The Rebel Ministers.

The Rebel Ministers have really escaped. A vessel, formerly well known to travelers in Southern waters as the Gordon having been re-christened the Theodora, sailed on the 12th instant from Charleston, carrying Messrs. Mason and Slidell on board. The report in regard to the Nashville was simultaneously thrown out by the rebels as a-felut.

The Theodora touched at Cardenas.—There Messrs. Mason and Slidell landed and proceeded by railroad to Havana.—The British Consul at that port immediately made a ceremonious call on them in full uniform. He then introduced them to the Captain-General of Cuba.—They were received by that officer as a private gentleman, and with no diplomatic forms whatever. We state this on the very best authority, to anticipate any suspicion that the visit which so high a functionary permitted our Rebel Commissioners to make had any official significance.

After leaving Messrs. Mason and Slidell at Cardenas, the Theodora went round to Havana. There she took in a whole cargo of arms, ammunition, coffee, and provisions, and sailed for Charleston, expecting to run the blockade.

While in the port of Havana the Theodora was presented with a Confederate flag, worked in silk, by Southern ladies now finding refuge in Cuba. When she sailed she took with her twenty passengers to Charleston. Among them was Mr. Meade, late United States Minister to Brazil. He has been one of the most active Secessionists in the city of Havana.

The late Consul-General of the United States at Havana, Mr. Helm, of Kentucky, and a prominent man in that State, still remains in Havana, making constant application to the Captain-General for his exequatur as Consul from the Rebel States. He and Mr. Meade have vied with each other in acts of bitter hostility to the American Union.

The feeling of Northern American shipmasters, whose vessels lie in Havana harbor, has reached the extremity of indignation. They are daily insulted by having the Confederate flag flouted in their faces at the peaks of vessels purporting to arrive from Charleston, Beaufort, S.C., Mobile and New Orleans. One vessel boasts that it has run the Atlantic coast blockade, to and fro, more than a score of times. Before our informant left Havana the feeling had risen so high on the part of the American shipmasters, through the constant repetition of these affronts, that a sentiment was generally expressed that there was no intention on the part of the commanders off Charleston and Beaufort to close those ports at all.

Compromise with Rebels.

Jefferson City, Oct. 29.—[Special despatch to the St. Louis Democrat.]—Gen. Prentiss, who left St. Louis on Sunday last, to surprise and capture the Rebels at Fulton, in Calloway county, has returned and reports that before he had reached Fulton, Gen. John B. Henderson, of the State Militia, had made a compromise with the Rebels at Dyer's Mills, near Concord, by which he required the United States troops not to make any arrests if the rebels would lay down their arms and return to their homes. Gen. Prentiss acquiesced in the compromise, but on the first violation of it, will visit severe vengeance on the offenders. The rebels were four hundred strong, and Gen. Henderson's forces numbered one thousand five hundred. The proposition for the compromise came from the rebels.

Later From Europe.

St. John's, Nov. 1.—The steamship Borussia, from Liverpool on the 23d ult., bound for New York, passed Cape Race at five o'clock this morning. The advices obtained are three days later.

The Borussia has £34,000 in specie, and 188 passengers.

The London Times, in an editorial on the American blockade, again complains that it is not effectual, and reminds the Washington Government that Foreign Governments are bound to recognize only a real blockade. It reminds the people in Lancashire that the running of the blockade by the Bermuda shows that the cutting off the cotton supply is the work of the South as well as the North. It also seems quite true that all cotton exportation has been forbidden by the Rebel Government, in order that foreign nations, especially England, may be forced to take sides in the American quarrel.

The Rebel States Election.

The election for members of the Rebel Congress is to be held on the first Wednesday in November, 1861. The appointment of Electors for President and Vice President is also made on the day of the Congressional election—the first Wednesday in November. The electors are to meet in their respective States on the first Wednesday in December, 1861, and proceed to vote for President and Vice President. Congress is to assemble in regular session, at the seat of Government, on the eighteenth day of February, 1862. On the nineteenth day of February, it is provided that the President of the Senate shall open the certificates, and the votes for President and Vice President shall then be counted. The so-called President of the Rebel States must be inaugurated on the twenty-second day of February, 1862.

☞ "He smiles and sleeps. Sleep on and smile, thou little inheritor of a world scarce less young! Sleep on and smile! Thine are the hours and days when both are cheering and innocent." Who can look upon a sleeping child without feeling a pang for the sufferings to which in the course of nature it is necessarily subjected through the changes of its existence. Of these, perhaps teething is one of the most painful. But a sure and never-failing remedy is at hand when Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup is resorted to.—The proprietor has put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can say in confidence and truth of it, what has never been said of any other medicine—never has it failed in a single instance to effect a cure when timely used. This valuable preparation is well known as the prescription of one of the most experienced and skillful nurses in New England, and has been used with never failing success in thousands of cases. It relieves from pain, invigorates the stomach, and overcomes convulsions. It cures griping in the bowels and wind-colic, and is a sure remedy for dysentery and diarrhœa in children.

☞ Scurvy and Scrofulous Eruptions, will soon cover the bodies of those brave men who are fighting their country's battles. Night air, bad food, and drenching rains will make sad havoc with the strongest, therefore let every man supply himself with Houlloway's Ointment, it is a certain cure for every kind of skin disease. Only 25 cts per Pot. 215

NEWS ITEMS.

—In the town of Boxford, Essex county Mass., there is not a lawyer, a doctor, a policeman or a rumshop.

—Seldon Braynard, convicted of forging land warrants on the 19th of April last, has been pardoned by the President, in consequence of his age and other circumstances which have been brought under the consideration of the Executive.

—A larger fleet of both French and English vessels is now hanging around our southern coast than was ever seen in those waters before.

—The Regulars now in California, comprising some 3,200 have at last been ordered home.—They were scattered through the various forts and military ports on the Pacific for many miles apart.

—A gentleman from Westchester county reports that he lost three sons and two nephews in the Tammany Regiment at the battle near Leesburg.

—As the announcement of the death of General Sam Houston comes to us now through two different channels—Nashville and Galveston—both concurring as to the day on which the event took place, we incline to believe that it is true.

—The President has suspended the writ of habeas corpus for the District of Columbia.

—The N. Y. Evening Post is scolding the Administration for sending a false report of the battle of Leesburgh, and for suppressing facts—adding, in comment, "truth is the best policy." The Post says:

"The fight, upon the ascertaining of fact, turns out to be only a repetition, on a larger scale, of the battle of Great Bethel. In other words, there has been another stupendous blunder. We have always been taught that the last trap in which an experienced military man would allow himself to be caught was, an impassable river in his rear, and a superior enemy in front.

—In 1656, a man was prosecuted in London for selling coffee, just then introduced, as a nuisance and prejudice to the neighborhood.

—Speaking of the Horse Fair, the Post says that Harford has always been noted for its valuable horses—there is one Colt there worth $2,500 000.

—Senator Rice, of Minnesota, has written a letter, in reply to an interrogatory from a committee of a public meeting, strongly approving the modification by the President of Fremont's proclamation. Among other good things he says: "To this war, prosecuted for the Union, I devote all my energies and power; to a civil war, prosecuted for the abolition of slavery, I am opposed now and forever."

—Fremont's body guard is nearly as large as the American army in some of the first battles of Mexico. A correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette writing from head-quarters, says:

"General Fremont has now a body guard numbering fifteen hundred men—five hundred cavalry and one thousand infantry.

—A woman was lately convicted in Wales, England, of living with two husbands at the same time. One worked nights—and the other day times—so she had a husband all the day round.

—The editor of the Manchester (N.H) Union says a friend has sent him a pumpkin, so large that "ten men stood around it." It was very gratifying to the editor's pecuous propensities."

☞ Soldiers see to your own health, do not trust to the Army supplies; Cholera, Fever and Bowel complaint will follow your slightest indiscretion. Holloway's Pills & Ointment should be in every man's knapsack. The British and French troops use no other medicines.—Only 25 cents per Box or Pot. 216

DEATHS.

In Montrose, on Sunday, the 27th day of Oct., Nahum Newton, Esq., aged 48 years.

In Dimock, on the 28th ult., Mr. Julius Beach, in the 74th year of his age.

PASSMORE—In East Bridgewater, on the 8th ult., Norman only child of N. O. and Maryette Passmore, age eight years, four months, and eighteen days.—This is the second time that death has left them childless. A few days ago the subject of this notice was well and bid fair for long life as any of us, but 'tis evident, death had marked him for his prey. Fond parents vainly strave to defend their endeared child from advances of the dread messenger. Fervent and frequent prayers ascended to heaven in his behalf. But the sentence was past and little Norman must die. O God, what an experience is death in a happy household! How many hopes does it extinguish! How many irrepressible sighs does it awaken! It is the departing knell of innumerable joys, the realization that earth is a vale of tears. The bereaved parents yearned for consolation. Nor do they seek it in vain. Sympathising friends mourned with them. The man of sorrows was present to solace and support, and the blessed comforts, promised to all who mourn, shed his surviving influence on drooping hearts. The solemn bell announces another inmate for the mansions of silence.—The coffin containing all that remains of little Norman is let down into the dark grave; a grave dampened by tears and hallowed by prayers; a grave where affection shall plant its flowers in early spring time, and where faith shall often resort to find herself strengthened by the promise: "I am the resurrection and the life."—Little Norman sleeps now, but angels shall guard his sepulcher, and in due time, Jesus will come and wake him out of sleep. Oh! happy spirit, no danger of sinning now; thou art "safely lodged amid the ministerial choir in thy Redeemer's breast."

His spirit gone to him who gave,
His body laid beneath the sod,
But oh! how hard to own God's right,
And kiss the chastening rod.

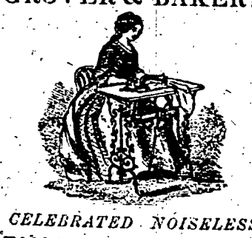
GROVER & BAKER'S



CELEBRATED NOISELESS

SEWING MACHINES,

FOR FAMILY AND MANUFACTURING USE,

495 Broadway, New-York.

Agencies in all the principal Cities and Towns in the United States.

The Grover & Baker Sewing Machine Company are now manufacturing, and have on exhibition at their different salesrooms, machines making the Shuttle or Lock Stitch, of the same patterns and at the same prices as their celebrated Grover & Baker Stitch Machines, thus affording the public the advantage of comparing the stitches of the the leading machines and exercising their own judgement as to their respective merits. This is the only company that manufactures both kinds of machines and therefore the only one that can offer this privilege to the purchaser.

"We speak from experience when we say that, after having tried all the principal sewing machines, we must accord to that of Grover & Baker the pre-eminence. Those indispensable features of sewing, strength, uniformity, and elasticity, all of which are brought out in this incomparable invention, make it the first sewing machine in the country. Others have their good points, but this combines all, and possesses every characteristic necessary to make it most desirable."—N. Y. Christian Advocate and Journal.

"MERIT VS. PRETENCE.—We perceive that the Grover & Baker Sewing Machine is every day growing more and more in favor, both for manufacturing and family purposes—but especially as adapted to all the requirements of family use. Other machines, by dint of brazen puffery and conniving with committees at annual fairs, have been thrust forward into the first place; but they are fast losing this unmerited position. The real merits of the Grover & Baker Machine, are beginning to be known in a practical way, and daily is the demand for them increasing, while the demand for heretofore better known, but inferior machines, is proportionately decreasing. So it turns out in this, as in many other instances, that 'honesty is the best policy,' and the right, in the end, comes uppermost.

"A trial of over two years enables us to say with the greatest confidence that there is no better machine for general Family use than Grover & Baker's Sewing Machine Co. It makes a beautiful elastic seam that does not rip with wear or washing, runs almost noiselessly, is plain, simple, easy to work, and not liable to get out of repair, fastens the ends of its own threads, and uses threads and silks directly from the spools on which they are bought."—N. Y. Leader.

Grover & Baker's Machines' work, in their peculiar stitch, and fabrics put together by it, may wear and drop to pieces from original weakness or hard usage, but come apart or give way at the seams they cannot; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.—N. Y. News.

"The points we conceive most necessary and important to meet the wide range of requirements in a machine for family sewing, we find more fully combined in the Grover & Baker, viz.: extent of capacity, simplicity of construction, ease of management, advantage of using thread from two spools without re-winding, strength of work, elasticity, durability and regularity of stitch, and quietness of movement. We therefore make award to the Grover & Baker."—Report of Committee of Tennessee State Fair of 1860—also of St. Louis State Fair of 1859.

(Late of 518 Market St.)
Philadelphia.

IMPORTER, MANUFACTURER and DEALER in all kinds of FANCY FURS, for Ladies Misses and Children's Wear.

Having now manufactured and in store my usual large and beautiful assortment of all the various styles and qualities of Furs, adapted to the coming Fall and Winter Seasons, I would respectfully invite an examination of my stock and prices from those intending to purchase, as I am enabled to offer them very desirable inducements.

All my Furs have been purchased for cash, and made by experienced and competent hands, and as the present monetary troubles render it necessary that I should dispose of my goods at very small advance on cost.

I am satisfied that it will be to the interest of those who design purchasing, to give me a call.

JUST Published, in a Sealed Envelope: On the nature of treatment, and radical cure of spermatorrhœa or seminal weakness, sexual debility, nervousness and involuntary emissions, producing impotency, consumption, and mental and physical debility.

By ROBT. J. CULVERWELL, M. D.

This important fact that the awful consequences of self-abuse may be effectually removed without internal medicine or the dangerous applications of caustics, instruments, medicated bougies, and other empirical devices, is here clearly demonstrated, and the entirely new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the celebrated author fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to cure himself perfectly, at the least possible cost, thereby avoiding all the advertised nostrums of the day. The lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, post paid, on receipt of two postage stamps, or address as
