"Ave ave," replied Lom, and he let off right and left.

Before the smoke rolled away, Amasa jumped forward with a shout and ir haugh to show Lem that he couldn't hit a bat in broad daylight. But where was it? Bits of for here and there, and a discrable, dilapidated wreck of a hat, that looked as if all the woodpeckers in Nortolk county had stuck their bills through it several thnes, was the sad sight to greet his eyes. The sudden and instantaneous' change of his countenance told Bob who had lost the wager.

And that was the way Amasa was cured of betting.
