The Harrisburg charged with the offences above regited, Telegraph, a Cameron organ, speaking of the fact that such seizure, confinement of Coolbangh's appointment, says it was made to please Laporte, the member from Bradford who bolted Cameron and voted for Kelly for Senator, and adds: "We should like to know what Laporte has recently done to deserve this accommodation." This is as indication of the mutual enmity that is felt by the Cameron and Wilmot mentowards each other.

OUR HARRISBURG LETTER.

CAPITOL HILL, FEB. 6th, 1863. The bill quoted in our last relating to the State debt was so amended in the Senate, and concurred in by the House, as to allow banks to circulate twice the amount of their capital stock.

The two branches have agreed upon a series of resolutions demanding the return of our sick and wounded soldiers to our State hospitals; and it is hoped that the war department will yield to so just a demand.

An act has been passed amending the road laws in Lenox township; a copy of which we enclose for publication.

An act has passed the Senate authorizing Almon and Caroline Sweet of Gibson, to sell certain real estate, heretofore conveyed by deed of 'trust to John H. Claflin.

The time of the Legislature has thus far been largely occupied in offering bills, petitions, &c., and in preparing for the President, and then what? We fear a active business of the session. After a couple of weeks or so, the public can belately took place on the Blackwater, N. gin to see more of the practical opera-C., where a regiment, disgusted with a tions. TRUTHS.

Mr. Beebe, of the Oowego Gazette, uses the following apt and truthful language, in speaking of the sectional party which has dragged our country to the verge of ruin:`

Was-our country ever before so cursed with small men in high places? Thro' the whole list of Republican office-holders from the President down, scarcely is there a man to be found of 'ability, integrity and intellectual acquirements, adequate to his station. The State papers which emanate from the executive branches of our government bring a blush of shame to the countenances of our citizens. Through the mismanagement of the Treasury Department our finances are in deplorable condition. The War Department obstructs, more than it aids, the operations of our armies in the field. Two of three Confederate steamers drive our commerce to foreign bottoms, while the Navy Department is spending untold millions to little practical advantage. The respectable old fogy at the head of the Law Department, busies himself in overpreme Court, to prove that black men are entitled to the privileges of American citizenship, but that white men are not.-Congress is legislating to the same end, to protect and pamper regrees, and to oppress the Caucasian race. Weakness and folly characterize the action of all.— The rebellion goes unsuppressed, though the patriotism of the people has nobly contributed of treasure and of blood for its

In Rush, Jan. 22nd, MATTHEW DUN-MORE, Esq., aged 50 years and 9 months. Agreeably to his previously expressed wishes, and in pursuance of the following Resolutions, his funeral was attended on Saturday the 24th, by a respectable number of his Masonic brethren from adjacent towns, as well as by a very large concourse of his friends and neighbors.

At a special meeting of Warren Lodge, No. 240, A. Y. M., held at the Lodge Hall in Montrose, on Friday evening Jan. 23, A. D. 1863, the following was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, It hath pleased Almighty God to call our well beloved brother, Matthew Dunmore, from this world to his eternal rest.

-Resolved, That while we deplore our loss, we submit with resignation to the Divine will.

That we will attend his funeral in a body, and in accordance with his living request, will render our last tribute to, his memory, in conformity with the ancient ceremonies of our order.

That we extend our sincere sympathy to his bereaved family and friends, and trust that He who doth not fail to notice even the "fall of a sparrow," will not fail to look down, with infinite compassion, upon them in the hour of their desolation. Ordered, That the Secretary transmit a copy of the foregoing to the family of our deceased brother.
