The New United States Senators

The Harrisburg Patriot and Union gives a biographical sketch of the new Senator from Pennsylvania, formerly U. S. minister to Ecuador, &c. — In Mr. Buckalew's career as a public man, he has shown evidence of the highest integrity and the most distinguished ability. He has always been a steadfast opponent of the fanatical abolition party, and a firm supporter of democracy and its measures. His parliamentary reputation in the State, is second to that of no one within its limits; and as a consistent and able politician, he stands in the foremost rank. As a statesman, his rising genius inspires the undivided confidence of the whole Democratic party in the State, who look to his career with unusual interest and expectation.

Of Wm. A. Richardson, Senator elect from Illinois, the Detroit Free Press says: In the war he has supported every constitutional act of the administration; but has been unwilling to barter away the rights of white men for the liberty of negroes. "So long as Mr. Lincoln was conservative, he leaned upon Mr. Richardson, and it is now evident that his great mistake has been in disregarding the counsels of such men. Mr. Richardson's elevation to the Senate at this time, is a peculiarly auspicious event. Common sense is sadly needed in that body.

The results of the late elections of Senators in different State Legislatures are as follows: —

- Minnesota—Lot M. Morrill—Republican.
- Pennsylvania—Charles R. Buckalew—Democrat.
- Michigan—Zachariah Chandler—Republican.
- New Jersey—James W. Wall—Democrat.
- Delaware—James A. Bayard—Democrat.
- Illinois—T. A. Hendricks, long term, Democrat. Mr. Turpie, short term—Democrat.
- Maryland—Thomas H. Hicks, short term—Democrat.
- Illinois—William H. Richardson, Democrat.

The Anderson Troop.

There is nothing can justify the conduct of those members of the Anderson Troop—five hundred, we believe—who refused to go into battle at Murfreesboro'. Three hundred of the regiment, went into action and behaved gallantly. Gen. Stanley tells them "this noble three hundred." Under command of the brave Majors, Rosengarten and Ward, they attacked and routed a brigade composed of the 15th South Carolina and two Georgia regiments. Rosengarten and Ward were killed in the act of getting over a stone fence, and Captain Venz, while attempting the same feat, received six shots in the leg he had got over, before he could get it back. In this encounter they lost eleven killed and a number wounded. If these three hundred brave fellows could go into the battle, and with the arms they had, rout a rebel brigade, the less the five hundred cowards and mutineers say about their want of proper arms and officers the better. Their conduct was disgraceful, and Gen. Rosengarten if he fail to punish them, will fail in the discharge of his duty. The Carlisle Herald learns "that all the Carlisle members of the Anderson cavalry are safe at Nashville." They are safe there because they refused to go into the battle. Their names—the names of the whole five hundred—should be published. Among them we should probably find the cowardly Abolition rascals who attempted to destroy the American Volunteer office.—Har. Patriot

Lenox Teachers' Institute.

In accordance with previous appointment, the Teachers of Lenox District assembled at Lenoxville, Jan. 10th, 1863. The meeting organized by electing W. N. Tingley, Esq. President; S. P. Hine, Secretary.

Teachers Present; O. C. Roberts, Jos. Hartley, Cyrus Hartley, Porter S. Hine, John L. Travis, Miss Taylor, A. Tingley, Alvis Oakley, Caroline Conrad, Huldah Gardner, Sophia Belcher. Directors present—W. N. Tingley and Ambrose Brundage.

In accordance with a programme adopted at a former meeting, the Institute was conducted in the following order: 1st. Roll-call of teachers and Directors. 2nd. Minutes of Institute held in Glenwood, Dec. 19th, 1862, read and approved. 3d. Miss Belcher excused from reading an essay to-day, and her time extended two weeks, in order to prepare one to be read at next meeting. 4. Miss Tingley conducted an exercise in Reading, in which Directors and others participated. 5. An exercise in Written Arithmetic conducted by Mr. Travis. 6. An exercise in Geography, by S. P. Hine. Recess of one hour.

Afternoon Session.—1. Teachers and others proposed to the Directors for advice and decision, questions pertaining to their respective schools. 2. Messrs. Tingley and Rood entertained the Institute with appropriate remarks, which were received with grateful attention. 3. Miss Oakley, conducted an exercise in Grammar. 4. Mr. James Hartley conducted an exercise in Orthography.

The following persons were appointed to take charge of classes at the next Institute: O. C. Roberts, of Reading; S. P. Hine, of Grammar; Jas. Hartley, of Geography; Miss Tingley, of Written Arithmetic; Miss Taylor, of Intellectual Arithmetic.

On motion, Miss Gardner was appointed to prepare an essay, and Jas. Hartley and John Travis declaimers at next meeting. The Secretary was requested to furnish reports of this meeting for publication.

A vote of thanks was tendered to the citizens of Lenoxville for the hospitable manner in which the members of the Institute were kindly entertained. Adjourned to meet at the "Tower School House" on Saturday, Jan. 25th, 1863. The friends of Education are invited to attend our next meeting.

S. P. HINE, Sec'y.

HOW TO GET OUT OF FORT LAFAYETTE.

—We have daily increasing evidence that our Government, as at present administered, regards a negro as much better than a white man. The latest illustration of this interesting fact, is found in its treatment of "State prisoners." It is stated that two negroes were put into Fort Lafayette, one of whom was named Stephen. The prisoners generally wrote to the officials in Washington, asking what they were confined for, but they got no answer. Stephen wrote among others, and got no answer. At last one of the prisoners said—"Stephen, write; tell them you are a colored man." Stephen did write; did say he was a colored man, and in a very short time a letter came back from the Judge Advocate, opening the doors for Stephen, the colored man. The negro was the only prisoner that could get an official answer from Washington.—Hartford Times.

THE DEAD-LOCK AT ALBANY.—the public interests are now suffering from the squabbles of factions at Albany. Parties in the Assembly being numerically of the same strength, the balloting for Speaker proceeds without any progress towards a choice. Every member adheres persistently to the line marked out by political preferences. This is unfortunate. We suppose the real difficulty is the control which the officers of the house will be likely to have in the matter of going into joint ballot for the election of the United States Senator!

Donation Visit.—The friends of Rev. L. E. Porter will make him a donation visit, at his residence in Brooklyn, on Friday, Jan. 30, afternoon and evening. By order of Trustees.
