the American army, and should be placed in command. [The galleries again broke. forth in applause.]

Mr. Wright, resuming, said-Let the President make a new and mixed cabinet, representing the two great parties of the country; restore General McClellan to command, and call for two hundred thousand men, who would rush to his standard in an instant. Addressing the Republi-cans, he said—You must abandon some of your ultra notions or we are gone. We in the field-not one who can come withhave got to compromise. Abandon the proposition to bring negroes into the army, or we are lost.

Mr. Cox (Ohio) controverted the positions assumed by Mr. McPherson and other gentlemen, and argued that the course of Washington and other Gentrals was against employing negro slaves as a truth is that they do not know whether system of warfare. There was no analogy between employing then and now. Gov. Von may take the nay department, the Andrew, who recently returned to Massachusetts, carried with him a carte blanche to raise negroes and send them out of the State. Mr. Cox, while opposing the bill, remarked that its object was to produce. a dissolution of the Union, for gentlemen from the Border States here have said that it would be impossible to restore the Union if negroes are brought into the field like fiends of hell, in accordance with the policy which began in hate and followed up by a spirit of vengeance. A large portion of our army is made up of Celtic blood, and he would tell gentlemen that they would not fight beside negroes. The prejudice cannot be eradicated.

What, he asked, was the object of the reprimand by Mr. Dunn, the other day, of Mr. Lovejoy, who had indulged in a tirade on the Democracy, the former saying that such remarks would have a bad effect on the army. He (Mr. Cox) adelphia, on his way to Washington and said that a large portion of the army are Democrats, who went out to fight the battles of the Constituition and the Union, tion. An Extraordinary Statement.

Senator Rice, Republican, of Minnesota, who is a member of the Military Committee of the United States Senate, made the following extraordinary statement in debate last week :--

"I do not believe there is a man in this government in one of the departments in fifty per cent. of the number of sick and wounded in the hospitals, or with their regiments. One department makes its estimate based on the supposition that we have one million, two hundred thousand men in our army; another, on the supposition that we have one million, five hundred thousand men in our army. The simple You may take the pay department, the commissary department, the medical department, the quartermaster's department, and you may take the commanding General and the Secretary of War, and you cannot, from all of them, come within three hundred thousand or probably five hundred thousand of the number of men in the service; at least we cannot get the information.'

Is it any wonder that endless confusion. extravagance and waste prevail in our armies and in the national finances when such an acknowledged want of system, management and competency is exhibited by those managing, or, more properly speaking, mismanaging the war?

Arrest of the Publisher of the Philadelphia Evening Journal. PHILADELPHIA, Jan 28th.

The Evening Journal, of this city, reports the arrest of its editor and publisher, Mr. Boileau. It states that the arrest was made by the Provost Guard, and upon the order of General Schenck, the military commander of the district in which Pennsylvania is included. Mr. Boileau, was arrested at a little after 12 o'clock this morning (about midnight) at his private residence and carried out of the State, either to Baltimore, Washington or Fort Delaware—it is not known which. The Journal also states that the order for the arrest was peremptory and commanded the suppression of the paper. Mr. E. W. Carr, another editor of the Journal was likewise arrested and confined in the Girard House, but was released this morn-

The Grand Jury of the Quarter Sessions, which body Judge Ludlow instructed to inquire into the causes of the arrest of Mr. Boileau, of the Evening Journal, and his removal beyond the jurisdiction of the Courts of the Commonwealth, made a special presentment on Friday. It is a plain businesslike document, giving a straightforward narrative of the facts as ascertained from the Provost Marshal and others. The presentment concludes with an expression of reluctance to do anything calculated to weaken the arm of the Government in suppressing "this most wicked and causeless Rebellion," yet they declare themselves bound " to enforce all the laws that have the protection of life, the security of propirty and the liberty of the citizen in their sacred keeping."

The presentment was ordered to befiled by Judge Ludlow, for the examination of the District Attorney, with a view to framing such indictments as may be considered necessary.
