CONGRESSIONAL.

Dec. 6-Senate. Mr Nesmith of Oregon, presented the or edentials of Benj. Stark, appointed Senator from Oregon, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Senator Baker.

Objections were made by Republicans, that Stark had been opposed to the war : and the matter was laid on the table. A communication from the Secretary of State was received, transmitting the correspondence in the Trent affair.

On motion of Mr. Sumner, the papers were ordered to be printed and made the special order for Thursday next. Mr. Foster of Connecticutt, reported from the Committee on the Judiciary in

Mr. Davis of Ky, introduced a joint resolution that the President procure an exchange of prisoners taken from the privateer Jeff. Davis, for prisoners taken from the army of the United States .-

Adopted.

Mr. Fessenden of Me., offered a joint resolution, authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to allow the goods, coffee and tea warehoused before, the passage of the recent act, to be withdrawn with the movement at Ball's Bluff, but that the movement at Ball's Bluff, but the movement at Ball's Bluff, but that the movement at Ball's Bluff, but that the movement at Ball's Bluff, but the movement at Ball's In the House Roscoe Conklin made a fierce speech favoring an investigation of the army disaster at Ball's Bluff. Mr. Couklin in the course of his remarks. said the Government is spending two millions of dollars a day, with over six hundred thousand men in the field. But whenever we have made an advance we have been outnumbered, and ignominiously defeated; and yet the House and the country are denied the right of knowing manity let us have security for the duture. Let us know who is responsible for the Let us know who is responsible for the disgraceful disaster of Ball's Bluff.

Crittenden, Wickliffe and others opposed inquiry because it was neither legitimate nor expedient for Congress to meddisgraceful disaster of Ball's Bluff. imate nor expedient for Congress to medadle with army operations. O. Lovejoy said we do not conquer because God was angry with us for not setting the slaves who are responsible. If we cannot have

Mr. Wickliffe called Mr. Lovejoy's attention to the resolution passed by the House in February last, declaring that neither the Federal Government, nor the people of the North have the right, or propose to interfere with, or legislate on the subject of slavery in the South. This was voted for by one Mr. Lovejoy. Are you the man? [Laughter.]
Mr. Lovejoy responded I am the man" and resuming, ask Mr. Wickliffe whether he preferred the perpetuation of slavery rather than that of the Union? Mr. Wickliffe replied that he was for preserving the Union under the Constitunot for violating the Constitution.

Mr. Wickliffe responded—I would prefer throwing the Abolitionists overboard.

Mr. Mallory of Ky, understood Hopkins by the Democrats, and Mr. Hopkins by the Democrats.

Mr. Mallory of Ky, understood Lovejoy to say that so heavily is slavery mainly occupied in the reading of the Congral Government.

Mr. Mallory of Ky, understood Hopkins by the Senate but little business was transacted, the session being mainly occupied in the reading of the General Government. Following this sary to perfect the practical business man; and Mr. debt-on November 30, 1801,831,803,210.

Mr. Mallory of Ky, understood Hopkins by the Democrats, and Mr. Hopkins by the Democrats and Mr on the South, and that the face of the inquiry was adopted-79 to 64. Jan. 7th-In the Senate Mr. Sherman's Jan. 7th—In the Senate Mr. Sherman's ing the aspirants for the position—resulting in the reflection of Mr. Rouch. The calets, was defeated by a vote of twentyfive mays to twelve yeas. The debate upen. At twelve o clock, the Deputy Secpractical turn in the remarks of Senators esmith, of Oregon, and Hale, of New Hampshire; the first of whom observed that "it would be well to emulate the examples of the First Napoleon and elevate Treasury thieves by the neck;" and the second was of the opinion that it would House.) yet be necessary to punish thieves on the Treasury by death." Mr. Hale had previously offered a resolution, which was adopted by the Senate, authorizing an inquiry into Secretary Wells' mode of purhasing vessels through his brother-in-law Mr. George D. Morgan, of New York, , bled to realize the sung little amount of is earning the good-will of the country.

predicting that we would be forced into stitutions; that the State's proportion of a war with England in less than three months, or be obliged to submit to her He recommends legislation to make the recognition of the confederate States and the forcing of the blockade.

Mr. Wright of Pa., corrected a garbled report of a speech he recently made on ber of men raised in the State for the war for three months, and nearly one hundred weeks. The Company is being raised for in saying that he had declared in favor of the extension of slavery was guilty of an unmitigated falsehood. He was willing to do all in his power to put down the Rebellion. Under the present circumstances he would have no controversy with the Administration for surrendering Mason and Slidell, for we have as much on our hands now as we can sustain. But if these men had to be surrendered, it should have been done under protect, and we land is deprecated as fraught with unfold should remember that this was a question hereafter to be settled with: England.

In the course of a colloquy between Mr. Vallandingham and Mr. Wright, the former asked the latter whether he would be in favor of a war with England if she breaks the blockade?

Mr. Wright replied that he would be in favor of war whether the blockade were broken by England or any other foreign power, for we would thereby be placed in a position from which we could not es-resolutions adopted by the Kentucky legislature; one of which denounces the testistory of the State since 1802, when the satisfaction of her quota of the State ing:

the Constitution was adopted, showing tax when it becomes due, without special The Providence of the Constitution was adopted. bellion and pledging the State to the sup- the immense increase in wealth and popultaxation for that purpose. He recom-

the murderer, to a seat as Kansas Senator,

the Senate.

whose loyalty is questiqued, to the Judic-iary Committee, was then taken up, dis-The Governor thinks the ultimate effect inry Committee, was then taken up, discussed at some length, and finally adopted by a vote of twenty eight to eleven.—
The bill organizing the signal department pation. He said that no new facts had been submitted to change the former report of the Committee, and that Mr. Stanton was entitled to a seat, instead of James II. Lane of Kansas, offered an amendment abolishing the submitted and subm nuisance and an injury the the service.-

present time. The paper was referred to Payments for ordinary expenthe Joint Committee on the Conduct of the War. A resolution was adopted directing inquiry whether any legislation is Balance in Treasury, Nov. 30, necessary to procure a decent burial place for those who have died at the Alexandria Hospital and its vicinity. A resolu- Temporary loan, April 12, 61, $475,000,00 tion calling for information as to the number of payments in the army, and how many are necessary for the service, with a view of dismissing such as are incompetent or are not required, was adopted .-In Committee of the whole, the civil apindemnity for the past, in the name of hupropriation bill was taken up, and a long discussion ensued on an amendment offergravers were charged. Finally the amendment was rejected, and was also a clause appropriating $100,000 for engraving and refu'd by U. S. printing Treasury notes. The committee then rose and the subject came before the And this am't House for action, then Mr. Stevens asked refunded by for a vote by year and nays on concurring payments &c., with the committee, saying that if the question should be determined in the affirmative, self-sespect would compel the Secretary of the Treasury to resign his Total expenses on military office. Further debate ensued; but without taking the question the House ad- Balance in Treasury on milijourned.

Pennsylvania Legislature.

This bedy met at Harrisburg on the 7th. John Rowe, Union Democrat of Franklin county, and formerly Surveyor tion, regarding its obligations. He was Gen. of the State, was chosen Speaker upon the first ballot over William Hopkins, of South if the theory of the gentleman was ed for the appointment of committees to After further debate the resolution of try the cases. An election was held for Chief Clerk—E. H. Rough, Jacob Zeigler, Dr. C. H. Hill, and E. W. Capron be retary of the Commonwealth presented the message from the Governor, which waa read by the Clerk (Of course Gen. Warner did not suc ceed in getting Mr. Hinds of Susquehan. Enlisted in other organizana County chosen messenger of the Message of the Governor of New Total now in service in the York.

ALBANY, Jap. 7. The Legislature met to-day. The Gov Infantry, twelve regiernor's message briefly reviews the pres-Mr. George D. Morgan, of New York, ent condition of the country, and says the who, it will be remembered, was thus enafinances are in a satisfactory condition.ninety odd thousand dollars in about four The balance in the treasury in September months. In these matters Senator Hale 1861, was $3,075,000, and the war tax In the House Vallandingham mase a speech against the surrender of Mason and Slidel, saying that we insolently strutted by the Federal treasury. He recommends that the military brill and tactics be inhas been reduced from $2,000,000 to $1,the Federal war-tax be assumed at once. State laws conform to those of Congress -to improve the efficiency and discipline HUNDRED AND THIRTY THOUSAND MEN, of now in the State. He recommends that the State Treasurer shall receive and disburse the volunteers' allotments to their families. He alludes to the harbor defences, urging that prompt measures to obtain congressional appropriations to provide for the coast defences are necessary at Cockeysville, Maryland, and the rest, -recommending that the State proceed at once with the works. War with Engdisasters at this time, when the States resources are so largely drawr upon to over-whelm the rebellion. He concludes with the declaration that New York will do everything to sustain the Union.

The Ohio Legislature. CLEVELAND, Jan. 7.—The Ohio Legislature was organized to-day, and the Governor's message received. The Governor congratulates the people on the prospect of a favorable termination of the present war and on the general prosperity of the State for the post word. He relates briefly and other expenses incurred by the Commonwealth for war purposes, the Governor suggests that the early repayment of them by the National Government will owned by Noah Phillips. Jan. 8th—Senator Powell presented State for the past year. He relates briefly enable the state to apply the amount to States, and to be true and loyal to the After devoting some space to affairs of State should assume her portion of the Constitution and the Union; protesting local interest, he refers to the report of direct tax; and thus, not only save improved. Alot of Secretary Chase and dissents from his fifteen per cent., but keep the subject of owned by for the control of t chons of the Constitution in regard to lo plan of establishing a mational currency taxation under her own control, so that owned by Geo. Brownell, 2d., in Bridgecal institutions, and protesting against and liable to many objections and impracticable as a measure of relief to the Government of the burdens of the war may be distributed the slaves, and expressing appropriate the burdens of the war may be distributed the slaves. bation of the President's modification of ernment. He likewise objects to the in-Fremont's proclamation.

Abolition Senators offered emancipation between people who are all willing to contribute to the resolutions, also for keeping the who are all willing to contribute to the very generally, upon the frauds committed.

This is a salutary recommendation.

The interest of A. C. Blakeslee to 30 A form of 60 acres, 50 improved.

A farm of 60 acres, 50 improved, in Silver Lake, owned by Patrick O'Harry.

owners out of it. After a discussion as to to their means, and discriminating bethe right of Stanton, or Gen. Jim Lane tween United States and State securities Referring to the military affairs, the the Senate adj.

Jan. 10.—The report of the Judiciary the President 92,000 men volunteered.—

Jan. 10.—The report of the Judiciary the President 92,000 men volunteered.—

The report of the Judiciary the President 92,000 men volunteered.— Governor states that on the first call of Committee in favor of expelling Waldo The number of men from Ohio now in the P. Johnson and Trusten Polk, Senators three years service is 77,844, of which from Missouri, who have joined the reb- number 45,085 are in active service outels, was adopted unanimously, and the side of the State. This does not include Vice President was instructed to notify citizens of Ohio who have entered military the Governor of Missouri of this action of organizations in other States, because of the want of authority to receive them in The motion to refer the credentials of Ohio. The total amount expended for Mr. Stark, the new member from Oregon, war purposes to January 1st, 1862, in-· Governor Curtin's Message.

Governor Curtin's annual Message, is abolishing the sutter system, as it was a confined to the proper business of the State Executive; is reasonably brief, and Mr. Carlile moved to recommit the bill, is free from the inflated rhetoric which with instruction to abolish sutlers and fur- the Governor has heretofore indulged in nish soldiers tobacco cations; but without If some of its general statements had been any action on the motion the subject was made specific, its style would have been deserving of warm approbation.

In the House of Representatives a let- Financially, the account of the Comter was received from the Secretary of monwealth for the year 1861 stands thus: $681,433,08 3,017,645,67

> 3,699,078,75 ses to Nov. 30, 1861, 3,144,480,84

$534,597,91 1861, Rec'ts for military purposes Loan of May 15, 1861, 2.612,150,00 Society of Cincinnati, Total receipts for military purposes, 3,087,650,00 Expendit ures for \ military $2,353,872,04 purposes.

Repaid on account of loan 375,000,00 of April 12, $2,728,872.04 Less this am't

$606,000,00

638,229,45

$2,090,642,59 accounts tary account, 997,007,41 Add balance on ordinary account, as above, 554,597,91

Aggregate balance in the Treasury, Nov. 30, 1861, $1,551,605,32 poses were negociated at par. This shows weighing upon our agmy as to render it impossible to achieve victories until slavery ry is removed out of the way. He had supposed that if slavery was a curse, the supposed that if slavery was a curse, the responsibility of the rebellion would rest many occupied in the reading of the reading of the formers of the message, there is a state ment of the financial relations of the State to the railroad and canal companies, to whom some of our canals were sold, show their College is now to well established their College is now to well established to the reputation of Lowell & Warner, and the reputatio contesting the right of Mr. Householder, ing that the Commonwealth has not yet to need any eulogy from us. The certificate of Bedford, and Mr. Buzby, of Adams, to got rid of the troubles she brought upon cates from our merchants and other busi-Almighty would be turned against the seats in that body, and to-day was select- her head when she embarked upon a boundless sea of internal improvements. With reference to the war, the State efforts are shown as follows: Volunteers now in the field: Infantry, sixty-six regiments and seven companies, 71.896 men. Cavalry, eleven regiments and six companies, 13,268 Artillery, one regiment and six companies, 2,013

tions, but not being commissioned by the State, `6,400 "

A 93,577 " Volunteers now in camp, and preparing for the field :-

ments, b Cavalry, one regiment and one company, Artillery one regiment and four companies, 1,701 - 16,038 men. Aggregate now in the field and in camp, 109,615 " To these are to be added the three months volunteers, 20,175

Grand total, So that it will be seen that Pennsylvana has contributed soldiers to the war to the enormous aggregate of nearly one

Of this grand army of Pennsylvania, two in North Carolina, two at Fortress Monroe, five and a fraction in Kentucky, two and a fraction in Western Virginia, one Washington.

The Governor speaks, with just pride of the Pennsylvania Reserves. Their organization was a measure of great prudence, and they were of vital support to the national cause at a critical hour succeeding the disaster at Bull Run. Their equipment, maintenance, &c., cost the State $855,444,87, an amount which Congress mends, however, that in any event' the

THE MONTROSE DEMOCRAT TERMS-$1:50 PER ANNUM, IN ADVANCE.

A. J. GERRITSON. EDITOR, PUBLISHER, AND PROPRIETOR MONTROSE, THURSDAY, JANUARY 16th, 1862.

PURPOSES OF THE WAR!

Congress by a vote nearly unanimous, passed the following resolution in July 1861: lowing resolution in July 1861:

That the present deplorable civil war has been forced upon the country by the disusionists of the Southern States, now in arms against the Constitutional Government, and in arms around the Capital; that in this National emergency, Congress, bantshing all feeling of mere passion or resentnient, will recollect only its duty to the whole country; that this war is not waged on their part in any spirit of oppression, or for any purpose of conquest or subjugation, or purpose of overthrowing or interfering with the rights or established institutions of those States, but to defendand maintain the supremeay of the Constitution, and to preserve the Union, with all the dignity, equality, and rights of the several States unimpaired; and that as soon as these objects are accomplished the war ought to cease.

Court commences in Montrose on Monday, January 20th, and continues two weeks. This will afford a good opportunity for everybody to pay the printer .-Those who do not come to Montrose, can send money by some neighbor-and we trust none will fail to attend to the matter. We have many hundreds of dollars due us, mostly in small sums, the payment of which will not be at all difficult for our patrons, while it will be of great service to

P.S. Our object in printing the above is to induce those indebted to us to pay up-that's all! It is no joke.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK FOR JANUARY. Our old friend Godey commences the New Year in fine style. In the literary department we find several good stories. The illustrations, on steel, consist of a pretty design by Mrs. Spencer, a neat title-page and a double plate of colored fashions.— This Magazine keeps its place bravely at the head of the list of Ladies' Books.— A prettier or more useful New-Year's gift to a lady friend than a year's subscription to Godey, cannot be selected.

Binghamton Commercial College.

Lowell & Warner, the proprietors of this well known and flourishing institutoin, have issued their catalogue for the new year. Their apartments in the new and elegant Commercial Building, in the center of business, are admirably adapted to the purpose. The Hall or study room is almost directly opposite our beautiful Court House. and the grounds soon to be improved; The six percent, loans for military pur- with no obstruction now or hereafter to a view of natural scenery of hill, valley and Mr. Lovejoy asked if the ship must be saved by the throwing overboard of a portion of the crew, which would the general portion of the crew to the first bailot over wathing the credit of the c well for the credit of the Commonwealth. river, not surpassed in the country. The ness men of the superior qualifications of their graduates, and the number of new students thronging their Hall, are their best credentials.

Binghamton is unsurpassed for its beauty and health, and the intelligence and lerrefinement of its society. In fine, the inducements for attending Lowell & War ner's Commercial College, are now unsurpassed any where in the country. The commencement of a new year is a fit time: to commence the Commercial Studies .-Binghamton Daily Republican.

On Saturday evening Mr. Warren S. Heath, of Corning, was accidentally shot near Westfield, Tioga county, Pa., and died on the next morning. The deceased in company with his brother William, on Friday morning started in a wagon for the Oil regions, and took his gun in order to hunt. About dusk they stopped to visit some relatives a, few miles south of Westfield, and Warren went to the rear of the wagon to take out the gun. He took hold of it by the muzzle, when the hammer caught and discharged the gun, the ball striking him in the arm pit and passing into the chest. He survived until Saturday morning at nine o'clock .-The decease was a son of Hiram Heath of Corning and was thirty-one years and eight months old. He was an industrious and respected citizen, and leaves a wife and four small children to mourn his doss.

More Volunteers Wanted.

R. S. Searle, having been authorized to raise a Company, by Gov. Curtin, will be have been 180,758, of which 89,034 are and ten thousand are for three years or the Pennsylvania Reserves, and will be entitled to all the privileges of them. entitled to all the privileges of them.— They will be discharged from the service regiments are at Annapolis, eight with at the same time, and are entitled to pay General banks, five in South Carolina, one and rations from the time of enlistment. and rations from the time of enlistment. R. S. Searle has served in the Pa. Reserve Volunteer Corps since the breaking out of the war, and is every way fittincluding the gallant Reserves, in or near ed for the Captaincy of a company. All who enlist under him will have the benefit of military experience.

Sheriff Green will sell, at Montrose on Saturday, the 18th:

The house and lot of John A. Stanton, on plank road, near Montrose. The faim of Enos Gardner, in Herrick -216 acres—130 improved. More of the Post lands about Montrose 111 acres of land, in Lathrop, owned-Ww Keech's farm of 83 acres in Rush. Saw mill and 30 acres of land in Lenox,

And on Friday, the 24th, the follow-The house and lot of Stillman Fuller, in The farm of Nathanial Stanton, in New Milford, containing 116 acres, with 90 water. David Van Etten's farm of 164 acres, in

A farm of 60 acres, 50 improved, in A. Lyons, G. O. Baldwin, Silver Lake, owned by Patrick O'Harry. Springville—J. H. Taylo

The Demand Treasury Notes. The bill matured by the Committee of

Ways and Means, authorizing the issue of lemand Treasury notes, provides that, for temporary purposes the Secretary be authorized to issue on the credit of the able generally without specifying any place or time of payment, and of such denominations as he may deem expedient, not On Monday last, Colonel Garfield's forwise. It is probably well less than five dollars each; and such notes and all other Treasury notes payable on demand, and bearing interest, that have been heretofore authorized to be issued. shall be receivable for all debts and de rebel encampment, when they were met mands due to the United States, and for all salaries, dues, debts and demands ow- Humphrey Marshall, asking if matters ing by the United States to individuals, corporations and associations within the United States; and shall also be lawful noney, and a legal tender in payment of all debts, public and private, and shall be exchangable in sums not less than one hundred dollars at any time at their par value at the Treasury of the United States and at the offices of the Assistant Treasury in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, St. Louis and at the depositories in Cincin-nati, for any of the six per cent, twenty vers conven bands of the devolopment of mankind and the elevat-cure of himself, the whole force scattering ion of the idack man." years coupon bonds or registered bonds. which the Secretary of the Treasuly is now or may hereafter be authorized to issue, and such Treasury notes shall be received the same as coin, at their par | value, in payment for any bonds that may be hereifter negotiated by the Secretary of the Treasury, and such Treasury note may be re-issued from time to time, as the exigencies of the public service may require. There shall be printed on the back of the Treasury notes which may be issued under the provisions of this act the following words :- " The within note is a legal tender in payment of all debts, public and private, and is exchangeable for the coupons or registered bonds of the United States, bearing six per cent! interest."

Charles J. Peterson and Mrs. Stephens .-Philadelphia: C. J. Peterson, 306 Chest-

Officers of the Montrose Fire Co., 'No. 2,' elected Jan. 6th, 1862; for the ensuing Foreman-Elijah Mott. First Assistant-A. J. Brewster. Second Assistant—A. J.-Hyde. Secretary—E. W. Smith. Treasurer—S. M. Wilson.

Pipemen-Isaac Hamlin, and E. R Wardens-F. B. Chandler, G. A. Tilden W. J. Mulford, J. D. Goodwin. Porter-David Nelson.

Donation Party. The Friends of Rev. R. Van Valkerburg will make him a Donation visit—af-ternoon and evening of Wednesday, Jan-uary 15th, 1862. By order of the Quarterly conference.

Jury List-January Term, 1862.

Montrose, Jan. 2, 1862.

 GRAND JURORS. Auburn-R. H. Carter, John C. Lacev. Apolacon - Wm. House. Ararat S. A. Reynolds.

Clifford -Jas. M. Callender, J. E. Mil-

Great Bend-Jas. Batchelor, W. Goble Gibson-J. M. Potter. Jackson-Wm. H. Bartlett, Chauncey Lamb, Evander Tucker. Liberty-Albert Truesdell. Lathrop-S. W. Tewksbury. Montrose—F. Avery. Silver Lake—Preserved Hinds. Springville—J. Smith. Thomson-Collins Gelatt.

TRAVERSE JURORS—FIRST WEEK. Apolacon—Chas. Powers.

Bridgewater-K. Bunnell, Saml. Bard, W. H. Frink, Byron Isbell, Truman Stone Clifford—Alanson Halstead.
Dimock—C. M. Bolles. Franklin-D. H. Blowers, James Peck. Friendsville-H. Cook, Oliver Heald. Forest Lake-II. R. West. Gibson-A. Clinton, John Smiley, W. W. Williams.

Great Bend-Jeremiah Hayward, L. S. Lenheim, I.-H. B. Roosa. Herrick-M. Otis Dimmick. Harford-Joseph Oakley, Harvey Sibley, D. P. Tiffany, John C. Tanner.

Jackson-Jared Barrett, H. M. Wells. Joseph Foster.

Jessup—Wm. Wheelock. Ives, Isaac Comstock, jr.

Lathrop-John Johnson, E. N. Lord, G. W. Tiffany. Montrose—J. W. Chapman, F. G. Warer, Henry Sherman. Middletown-John Conboy, 2d, Saml. Taggart, Norman Ross. New Milford-Franklin Adams.

Rush-Nathaniel Hillis, T. S. James. Springville-James Kasson, Philander trickland. Susquehanna Depot-Wm. A. Nugent, Benj. Vanskort, Win. Snedaker.

TRAVERSE JURORS—SECOND WEEK. Auburn-Z., LaFrance, John Lott, Danl Seeley.

Apolacon-P. Walsh. Ararat-N. P. Sartell. Bridgewater-Chandler Stephens, C. prout

Brooklyn-A. B. Tiffany. Clifford-J. F. Hodson, T. N. Doud. Choconut-A. Fowler. Dimock—Mason Tingley, E. F. Gilson Forest Lake—F. P. Hollister. Franklin-C. P. Messenger. Gibson-Loren G. Bennett, J.L. Gillett. Great Bend-S. M. Munson. Herrick-Shubael P. Dimmick. Harford-Orlando Wartrous. Harmony—J. Taylor. Jackson—W. S. Page, H. Wells.

Oakland-J. K. Grimes. Rush-A. B. Lung, Jas. Reading, Jas.

A. Lacey. Susquehanna Depot-T. Armstrong, D. Springville-J. H. Taylor.

WAR NEWS.

Bloodless Victory in Kentucky. United States one hundred milhons of ville Democrat, who arrived here from Sandollars of them, and bearing interest, pay- dy Valley yesterday, we learn that the ure-to-comply with which will render the > cavalry, had proceeded up the Big Sandy many years. to Paintville, within seven miles of the by a flag of truce bearing a message from could not be arranged without a fight.—Col. Garfield immediately replied, that he could offer no arrangement except either to fight or surrender unconditionally. Marshall then addressed his men, informing them that they had no alternative: except to surrender or disband, and giving them their choice. They immediately collected and set fire to all their wagons, antislavery party had hoped for and plantents, camp equipage, supplies, &c., and und disunion, because it would lead to the in confusion. No attempt was made to save anything except their cannon, which Greek has been added to the London jourwas hauled off. Col. Garfield dispatched mals. Its title is "The Messenger of the his cavalry in pursuit. They expect to Byzantine Nations, the Greeks, the Slax Northeastern Kentucky, from the high estimation in which Humphrey Marshall's military abilities were held, had strong hopes of success under his leadership. A and supposed to contain fifty dozen crape sufficient United States force will be held shawls, when opened, were found to cover in that region to secure its future peace mothing but matting and stones.

and safety. The above statement has been contradicted.

From Western Virginia.

Recent accounts from Western Virginia would seem to indicate that the rebels Peterson's Ladies' Magazine.—The are again obtaining a foothold in some January number is a gem. The principal sections since the withdrawal of Federal A mong the numerous frauds prepetatengraving, "The Little Wood Chopper," troops. Information was received from ed upon the Government, it is reported is from an original painting. Another picture, (also on steel), called "Letting in the New Year," is beautiful exceedingwas captured between Weston and Sutmillion appropriation for that purpose, and ly. The fashions, embroideries, and music are good, and a pattern for Ornamental Bracket, brilliantly printed in thirteen colors, is truly wonderful in effect and the surrounding country has for some as well as perfectly easy to work. More-time been occupied by portions of our under date 16th ult., says:- We have over, the literature is far above, the aver- troops. The rebels appear to have been nothing to hope in the event of a war, age, including, among other specialities, in small force, and after appropriating the from this side of the-channel! The Morthe commencements of new novels by most valuable part of the contents, burned rel Tariff is believed to be impoverishing the wagons and remainder of the stores. French manufactures and starving French It is also reported that a company of operatives. Union cavalry, commanded by Captain > way to Romney, when it is thought, ac- 93 tive operations will be renewed. General Kelley is very low, at Cumberland, suf-ceived at Phillippi.

Some days ago a squad of Rebel cavalry, assisted by infantry, numbering in all the General Post Office. about one hunred, made an attack on had a number wounded. a Union victory at Huntersville on Saturday. In the engagement the rebels' had eight killed and wounded, and the Union-ists suffered no less than eighty. thousand dollars' worth of rebel army stores and to record two more Union victories in Western Virginia. From Huttonsville we learn that a detachment of three hundred men, of the Thirty-second Ohio, un-Ararat—S. A. Reynolds.

Brooklyn—II. L. Bailey, A. W. Kent.
Bridgewater—II. J. Kent, Hugh McColTucker county, one of the horthwestern counties, bordering upon Maryland, and having met the robels, had dispersed JOHN BULL Throatens WAR! them, capturing two officers, a private, and a large amount of stores. At the last advices the detachment was still in pur-Harford-H. G. Blanding, D. T. Roe. suit of the fleeing advocates of treason. From Cumberland we gleam the pleasing intelligence, that vesterday morning the rebels at Blue Gap, east of Romney, had been attacked by the Fifth Ohio Regiment, under orders of the gallant Gen. Kelley, and completely routed, with a loss of fifteen killed, two pieces of cannon, with their wagons, tents, &c., and leaving also in the hands of the victors twenty prisoners. The successful achievement was rendered more satisfactory, from the fact that no one was killed on the Federal wide.

GREAT SALT LAKE, Utah, Jan. 6,-At mass meeting held in this city to-day. resolutions were passed relative to admission of this Territory into the Union as a State. Delegates were elected from this county to meet delegates from other counties on the 21th instant, to draft and adopt a constitution and form a State Government, to be submitted to the people for their acceptance or rejection. gress will be memoralized for the admission of Utah during the present session.

- Concord, N. H., January 8.-The Democratic State Convention met to day Liberty-Amos Crandall, jr., John C. and nominated George Stark for Governor. The Convention was largely attended, and resolutions were passed strongly in favor of sustaining the Union and the Constitution.

-Dead Rebels .- A gentleman in New York, recently took the trouble to add up the number of rebels killed in the valious engagements since the commencement of the war, as reported in a New York paper. The grand total amounted to 1,200,000.

News has been received at Cairo con firming the reported resignation of Gen. Pillow from the rebel army. He surend-ered his commission on the 3d instant. - Washington, Jan.9-It is hinted around in diplomatic circles, that a war with England is inevitable, as the next steamer may bring the intelligence that the British Government recognizes the Southern Confederacy. The release of Mason and Slidell will not appease the roar of the British lion.

-The Cherokee Indians, having become about equally divided on the question of loyalty and rebellion, are fighting among themselves. The loyal party—headed by John Ross, who has for so long a time been their faithful chief -recently gained two victories over the rebels.

Harmony—J. Taylor.

Jackson—W. S. Page, H. Wells.

Jessup—Edward Stewart, S. Warner.

Montrose—G. L. Stone.

New Milford—W. C. Handrick, Reuben

latch.

Oaklaud—J. K. Grimes. Portland. Jan. 11 .- The steamer Hiber-nian, with British troops, will come here first to land the mails and passengers, and then go to St. John. Secretary Seward has telegraphed permission to land her troops to be conveyed to Canada or elsewhere.

NEWS ITEMS

-The Provost Marshal General has is-CINCINNATI, Jan. 11 —The Gazette says: sued an order requiring all publishers of papers in the State of Missouri, the City of St. Louis excepted, to furnish him with

-Gen. Scott was met in Paris by his On Monday last, Colonel Garfield's for- wife. It is probably well known that ces, including the Forty-second Ohio, owing to a mutual inconipatability of Tenth Kentucky, and eighteen hundred temper, they have not lived together for

> -No person is living in the town of Belmont, Mo., where a battle was fought some time since, the stench from dead horses preventing people living within two miles of the town :- In harmony with the representative voice of Southern disunionists, is the speech of Wendell Phillips in Boston, last Tuesday evening who is the representative voice of Northern disunionists. In, that speech he declared, that 'the antislavery party bad hoped for and plan-

- A second newspaper, in modern capture the guns, and perhaps pick up onians, the Dacisms the Caucasians, and many of the flying rebels. The rebels in -John Chinaman swindled John Bull very adroitly in a recent importation of shawls. Four cases shipped from China,

-The St. Louis Democrat says payments in the Department of Missouri Since April 23d, amount to eighteen millions and fifty two thousand dollars; seventeen millions of which have been paid since the 1st of July,. -The following reaches us from Washington:

Thurlow Weed, writing from Paris

-Veteran .- David Stafford, said to be Rowan, was recently captured at Sutton, the last survivor of the 'Wyoning Masand the town burned by the Rebels. sacre,' still resides near Fenner Corners. General Rosecrans is reported on his Madison county, New York. His age is

-W. N. Jenks .- Some time ago announced this gentleman as having refering severely from the wound he re- ceived an appointment as Land Agent in Nebraska. It was a mistake. He has been appointed to a $ 1200 clerkship in

-The rebels report that they have over Greenland, Va., but were driven off by one hundred and fifty rifled cannon mountwenty men of Captain Sholl's Union ted on the bluffs at Columbus, and that Cavalry. The rebels lost four killed and the boats which sustain the chain across ad a number wounded.

The accounts by telegraph, Jan. 6, report easily exploded.

clothing were captured and destroyed.

Jan & We this morning are challed GREAT COMMOTION DRY GOODS.

TRADE.

BUT . To the Last.

50 DOES THE FIRM OF Guttenberg, Rosenbaum, & Co.

THE CHITAIN RISE IN DOMES TICKS

AT THE STORES OF Guttenberg, Bosenbanm & Co.,

Montrose, Susq'a County, Pa., Elmira New-York, Susquehanna Depot. Pa.

OUR FALL AND WINTER STOCK

Is Complete.

We are determined not to be outdone, either in prices or qualities,—and we will endeayer to give our customers all possible satisfaction.

FURNISHING GOODS: A Great Stock contantly kept, and sold lower than the ~ Gnttenberg, Rosenbaum & Co's.

Montroso, January 1st, 1869