The Great Victory at Winchester. Rice, dated Winchester, to-day, was read pall speaker said: in the Senate this afternoon:— The Union is gone. You cannot res-

"On the morning of the 23d, my command 2000 to 8000 strong, was attacked near this place by Jackson, with eleven regiments of infantry, the Irish battalion, about 1500 cavalry, and twenty-eight pieces of artillery. After a severe fight the enemy were put in complete rout, leaving behind two pieces of cannon, four caissons, and a large number of small arms, besides about 300 prisoners. Our loss is 150 killed, 300 wounded. The enemy's loss is 500 killed and 1000 wounded.

Winehester, March, 26, P. M.-We expect to obtain a list of the killed and wounded, on both sides to night Captain A. H. Brown, of the Fourth Ohio, has been appointed Deputy Provost Marshal here: A committee of citizens, in conjunction with the Mayor and Provost Marshal, have buried all the Rebel-dead which have been brought to town. Eighty-five were buried on the battle field, and one hundred and twenty-three on the roadside between here and Strasburg.

Two hundred and thirty-five prisoners have been sent to Baltimore. Others are on their way here.

A messenger from Strasburg states that General Johnston was to have joined Jackson at Strasburg, but subsequently sent himword that he should not join him till Monday night, and their combined forces would have amounted to from twenty-five thousand to thirty thousand. The Robels were endeavoring to keep General Banks from moving to another point, but Jackson, being falsely informed that our troops had nearly all left Win-chester, hazarded his fatal advance alone. Thousands of persons are visiting the battle ground and bringing off mementoes of the terrible fight, Our pickets are six miles beyond Stras burg. Jackson was not in sight. All the fences, trees and ground along the route show the terrible effect of our artillery on the retreating enemy. General Shields arm has been reset will probably be able to resume active duties in two weeks.

TENNESSEE UNIONISTS. The Hon, Emerson Etheridge has written a letter from Nashville, stating that the Hon. Wio. H. Polk, a brother of the late President Polk. is in that city, and that the Hon, W. B. Stokes is shortly expected. They are both strong Union men, and will co-operate with G werner Johnson in putting the State Machinery into operation. STATIONED AT BEAUFORT, S. C. By looking over a map the reader will perceive that it enjoys the best marketia the Colon, and has direct cormunication, with New York and Philadelphia tuies a Cay, being only filtry-two miles from the lattice. Produce in this market beings double the price that it does in lecutions distant from the cities. In this location it can be put into the market, the same morning it is gathered, and for what the farmer sells are gets the highest price; while greenes and other articles he purchases he gets at the lowest price. In the West, what he sells brings him a pittance, but for what he buys he pays two prices. In locating here the settler has many other advantages. In locating here the settler has many other advantages in switch a few hours, by failfored, of all the great cities of New England and the Middle States. He is near his old friend-und associations.
