They Undertook Too Much.

Jeff Davis found that he "undertook too much," when he attempted to bring the border slave states under his yoke. So Wilmot, Grow & Co when they tried to abolitionize another northern tier of counties, undertook too much, and are beaten in all three of the Susquehanna, Bradford, and Tioga Districts. The african element has been beaten in every congressional district in Northern Pennsylvania. After seven years of white slavery the "Year of Jubilee" has been realized.

Revolution in Bradford.

One of the Wilmot candidates for Renresentative in Bradford county was elected by 76 majority! the other by over 100! The county was certain to have been carried by a handsome majority for the anti-Wilmot candidates, had not provise Davy "compromised" by withdrawing Landon, his candidate for Congress. Proviso's compromise saved the county but could not save the district, as Tracy, the Umon candidate for Congress was elected over Clark, the Wilmot-Landon-abolition "substitute," by near 2,000 majority. David. like Galusha, and the harp of one string, is "played out." Seven years they reigned over "my district," and the people adopted emancipation for the whites. Bully for

Out of charity, we ought to pass Congress over, for poor Grow is too badly beaten to be crowed over. He is nearly 5.000 behind the result for Congress in the two counties two years ago; nearly 2,000 behind an election; and several hundreds behind a ticket which he helped drag down and defeat. It is true he gained 3 votes in Lenox, and Denison was caught in attempting to cheat an old man out of his vote for Congress by stealing the Denison ballot, and slyly insertrule which the family always exercise at people of Luzerne and Susquehanna counelections over their neighbors who are under "obligations" to them.

The Cincinnati Times [Rep.] says: The apologists of the administration are and put to it to explain the results of the The majority for our State ticket October election. Their favorite plea is Republicans, the Democrats refusing to enlist, with the design of carrying the elections. This is not only UNTRUE, but a MEAN, slanderous and very unmanly statement; and one which no one but a WEAK-BRAINED individual, or demagogue of a VERY LOW CLASS would

We believe the masses of the Democrat c party are as loyal and as faithful to the inion as those of any other party. In proof of this we refer to the fact that when the flag of the Union was shot down in Charleston harbor, the masses of the Democratic party at once surrendered their party organization, and rallied nobly to the support of the administration. Our first successful General was an old hot-headed general importance. Some volunteers said Breckinridge Democrat, and, we ask, who can question the loyalty of old Ben Butler?

The Soldiers' Vote. In Ohio and Indiana, the Abolitionists account for their defeat at the recent elections because of the party having sent so many soldiers to the war. The Inquirer answers this in the following style: "The Chicago Tribune, Indianapolis Journal, and other abolition papers, lay the cause of their defeat at the late elections in Ohio and Indiana to the soldiers not being permitted to vote. They assume that a large majority of the soldiers are abolitionists, and would vote the abolition ticket. If this is so, will the Tribune, or any other Abolition paper, tell us why the Abolitionists in the Ohio Legislature, last winter, defeated the bill giving soldiers the privilege to vote this fall in their different camps? The Democratic members all voted for the bill, and the Abolitionists against it. The latter killed it. They killed it because they knew four-fifths of the soldiers were Democrats and would vote the Democratic ticket. If they had Armstrong and Westmoreland: J. A. not known this they would have put the McCullough, Samuel Wakefield, Richard bill through. After this record, it would not do for them to lay their deteat to the absence of the soldiers. In Indiana Gov. Morton got furloughs for all the soldiers he thought would vote the abolition ticket. and sent them home to vote. The Democrats were kept in the camps. We are

"Nigger on the Brain."

That quaint Tennessee politician, Parson Brownlow, in one of his late speeches, in the West, said of the President's Emancipation proclamation! I think the measure useless, as I do much of the legislation of the last Congress, but it will quiet the consciences of a off quietly and without difficulty, notwishchass of radical men among you who are standing we see statements in the Phila-afflicted with that incurable disease I call delphia papers to the effect that it has nigger on the brain."

A telegraphic despatch from Wash ington says :-states that the latter was perfectly delighted with the late returns from Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana."

We can share in the President's delight on these pleasing results.

SONG OF THE DEMOCRACY.

Addressed to Futher Abruham. BY DOUGLAS A. LEVIEN.

We are coming, Father Abraham, Three Hundred Thousand strong,
To save you from the clutches of the Abolition throng. You've heard from Pennsylvania, and from Indiana too, And Ohio has been speaking through her ballot-box to you! The sturdy men of iron, from the furnace and the Mine,

With the Hoosiers and the Buckeye boys, are wheeling into line: They are marching to the music of the Union as of yore, And New York is coming after them, Three Hundred Thousand more!

that familliar tune, With which so oft, in former years we've scared that same old coon! forth with cheering sound "It is hardly necessary to add to this To gladden every household where a loyal heart is found.

ner we unfold: our Seymour will uphold! wherever imputed to him and them, of To scatter all the Nation's foes-the Union to restore, We are coming, Father Abraham, Three Hundred Thousand more!

We are coming, Father Abraham, and as we march along, We'll relieve you from the "pressure" of the Abolition throng! You told them that you couldn't make a pig's leg of his tail—.

And that against the Comet, Papal bulls would not avail; .
They wouldn't heed your anecdotes, or listen to your plea-They swore that White Men should be slaves and Niggers should be free! But you need not mind their ravings now, or tremble at their roar-For we'er coming, Father Abraham. Three Hundred Thousand more! We are coming, Father Abraham, so cast away your fears: It's the Democratic "slogan" that is ringing in your ears! They pretend to call us Traitors ! But we point you to the blood That soaks into Virginia's soil-that dyes Potomac's flood-That stains the hills of Maryland, the plains of Tennessee : Such "Traitors," Father Abraham, this Union loves to see! It's a growing "Traitor" army that is thundering at your door,

And New York will swell its columns with Three Hundred Thousand-more! We are coming, Father Abraham, to vindicate the laws, To hold the Starry banner up-to guard the Nation's cause! Our Motto is, "The White Man's Right :" for this we've battled long-

For this we'll fight with sinewy arms with earnest hearts and strong-For this we'll burst Fort Warren's bars and crumble Lafavette-For this we'll crush the Nation's foes, and save the Union yet! Thus speaks, the North! Oh! Abraham, _you'll heed its mighty roar,

When New York shall swell the chorus with Three Hundred Thousand more!
