We Join Ourselves to no Party that Does not Carry the Flag and Keep Step to the Music of the Whole Union.

VOL. 19.

MONTROSE, PA., THURSDAY, APRIL 17, 1862.

NO. 16.

and the boards and soap brought up from

Joe and Harry washed, blistering hands and streaming forelieads testifying to their efforts. Cold water required a great deal of rubbing, and somehow the things had a yellow tinge after all, as George remarked as he wrung them out. Minnie objecting to going into the yard, rant, they changed places, and the wash-

Six o'clock saw the last shirt hanging in damp limpness over the parlor chandel ier; the handkerchief waved from the mantlepiece, and the stockings dangled

They always iron the next day, so they can dry in the night, said Harry.

After another slaughter of roaches in Susy's return! How can I describe it!

too tired to go up stairs, and forgotten afterwards; the Canterbut had a dish of FIVE REPENTANT BACHELORS.

Speech a Republican Senator.

Senator Doolittle, Republican U. S. Senator from Wisconsin, in a late speech

Let us look at the real facts, and neith-

The kitchen came pert. As we on the table:

remarks. He said:

from the bars of the Canterbury.

the kitchen:

their efforts.

BUSINESS CARDS.

WM. HUNTTING COOPER. ... HENRY DRINKER. WM. H. COOPER & CO., PARKERS.—Montrose, Pa. Successore to Post, Cooper & Co. Office, Lathrope new building, Turapike-st.

No credit given except to those of known responsibility.

MCCOLLUM & SEARLE, TTORNEYS and Counsellors at Law, Montrose, Pa HENRY B. McKEAN, TTORNEY and Connsellor at Law. Towarns, Pa. O. lige in the Union Block.

DR. E. F. WILMOT, RANUATE of the Allopathic and Homeonathic Col-leger of Medicine:—Great Bend. Pa. Office, corner of Main at I Elizabeth sts, nearly opposite the Methodist church. D & WILLIAM, W. WHEATON, Mechanical and Surgical Boutlet, recently of Binghamton, S. V. tender their professional services to all who appreciate the "Reformed Practice of Physics" careful and spillfullo certifons on Teethe with the most scientific and approved styles of platework. Teeth extracted without rain and all work warmited.

Jackson, Jane 14th, 1853. DR. H. SMITH & SON,

C1 '1GEON DENTISTS, Mantrose, Pa.

Odee in Lathrops' new building, over the Bank. All Dental operations will be performed in good style and whranted.

J. C. OLMSTEAD .... DRS. OLMSTEAD & READ. Practice of MEDICINE & Surgery,

DR. N. Y. LEET.

DR. N. 1. LE41.

Physician and Surgeon. Frienderille. Pa. Office opposite the Juckson-House.

Dr. LEET gives particular attention to the treatment the first source of the Ext and is confident that the knowledge of and experience in that branch of principle will entire the most difficult cases. For treatment is becoming the pullent is becoming the pullent is becoming the pullent is becoming the pullent is becoming the first source of the live of sweet workers. Remember, care?

**ACCULATION OF THE CAPAKIN, Said Truce." said George langhing.—

**CALATION OF THE CAPAKIN, Said Truce." said George langhing.—

**CALATION OF THE CAPAKIN.

net ye

WM. A. SNOW, 3 VISTICE OF THE PRACE ... Great Bond, Pa. Conce. on Main street, opposite the Western House. ap4 JOHN SAUTTER, ASHION ARLE TAILOR.—Montrose, Pa. Shop over I. N. Bullard's Grocery, on Main-street. The oRful for past favors, he solicits a continuance sylvicing himself to do all work satisfactorily; Cutting Joneson short notice, and warranted to his Monrose, Pa., July 2th, 1896.—4f. P. LINES.

gaysuton vible Talloit, Monrose, Pa. Shop E. in themis Block, over store of Read, Watrons & Poster. All work warranted, as to fit and finish. Cut ing done on short notice, in best ciyle. Jan 60 JOHN GROVES, y AASHION ABLE TAILOR, Montrose, Pa. Shop a near the displiet Morting House, on Turapike storet, Salvarder disagrammats, in first-rate style. Curring done on short notice, and warranted to fit. L. B. ISBELL 2 SPAIRS Clocks, Warelies, and Jewelry at the Eastwartest notice, and on reasonable terms. All work verranted. Shop in Chandler and Jessip 1997, MOSTROSE, 19. 002511

AWM. W. SMITH & CO., NUFACTUI ang tf

C O. FORDHAM, 3 74 NUFACTI REIL of BOOTS & SHOES, Nontross, 12 Pa. Shop over Tyler's store. All kinds of work rade to order, and regaining done neatly. 1e2 y ABEL TURRELL.

EALER in Brugs, Medicines Chemicals, Bresson Stuffs, Class Ware, Pathis, Olic Varraish, Wright South Stuffs, Class Ware, Pathis, Class Goods, Saweiry Portage of the World CLESS, Montrope, Pa. ang G.

HAYDEN BROTHERS, WHOLESALE DEALERS IN PANKEE NOTIONS

FANCY GOODS. NEW MILFORD, PA

P. E. BRUSH, M. D., HAVING NOW LOCATED PERMANENTLY, AT Springville. Will attend to the Julies of his profession promptly Office at 3. Lathrop's Hotel.

AT SMITE'S! NEW MILFORD, PA. IS THE PLACE TO BUY YOUR HARNESSES CHEAP FOR CASH.

AND GET THE WORTH OF YOUR MONEY.

HOME INSURANCE COMPANY, Of Now-York.

CASH CAFITAL, ONE MILLION DOLLARS. ASSETTS 15: July 1860, $1,421,819.27 13,068.68

5. Milton Smith, Ser's. Chas of Martin, President, John Metico, Asic ... A.F. Wilm, Th. Vice Inicel one door above Searle's Hotel, Montrose, Pr.

BULLINGS STROUD, Agent.

E. BURRITT 7 YAS just precived a large stock of new Stover, for § I to rging, Purloy, O'lice and Shop purposer, for Wood or Cool, with Stove Pipe, Zitle, for, His recognisers is select and destrable, and will be said Source in St. Levicable, terms, for Cush, or to Prompt Six

N. r Millard, Oct. 25th, 1960. Dandelion Coffee.

MEDICAL CARD.

TAKE NOTICE!

Mantson, Feb. fith. A. P. & L. C. KEELER DAVIDC. ANEY, M. D. I Will it of a community at New Millord. Pa. tell it of a community tight calls with which he may be arrived of the at Todds Hotel;

ABEL TURRELL

EDUCATIONAL.

ALL COMMUNICATIONS DESIGNED FOR THIS COLUMN ROULD BE ADDRESSED TO A. N. BULLARD, MONTROLE SUSQUENTARIA COUNTY, FERNA.

ECHOCL VISITING.

The school room is 'not a jail, that it

ECLECTIC LEYSICIAN & SURGEON DENTIST. Upon the teacher, not only at his home, made of having five years before attained pile of shells on the floor.

WITH DR. WIGHTON

WEST DR. WIGHTON

West and Surgical Beatlet, recently of Binghamton, often; but an occasional visit would tend Spanish mother inherited jetty hair and George's answer. that he is remembered. Then ne was or incited to newer life, greater effort, and fa.

"Say what you please," said Susy, "you be superiority." that he is remembered. Then he will be maiden who sat so demurely upon the so-that they have entered into a partnership for the er that parents are indifferent to his com"But, I maintain," cried Joe, "that me fort or success, and the school will lan- can keep house without women, but that and are prepared to attend to all calls in the line of their guish into a bitterer than prison life. Yes, women can not do so unless we assist large enough to boil about twenty pounds of the call in DCNDAFP.

OUED ANNOUNCE to the Public of the school cares for them,—or a teach- of man in the capacity of housekeeper."

One-tend, in DCNDAFP.

In 7 2017 reise, or to show any brief authority which PFor instance," said Henry, "when gatherers of honey-dew firm a thousand went out three-morning flowers that you know not of,—what truee," said George laughing.— but including dish, such as your busy business feet have long "That was my fault; but accidents will "I guess so. Put it in the oven, don't ago traden into the dust. Do not go to happen in the best regulated families," taske others glad. Go and be gladdened. "I only wish you could keep house; for constant employment during the last four nearly a half a milion children in the quite strangled you," said Susy. school room. We have clasped the hands of thousands of brother and sister, teachers. And in this work our own heart has been tendered and taught more than by all other influences of our life. The smiles Mis Susy travels." and kind words we have met shall be very dear memories ever more. 6. In all our travels, we have been refused admission into but two schools,every where else a welcome. 7. A little more than a year ago, we en," to vience friend Mr. D - s, a county school fore she could remonstrate, Harry said - on earth women did with themselves. Superintendent, and proposed a visit to a Superintendent, and proposed a visit to a Select School in the village. So, we started, anticipating a pleasant relief from the routine of the Institute. The building to "Glorious!" cried Charley, "not a petward which we were going was a little white trame, and over the door, (with the S crooked the wrong way, was a sign, something like this: "x EMINARY-1838." 8. We were unacquainted with the school and its teacher. It was agreed, therefore, between us, that we should introduce each other. Guided by the sign. suggested Joe. "When do you go, Miss (which we were ignorant enough to imwe approached the door. We knocked, Monday," said Harry.

"Monday," then! We will come, bag aigne was intended to lead strangers in;) and it was opened, but not unto us. For before having time to introduce ourselves and laggage, on Monday morning. as members of the Institute and ask per-tumble-down brick church in the country. hind, the lady's pretty traveling dress a red earthern plate, and the stalks of as-The teacher, we remember was a tobacco and the slawl of her consuland cave paragus was in the salad bowl! The ta-using red-faced, and sandy bailed old gen- alier all bespeaking travel. Seven saw ble cloth was awry, and napkins were observed that a great many panes were her mother in the country. Nine o'clock broken from the low windows. As we witnessed the meeting of the merry young waded through the tough mud we could bachelors.

buzzot vivees, and now and then a loud and of leather lungs - the driver's. what loosly, and tried to avoid the school to look like the heard of a respectable fami- and butter, and pickles, George." but some strange inflatination drew our sly, and failing most deplorably in the atweary footstops nearer, until we stood tempt, before the dismal door. We knocked, "You HEALTHY beverage. One pound of this Coffee will and londer, when the door was jetked ajar, and londer, when the door was jetked ajar.

The master was there gazing upon us but no one heard. We knocked again through his green goggles in atter acton. of dinner, as somebody once said before I ishment, and all the pupils roured in bois- mentioned the fact." ishment, and all the nupils round in hoise terms and all the nupils round in hoise the confined colleges of Medical with the fact. With the fact of the confined colleges of Medical with the control of the fact of the confined the fact. Having seen the others off, George and the three have to the colleges of Medical with the have to the colleges of Medical with the have to the colleges of Medical which the have the colleges of Medical which the have the colleges of the others off, George and Minnie went into the library for a smoke, the have to prepare them for the Herculcan task in the lace.

Order Head, January 22, 1861.

Comfortable had in the home of that same "See," said George, producing cook comfortable had in the home of that same friend who had accompanied as to the se-Fale for History & Shop on conversing the previous evening about "When the State of the State of Leather and Boote and wrong way, and with whom we had been wrong way, and with whom we had been with state of Leather and Boote and conversing the previous evening about "When the State of the S conversing the previous evening about our adventure in D—. We had enten a piece of mince pie before refiring.

Had we refused admission to the pie, we show you back to the book case."

"When! never once thought of that—We will stick to contract. My dear made out and I must be show you back to the book case."

"What's fee dinner" gold Minute. would not have been refused admission to the school ander the little red church!-

School Visiter. A letter was dropped into the post peas or something?"

office at Greenfield, Massachusetts last "Yes, that's easy enough." The for the Mitalic oil, for Sewing Machines, week, directed to Engarborcity Nucherson, fire and Manage Polices, and Flat and Manage Polices, and Flat and Manage Polices, and Flat and

How Five Bachelors Kept House.

BY MARY CLARKE.

It was a warm evening in early June and in the parlor of a pleasant house in on, drawing visitors from the home circle, and George, took one side of the question, proved their flavor.

—the fathers and the mothers, and all while thee other gentlemen, besides her "Now, what do you do with them?" were washed and wiped. The water Dinner time came and found them still at friends of the little ones who meet and tall brothers, opposed her. Charles Gray, said Minnie, "There ain't many of them," followed the "leavings," and the quint-work. Dinner eaten, the dishes carried a blue-eyed, carly-headed an away what a blue-eyed, carly-headed an away what to copol off. (Do eight as off by the water from the restain-2. Parents, whoever you are or what round face and boyish air formed an appa-balls rolling about the bottom of the huge sist that operation?) ever your vocation, it is your duty to call rent contradiction to the assertion he market basket, and then eyed the large Spite of the superb to encourage him in his toil. You owe it eyes, and a pale complexion, and from his to yourself, too, to become personally ac- father, a tall, fine figure and a frank ingenquainted with him to whose care you have lous expression; and Milton Dacres, whose ling up the basket. committed your own children. How little small figure and bashful ways accounted t hearts g'adden, and little eyes brighten, fu'ly for his nickname Minnie; these three, left all in good order, and the prospect when a loved visitor enters the school- with the masters of the house, waged was not bad for the amateur cooks. room door! Then the young learner feels payful war upon the little brown-eyed tenderer love.

"Say what you please," said Susy, "you so But let children feel that no one out will never convince me of the superiority

"an idea which, if you will agree to act ern and Southern States, and in Canada, ty-nhem! that word nearly choked me."
We have mingled with and talked to The ungallant sentence should have

"Present company always excepted," was the reply. "The idea! let's have the idea." ! "Suppose we keep house here, while "Here!" cried Susy, aghast, "Yes, why not?" "But," said Susy, "I'm sure Jenny would not stay.'

"We don't want her; we want no won sofas, cigars in the flower v "So be it! Hurrah for the bachelor's ticoat within the doors for a month. "But," again said poor Susy... "No fusses about tobacco smoke in artains," chimed in George. "But, brother"-"Won't it be gay?" said Minnic.

"Monday! Aunt Jane's letter said

With many a flourish, amidst the gay mission to visit the school, the teacher's est jokes, George wrote out a solemn conhand, (by proxy.) waved its away, and a tract, by which they bound themselves to yery pleasing voice assured us that "We ask no service of any kind, at a woman's never admit visitors-it, embarrasses the hand for one mouth from the date of the dasses!" following Monday, June—, 1860, and all cried Joe, from the parlor; "it's ten min-9. We apologized for our presumption, put their signature to the important doc- utes past three."

parochial school in the basement of a little door in a carriage, the trunk strapped be fished from the meat pot, was served on tleman, and he were green goggles. We the servant depart to spend a month with omitted altogether.

see through the splintered window lights, "Now then," said George, after the first a company of rude boys of various growths. greetings were over, "I, asy the eldest Policies is said and renewed for the anderstance, at his It was a long school. Long before Just, will take charge to-day. As Sasy fractione door above Search Hatel, Montroise, Pa. we reached the house, we heard confused says, when are you going down town? Inzzot, sees and now and then a lond and "I have nothing to do to-day, so I'll angry "Silence, you mule !" from a pair stay to assist you," said Minnie. fleather hings—the driver's.

What's for dinner?" said Joe, trying not built in a day: Give us some bread not built in a day: Give us some bread

"You'll see at three o'clock." "Is that the hour ?"

"Yes," said George, "and remember I wait for no one. Punctuality is the soul

"See," said George, producing cook book. "we are safe." "Mrs. Hale! that's a woman!" cried "Whew! never once thought of that .-

"What's for dinner," said Minnie. "Roast lamb, potatoes, green peas, as paingus, and strawberries," "That'll do. Don't you have to shell

"Suppose we shell the peas up here.— he rubbed manfully at the gressy plates clothes were collected from all the rooms, It's couler here than in the kitchen. I and dishes, and if the water was cold, he and the boards and soap brought up from suppose there's a fire there ?"

"Of course." "I'll go bring them up." "They're in the basket on the table.-

-street, in the handsome city of Phil- Just leave the rest of the things down No. 2. adelphia, a merry party of young folks there."
were holding a warm, laughing discus. Shelling peas was rapid work, even for wipe them; my hands are wet. Don't "You boil them, of course,"

"Oh! Suppose we go down." "Well, come along," said George, tak-The fire burned brightly ; Jennie had was not bad for the amateur cooks.

"What do you boil them in, George ?" "Oh, anything." "But where is it?" "In some of the closets, I guess!" Susy would certainly have fainted co'd of man in the capacity of housekeeper." she have seen the overhauding of her neat-"But I maintain," cried Joe, "that men ly arranged closets that followed. "This!" Minnie dragged forth a pot

In they went, unwashed.

"Hot water or cold."

"Either,"

"All right; that's done." "Now the asparagus; how do you fix "I wonder if you roast mutton in this five bachelors returned to the parlor. thing?" said George, holding up a large you?" "Y-e-c-s." George determined to find

"Yes, here's a tin thing that's long and years, to visit schools in many of the Nor-upon it, shall surely cure the women of shallow; I guess that's for such things,' there and Western, and a dripping pan came forth from the And a dripping pan came forth from the The asparagus fitted in like a charm, as both men declared, and water was added sancers, and places, its unswept floor, two dozen tumblers replaced her pretty and all set on the range.

The mutton next went on the pudding was worst of all, and Harry inwardly addeposited there when the owners were lish, into the oven. "Come, let's go up stairs again; it i fearfully hot here," said George.

"But the dinner?" "Oh, that's got nothing to do but cook until three o'clock?

atoes, with about two gallons of water to and sweet. were in attendance at a Teachers Institute | Visions of muddy, boots on her-parlor | the half peck of Murphies, put on the fire. the State of Pennsylvania. Having an the centre-table, spittoons in the best bed- the practice on the violin, filled up the Joe pulled off the clothes from his bed, hour's leisure one pleasant afternoon dur- room, and frying pans in the library, flitt- morning, though George declared it was and having laid the bolster and pillow on,

Susy's work, and her early start had pre- the pillow, and concluded it would do .vented her from doing it. "George"—Minnie's voice was rathe doleful. What!" 'The fire is out." "Out!"

"I wonder it anything is cooked?" "The asparagus is burnt fast to the pan."
"So is the meat !"

"The potatoes?" "Broken all to pieces, floating about in he water.' "The peas are all mushy, Minnie!" "Punctuality is the soul of dinner," and withdrew. We felt queer dooked unent. Sasy, Seeing that her brothers "Go set the table," growled George, at each other, then at the ground, and were really in earnest, tried to think she It was unique in its arrangements, that mutually agreed to say nothing about it was glad to go, and added her laughing table, as the gentlemen sat down to din--not at the Institute. directions to the many schemes proposed. nor, The meat figured on an enormous

10. The other school that closed its At a later hour the conclave broke up, and dish, with an ocean of white china surlong while before secession times, so that a heart full of sore misgivings.

The potators, in little lumps, maskinned, were there was no political excuse for it. The Monday morning rose fair and clear.— piled up in a fruit dish; the green mass reason was a more propose ones. It was a Six o'clock saw Susy drive away from the which Minnie had with infinite difficulty piled up in a fruit dish; the green mass

"Where's the gravy?" was Joe's first question.

"There wasn't anyg" 'Themeat's burnell," cried one voice. "It's stone cold," said another. "What's this?" said another, digging into the pile of peas? Fangh! followed a daring attempt to eat some asparagus...

"No, not pickles, preserves," said Char-"Susy locked both his" said Harry, laughing. "She declared a woman puts five lips. Tables, chairs; floor, dresser, them up, and that if we wanted them we must prepare them for ourselves."

Minnie produced the strawberries; and ome sugar, and the gentlemen declared they had dined superbly. "You fellows clear away," said Minnie, we're tired."

"Where's the water?"

"You wash up, don't you?" queried

"In the hydrant." "What do you wash 'em in ?" "Pan, I guess." Away went Joe on a voyage of investigation, and returned soon with a tin-dish full of cold water. The "leavings," as Harry termed the remains of the sumptuons dinner, were thrown from the window into Susy's flower beds, and armed with a bar of soap and a fine damask table napkin, Ice began to 'wash up.' "How the grease sticks?" Perspiration streaming from every pore,

I and dishes, and if the water was cold, he certainly was not. "I have wet my shirt front!"

No. 1. "Good for my white pants!"

should be avoided by every one except sion.

The table was cleared at last. Five Minnie objecting to going into the yard, those whom the law admits through its portals. It should be a place of attraction, drawing visitors from the home circle, and George, took one side of the question, proved their flavor.

The table was cleared at last. Five Minnie objecting to going into the yard, there out, bast whether the thorough smoking they damp, greasy, napkins, thrown into a corporation in the damp, greasy, napkins, thrown into a corporation in the damp, greasy, napkins, thrown into a corporation out.

Spite of the superb dinner, five "inner ers wrung and hung up, while the others men" called, like Oliver Twist, for more, washed. was at about seven o'clock. "What's for ten!" Four voices echoed it. "Let's have coffee ; I can make coffee, said George. "And a steak ! I can rook it." said Joe. "There's bread and butter," said Harry. George went for the steak; Minnie un-George went for the steak; Minnie undertook to make the fire; Harry cut the bread; Joe set the table; while Charley cleared the kitchen by sweeping the pets and pans used at dinner, in a closet, washing being omitted in the operation.

Minnie, blowing and puffing making the fire, was salued with—

"How it smokes!"

"What alls this fire, Min!"

Harry discovered the cause, pulled out to behold a large brown park the precise.

Harry discovered the cause, pulled out the damper, and a merry blaze repaid him. The coffee boiled, the steak sputs tered in the pan, and the men panted, perspired, whistled, and used improper words over the lient. It was a good supper, and piling up the dishes, (it was "too hot to wash,") the was wont to occupy. A little music, more talk, and still more smoking filled the Do not go to do some bigsthing, but go to be acted upon, and a rich blessing will crown your going.

The would accept Aint Jane's invitation to a book on cookery written by a man, the binnelf to be acted upon, and a rich blessing will crown your going.

The would accept Aint Jane's invitation to a book on cookery written by a man, the binnelf to be a thinnelf to be a man, the binnelf to be a book on cookery written by a man, the binnelf to be a book on cookery written by a man, the binnelf to be a book on cookery written by a man, the binnelf to be a book on cookery written by a man, the binnelf to be a book on cookery written by a man, the binnelf to be a book on cookery written by a man, the binnelf to be a binnelf to be a book on cookery written by a man, the binnelf to be a book on cookery fee pot; bits of bread lying about loose, Cigars lay about loose, some whole, some dirty pots here, dirty dishes there. The half smoked, some reduced to a mere parlor in disorder, chairs stood in forlorn stump; the chairs were promisenously confusion; smoke hung over all. The deranged; on the center table three bottles dining room with its piles of dirty caps, two demijohns, a pack of cards, and about saucers, and plates, its unswent floor, two dozen tumblers replaced her pretty > mitted that the house didn't look as usu-There was fun the next morning mak-chicken salad reposing pencefully upon it; ing up the beds. The milkman and ba-one ottoman supported a hat and cane, There was fun the next morning makker had vainly knocked for admittance and another a coat; every chair carried some finally retired in disgust, and the batchel- relic of the departed gusets, here a hand-

"Every man clear up his own room."

Three days' experience convinced them that bachelors cooking is slow starva-tion. Steaks and coffee for breakfast were followed by coffee and steaks for din- Clear up and invite us to dinner. ner, and both for tea. Charley suggested that they should have their meals sent from a restàurant. 👑 "All men cooks, so we stick to the conract," was his final observation. The motion was seconded and carried by unanimous vote. By this time every dish, plate, napkin, pot and pan in the house was dirty, and joyfully concluding that they wouldn't door to us, was one in the South, and a Susy retired with a head full of plans and rounding its shrunken proportions. The want them any more, the gentlemen piled them up in the kitchen sink, on the floor and tables, and left them. "Harry"-it was George's havn't got a clean shirt." "Nor I "Nor I." " "Nor I." "I've got one"

"Nor a handkerchief, nor a collar, nor a pair of stockings, nor-" "Stop! Two weeks since Susy went and no washing day." There was a dead silence.

"Who knows how to wash?" No answer.
"I-I've seen it done," said one faint voice, owned by Charley. You soap the things and rule em on a board." "Can anyhody from"

They all thought they could manage that part. The kitchen was opened for the first time in ten days. One cry burst from sink, were one mass of roaches, collected by the piles of greasy dishes. They overerockery. Screams of laughter, cries of There must be some place for them to tion with Gen. McClellan last Novem-disgust, blows thick as hall comments on live. Perhaps you would think it fair ber or December, the latter incidentally the heat, jokes, warnings flew about for that we should take our share of them?" took down a map and pointed out to him

George cried-"Joe, there's one on your hair ?5

"Let's wash up here." No soover said than done.

JOB PRINTING of ALL KINDS DONE AT THE OFFICE OF THE DEMOCRAT

NEATLY AND PROMPTLY. AND AT "LIVE AND LET LIVE" PRICES

THE office of the Montrose Democi: has recently been supplied with a new and choice vari-of type, etc., and we are now prepared to print pumplic circulars, etc., etc., in the best etyle, on short notice. Handbills, Posters, Programmes, mist Business, Wedding, and Ball Caliba Tickets, etc., printed with neathers and despatch. Justices' and Constables' Blanks, Notes, Deeds, and all other Blanks, on hand, or printed to cress Job work and Blanks, to be paid for or deliver).

From Greeley's Tribune. 1854.

All hail the flaunting Lie ! The stars grow pale and dim; The stripes are bloody scars—A Lie, the vaunting hymn. It shields a Pirate's deck, It binds a man in chains, It yokes the captive's neck, And wipes the bloody stains.

Tear down the flaunting Lie!-Half-mast the starry flag! Insult no sunny sky
With Hate's polluted Rag! Destroy it ye who can! Deep sink it in the waves! It bears a fellow man

To groan with fellow slaves. Furl the boasted Lie! Till freedom lives again, To rule once more in truth Among untrammelled men. Roll up the starry sheen, Conceal its bloody stains; For in, its folds are seen

The stamp of rustling chains! Let the friends of the American nion beware of such sentiments as well as the authors. The Tribune has never repudiated the above.

Contrabands at Fortress Monroe. A correspondent of the Philadelphia Inmirer writing from Fortress Monroe.

says—
shape of the flat iron, burned on the bosom of his 'go to meeting' shirt. Minnie's iron, being almost cold, was traveling briskly up and down his shirt, but producing no visible effect.

It was briskly up and the flect. around here are filled with ovsters,known It was humiliating but true that Joe to the lovers of bivalves as "Norfolk Oystook an order to a gentleman's furnishing ters," and the Roads and rivers swarm five bachelors returned to the parlor.

It was involuntary, but each pair of eyes and the washed clothes' were consigned out great difficulty. When these colored was went to come a light and the washed clothes' were consigned to the pot closet to await Susy's return. people had masters, oysters were in abundance. It is only when want compels 'em Every man on that day found he had an that they will go out and catch a few. Our time till midnight, when each one yawned imperative engagement abroad, and the soldiers wade in and catch them with their quarters for out-door work. It is painful to see them move, in single file, at snail's pace, as though they had no power of locomotion, and were making efforts to get along the best way they could. Ask the females if they have any work, they say, "yes, plenty of mending, washing and cooking." Upon further inquiry, you find that all this mending washing and cooking is done for themselves. They are far better off than our soldiers. While these poor fellows are bivouncing out in the open air, the darkies have good helter, good food, and warm quarters.-"Oh, George, here's the potatoes?"

Ors breakfasted off the stale bread left kerchief, there a cigar case, on one a pocket The soldiers complain sadly of this partificant the might's feast, and coffee black comb, on another a tooth pick. Susy was ality in favor of negroes.

dismayed: but like a brave little woman, A CONNUBIAL CONTRACT .- A few days determined to face all the muss at once. scribed it on the eventful ironing day, so er street received a letter from a customer it remained, roaches inclusive, meander- near Youngstown, enclosing an order for ing everywhere. The library was next in a-wife!. The customer was a rich, midorder, and it was the counterpart of the die aged Dutchman, and a widower. He Half-past two brought home three huning off the whole by putting himself on parlor, only more so; dining room ditto; said he wanted a wife right off, and he rey men to dinner.

had no time to look up one for himself. gry men to dinner.

Leaving the cooks to "dish up," they all adjourned to the parlor to cook them of the correcting the mistake by tucking noticed. Jennie had made the beds best for she left, but dusting the purlor was fore she left, but dusting the purlor was them out); the frying pan in the best bed back, but the man was too good a custom-room, (Charley broke his basin); the er to disoblige. As they had no supply Charley merely smoothed his down, sage-ly observing that if he pulled the things off he never could but them on again. Har-le never could but them on again. Har-ry and George, who shared the same room, ry and George, who shared the same room, having followed Charley's plan, put on an extra touch by sweeping the room, and similar time, and then went to her own ted to find a husband. A bargain was leaving this pile of dust in the entry.—

Touch the accumulation of a count speak terman and English, was tolerated to find a husband. A bargain was room, the only orderly, because, untouch struck. The Dutchman came in yestered place in the house. A little note lay day, found an article ready for him, approved of it, and took his curious purchase home with him. We did not learn wheth-We own beat! It takes a woman! We beg pardon! We'll do so no more! er the firm charged a special fee, or per centage commission on the market value of the article .- Cleve. Hevald, 27th.

TATTLING.—In all social intercourse, conversations will take place in which opinions are given and motives scrutinized in the Senate, made the following sensible which it would be extremely improper to repent. Yet we find a great many people who delight in retailing remarks made by er deceive ourselves or anybody else. one party upon another, thus stirring up disorder and strengthening hatred wheretion? In my own State, where there soever they appear. Such characters are are few colored men, there is not much the bane of country society. What is feeling, one way or the other. And so in more absurd, for instance, than if one lady New England. But in the States near the should say to another, well, Jane, what slave States how is it? Illinois has form- do you think Lucretia Smith says of you? ed a constitution excluding free colored She says you have the thickest ankle and men. Indiana has some similar provision, the thinest arm of any girl in town and and I venture to say if you come down to that your shape is like an alligator's and the practical question whether, if the whole your head resembles that of a bison!"

negro population were to be set free and Another class of intillers are those with the same than the negro population were to be set free and distributed around among the several visit their friends and take note of all the States, you would find just the same re- habits and customs of the family, the conpugnances in the more Northern States versation at table the government of chilthat is now exhibited in Illinois and In- dren, treatment of servants and dress of diana. I have been informed that in 1843 the mistress, and even the late hours of a distinguished gentleman from Vermont the male meinties should there be any was elected to Congress, and one of his who stay out late. These are told in dewas elected to Congress, and one of his neighbors, a well-to-do farmer, came to pay his respects to him before he left for Washington, and says he: "Jidge when you get to Washington, I wish you would take hold of this negro question and have it disposed of. Let us have slavery abolished and no more said about it." Well, said the Judge, "I suppose many of those persons who hold slaves have puid money for them. Perhaps you think it would be no by the piles of greasy dishes. They over ran every place.

"Shut the door. Now for it," cried George, and dashed at the invaders. Bedlam seemed to have broken loose. In reaching after one or the "critters" Charley upset the table: Crash went the invaders of the tax for that." 'But,' said the Judge, "there is another thing. If they are emancipated, it is an important question. What shall be done with them?—

To them. Perhaps you think it would be no more than just that they should have some compensation." "Well, yes," said the farmer, "I think I would be no with the springfield Republican makes the following statement: "The sunject was under discussion at a dinner table where Gen. Banks was present; and, who by the way stands by Gen. McClellan most loyally, are emancipated, it is an important question." What shall be done with them?—

To the piles of greasy dishes. They over them is a said the springfield Republican makes the following statement: "The sunject was under discussion at a dinner table where Gen. Banks was present; and, who by the way stands by Gen. McClellan most loyally, are remarked that while in consultance." WHO PLANNED THE VICTORIES.—The the heart, lokes, warnings new another and hour, and then the panting party ceased from their labors, and viewed sternly the "cold corpuses" of their loss. A scream from Minnie whites, or about 500 for the town of Manasas, said that we should either drive the rebels from it in a successful laft. "There's one down my back?"

you good evening, Judge." He started own secord." off, but as he got to his horse he turned "Don't mention it. Look at the fellow around and said: "Judge you need not do mything more about the negro busifurnished four Generals for the bath-room ness on my account." [Laughter.] Permy, namely: — Wm. H. Chase Whiting, haps it is not smiss to say that that dis- Albert G. Blanchard, Daniel Ruggles, and The soiled Collamer.]