Preparations for the great battle bled with encepabloid tumor on his right -Two and a half millions apparently so imminent, were made with limb, which of late assumed so serious a character that the limb had to be amputaing for the moment of action with great ted, which was done Nov. 8th, by Dr. D. enthusiasm. During these movements of A. Lathrop; but the disease had so difour army, the enemy had concentrated all fused itself through his entire system, that the best medical aid could not save him. Brother Faurot was an honest, upright man, and for nineteen years a worthy member of the M. E. Church. He died in the Lord, and rests from his labors. In this removal, society has lost one of its best members, and his family have met with an irreparable loss. Servant of God, well done;
