SINGER & CO.'S

LETTER "A" FAMILY SEWING MACHINE,

WITH ALL THE RECENT IMPROVEMENTS,

Is the best and cheapest and most beautiful of all Sewing Machines. This machine will sew anything, from the running of a tuck in Varnum to the making of an Overcoat—anything from Pilot or Beaver Cloth down to the softest Gauze or Gossamer Tissue, and is ever ready to do its work to perfection. It can fell, hem, bind, gather, tuck, quilt, and has a capacity for a great variety of ornamental work. This is not the only machine that can fell, hem, bind, and so forth, but it will do so better than any other machine. The Letter "A" Family Sewing Machine may be had in a great variety of cabinet cases. The Folding Case, which is now becoming so popular, is as its name implies, one that can be folded into a box or case, which when opened, makes a beautiful, substantial, and spacious table for the work to rest upon. The cases are of every imaginable design—plain as the wood grew in its native forest, or as elaborately finished as art can make them.

The branch offices are all well supplied with silk, twist, thread, needles, oil, etc., of the very best quality.

Send for a copy of "SINGER & Co.'s GAZETTE."

MARRIAGES.

In Middletown, on the 5th inst., by Newell Keeler, Esq., Mr. E. H. WARNER, of Forest Lake, and Miss SABRIA CANFIELD, of Middletown, Susq. co. Pa.

On the 14th inst., by the Rev. E. A. Frantz, at the parsonage in New Milford, Mr. ELKANAH T. FOLLET and Miss HELEN BLANDING, both of Harford.

DEATHS.

In Tioga N. Y. Sept. 12th EMMA ROSALIE, only daughter of Wm. H. and Debbie G. Bedell, aged seven years, three months, and twelve days.

The tiny birdling that sought with so much dependance the parent nest, has plumed its fair pinions, and soaring out through ethereal space has found a more congenial clime, where the lifeless spirit can expand and no more be subject to the cold, bleak, blasting winds incident to this life.

It has found a clime where the blighting hand of disease has never entered; where funeral knells never break upon the ear of its inhabitants, for there the pangs of separation are unknown, where perpetual youth and beauty shall reign through endless ages, where sorrow has never invaded, and grief has never dimmed the eye. It has found a land of rest, and of purity. A little heart has ceased its pulsations, a little ruddy cheek on which bloomed the rose of health has paled in death, a little hand that was wont to twine caressingly about a fond parent's neck has become like marble, a voice that broke upon the ear of affection is hushed, but only that it might join in the melody of heaven, and that its tiny hand might strike the golden harp that helps to form the minstrelsy of the pure land.

Fond parents, thy EMMA is not lost, but only gone before, and with seraphic sweetness she is saying to "come this way, father, come this way mother." Oh may the "Physician of souls" bind up the torn, bleeding, and lacerated hearts of these afflicted parents and lead them unto himself, that they may be re-united with this lovely child in the realms of light, never more to be separated.

Upon the other shore she lives,
So spotless, sinless, pure;
A little cherub gone to rest,
Where sin can never lure.

She's left the inconstant scenes of life,
Its transitory joys,
Its scenes of strife, its many pangs,
And, too, its fading toys.

Her little life has ebbed away,
Gone out her little light,
Ere it had shed its radiance
O'er these darkened scenes of night.

'Twas such as she the Saviour blessed,
And took into his arms;
'Twas such as She He kindly pressed,
Ah, nothing shall hear harm.

Fond parents 'mid thy bitter tears,
Amid thine anguish wild,
Let this your joy and solace be,
'Tis well, 'tis well with thy child.

ADDIE ROSS.

Ross Hill, Sept. 15th, 1862.

In this borough, on the 22nd day of August, Mrs. SARAH E. LATHROP, wife of Mr. Azur Lathrop. She left three children, the youngest only a few hours old, to the care and interest of other hands. For some weeks prior to her death, in her communications to her relatives and friends, she expressed the conviction of her early departure to another world. All her arrangements and plans were made under the influence of this conviction. For some days prior to that, the most eventful in her history, she was confined to the house. Death came to her in that period, the most interesting in woman's earthly existence. God has removed her from the sight of those who loved her. What were the exercises of her mind during the prevalence of the deep impression that her death was nigh, the writer knows not; but of this we rest assured, that no mortal can so speak of death, without serious and earnest endeavors to be prepared for his coming. Thus, "friend after friend departs." "Therefore be ye also ready, for in such an hour as ye think not, the Son of man cometh!"—[Com.

On the 3d of Oct., EVA JANE, daughter of Abel H. and Abigail C. Patrick, aged 10 years the 6th of Sept. last.

This dear departed child has gone hence like an angel nipped in the bud. She was ripe for one of her years. She had, as we have good reason to believe, the spirit and mind of the savior stamped upon her. Her long sickness was borne with that calm cheerfulness and resignation which showed her mind young and tender as it was, was placed on things heavenly and divine. Her chief desire seemed to be to make her parents and all her little friends who visited her as peaceful and happy as possible. May the bright example of christian love and meekness which this dear child manifested in the closing days of her life, be long remembered by those who knew her, and by whom she was so fondly loved.—[Com.

To Consumptives.—The advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks, by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge), with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, &c. The only object of the advertiser in sending the Prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable, and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost nothing, and may prove a blessing.

Parties wishing the prescription will please address

Philadelphia,

Importer and manufacturer of, and dealer in, all kinds of FANCY FURS, for Ladies' and Children's wear.

I desire to say to my friends of Susquehanna and the surrounding counties that I have now in store, one of the largest and most beautiful assortment of all kinds and qualities of Fancy Furs for Ladies' and children's wear, that will be worn during this Fall and Winter.

My Furs were purchased in Europe, previous to the rise in Sterling Exchange, and the New Duty imposed on all Furs imported since the first of August, and I would also state that as long as my stock lasts, I will offer it at prices proportionate to what the cost to me; but, it will be impossible for me to Import and manufacture any more Furs, and sell them at the same price, owing to the unsettled state of the country.

A REMEDY FOR HARD TIMES, where people have been thrown out of business, and possess some little means or small incomes, is to make themselves a home. [See advertisement in another column of the settlement of Vineland.]

TO MANUFACTURERS, the town contains a fine opening for the SHOE manufacturing business, and other articles, being near Philadelphia, whose large and growing country has a large population, which affords a ready market.

This settlement, in the course of several years, will be one of the most beautiful places in the country, and a most agreeable for a residence.

It is intended to make it a Vine and Fruit-growing country, as this culture is the most profitable and best adapted to the market. Every assistance and encouragement for the settlers will be lent at cost; thus insuring the prosperity of the place. The high price of land out of the country will be an advantage to the settlers, as it compels people to resort to agriculture for labor.

Large numbers of people are purchasing land of us, who desire the best location should visit the place soon. Improved Land to sale for cash.

FISHER.—Land can be bought with or without buildings. The finest market value in the country.

The Title is indisputable. Warrantee deeds given, clear of all incumbrance, when the money is paid.

Boarding can always be had at the Depot.

Letters promptly answered. Apply to or address JASON and WM. PARVIN each, together with the Vineland Rural.

Route to the land:—Leave Walnut street wharf, Philadelphia, at 8 o'clock, A. M., and 4 P. M., for Camden, and the Camden & Atlantic Railroad to Glassboro', and Millville Rail
