seige guns, they at once abandoned their ought to represent one neighborhood use, and prepared to make their last grand, without a draft.—A. E. T.] I am surthough fatal attempt of taking the town prised to learn that no more of them enby assault. Our regiment was ordered to listed; yet I think they are wise after we support the 5th Ohio battery, which was see how the war is being prosecuted. We anted on the left of fort Williams. The see that the officers are shaping things so rebels made the most daring and desperate that it will turn everything to their interattempts to charge this fort, but were driest, and are making a speculation out of ven back at each successive charge, leaving this war. So I don't blame a man if his their dead and wounded in ghastly piles on the field. Finding themselves foiled in ing health, happiness, and even life, for their attempts to take Fort Williams, they no apparent end. But what is the use of immediately commenced massing the main complaining, for they will have their own body of their army on the north side of the way, and we must fight it through, and town, preparatory to a charge on Forts the officers get the credit; but enough of Phillip and Robinet. An hour or two was war. I like it is as well as I expected, and spent in getting their forces in position, in therefore am not disappointed. When driving in our skirmishers and sharpshooters; but at length the rattlesnake flag could be seen in the distance, as brigade after brigade slowly filed into line. After tigning. passing an abattis of fallen timber which] kirted the works, they formed in double columns, eight ranks deep, and at the com-mand "charge bayonets," started at double-quick. As soon as they got within cannister range the forts and batteries opened upon them with shell and shot, cau sing huge gaps in their ranks; but still they kept coming, closing up their ranks as shell after shell ploughed through them or exploded in their midst. To those who were not initiated in the plan of battle, it seemed impossible to save the town. The ed. Those of us who are left, have picked rebels continued coming, regardless of the up finely. Yesterday the Lientenant and fate of their comrades, and after a short a squad of our boys went about five miles struggle got entire possession of Ft Rob- to visit the 141st Regiment. Those two They had also effected an entrance into the northern portion of the town, and the day seemed lost. Our infantry had more men than we have, and the boys the day seemed lost. Our infantry had more men than we have, and the boys been ordered to the south of the town, say they could hardly find, in that Reg't, giving the rebels full possession of the north. But no sooner had they got possession of Fort Robinet, than the guns in the other forts were turned upon them, and such a slaughter was never witnessed. By this time the rebels had become aware that they had been made the subject of a good joke, and as our infantry came up on double-quick, pouring volley upon volley into them, they commenced one of the grandest skedaddles ever witnessed. The ditches and rifle-nits surrounding the forts were literally filled with dead and wounded secesh. They had made their grand charge-were beaten, and the battle was ended. That afternoon was spent in burying the dead, when it was found that the the people of the North seem to differ in week. rebels had lost 1500 in killed, nearly 3000 wounded, and about 1700 prisoners. Our killed and wounded did not exceed 500.

The next morning at daylight we went in pursuit of the rebels. We chased them have brought the War to a close before this. to the Hatchie River, where they were He has encountered all kinds of difficulties met by Gen. Hurlbut's division from Bolivar, and after several hours severe fighting they were compelled to change their in their defeat in Maryland, and their feat line of retreat, and had just got fairly under way again when our forces from Corinth came up. From this point for fifteen miles the road was literally crowded with tents, broken wagons, caissons, cots, stools, cooking utensils, and in fact every thing the rebels could throw overboard, to lightance of 50 miles, occasionally getting so weight. Fast people may find that Virabandon the pursuit, and returned to Cor-breast coat pocket.

GRAND JUNCTION, Tenn., Nov. 20. pursuit of Price and his army, but our mail facilities had been so much delayed. by the late battle there, that I had no opportunity of sending it. I am obliged to send it now, or nothing, as I have no paper, and can get no more until out sutler

Give my regards to all, and write soon. Yours, &c., E. M. NEWCOMB.

LETTER-FROM J. W. TENNANT.

. Nashville, (in camp.) Nov. 21, '62. DEAR PARENTS: * . * I have been sick two weeks-was in the hospital one week, and was exceedingly glad when I have now been in camp for two weeks, and how much longer we will remain here is not known to us. We may stay two months, and we may not stay two weeks, and our destination after leaving this place I have not the remotest idea of. but rather think we shall go farther south-the sunny south. I am very anxious to see more of this rebellious country, and perhaps shall not have a better opportunity. I have seen enough of the ebony tribe to satisfy me for sometime, and use it as a hobby to bring themselves ministration, and demanding that all such Union nor destroy its integrity. into notoriety; at the same time caring arrests should cease, and that persons unnothing in reality how the slaves are treat- der arrest should have a prompt and pubed, so that their own condition can be lie trial, according to the provisions of the time on such an ignoble question. If old Kentucky, and Thomas, (White Republic columns, to-day, and pitch into them, too. Abe's proclamation liberates the slaves, it | can,) of Massachusetts, voting nay. then follows, what is to be done with A resolution, offered by Mr. Richardconsequently they do not enjoy that free-arrested, was also tabled—ayes 74, nays dom which a free people enjoy. The idea 40, Lovejoy moving the question. of their associating with the whites is ab. A resolution inquiring by what right surd. The question then arises, what some newspapers are denied the use of must be done with them? I say let them the mails, was also tabled. The blacks remain where they have been raised, and dare not defend their own outrages. where everything is congenial to their habits.

I have seen some fine land in Kentucky, but a great portion of is ten times rougher than I ever saw in Pennsylvania. tion to command would be a calamity to the country and a disgrace to the Adminry much, yet it don't compare with Illinois. We are within a mile of Nashville, and have not been in the city yet. ism from morning till night, but when it able andacity in so doing. comes to fighting for their dear Union -The New York Times laments sidi equal rights of their beloved brother Afri- divided North? Let the Albany Journal, such a fighting stock too. The reason Tribunes of the press, has united the office at Washington, it appears that the ing of the present, he is turning his attent are expressly invited to be present and to were no match for our sixty-four pound have already enlisted, and we think that we are not on the march, I have but very little to do-fife two or three times a day, which constitutes my labor-not very fa

From your affectionate son, JOHN W. TENNANT.

Letter from T. P. Mills.

CAMP NEAR AQUEA LANDING, VA., November 26th, 1862.

DEAR BROTHER :- * * We were badly run down last Summer, and did not compare very well with the men we saw just from home; but now the scale is turncompanies, though so lately out with full twelve as hearty looking men as they were The new men don't seem to stand the banging. Our small number-27-stand style of living. We stretch our oil-cloth over, forming a sort of shelter, and stop the ends with boughs. This makes a sort of dog-house to crawl into. By walking ed to win around in the night, one can hear many grunt and groan over aching hips and legs but it is all gone as soon as the boys stiraround and get warm, and you will hear but little grumbling over it.

One thing, however, has caused much opinion. Perhaps the people know best, but we can't see it. I conclude that those who are disposed to charge him with I lost one man killed, three wounded, and treachery, &c., have not fully studied the one prisoner. I received two musket shots secret motives of their own hearts. That he through my coat, but they did no injury, was slow, we do not deny. He was slow and cautious, and that from humane moexcept to smash an ambrotype I had in my tives; but it is my opinion that if these fast men had allowed him to work, he would -still showing himself the man, till after the rebels have acknowledged his ability in their defeat in Maryland, and their feat andoah Valley. Then for some reason, l suppose, because he was too slow, he is removed. Perhaps Burnside is the better man; at least we will hope for the best .-For a start he has succeeded admirably in sticking us in the mud, and starving us a ten their teams and facilitate their retreat. Hew days. I suppose it is necessary to do We followed them as far as Ripley, a dis-near to their rear guard as to be able to ginia mud can stick even Burnside. If he salute them with our 6 pounders, but as advances from here, which I very much the rebels had burned the bridge over the doubt, he will find it slow work. We Hatchie near Ripley, we were obliged to have already had to commence corduroying and hereafter there can be little moving without it. He has his whole force massed between here and Fredericksburg, a dis- ordered his inquisition keepers when they ed, and not by the consent of the slavetance of ten miles. We are at present re-release political prisoners without a trial, holders themselves." The above was written soon after our building bridges, &cd., that he destroyed who were arrested without curse, to exreturn from Ripley, where we had been in when he left here a few months ago; and accomplished in their destruction. This for redress! Can useless infamy be of a not written by him, and that his messarailroad complete, and furnished with deeper grade? Better issue a proclama- ges were, says: trains, could have been of little or no use tion authorizing and requiring everybody to the rebels; and yet he destroyed one bridge that cost us three weeks hard labor returns from St. Louis, where he has gone last Spring and left no place easily damaged, untouched. So much for Burnside.

I am happy to see that the feeling towards him, among the men, is improving. Since I have been a soldier nothing has occurred so seriously affecting the feelings and sentiments of the army as this change. Every feeling of patriotism seemed crushed. The cry was: "IT IS A POLITICAL GAM-BLING OPERATION;" and those who had the charge of companies and were in became able to follow my regiment. We a manner responsible for the conduct of the men, have had no little trouble in counteracting and keeping down the spirit of insubordination. But enough of this; there are ways enough for our present commander to operate to accomplish some on the war until they can steal all the The Albany Statesman frankly conthings,' and the boys may learn to respect and love him almost as much as his pred-ecessor. T. P. MILLS. They are Afraid of their Record.

The first day's proceedings of Congress bettered-seeking nothing but their own Constitution, was laid on the table on aggrandizement. Such is the true light to motion of Colfax, (abo.) of Indiana, by a view it in, yet it is unnecessary to waste vote of 80 ayes to 40 nays, Crittenden of sayage editor read, those in our editorial them? Oh, say some, colonize them—son, of Illinois, calling upon the President colonize a hog as well! And the minute to inform the House what citizens of Illiyou colonize them, you deprive them of nois are now confined in Forts Warren, their liberty, in a degree, for colonizing Lafayette and Delaware, and the Capitol them limits them to a certain territory; Prison, and upon what charges they were

-The N. Y. World says, "Of all the political and military humbugs extant, Fremont is the greatest; and his restoraistration." -On Tuesday moning, portions of two companies of the Eighth Pennsylvania Cav-I should judge that Rennsylvania had alry, numbering sixty men, were surprised furnished men enough to exempt her from at King George's Court House, by three a draft, but if it will take the right men, hundred Rebles, but forty of our men suc-I rejoice in the draft, for there are some of seeded in escaping. The Rebels crossed our Union-loving men who preach Union- the river in skiffs, and exhibited consider-which they harp so loudly about, and the vided North. And what has produced a can, then they are off the track. Such men a Republican paper, answer. Here are you have among you, and it is such I the words: "The more than incendiary, would like to see drafted. would like to see drafted.

It is remarkable how the Tennants essented by Mr. Summer in the Senate, caped the draft, being so numerous and Wendell Phillips in the forum, and the why there were no more Tennants draft. Southern people, and now threatens to number of soldiers on the sick list is one tion to future salvation? It will doubt, participate in the exercises and discussed, is simply this some ten or twelve divide the North."

AMERICAN Southern people, and now threatens to number of soldiers on the sick list is one tion to future salvation? It will doubt, participate in the exercises and discussed i Montrose Democrat.

A. J. GERRITSON, - - Editor.

Tuesday, Dec. 16th, 1862.

THE UNION AS IT WAS; THE CONSTITUTION AS IT IS;

Read what a Republican Volunteer

At a dinner recently given McClellan at Willard's Hotel, he gave as a toast : "The success of Gen. Burnside, and the army of the Potomac."

The McDowell Court of Inquiry is the war: confirming the established fact that the interfering and blundering of the Washington managers, foolishly, if not wickedit well now, but it is getting cold for this ly prevented the capture of Richmond last summer. Had McDowell been allowed to join McClellan, we could not have fail-

A letter appears in the Montrose Republican, purporting to be from G. A. Grow, but which, in charity for him, must be considered a forgery. But should he fail to repudiate the thing, we shall consider. ~ ¿

Political prisoners," about whom we hear so much, are generally men who ron't vote the abolition ticket, and are won't vote the abolition ticket, and are therefore kidnapped and imprisoned, with that the insurgents had exhausted their the intent to scare others out of being right the other way, the Bastiles are opened, lest the people open them. -

Hickman, one of Grow's pet chairmen, has offered a bill in Congress to get up 100 regiments of negroes, to be led by negroes, who are to receive double the pay allowed whites! Are white men only half as good as darkies, or are the abolition party wrong in their estimate?

The President is so alarmed at the the constitution. Only think of the degradation of a man signing an unconstitutort an oath that they will not bring suits and quite as efficacious.

of Reps. on the 9th that with his consent tences as those contained in his imprompthe Union should never be restored under tu speech at the Cooper Institute, prior to the Constitution unless slavery was first his nomination for the Presidency. The abolished. This openly avowed disunion message is plain, straight-forward and rather heavy. He makes no appeal to the abolition-traitor was appointed to the po- feelings, he touches none of the finer erition of Chairman of the Committee of motions of the human heart, he makes no Ways and Means,—the most important effort to stir up the patriotism of the peoone in the House—by G. A. Grow. It is ple to high and lofty deeds for Union and Liberty. Does the elevation of a man to his disunion views that gave him the favor the Presidency blot out of his mind all of Grow; and is another evidence of the the eloquence and poetry it may have prefact that the abolitionists intend to drag viously contained?" money they dare to or can, and then let demns the message as wholly unworthy all the states go that refuse to comprom- the Executive who writes it, and the Conise by selling their slaves. The late vote gress to whom it is addressed: at the North shows them that there is a "We confess to a sad disappointment limit to their wickedness; and that aitho' in the perusal of the President's annual is sufficient to show that the abolitionists the President has been by them bullied interest for a full and fair presentation of and boldly assert that the condition they are now in is more congenial to their tastes, than any other that man can invent; and yet, your northern abolitionist fered by Mr. Cox of Ohio, condemning that the combined efforts of the Jff Davis yet when we are looking for bread we are yet. It is a given a store of the country in view of its pending perils, yet when we are looking for bread we are

> The Republican snarls over an item Go in, lemons, and squeeze yourself.

The "blacks" referred to in our last, who destroyed tickets in Tioga county, are "black" hearted, politically-abolitionists—such as the Ind. Republican blows for. Will the editor N. B.?

A supply of U.S. Excise Stamps now on hand, and for sale by WM. H. tary life. The whole loyal population are Cooper & Co., Bankers, Montrose, Pa.

perfectly responsible, who has made a et do not yet seem to be fully sensible of standing offer through one of the papers this cry. Will the present Congress prove there, that he will give $5,000 to any one itself sufficiently intelligent and disinterwho will prove that there are more Re- ested to prompt the Executive to a dispublicans than Democrats in the army from Ohio. -WILLIAM A. GRAHAM, formerly in the Senate of the United States, and the candidate for Vice President on the ticket said that once there was a man who tho't pay the taxes."

-According to the reports from the evidently fallen asleep, he takes to dream. All the Teachers of the county, the various hospitals, in the Adjutant-General's ing of the year 1900! Is it that despair. School Directors and friends of education -According to the reports from the knowing what administration journals say about Mr. Lincoln's annual message, we will give a few extracts from some of fairs. the most able and independent Republican organs; and in carefully perusing the President-are the "loyal" sheets war until the year 19001 which are not mobbed or suppressed by the powers that (ought not to) be."-Read them to your neighbors who read papers which do not have any opinion about the message, and are afraid to copy those of others:

The President's Message.

The N. Y. Evening Post says: "Mr. incoln is not a rhetorician of the Macauley school, who writes polished Britania ware sentences. Neither is he a formal logician, whose premises and conclusions carry conviction with them as irresistably as a cannon-ball carries death. His reasonings are not always rigid nor his illustrations happy, and his methods are anything but graceful. * It will be a disappointment to the public that the President tells us nothing about the progsays of McClellan's removal, in to-days ress of the war; yet something should have been said, if not for the information of our own people, for the information of people abroad."

The N. Y. Commercial Advertiser dwells also upon this cold-blooded indifference. this anothy of sense and of conscience in regard to the services and sacrifices of

"In one respect the message disappoints is, and is indeed unsatisfactory. It is entirely silent on the domestic condition of. the country. Except from incidental mention, the reader of the document would have no idea of the mighty and exhausting conflict through which the country is passing, and which has been so fruitful of events during the past year. Our soldiers and sailors, with their commanding offitotal silence, without a word of commis seration for the brave wounded and dead. or a genial paragraph for the living. Except that reference is made to the depart-Clellan. On this subject the army and it as genuine and treat it as such, next ments of war and navy, the reader of the message would not guess that we had an army in the field and a navy on the ocean. It is strangely barren of every word or idea that could lead one to suppose that war had slain its tens of thousands since resources of blood treasure to overthrow Democrats. Finding the thing worked the federal government, and the loyal States had poured forth their lives and their money in noble, self-sacrificing efshock. No word of sympathy with the past, or cheer for the future. * We taken. confess that this defect in the message surprises and pains us."

The Springfield Republican says: " Not a few will say that the President seems wholly oblivious to the great crisis that is upon the country, and the momentous neces sity that rests upon the government, while palpable to every one that earnest war is the business of the hour, and that it is tional act to pardon himself for an offense by war to the utter subjugation of the against the constitution? Lately he has slaveholders, that slavery is to be abolish-ting that Lincoln's stump speeches were

"We confess we are disappointed in the message. Since he became President, Abto forget him. It would be more sensible, raham Lincoln seems to have abandoned altogether that forcible and eloquent style which rendered his speeches famous. Thad Stevens declared in the House We look in vain for any such ringing sen-will harp on this cursed negro question, the illegal arrests authorized by the ad- and Lincoln cabals shall neither divide the are given a stone. It is a great pity that Mr. Lincoln could not discern the calls of his bleeding country for a plain, straight forward, energetic action in suppressing the slaveholders' rebellion-adhering t clipped from an article copied into our the Constitution as it is, and simply avail news columns, ridiculing Lincoln. Let the ing himself of his determination to employ the slave in the service, if his owner shall continue in revolt at the end of the prescribed period. He is honest enough in all he says and purposes, but the country is heartily sick of hearing of nothing but his honesty.

We hope now that the message is de-We hope now that the message is delivered, that Congress will treat it with all proper consideration, but go to work all proper consideration, but go to work webb. From 10 to 11 a. m. Penman-ship, conducted by Mr. M. J. Corse. cns of the nation, by preserving it from tions from the question box.

further impositions either in civil or mili
Afternoon.—From 1 to 2 p crying for a termination of the war, by its suppression, without compromise or tem-A gentleman in Zanesville, said to be porization. The President and his cabincharge of his manifest duty? If it does not, there is a "manifest destiny" for the nation that God only can avert."

The Boston Commonwealth says: "It is be prepared.
aid that once there was a man who tho't SATURDAY.—Morning.—1st, Sentiments didate for Vice President on the ticket with General Scott, in 1852, has just been that if he should run two miles he could run two follows L. A.

To avoid imposition, observed be rounded by Mr. H. N. Tiffany. 11 to 12 or in a man keeding, ponducted by Mr. H. N. Tiffany. 11 to 12 or in a man keeding, ponducted by Mr. H. N. Tiffany. 11 to 12 or in a man keeding, ponducted by Mr. H. N. Tiffany. 11 to 12 or in a man keeding, ponducted in a more heavy-eyed President. Here, sion until time of adjournment.

much as we can attend to deal with De-As our readers may feel interested in cember 1862, without undertaking the burthens of the second generation from this. Possibly that generation may have brains of its own to deal with its own af-"The President says that slavery is the cause of the war; the cause of its continuance; that we can have no peace so long them we wish it to be noted that these as it exists. Then his proposition can onpapers represent the especial "friends" of ly amount to a proposition to continue the message is like trying to extract sunbeams from cucumbers.

"The new articles for the Constitution are ludicrous, and one can hardly believe that Orpheus C. Kerr did not have his pocket telegraph on the lines, and so manage to insert several paragraphs.

"The fact is the President seems to be a man of inadequate calibre; he does not comprehend his position; he has exhausted himself apparently in taking up the gauntlet which the South threw down."

administration papers.

A Word to Our Subscribers.

The heavy and cortinued increase in the the first of January next: Subscriptions paid in advance, $1.50 not paid in advance, $2.00 Those indebted for one or more years who settle before January 1st, and pay a year in advance-to Jan. 1st 1864, will be charged but $1.50 per year. Those who owe for more than one year can choose between settling with us, or with a legal gentleman who will exact the extra 50 cts a year, mileage, etc., etc., etc. His work to commence with January. Prices after January 1st. will be regulated as all other cers of every degree, are passed over in branches of trade are-by the necessities of the times. Rates are upward.

The above rates must be enforced, for limited amount from our subscribers. during the winter. What we shall want will be Sugar Maple and Birch, cut from LIVE timber, and perhaps, a few cords of DRY wood. Wood cut from "dry trees," Acknowledgment.

MONTROSE, Dec. 11, 1862. Mr. EDITOR:-Through the medium of your paper, the ladies of the Soldiers' Aid Society would gratefully acknowledge the receipt of five dollars from the Lodges of he is absorbed in his scheme of compensation both the Odd Fellows and Free Masons. ted emancipation, the realization of which They thank you, sincerely, for the good it indignant rebuke of the people that he has is in the far off future, if it is to come at will do the soldiers, and the kindly syma bill passed, without allowing debate, to all. Others still will scout his plan alto- pathy, approval and confidence, which you pardon him and his minions for violating gether, and declare it a waste of time and and many others have manifested in their energy to consider it at all while it is so efforts to give comfort to the brave defenders of our beloved country.

By order of the society.

KATE N. HILL, Treasurer.

Christmas Entertainment. The Ladies' Aid Society will give an Stephen Sweet of Connecticut, very many pretty toys for children, such as Santa Claus will be pleased to pur-chase; Charades, or Tableaus; Refreshsion 5 cts.

By order of the Society. " KATE N. HILL. Montrose, Dec. 11, 1862.

The Honorary Members

Of the Montrose Fire Company No. 2 have contributed as follows for the year closing July, 1862:

Henry Drinker, $5; Abel Turrell, 1; S. S. Mott, 1; H. J. Webb, 1; B. S. Bent-S. Langdon, 1; C. N. Stoddard, 1; J. B. Cures cuts wounds immediately and leaves no scar. McCollum, 1; A. Baldwin, 1; G. V. Dl. SWEETS Infallible LINIMENT is the best remedy for sores in the known world. Searle, 1; I. Vadakin, 1; C. W. Gere, 1; I. N. Bullard, 1; N. C. Warner, 1; Wml Has been used by more than a million people, and all praise it. Langdon, 1; C. N. Stoddard, 1; J. B. Woodruff, 1; A. Chamberlin, 1; M. S. DR. SWEET'S Infallible LINIMEMT Wilson, 1; Horace Brewster, I; W. A. DR. SWEET'S Infallible LINIMENT Crossmon, 1; Edward Bacon, 1; W. H. Boyd, 1.-Total, $30 50.

S. M. Wilson, Treas'r. Dec. 1, 1862.

Donation.-The friends of Rev. A. O. Warren are invited to attend a donation party for his benefit, at the house of J. B. Chalker, in Liberty, on the afternoon of Dec. 25th. Oyster supper in the evening. All are cordially invited to attend. PER ORDER.

Teacher's 'Association.

The next meeting of "The Susquehar na County Teachers' Association" will be held in the Borough of New Milford commencing Friday morning, Jan. 2nd

ORDER OF EXERCISES.

Afternoon.-From 1 to 2 p. m., Grammar, conducted by Mr. E. B. Hawley. 2

ley. 3 to 4, election of officers and misellancous business. Evening Session.-Reading of Essavs by Miss L. A. Jayne, Miss Anna M Dean, Miss Flora J. Johnston, Mr. M. L. Hall, Mr. Albert Scott, and Rufus Cushman. The above named persons having been approinted at the last session of the Association, it is expected that they wil to 3, History, conducted by M. L. Haw-

DEMOCRATIC JUBILEE

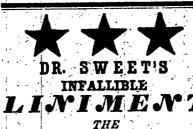

AND MASS MEETING.

THE DEMOCRATS of Susquehanns and To get any gleam of hope from this Luzerne Counties will celebrate the Union victories, in this district and elsewhere, at Montrose, on Friday, December 26th, '62. Dinner will be prepared at the Keystone Hotel, at three o'clock, in the afternoon; and a mass meeting will be held at the Court House in the evening, commencing at half past six o'clock.

HON. CHARLES DENISON, Member of HON. CHARLES DENISON, Member of 6.15 p.m.
Congress elect, Hons, C. E. Wright, Geo.
Sanderson, E. B. Chase, J. B. Stark, and D. R. Randall, G. B. Nicholson, S. S.

J. C. WELLS, Gen. Ticket Agent. These quotations are exclusively from D.R. Randall, G. B. Nicholson, S. S. Winchester, C. H. Silkman, Esq's, and others, from Luzerue County will be present on the occasion. -

A full attendance from the Democrate cost of all printing materials renders some of this county is desired, and a crowd is decided reformation necessary. We now expected in the evening. Able and ele- S. S. HARTWELL, B. A. Principal, make the following announcement of the quent speakers will address the meeting, subscription rates to be observed until and a "good time," is anticipated. There should be a turn out from each township.

GREAT REMEDY FOR RHEUMATIC AND NERVOUS DIBORDERS

we cannot deviate therefrom without a loss. Of course, all our friends—those who really desire to support a Democratio Press, will comply with our terms.

Anour Wood.—We have a supply of wood on hand, but expect to receive a limited amount from our subscribers.

For all of which it is a speedy and certain remedy, and never fails. This Liument is preparet from the recipe of Dr. Stephen Sweet of Councectuit, the famous bone setter, and has been used in his practice for more than 20 jers with the most stonishing success.

ABANALLEVIATOR OF PAIN, it is unrivalled by any preparation before the public, of which the most skeptical may be convinced by a single trial.

This Liniment will care rapidly and radically, Rhemmatic Disorders of every kind, and in thousands of care.

I have a loss of the convergence of the supply of the convergence of the convergence of the supply of the convergence of the con FOR NEURAGIA it will afford immediate relief in overy case, however distressing.

It will relieve the worst three of HEADACHE in three minutes and is warranted to do it.

TOOTHACHE also it will cure lastantly.

FOR NERYOUS DESILITY AND GENERAL LASSITUDE, arising from improdence or excess, this Liniment is a most happy and unfailing remedy. Acting directly upon the nervous tissues, it strengthens and revivides the system, and restores it to elasticity and vigor.

FOR FILES.—As an external remedy, we claim that it is the best known, and we challenge the world to produce an equal. Every victim of this distressing complaint should give it a trial, for it will not fail to afford immediate relief, and in a majority of cases will effect a resiscal QUINSY AND SORE THROAT are sometimes ex-remely malignant and dangerous, but a timely applicatreinely malignant and dangerous, but a timely applica-tion of this liniment will never fail to care.

SPRAIMS are sometimes very obstinate, and enlarge-ment of the joints is liable to occur if neglected. The worst care may be conquered by this liniment in two or three days.

RULESS, CUIS. WOUNDS, SORES, ULCES. BURNS AND SCALDS, yield readily to the wonderful healing properties of DR. SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT, when used according to directions. Also,

BITES AND STINGS.

Dr. Stephen Sweet of Con'eticut, the Great Natural Bone Setter.

Stephen Sweet of Connecticut is known all over the United States.

entertainment on Christmas Eve, to replenish their fund. "Christmas Tree," ls the author of "Dr. Sweet's Infallible Liniment." bearing a fine variety of useful articles; Dr. Sweet's Infallible Liniment Cures Rheumatiam and never fails.

Dr. Sweet's Infallible Liniment Is a certain remedy for Neuralgia ments, &c., at the Academy Hall, Dec. 24th. Doors open at 8 o'clock. Admis Dr. Sweet's Infallible Liniment

Cures Burns and scalds immediately. Dr. Sweet's Infallible Liniment Is the best known remedy for sprains and bruises. Dr. Sweet's Infallible Liniment

Cures Headache immediately and was never known to fail. Br. Sweet's Infallible Liniment

Affords immediate reliet for Piles, and seldom fails DR. SWEETS Infallible LINIMENT ey, 1; S. S. Mulford, 1; J. R. Dewitt, 1; DR. SWEETS Infallible LINIMENT

> DR. SWEET'S Infallible LINIMENT Is for sale by all Druggists. Price 25 and 50 c

A Friend in Need. Try it. Dr. Sweet's Infallible Liniment As an external remedy, is without a rival, and will alleviate pain more speedily than any other preparation. For all Rheumatic and Nervous Disorders it is truly infallible and as a curative for sores, wounds, apraina, braises, &c. its southing, lealing and powerful strengthening properties, excite the just wonder and astonishment of all who have ever given it a trial. Over one thousand certificates of remarkable cures, performed by it within the last two years, attest the fact:

TO HORSE OWNERS! Dr. Sweet's Infallible Liniment for Horses Dr. Supect's Injoitable Limment for Horses is nurivalled by any, and in all cases of lameness arising from spraims, bruises, or wrenching, its effect is magical and certain. Harness or saddle galls, scratches, mange, etc., it will also cure speedily. Hingbone and spavin may easily be prevented and cured in their incipient stages, but confirmed cases are beyond the possibility of reddical cure. No case of the kind, however, is so desperate or hopeless but it may be alleviated by this liminent and its faithful application will always remove the lameness and enable the horses to travel with comparative case;

Every Horse Owner should have this remedy at hand, for its timely use at the first appearance of lameness will effetually prevent those formidable diseases; to which all horses are itable, and which render so many otherwise valuable horses nearly

DR. SWEET'S INFALIBLE LINIMENT SOLDIER'S FRIEND And thousands have found it truly A FRIEND IN NEED;

A REMEDY FOR HARD THEFA, where people have A been thrown out of business, and possess some lit-tle means or small incomes, is to make themselves a home, (Spe advertisement in another column of the settle-ment of Vineland.)

HERNIA TRUSSES,

By Baldwin & Allen, Montress. Lackawanna & Bloomsburg R. R.

ON and after Nov. 7th, 1862, Passenger Trains will run. MOVING SOUTH:

A Passenger train also leaves Kingston at 8.00 s. m.for cranton, to connect with train for New York. Return-ng, leaves Scranton on arrival of train from New York

Leave 1.45 p. m. 8.40

SUSQ'A COUNTY CLASSICAL & NORMAL School.

ASSISTED BY

Experienced & Competent Instructors.. The Winter Term commences on Monday, Nov. 24, 1862. TUITION PER TERM OF 11 WEEKS.

No bill for the above studies shall exceed ... y say, Masic on the Piano ... 5.00. Use of Instrument. 2.00 Np deduction for abbence except in cases of protracted illness, or by special agreement. Board can be obtained from $2.00 to $2,50 per week. Pupils wishing to board themselves can find good rooms at moderate charges. For further particulars address the Principal, ap Montrose, Pa. WM. JESSUP, Prest. C. F. READ, Sec'ry. Nov. 18, 1862.

NEW MILFORD NORMAL SCHOOL.

M. L. HAWLEY, Principal. E. B. HAWLEY. Assistant. RATES OF TUITION.

THE WINTER TERM OF this prosperous Institution will commence on WEDNESDAY, NOV. 26th, 1962, and continue Eleven Weeks.

Students will be afforded an opportunity of acquiring a thorough ENGLISH & CLASSICAL education on more liberal TERMS, than at any other similar School in the State. in the State.

Lectures on Teaching and other subjects will be given during the term.

Board can be had on the most reasonable terms; also Rooms for those wishing to board themselves.

To for further particulars, address M. L. HAWLEY, Principal, New Millford.

By order of the Board.

T. BOYLE, Sec. Y. JOHN HAYDEN, Pres't.

New Millford, Nov. 10th, 1862.

Office of JAY COOKE, At JAY COOKE & CO., Bankers,

114 SOUTH THIRD STREET, Philadelphia, Nov. 1, 1862. THE undersigned, having been appointed Subscription Agent by the Secretary of the Treasury is now prepared to furnish at once, the NEW TWENTY YEARS SIX PER CT. BONDS of the United States, designated as "Five-Twenties," redeemable at the pleasure of the Government, after five years, and authorized by act of Congress, approved Feb. 25, 1052.

The Coupon Bonds are issued in sums of $50, $10), $300, and $1000.
The Register Bonds in sums of $50, $100, $500, $1000, and $5000. Interest at 6 per cent, per annum will commence from

PAYABLE IN GOLD.

Semi-annually, which is equal, at the present premium on gold, to about 8 per cent, per annum.

Farmers, Merchants, Mechanics, Capitalists, and all who have any money to invest, should know and remember that these bonds are, in effect, a first muricage upon all Railroads, Canals, Bank Stocks and Securities, and the immense products of all the manufacturers, &c. &c., in the country; and that the full and ample provision made for the payment of the interest and liquidation of the principal, by Customs duties, Excise stamps and internal Revonue, serves to make these Bonds the Best, Most Available, and Most Popular

Investment in the Market. Subscriptions received at par in legal tender notes or notes and checks of tianks at par in Philadelphia. Sub-scribers by mail will receive prompt attention, and every facility and explanation will be afforded on application at this office. At this office.
A full supply of Bonds will be kept on hand for immeliate delivery.

JAY COOKE, Subscription Agent:
Nev. 11, 1862.—8m

The Prices of DRY GOODS, Are kept Down at the BINGHAMTON BEE-HIVE!

An immense stock of DRY GOODS hought previous the late rise, and sold at less than New York WHOLESALE PRICES HIRSCHMANN BROTHERS,

DRY GOODS BANGE GOODS. Ac. at Beduction of the Buling Prices of the day, accuring fasting MONEY to those investing in Dry Goods at their Store. We offer a splendir Stock of cadless Styles and Patterns, including many novelides of the acason in DRESS GOODS! 15 Conts Upwards.

BRAUTIFUL CLOAKS From $4 upwards! plendid Woolen and Broche Long and Square

SHAWLS, VERY CHEAP! Rich, plain black, and black brocade SIL. IK.

FROM AUCTION! BEAUTIFUL FANCE SILES! Every possible shade of Paramettas & Merinos!

Also a large stock of . CLOTH, CASSIMERES, FLANNEL, WHITE GOODS, LOTS OF CALICOS & SHEETINGS. Every conceivable ahade of Double, Single and Spita Rephyr Worsteds, all descriptions of Millengry Goods, told Wholesale and Hetali.

Please call at the undersigned, before purchasing your Roods' cleawhere, as they are unsurpassed for quality and price.

HIRACHMANN BROTHERS.

No. 20 Court Street, BINGHAMTON. Mov. 11, 1862.