Phila. Ing. Regulations for Substitutes.

Quite a number of suggestions, have been made to the Government with a view to equalize the price to be paid to substitutes in cases where they may be required under the draft for three hundred thousand nine month's militiamen. Some have urged that the War Department shall take charge of the whole matter, and others recommend that a rate shall be established, and that the price shall be paid directly into the Treasury by those who may be compelled to procure substitutes. iblect was canvassed during the war of 1812, when Congress provided for such such cases by enacting, on the 10th of December, 1814, that any person subject to militia duty who shall, according to law, furnish a recruit for the armyof the United States, at his own expense, during the war, shall thereupon be exempt from militia during the war.

New Camp of Instruction.

WILKESBARBE, Aug. 28 .- A new camp, called "Camp Luzerne," was organized in filling up. Its location is healthy, upon the western slope of the Wyoming Val-ley, distance about three miles from Wilkesbarre, and commands a view in every direction of unequaled beauty.

Major Hendrickson, of the 6th Infantry. is the Mustering-in Officer, and Major Eldan has been approinted Commandant of the Camp. Captains of companies will find this an excellent place to rendezvous with their men, as it well supplied with clear spring water, and all the necessaries required to make the soldiers both comfortable and happy.
