteenth Ohio Regiment, Col., no other reason can we account for the of uniforms at $10 cach, when responsible Schurz is revoked. He will proceed on friended, without family influence, impos- Steadman, crossed the Ohio at Marietta sudden and swift change which has come bids were put in for $7.50; that panta his mission to Spain, and not go to Fort as a painful and disagreeable necessity, could have been obtained at retail to rer, he filled, before he was thirty-five Before crossing the river, Gen. McClel-forced upon them by events against which $2.50, affording the maker a profit of years of age, the offices successively of lan issued the following proclamation:
State's Attorney General, Assemblyman, Headquarters Department of Ohio, they are loyal—desiring the restoration of rate. The journals give the names of they are loyal—desiring the restoration of rate. The journals give the names of the Union as it was before the war began, prominent politicians who are charged but deluded by the false impression that with having received handsome sums for this is impossible.

Now, in order to remove this delusion We know nothing there contracts. nd to produce a counter-revolution at facts; but from what is taking place in ican-we are sure that no other who be- to deter you from expressing your loyalty ment, of the Northern people, and the of their general correctness. Northern press, to assure the people of That there is to be a good deal of steal-laying failed in this infamous attempt the Southern States whose inclinations ing in expending the vast sums furnished to deprive you of the exercises of your are loyal, that it is possible for them to for the war, is to be expected. Some federacy. They are destroying the prop-course—treason must be punished—rally to so rich a placer as the current con-erty of citizens of your State, and ruining guilty men must suffer for their crimes; test affords. We know them and their but this is a matter which will affect indinets. So long as they live they will labor On Saturday, we are informed, one of the Government has heretotore carefully ab- viduals, and not the established rights of in their vocation. Ohio, or even from posting them along its ernment is fighting for nothing more than the restoration of things as they were before secession commenced. Southern men impression that this cannot be, should dis- money, shall be of a good quality. Let

The Case of Merryman.

John Merryman, a prominent citizen of Baltimore county, Maryland, was recentregular nominee: But meantime a lived so long.

careerated in Fort Henry. Upon applicationable share of the Delegates had. As soon as the result of the election cation to Judge Taney a writ of habeas dent of the United States to suspend the ence to the order. The Judge then di-Notwithstanding all that has been said rected a writ of attachment to issue > cause upon the face of the return the detention of the prisoner was unlawful upon two-grounds-> tion and the laws of the United States, cannot suspend the privilege of the writ officer to do so.

against the laws of the United States, except in aid of the judicial authority and the gallows. Let New York and Pennit the noble-fabric must totter to its fallsubject to its control. If the party is are sylvania traffickers, who palm off rotten there is, I humbly hope, no inexorable there is, I humbly hope, no inexorable officer to deliver him over immediate profit by the example. ly to the civil authority, to be dealt with according to law.

I forbore yesterday to state orally the provisions of the Constitution of the Unied States, which make these principles the fundamental law of the Union, cause an oral statement might be misunderstood in some portions of it, and I shall therefore put my opinion in writing and file it in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court, in the course of the week. The Judge added that the military authority was always subordinate to the civil; that under ordinary circumstances it would be the duty of the Marshal to proceed with a posse comitatus and bring the party named in the writ into Court, but from the notoriously superior force that he would encounter this would be impossible. He said the Marshal had done all in his power to discharge his duty. During the week he should prepare his opinion in the premises, and forward it to the President, calling upon him to perform his constituthis Court.

We suppose that when all the facts of this case come to the attention of the best adapted, keeping an account of the President he will not hesitate to order the surrender of Merryman to the civil author-We do not see how this can be ities. The question of their final disposition will avoided under the path to support the of thousands of these vagabond, nomadic, Constitution of the United States, Merryman's offence, it anything, is treasonand the laws define the proper mode of soon become too hot to hold them." trying and punishing that crime. Mary-Washington, May 31.—It was stated and has not revolted against the authorin despatch last night that a number of ity of the United States and the courts the Senate Chamber of the capitol, wrote among the tents of some of the Ohio a letter to his sweetheart in Ohio, but tination not publicly diclosed. The fol- is not tried and condemned by ordinary was called away before he had time to was suspected of having put poison into a. lowing despatch, received from the Navy process of law, we do not understand address the envelope; it was found by a quantity of sugar that lay exposed, where-Yards, between four and five o'clock this evening, affords an explanation.

The Keystone State reports that in lect to military government. A summary had written to his lady love about the emetic effects confirmed their suspicious; engaging the battery at that point with person charged with crime is entitled success. Shall I send the Poca hontas would be little less than murder. While with her ten-inch gun to assist." The the Government is attempting to establish the supremacy of law it should not the commandant at the Navy Yard. Im- encourage the slightest needless infraction mediately on the receipt of the despatch of the sacred obligations of the Constitution.

None but a physician knows how Acquia Creek is fifty four miles from much a reliable alterative is needed by that suffer from complaints that nothing approach within musket shot range of the but an alterative cures. Hence a great many of them have been made and put the attempted blockade of the Southern abroad with the assurance of being effecthis state of the case, Dr J. C. Aver & For reasons which appeal to my SELE- gent Physicians in the neighborhood and every where have the further evidence of our own experience of its truth. Tennessee Farmer,

SAM'L A. PUBVIANCE. been appointed Paymaster in the Army, has also been arrested, Peculating in Pennsylvania.

We know nothing personally of these

, Submitting to these peculations as a necessity, we nevertheless insist that the the restoration of things as they were be-ore secession commenced. Southern men who have drifted into rebellion under the out of which these carrion vultures make sweet bread, even though you charge the crat all his life, and proposes to die a Government twice what they are worth, and put the excess into your own pockets .- N. Y. Tribune.

Army Peculators.

In the New York Tribune of May 25, we find the following article, which we commend to our readers for their perusal and consideration:

" How anybody but fiends can, for lu who are enduring unwonted fatigue, and braving death, in defence of our country, passes comprehension. And yet that such things are done by men who furnish equipments and supplies for some of the rected a writ of attachment to issue regiments now in active service, is beyond against the General, commanding him to all doubt. We have heard names menthe United States Marshal was unable to transactions. At present we forbear to the following statement:

to stop these outrages upon our brave eral of the Commonwelth.

Tordered the attachment yesterday, betroops. Vultures that prey ubon the formed that he has accepted. hearts of the dead on the battlefield, are Several vessels improperly captured lst, the President under the Constituthe living in the camp. They must be act promptly in all future cases of a similar character.

summarily dealt with, and at the very lilar character.

summarily dealt with and at the very lilar character.

The Boston Post published a becomes chronic. Wellington's remedy would be effectual. In the Peninsula 2d, a military officer has no right to War, some poculiar Commissioners, who 2d; a military officer has no right to war, some peculiar commissioners, who arrest and detain a person not subject to made money by furnishing had provisions the rules and articles of war, for an offence to the army, were sent by him first to a terrible significance. Still, if it holds a HARD ON THE YANKERS.-If the Richmond Eraminer may be believed, the whole-country are occupied with indiggreat object of the cotton rebellion is to nant denunciations of the mole spirit in get rid of the Yankees, who are, so cordially treated by the aristocracy of the Nothing has done more to revive the De South. The paragraph below evinces mocratic zeal than these very mobs which the most bitter feeling, and some of the have tried to beat down freedom of articles which we see in Eastern papers speech and freedom of the press. show that there is no great amount of love lost between Yankee land and Cottoudom.

"All the benefits and advantages of a long war sink into insignificance when thy to be reproduced compared with the certain good that will agrarians, and anarchists; nothing to do with the thieves cut-throats, lazaroni, and pauper banditti of New York; and, best of all, nothing to do with the Yankee, party. half-nomad, half Jesuit, who infests, and distubs society, civilized and sayage, in every corner of the world. As mischievous and prolific as the Norway rat he stealthily insinuates himself into every country, and depredates on society in annually increasing geometrical ratio, because he breeds and multiplies in geometrical ratio. The South now has hundreds thievish gypsy-like Yankees within her confines; but we hope the South will tend to come home "till he had, Jeff Da norant of the number of pounds of sweets vis's heart in his breeches pocket."

Significant.—It is said that 5,000 applications have been made at the Philadelphia Custom House for inspectorships, clerks, &c. The appointments are for four years, while the volunters in the army are enlisted for only three years, which is said to be the reason given for

A VIRTUAL RECOGNITION. The New Orleans Commercial Bulletin thinks that of Departments.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. preparations in market is that it cures the and has the sanction of numerous phydiseases for which it is recommended, sicians who employ it in their practice. while they do not. We are assured of SETH W. FOWLE & Co., Proprietors, Bosthis fact by more than one of our intelli- ton. Sold by Druggists and Agents

Pratt was arrested this evening at Anna-thorough investigation to hold up to the for the old, tried, and true friends of this labor and same index on the 20th instant to take command of the Speaker of the Pennsylvania Sounds for the Old, tried, and true friends of the Speaker of the Pennsylvania Sounds for the Old, tried and true friends of the Old, tried, and Aorth. They are wornout with the long amounters the arrival of General of the office of Attorney General of the Pennsylvania Senate, has is also rumored that Ex-Governor Lowe trust, and so faithless to justicipablic du Abstract of News.

-The ship Abeelin from Boston has been seized by the Southern authorities at New Orleans.

-Mr. Richard Harrison, has been elec ted to fill Mr. Corwin's vacancy in the Seventh Congressional District of Ohio. -Ex-Governor Banks of Mass, has accepted the offices of Brigadier General and Quartermaster-General in the arms -The Border State Convention is to issue a general address to the people. All the members have been sworn to be faithful to the United States.

-A virtual conscription is now common at New Orleans. A Yankee, who was driven into forced enlistment there, of patriots, have too long profited by levy has written home; "Tell the boys we shall aim high and fire blank cartridges -The outrages of the speculators, are eliciting curses both loud and deep overour whole commonwealth, from all classes volunteers From Camp Johnson was shor while attempting to steal a turkey, having been driven there by insufficient and un fit food.

> Inone Maine volunteer company there are thirty-one over six feet in their stock ings. They are called the "thirty-on infants.

THE editor of the Cleveland Plaindeale. says he has been a "Hail Columbia" Demo "Yankee Doodle Dandy.

The Virginians have removed Cape Henry lights and built fires on the beach about half mile distant, to deceive cap tains, in consequence of which the Albion with 800 tons from from England to Bal timore, ran ashore -The Mobile papers say that the agent of the French Government is now in that city, collecting information for the Em

-Gen. James Watson Webb, of New York, has been appointed Envoy Extra ordinary and Minister Plempotentiary to Brazil.

-In the C. S. Circuit Court at Boston Washington Snelling of East Boston, who plead guilty to opening a letter belonging to another person, has been sentenced by Judge Sprague to twelve day's imprison

Hon. Wm. M. Meredith has been ap-human compared with monsters who fur-nish rotten blankets and rotten meat to ed to be released. The Government will

The Boston Post published a letter from ex-President Pierce, in which the following paragraph occurs:

necessity that its 'ruins be' stained with gore."

The Democratic papers of the

The following language, taken from Senator. Douglas's speech, in the Senate on the 2d of March last, is wor

"I can confirm the Senator's declara result from having nothing hereafter to do with the sensual and infidel literature himself, when on the Committee of Thirof the North; nothing to do with its teen, was ready at all times to comprom counterfeit manufactures, nor its knavish ise on the Crittenden proposition. I will trade; nothing to do with its free-loves, go further and say that Mr. Toombs was

> The Crittenden compromise was almost unanimously refused by the Republican Postmaster General Blair, has issued the following torder; "All postal service in the States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Corolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi Louisiana, Arkansas, and Texas, will he suspended from and after the 31st inst. Letters for officers temporarily closed by this order, will be forwarded to the dead etter office; except those of Western Virginia; which will be sent to Wheel.

at which the human, stoniach begins to rebel. After being confined for some time in the grand house, he was libera ted, glad to escape with his life. He will not be caught around among those Ohio men soon again.

It has been determined by the preference of service in the former over ever rank, serving in the army or navy, a diploma en parchment, or parchment paper, signed by the President and heads

THE CLOTHING FRANCES. Hon. J. W. Killinger, Rep. M. C., of Lebanon connty, publishes a card in the Courier, in which he states that his duty requires him after a visit to Washington, to expose the wrongs that have been inflicted upon the wrongs that have been innected upon the troops of Pennsylvania, He concludes his publication in the following strong but just language.—"We have reason to be proud of our officers and our men, but we have also reason to denounce our public authorities for the manner in which they have treated them. I declared to our Company, and I now repeat the BALTIMORE, May Si Ex-Governor and inhuman, and i only swait a more ties."