THE DEMOCRATIC JUBILEE, Montrose Democrat.

Came off according to notice, on the 86th ult. The two preceding days of wet weather, a rainy evening, the inud, and rumors that our borough was infected with small-pox, did not prevent a large attendance. A capital dinner was partaken of by two or three tables full of citizens in the afternoon; and at an early hour in the evening the Court-house was filledfor the first time, we believe, since the new one was built-with Democrats anxious to listen to the anticipated speeches. The meeting was organized by the selection of the following officers:

ADVANCE PAYING subscribers. A change which pleases and benefits all parties must be satisfactory; and we trust that our efforts to present an acceptable paper to the Democrats of the county may meet with an increased encouragement. We shall print the very best paper that ve can, considering the patronage we receive; and if our friends want a better and more spirited sheet than they have had they have only to give us more subscribers' and prompter pay, and they will ret it; while every man that keeps back dollar which he should or could pay us, is doing so much to cripple us in our efforts to please our friends. So square all arrearages, pay a year in advance, get all your friends and neighbors to do the same and we will print a paper with which none the unremitting generosity of the latter in granting the but our enemies can find fault.
