THE UNION AS IT WAS. Before a revolution, there was no Union. THE CONSTITUTION AS IT IS: Enforced and respected in all sections of the country.

FOR AMBASSADOR GENERAL: ISAAC SLENKER, of Union County. FOR SERGEANT GENERAL: JAMES P. BARR, of Allegheny County.

Several companies of volunteers are now being formed in this county; one of cavalry for the war, and one or more for nine months volunteers. Handbills will explain particulars.

An official letter to Lieut. Warner informs him that recruits to fill the old regiments will receive government bounty and advance pay, until further orders. They will also get the county bounty.

Dr. C. C. Halsey has been appointed examining surgeon, and B. S. Bentley, Esq., commissioner, to bear claims for exemption from draft in this county.

New Jersey has made up the full quota for nine months, as well as for three years, and will thus avoid a draft. Our state could have done as well, if our Governor had been equally prompt and decisive in calling for and accepting volunteers.

Gen. Phelps, who refused to put negroes to work, at New Orleans, and who resigned when ordered to do so, has been allowed to quit the service. The fanatic thinks it is "slaveryholding" to make contrabands labor!

Capt. John C. Morris left for Harrisburg last week with a company which is to be attached to the Bucktail brigade. They were enlisted in the western town.

To the Rescue! The N. Y. Times and Martial Law. THREE DAYS' HARD FIGHTING. Army of the Potomac Saves the Day.

The New York Times (republican) refers, in an article of its issue of Aug. 21, to the rumor that it is contemplated to enforce martial law in that city. It says: "The statement is hardly news. For all practical intents and purposes, it has been in force for some time past."

It proceeds to show that even more severe measures may have to be resorted to in view of the approaching draft, but takes it for granted that the completion of the draft "the disgraceful spectacle of martial law will no longer offend the highly civilized and patriotic people."

Statements having been made at a meeting in Liberty, not long since, at which Judge Tyler and myself were present, derogatory to the character of H. Hinds of Silver Lake, in regard to his refusing to have J. J. Stockholm, a hired man of his, enlist as a volunteer, and that he would not pay him for what he had worked if he did so.

Notice.—The second Quarterly Meeting for Montrose township will be held at M. H. Church, in Montrose, Sept. 13th and 14th. Preaching Saturday, at 2 P. M., and Sabbath at 10 A. M., by Rev. A. C. Sperry.

Court Proceedings. Com. vs. N. D. Snyder; keeping a tipping house; pled guilty, and fined $20 and costs. Com. vs. T. J. Barnes; assault with intent to kill; tried at April T. guilty, and sentenced to six months imprisonment in county jail, and fined $10.

The only way to escape a draft in this State is to enlist at once.
