THE MONTROSE DEMOCRAT. IS PUBLISHED THURSDAYS, BY

A.J. Gerritson.

OFFICE ON PUBLIC AVENUE. THREE DOORS ABOVE SEARLE'S HOTEL.

TERMS .- $1,50 per annum in ADVANCE; otherwise $2 will be charged—and fifty cents per annum a tied to arrearages, at the option of the Publisher, to pay appears of collection, etc. Advance payment/preferred. ADVERTISEMENTS will be inserted at the rate of $1 per square, of ten lines or less, for the first three weeks, and 25 cents for each additional weeks-pay down. Merchants, and others, who advertise by the year, will be charged at the following rates, viz.; No credit given except to those of known responsibility.

BUSINESS CARDS.

MONTROSE DEMOCRAT.

We Join Ourselves to no Party that Does not Carry the Flag and Keep Step to the Music of the Whole Union.

VOL. 19.

MONTROSE, PA., TUESDAY, JUNE 24, 1862.

√ NO. 26.

EDUCATIONAL.

HENRY C. TYLER, DEALER in Dry Goods, Groceries, Umbrellas, Yankee Notions, Boots and Shoes! Shovels and Forks, Stone Ware, Wooden Ware and Brooms. Head of Navigation, Public Avenue.

Montrose, Pa., May 13, 1862.-y

WM. H. COOPER & CO., BANKERS, Montrose, Pa. Successors to Post, Cooper & Co. Office, Lathrops new building, Turppike-st.

McCOLLUM & SEARLE. A TTORNEYS and Connsellorest Law, Montrose, Office in Lathrops' new building, over the Bank! HENRY B. McKEAN.

A TTORNEY and Counsellor at Law. Towards, Pa

DR. E. F. WILMOT, (RADUATE of the Allopathic and Homosopathic Col-K legges of Medicine.—Great Bend, Pa. Office, corner of Main at i Elizabeth-sts, nearly opposite the Methodist-church. DR. WILLIAM. W. WHEATON, ECLECTIC PHYSICIAN & SURGEON DENTIST. Mechanical and Surgical Bentlet, recently of Binchamton, N. V. tender their professional services to all who appreciate the "Reformed Practice of Physics" careful and spillful operations on Teeth; with the most scientific and approved styles of platework, pain and all work warranted.

J. ickson, June 14th, 1850.

DR. H. SMITH & SON,

DRS. OLMSTEAD & READ,

WOULD ANNOUNCE to the Public that they have entered into a partnership for the Practice of MEDICINE & Surgery, and are prepared to attend to all calls, in the line of their profession. Office—the one formerly occupied by Dr. J. C. Olmstead, in DUNDAFF. INT. I.EET, Physician and Surgeon, Frienderille, Pa. Office opposite the Jackson House.

D.R. LEET gives particular intention to the treatment of diseases of the Lan and Ext. and is confident that its knowledge of, and experience in that branch of practice will enable him to effect aleane in the most difficult uses. For treating diseases of these organs no fee will be charged unless the patient is benefitted by the treatment.

[August 20th, 1800.]

SOUTHWORTH & VADAKIN, MANUFACTURERS AND DEALERS in Italian and American Marble for Monuments, Headstones, Tomb Tables, Mantles, Slinks land Centre-Tables, Also, dealers in Marble red Slate for Magiles, Centre-Tables, Also, dealers in Marble red Slate for Magiles, Centre-Tables, Also, dealers in Marble red Slate for Magiles, Centre-Tables, also, dealers, Montsuse, Pa.

W.M. A. SNOW,

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE, Great Bend, Pa. Office on Main street, opposite the Western House. api JOHN SAUTTER.

PASHIONABLE TAILOR.—Montrose, Pa. Shop over 1. N. Bullard's Grocery, on Main-street.
Thankful for past favors, he solicits a continuance odedking himself to do all work satisfactorily. Cutting done on thort notice, and warrantedsto ut.

Montrose, Pa., July 2th, 1840.—if. P. LINES;

ASHIONABLE TAILOR - Montrose, Ph. Shop in Phoenix Block, over store of Regal, Watrons Foster. All work warranted, as to fit and finish, tring done on short notice, he best style. Jan '89 JOHN GROVES, ASHIONABLE TAILOR, Montress, Fa. Shep-may the Baptist Meeting House, on Turnpike ct. All orders filled promatic in first-rate style.

L. B. ISBELL, REPAIRS Clocks, Watches, and Jewelry at the chortest notice, and on reasonable terms. All work warranted. Shop in Chandler and dissups store, MONTHOSE, Pa. 0025 If

WM. W. SMITH & CO., CARRINET AND CHAIR MANUFACTURERS. Food of Moin street, Montrose, Page 1 202 1f C. O. FORDHAM

NUFACTI RER of BOOTS & SHOES, Montrose, Pa. Shop over Tyler's store. All kinds of work made to order, and repairing done neatly. Je? y · ABEL TURRELL,

DEALER in Drays, Medicines Chemicals, Dyestuffs, Glass Warts, Paints, Olfs, Varnish, Window Glass, Graceries, Fancy Goods, deweiry Perfuers, & Agent for all the most popular PATENT MRDICINES,—Montrose, Pa. HAYDEN BROTHERS, WHOLESALE DEALERS IN YANKEE NOTIONS FANCY GOODS. NEW MILFORD, PA.

P. E. BRUSH. M. D. HAVING NOW LOCATED PERMANENTLY, AT

springville. Will attend to the duties of his profession prompt Office at J. Lathrop's Hotel.

AT SMITH'S! NEW MILFORD, PA., IS THE PLACE TO BUY YOUR HARNESSES,

CHEAP FOR CASH. AND GET THE WORTH OF YOUR MONEY

HOME INSURANCE COMPANY, Of Now-York.

CASH CAPITAL ONE MILLION DOLLARS. ASSETTS 1st July 1860, $1,481,819.27. LIABILITIES, " *43,068.68.

I. Milton Smith, Sec'y. Chas. J. Martin, President. John McGec, As't " A. F. Wilmarth, Vice "

110129 y BILLINGS STROUD, Agent. H. BURRITT HAS just received a large stock of new Stoves, for H. Cooking, Farlor, Office and Shap purposes, for Wood or Coal, with Stove Pipe, Zinc. &c. Hisasseytment is select and destrable and will be sold on the most favorable terms for Cash or to Prompt Six Months Rugers.

New Millord, Oct. 25th, 1800.

Dandelion Coffee. HEALTHY baverage. One pound of this Coffee will make as much as two pounds of other Coffee. . Fo by ABEL TURRELL.

TAKE NOTICE!

Cash Paid for Hides. Office, A good associated not office, A good associated not office, Tunnery, & Shop on Mark Cash, & Shop on the constantly on hand. Main Street.

Montrose, Feb. 6th.

A. P. & L. C. REELER

DAVID C. ANEY, M. D. LIAVING located permanently at New Milford, Pa., Liwill attend promptly to all calls with which he may be favored. Office at Todde Hotel. New Milford, July, 17, 1861

ALL COMMUNICATIONS DESIGNED FOR THIS COLUMN HOULD BE ADDRESSED TO A. N. BULLARD, MONTROSE,

Thoughts on Common Schools-Re-

County: I fear that many of you are not and embellish social intercourse,-the County: 1 tear that many of you are not trustful reverence for God, and habitual, flicting relations, and hold the East to the not exist but cannot exist in the nature of yet fully aware of the fact, that certain cheerful obedience to his commandments, West, and the middle States to both? If the case. It involves a flagrant self conto the complete working and legitimate gratefulness the joys; and to bear with un-Pa. success of our excellent and superior School system.

That we have asystem founded in wisdom, and calculated to benefit all, espemen is directed to the subject, the system can doubt the cause of education would be lies, in the future, and it will be marvelwill fail to benefit those its founders intended it should.

the following article copied from the Pennsylvania Schoot Journal, which clearly sets forth our own views in regard to one of vigoration of virtue, throughout the State? the essential conditions necessary to the advancement of our Schools throughout the county:

"One of the conditions essential to the the working of our common schools, must good School system is, intelligence and vir-triumphant operation and success of any tue among the people. Reference to the statistics of education, will with wonderful uniformity, prove that intelligent communities demand and cheerfully support good systems of public making "bricks without straw."

not claim for it.

But intelligence without virtue is a dan-genuine success requires. The knowing man is not always a good man, and his plans are too often shaped to gain purely selfish ends. Virtue must control every individual or State, that would adopt safe sirable object. The sentiment of duty, the recognition of justice, loyalty to conscience and reverence to God, must ani-

Lewistown, Feb. 1862. A. SMITH. ABOLITION AND SECESSION.

will be fully and permanently assured.

"Tis here the revival lies,"

have forever passed away.

instruction, and that localities occupied by ignorant or uncultivated people, are We are not alarmists -- we only pretend poorly furnished, with very poor teachers, in yet poorer school houses, -a curse, like of the present-as any man of common that of Pharoah's lean kine, seeming to sense may do. We are friends, wise ones darken the entire sphere of intellectual activity. Every County Superintendent who knows anything of the state of educa; the Union, the Constitution would be state of educa; the Union, the Constitution as it is, cation in his province, knows that in the and in the dignity of the law. Wowould well-informed, fairly educated communities, his task is a pleasure and his duty is more than welcome; while in districts in We have no political motive, still we make which the patrons of schools actually no boast of our patriotism. These facts bring it as a grave cause of complaint a alone account for our opposition to the fagainst a teacher, that he classifies his pupils in arithmetic, instead of pursuing the pils in arithmetic, instead of pursuing the speak candidly when we say we fear these speak candidly when we say we fear these old miscellaneous system; in which a poor and incompetent teacher is preferred to a good one,—in such districts he labors with little comfort, and often with little more insinuating, more pleasing to the not believe that President Lincoln can be served. Therefore, the preservation of with little comfort, and often with little beneficial result. The very ignorance of first suggestion, yet more terrible when trapped so easily. the people prevents the possibility of their apprehended in the full measure of injury tion a little and see appreciating his efforts, incapacitates them it can inflict, than half a million of cannon for understanding wherein consists the in the hands of rebellion.

worthlessness of one teacher, or the excel
It is the sledge-hommer and not the trowwormessness of one teacher, or the excellence of another, blinds them to the great wrong of suffering their children to grow in it cannot erect. If it had stood in the beauty of wisdom and of the univated mind. As an inevitable consequence, they object to paying such wages as will september the Services of good teachers; they oppose any change from the "good old plan" in vogue when they were pupils, which was capable of preducing such extract and not the state and condition of society. It would be abled to five any of the state and condition of society. It which was capable of preducing such extract solution. The same elements of character are of the south of the purpose of plan" in vogue when they were pupils, which was capable of preducing such extract solution. which was capable of producing such expeace. Theodore Parker felled old fabrics cause he knew them, and was known by tonists is abspred. The issue they under brought back into the Union by at once and filling as a work of art; and instruction of the peace. Theodore Parker felled old fabrics them. He was sent, not as a law-giver, take to raise is impossible in the nature of giving it to the blacks and making them. now display; they see no necessity for improved school houses,—they will have fine barns for their cattle, but any old shell, with a corresponding teacher inside, is good enough for their children; they cry out against the introduction of new books. out against the introduction of new books, last degree for suggestion. He can erect the found that a certain Dr. Collyer, with are traitors at heart; and if they are not any difficulty in a lasting Union between and in some instances utterly refuse to furnish their children with any books whatever, as if supposing there must be something in the atmosphere of a school-room by which a child can catch knowl-room by which a child can catch knowl-room by which a child can catch knowl-room by the days as he does the measles or that it is edge as he loes the measles, or that it is sible paradise has been the dream and lato read and write. Waiting upon Gov. a christian operation to set a teacher to bor of his life. But we know of nothing Stapley, Dr. Collyer stated what he had that he has builded save the Tribune and been doing. He was told that the right to "keep open such schools would be unfortunate intestine war, Democrats exprevails, and people manifest the best disand inspiring the entire system of public of the abolition meetings of Boston, foleducation with a genius for beneficence low in our footsteps. Where the power which its most ardent admirers now dare of a Federal soldier has made a friend to result in distractions, complications, exas- A war for the Union is one thing a war the Union, these men of the North turn perations and danger. We sincerely trust for the negro is quite another. In the his heart to gall again. They see that a that our national pilot will steer clear of prosecution of the one, both jury obligating party here is working might and all these lurking dangers, and hold the tions and the patriotism which is higher gerous guide; it has not that clearness of large party here is working might and rision and that purity of purpose which main to cource the President into emancithat this party would make this a war-for the abolition of slavery, therefore they see a lie in our professions to sustain the laws only, and will not adhere to our standard. This makes the Union sentiment of the measures for the achievement of any de-Border States waver to and fro-it makes them half our open enemics, and complicates and embarrasses the war.

But even in districts where intelligence his Gun Manufactory.

For this reason it is suggested that we mate all efforts that aim to give shape and character to the youthful mind. Without such controlling principles, education cannot fail to be ruinous to its pos- present generation, in the South, will des-HAS for eale. Metallic Oil, for Sawing Machines.

Shall deliberately throw away the shield wars of the claus of Scotland, all will be recise of the claus of will be bright lights through the various constitutional liberty with mankind rests mands of justice between man and his fel-mands of justice between man and his fel-lows,—the real character of liberty, and supporting ourselves against Southern an-lows,—the real character of liberty, and supporting ourselves against Southern anhoughts on Common Schools Rethe uselfish zeal with which it should be imosity, against foreign jealousy and had insintained and guaranteed to all,—the treed, against factional influences at home?

Triends of columnia in Susquehanna courtesies and kindnesses which gladden courtesies a highly important conditions are requisite, which enable men to reseive with humble we could it might be well. But as for our tradiction, which enable men to reserve with number gratefulness the joys; and to bear with unsured murmuring patience the trials, of life, and which fit them for the destiny that awaits which fit them for the destiny that awaits them when the joys and trials of life shall was once discussed, that discussion might of slaves in the country but to weaken have forever passed away.

If the public intelligence and virtue arise into agitation, and agitation generals the institution of slavery itself. This effect is unavoidable, and no loyal man as > first duty of all enthusiastic friends of fall) Secession and Abolition, those twin out a murmur of complaint. They ask onschools, to labor by all practicable modes sisters of Night, will apply the torch.— ly that it shall not be the object of spe-

for the diffusion of intelligence and the in- Boston Post.

We have, thus far, purposely refrained and we who aim to improve the condifrom commenting upon the excitement ling to grant. On the contrary, assumtion, and render satisfactorily successful which has arisen from the recent acts of ing that the preservation of slavery is inbear this fact in mind. Through its realization, and the efforts which such realization and so exalted a cause should inspire, the triumphant success of common schools not only unwilling to join in the hue and of preserving the Union. They decry of fanaticism which was being raised, mand this; and this the loyal men of but were also averse to giving the subject the South, and the true loyal men of the the semblance of importance which serious North also, oppose as not merely tyrdiscussion would imply. We have, therefore, contented ourselves with silence, in patriots everywhere content for the press to discover the future from the indications the daily expectation that the administra- ervation of slavery! The patriots of the Slavery agitators, by consistently declar-disputed. Hence, the demand of the aboing that the question presented had nothing whatever to do with it, as the head of ity, involves, as we have said, a flagrant the war power of this government. self-contradiction.
We perceive, however, that there is a The preservation of slavery, as contennurse this little bautling into a respectaring the first self government in the States; in ble importance. Foiled in their various other words, it is nothing more than the sessor for a skillful and cheerful perform-prises.

As men wishing to be honest, and to musket in the other.

Now, in the name of the common duties and common labors of life. There is also far too little serve our country in our day and generative. Adv. (Rep.)

United States officers recently from Beaufort and Port Royal represent the attempt at instructing or enrolling the ne-Congo breed there rejects all humanizing approach, and is lazy, inert and repulsive. Uncle Sam's rations are what they com-For this reason it is suggested that we must hold Kentucky under a military Governor; that only the destruction of the be disgusted at the contact and inter-

A LOYAL VIEW OF SLAVERY.

paths of life; teaching the dignity and sales of the solely upon the people of the Northern | The contrasting the preservation of the credness of humanity,—the imperative description of Mason & Dixon's line—Union with the preservation of slavery, The contrasting the preservation of the policy that would harmonize all our contion fallacies. The contrast not only does flicting relations, and hold the East to the not exist but cannot exist in the nature of cially the youth of our land, none can de were so increased that such a character or by the sword. The philosophers of Eu mongst us complains of it, nor does any ny; but unless the attention of educated should be stamped upon the schools, who rope see us separated into several repubsished man wish the struggle on the part of speedily victorious over all the ignorance lous statesmanship that will prevent that narrowed in design out of respect to this and folly which now prevails? And in result, unless the extremists of all parties effect. By no means. Whatever detrithe light which these considerations imare kept in their places.

Whatever detributed the light which these considerations imare kept in their places.

Will the reader please peruse with care part, who can fail to perceive that it is the light Republic falls, (but it shall not loyal men of the South will accept with cial assault that, in equivalent terms, it shall not be struck at through the ac-A TRAP FOR PRESIDENT LINCOLN. knowledged rights of the States. But this the abolitionists are not wil-Governor Stanley, in North Carolina .- | compatible with the preservation of the Feeling an abiding confidence in the wis- Union, they demand that the general govlom of President Lincoln, as indicated by ernment; regardless of State rights, shall his recent action in similar cases, we were abolish slavery in the States as the means tion would put an end to the hopes of South contend no farther. The fact is not persistant determination, upon the part of ded for by the loyal men of the South, is the Slavery agitators, to coddle and simply and purely the preservation of the Let us look into the facts of this question a little, and see if, under the test of vation of the Union, instead of being incool investigation, this apparent mountain compatible with it; and to talk of abolishwill not dwindle into a very ridiculous ing slavery in the States by the general

WHO ARE THE PARTIZANS?

position to aid the cause of education, of the crazy school in Congress, all indi-there is still a want of clear understand cate the assailing ability of these gentleing in regard to objects which schools men. They can assail the Constitution of the rebellion broke out. Such were his insired to inauntain the supremacy of the should aim to accomplish. There is too the United States in their confiscation structions, and he should be compelled to Constitution, and the indivisibility of the much hurrying of pupils through many schemes; they can assail the exclusive in- execute them. If the question should Union. They were told by those in powbooks and branches, without considera- stitutions of the South with a war of come before him officially, he should be er that there should be "no party now," tion of the fact, that mental growth is one words, if they cannot with a war of obliged to decide against the schools. In and trusting to these professions, they exof the first aims of every judicious system swords; they cannot with a war of clucation, and that such growth is cause he will not give them especial country thought, rather than of committing volumes of facts to memory,—a process to be the army into an underground railroad; they are shown that the remarks of the process to be the army into an underground railroad; they say above the closed that their waiver—not abandon upon this suggestion the schools were ment—of party controversy, would be met closed. This was precisely what the normalistic desired; and forthwith a last method and underground railroad; they are solved and the country the country of the army into an underground railroad; they was aboved the Republicans of disappointed. The abolition leaders of the country of the country of the respective by the country of the countr promoted and rendered attractive by the they can assail the churches, because they try. Gov. Stanley was abused most the Republican organization have been sagacious and inspiriting counsels and in- will not cease to worship God and worship roundly; he was called all manner of evil more obstinate; than ever in thrusting structions of the teacher, not to be undustric the negro; they can assail the Fathers of ly stimulated, or by needless assistance enfeebled and deprived of all life and beausing the section and section and the country that have always governed the control of the section and the summate fools as to make the Constitution of the teacher, not to be undustric than ever in thrusting the negro; they can assail the Fathers of ington. The war would not go on, and in exhibiting the sectional spirit and section could not be put down, united that have always governed the rebellion could not be put down, united that have always governed the summate to be summated to be s There is too frequently an atter absence tion of the United States; and, we have less these apostles of education were permitted to teach the slave children of N. that the war shall be prosecuted for the of reflection upon the practical uses to they could shake a defiant fist at the bat- Carolina how to read. Negro education worse than partizan, because flagrantly which education may be applied, the di- tlements of Heaven itself if they did not must be recognized as one of the objects unconstitutional, purpose of reducing the which education may be applied, the distlements of Heaven itself if they did not indeed to recognize as one of the war, and our army was to go South Southern states into conquered provinces, rection it should have to prepare its post rain propitious sunshine upon their enterwith a spelling book in one hand and a and abolishing the domestic institutions with a spelling book in one hand and a and abolishing the domestic institutions lover which alone they have sovereign musket in the other. Lover which alone they have sovereign Now, in the name of common sense and scontrol. Democrats have shown their regard paid to the fact, that those who are now the boys and girls of the school room, will shortly be the men and women of society and of the country; and, considered the country; and considered the country considered the country; and considered the country considered the country. of society and of the country; and, consequently, we fail to consider what kind of discipline and study will best fit him for Crittenden tells us must be done, suppress then should be baptized in the particular

But they are not willing to embrace the the positions of trust, influence and rest hostility in the South. We do this by the church to which this man Collyer belongs altra partizan doctrines of abolitionism, ponsibility, which they must occupy. In virtue of our character following upon the por that every male in skedaddledom against which they have contended for ponsionity, which they must occupy. Increased intelligence upon points like these would greatly modify the character and enhance the usefulness of our schools, giving to all our efforts a judicious direction, and the words this great government, and the mighty interests of humanity which centre in its
by any threats or intimidations, such as terests of humanity which centre in its
by any threats or intimidations, such as terests of humanity which centre in its
by any threats or intimidations, such as the possibility of the shelition most interest of humanity which centre in its
by any threats or intimidations, such as
the possibility of the shelition most interest of humanity which centre in its
by any threats or intimidations, such as
the possibility of the shelition most interest of humanity which centre in its
by any threats or intimidations, such as
the possibility of the shelition most interest of humanity which centre in its
by any threats or intimidations, such as
the possibility of the shelition most interest of humanity which centre in its
by any threats or intimidations, such as
the possibility of the shelition most interest of humanity which centre in its
by any threats or intimidations, such as
the possibility of the shelition most interest of humanity which centre in its
by any threats or intimidations, such as
the possibility of the shelition most interest of humanity which centre in its
by any threats or intimidations, and the mighty inby any threats or intimidations and the mighty inby any threats or intimidation in the humanity which centre in its
by any threats or intimidation in the humanity which centre in its
by any threats or intimidation in the humanity which centre in its
by any threats or intimidation in the humanity which centre in its
by any threats or intimidation in the humanity which centre in its
by any threats or intimidation in the humanity which centre in its
by any threats or intimidation in the humanity which centre in its
by any threats or intimidation in the human committing it to the insane guidance of commonly use for the purpose of tyran-missionary humanitarians? It can only nizing over those who differ from them. main to course the President into emanci-pation at the head of the army they see old Constitutional channel.—Buffulo Com. waging the other, they have no warrant, and therefore no right or disposition to ing their own. Democrats and conserva- all the earthly possessions of the insur-tive Unionists of the North and South, gents en masse, and of all aiding or abethave been driven into a party attitude to Deat back the extreme partizanship of the Abolitionists. They have discovered the insincerity of the assumed Union feelings of Abolition-republicanism, and the empti Whites born in slave States..... 59,856 principles of our government, the more be disgusted at the contact and interness of its in o party" professions; and White born in free States...... 9,495 should the jealousy of every patriot be incourse with negroes enforced upon them they believe that the country stands in Whites born in foreign countries. 64,267 voked to guard and defend them. In they believe that the country stands in Whites born in foreign countries. put keen weapons into lawless hands; we so, the thirty years' war of Germany, the shall deliberately throw away the shield wars of the Roses in England, the bicker-

.

flagrant and more dangerous, because more insidious, assaults of acts that violate its express provisions, and transcend store the Union as it was, we must strive just as earnestly to put down abolitionism, as we have striven, and are now stri-

Gazette.

Who are the Northern Traitors? The American Anti-Slavery Society, lately held its annual meeting in New York. Garrison, Wendell Phillips, Cheev. not yet become the dominant controller. Parker Pillsbury, and other leaders, Their history forms a most striking and er, Parker Pillsbury, and other leaders, who have participated in its deliberations who have participated in its deliberations ly rejoiced in their speeches and resolu- their continuance, growth and prosperity for twenty years, were present, and greataffairs. If one will look into the New any form between a slaveholding and a ted States Government is the duty of every Abolitionist, since no one can take office or deposit a vote under its Constitution without violating his anti-slavery principles, and rendering himself an abet-tor to the slaveholder in his sin.

Resolved, That fourteen years of warfare against the slave power have conconvinced us that every act done in sup-port of the American Union rivets the chains of the slave—that the only exodus hears rule as the commissioned Governor convinced us that every act done in supto the slave to freedom, unless it be one appointed by the United States, and, as of blood, must be over the remains of the present American Church and the grave of mighty. It has been reserved for an emthe present Union. Resolved, That the abolitionists of this ry objects of this agitation to dissolve the American Union.' These men have worked ever since with fiendish malignity, and unhappily first elaborate, and, as we believe, truth-with too much success, to accomplish ful picture of the mormons at home. their atrocious ends.

The Black and White Races.

The radical men are bringing out day to make the equality of the negro and the white man a political question. Not alone slavery, as contended for by the loyal men in the propositions to place the two on an equal footing in the army, in the carrying of mails, in the New York Custom House, and in government service generally, but Northern white men and a Southern black State! They would not only put asunder those whom God has joined, but they would actually join those whom God has manifestly put asunder.

Governor Andrew Johnson's Speech.

At the commencement of the present-Governor Andrew Johnson of Tennessce, in his speech at Columbia, Tennessee, on the 2nd of June, thus gave his opinion of the Abolitionists and Secessionists.

in our faces. The disunionists profess a morality, the Mormon community is pergreat horror of abolitionists. Now I will hap purer than any other of equal number of the community is pergrepart than any other of equal numbers. prove very briefly that a Secessionist is hers." the argument in a syllogism, thus, an Abolitionist is a Secessionist. A Disunionist is a Secessionist. A Secessionist is a Disunionist is a Secessionist. A Secessionist is a Disunionist. ionist. A disunionist is an Abolitionist. Therefore a Secessionist is an Abolitionist. There is not a particle of difference between them. Here is the nation tossed and rent almost in twain by these unpring cipled and ambitious office hunters. Now olitionism and Secessionism identical ident, and we submit to the honest judg-He thinks an Abolitionist like Summet as ment of our readers whether it has any bad as a Secessionist.

It is laid down by Vattel in his follows: Law of Nations, that in case of rebellion or civil war, the sovereign should always thority to interfere in the emancipation of drive them to desperation and unite them policy may require. to a man against his authority, so that he might have a plausable excuse for exter- ren are very sensitive about exposures of minating them and dividing their lands the difference between their professions and estates among his favorites and syco- and practices; and impose upon the symphasts, he could use no more effectual pathies of the thoughtless, by laying the means for the accomplishment of these at- blume of all their departures from their take a hand. The Union was not made trocious designs than to proclaim and car professions, and the Constitution upon by or for the Negro, and they will not ry into effect, as his conquering legions their inapplicability in "war times. fight for his freedom at the hazard of los- might enable him to do it, a forfeiture of But history presents strong indications, ting their cause.

JOB PRINTING of ALL KINDS.

DONE AT THE OFFICE OF THE DEMOCRAT

NEATLY AND PROMPTLY, AND AT "LIVE AND LET LIVE" PRICES.

THE office of the Montrose Democrat has recently been supplied with a new and choice variet y of type, etc., and we are now prepared to print pamphlets circulars, etc., etc., in the best style, on short notice. Handbills, Posters, Programmes, and ther kinds of work in this line, done according to order, Business, Wedding, and Ball Carns Tickets, etc., printed with neatness and despatch.

Justices' and Constables' Blanks, Notes eds, and all other Blanks, on hand, or printed to orde

Literary Record.

Job work and Blanks, to be pald for or deliver).

Very near the centre of our continent, and a thousand miles almost, from the borders of civilization westward of the Mississippi, an isolated republic, has germinated and become a fruitfull plant, owning connection with and allegiance to the Government of the United States, ving, to crush armed rebellion.-Reading as a territory thereof. It was planted by a strange people, or rather a people actuated by strange motives, and cherishing as a distinctive characteristic, polygamy the great social fact of ancient and modern Asia where the Gospel of Jesus has and social systems of the world; and tions over the present aspect of political have puzzled philosophers and statesman. Their government is a sort of theocracy, York Weekly Observer, of May 28, 1844; and yet there is much more of the human eighteen years ago—he will find that the same Anti-Slavery Society, the same leaders controlling it, adopted the following autocrat, and yet there appears to be a fredom of opinion, speech and action, "Resolved, That a political union in lation to the idea of such an absolute autogracy. That strange people are the free community must necessarily involve Mormons or Eatter Day Saints, and that the latter in the gulf of slavery; therefore at-off isolated country is Utah, among Resolved, That secession from the Uni-the ranges of the Rocky mountains, the ranges of the Rocky mountains, and the range of the Rocky mountains, and the Roc where lies a lake salter far than the famous Dead Sea on the borders of which stands the saline wife of Lot.

Explorers, adventurers, public officers, emigrants, and others, have from time to time given us glimpses of the strange people, whose capital is Salt Lake City. But what we have learned of them have he avows, the chosen Prophet of the Alinent English traveller-one who has explored more of the secret ways of the country should make it one of the prima- Mohamedans than any man of modern times, and has studied the regions of Africa least known to us with the eye of a philosopher-to give to the world the That traveller is Captain Richard F. Burton, the Author of the Lake Region of Africa." He visited Great Salt Lake City in the Autumn of 1860, and the record of his travels and sojourn in that reume, fully ilustrated, which has been published by Harper & Brothers, with the title of The City of the Saints and Across the Rocky Mountain to California. Seldom has a book of more thrilling in-terest been published than The City of the Saints. It is written in the racy and at-tions of radical fanaticism, that while it ery page. Captain Burton appears to have been afforded every facility for stu-dying the Mormons at home, and, his report seems to be free from bias 'or prejudice. One of the most remarkable things in the book, conceted with polygamy, is the defence of the practice by Mrs. Belinda Pratt, wife of the celebrated Mormon Apostle of that name, in a letter written to her sister in Vermont, in 1854. It contains the whole scriptural, physiological and moral argument in favor of the sys-

em. Those of our readers who desire minute information regarding the Mormous and their country may be gratified by a perusal of the book in question. Strange as it may appear, the Author, after full inves-"The Slavery question is forever thrust tigation declares that "in point of mere A few lines further on he admits as great an abolitionist as Sumner. Both that "the Mormons or Latter-Day Saints the Secessionist and the Disunionist, are are mostly English." This fact may have for breaking up this Union. I will state had some influence upon his opinions and

المعاد المنطق فيتنا المشورة Policy of the Fathers."

The Republican party and Abraham Lincoln are great on "bringing the Government back to the policy of the fathers." there is a great middle class who lie be-tween these two extremes, who must come up and save the Union. The mass of the Southern people are for the Union. The ence of the Government in the emancipagreat mass of the Republicans are opposition of the slaves. And yet the Con-Ato abolitionists. The body of the peo- gress of 1790 took just diametrically the ple every where will prove true to the opposite position. We copy below a resolution passed by the fathers in 1790, at a The Tennessee Unionist considers Ab. time when George Washington was Preslikeness, to that framed and endorsed by our own latter-day President. It is as Resolved, That Congress have no au-leave the door open for the return of his slaves, or in the treatment of them in any insurgent subjects to their allegiance. of the States; it remaining with the sev-But if a tyrant wanted to close the door eral states alone to provide rules and regof hope against his rebellious subjects, to ulations therein, which humanity and true Weknow that our Republican brethof its blood and smoke, what seemed hopeless with the maintenance of peace.