An explosion of one of Dapont's Powder Mills Feb. 23, took place at 2 o'clock. Thirteen lives were lost. The cause of the explosion is unknown. Not much damage was done to the other works.

Information from Vicksburg is received to the 20th inst., at which time the mortar boats were still in position and firing occasional shots. A scow has been run through the canal. The work of enlarging it is progressing, and 3,000 men are engaged on the peninsula. Nothing had been heard of the Indianola or Queen of the West.

One of a large fleet of gunboats which left Memphis on Sunday for below, is reported by a telegram from Cairo as having passed into Lake Providence and shelled away a company of rebels and negroes who were engaged in felling trees across the narrow passages.

Hopfield, a town of five hundred inhabitants, opposite Memphis, on the Arkansas shore, was burned on the 19th by order of Gen. Harbit. The order was issued in consequence of guerrillas having made the town their headquarters. Gen. Van Dorn, according to the same dispatch containing this announcement, had crossed the Tennessee river at Eastport, and was expected to march immediately on Jackson.

The New Orleans Picayune of the 13th says that an attempt was made on the evening previous to shoot Gen. Banks with an air gun as he was about entering his carriage at the ladies' entrance of the City Hotel. The person who fired the gun had not been arrested.

It is becoming more and more evident every day, that a terrible retribution awaits the manufacturers of the unhealthy compounds denominated Saleratus, Baking Powders, &c. Since Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus has been introduced, we are happy to state he has and is still working great revolutions for good. We would say to all our readers to try one paper, and they say with us, the half has not been told. Our better-half says—Tell everybody to use it.

A dispatch from Nashville, Tennessee February 25th, states that Gen. Wheeler's whole force, four brigades of cavalry, are at this side of Columbia, Tennessee, carrying off south all the able-bodied contrabands in their vicinity. The large Union army under Gen. Gilbert at Franklin was deemed sufficient to prevent any attack.

Wm. Wright, of Essex county, was elected U. S. senator from New Jersey yesterday. The vote stood: Wright, 54; William A. Newell, 25. Mr. Wright has been governor of the state, and was the predecessor of Mr. Ten Eyck in the U. S. Senate.

The reports from Kentucky are various. One is that Breckinridge is advancing on Lexington with 20,000 men. A gentleman from Richmond informs the Cincinnati Commercial that our troops are retreating to ward Lexington, pressed by twice their number. A Cincinnati dispatch, Feb. 24, says that the invading force was leaving the night previous, pursued by 1,800 federal cavalry and infantry, and pronounced the damage by the raid to have been exaggerated.

The steamer Hetty Gilman, with forage and provisions, has been captured by Morgan's rebel band on Barren river. It is feared that the steamer D. B. Campbell, with a similar cargo, will fall into their hands. The captain and passengers of the Gilman were paroled.

Gov. Andrew, previous to the issuance of the Emancipation, gave as a reason for our defeats in the field the anger of God against the North for not having declared the freedom of the slave. He said that, even at the risk of being deemed superstitious, he believed our non-success was due to the Divine displeasure. Well, the President issued the document which Gov. Andrew and the radical clergymen said was to propitiate the Deity, and what has followed? Why, we are worse off than ever. All the battles since then have been defeats, and all the campaigns, East and West, failures.

A list of national prisoners who have died in Southern hospitals has been obtained by Col. Ludlow, commissioner, for the exchange of prisoners, and placed in the hands of Surg. Gen. Hammond. It includes about four hundred names and will immediately be published.

The statistics of Canada show that the number of skedaddlers from the United States who became frightened at the prospect of a draft, numbered 1,942. These persons took with them an average of $1,000 each in American silver, making an aggregate of nearly $2,000,000.

The House finally passed the conscription bill on Thursday in an amended form. The most important amendment provides for immediately turning over to the civil authorities for trial all persons who may be arrested by provost-marshal for alleged treasonable practices. The other features of the bill were amended in no important particular, though every effort was made to exempt Quakers, clergymen, and others. The bill as it stands allows conscripted persons to either procure substitutes or pay $300 to War Department and be exempted. The provisions added by the House are understood to be entirely acceptable to the Senate Military Committee, and will probably immediately pass the Senate. During the proceedings on the bill an immense audience were in attendance, and considerable excitement and confusion were consequently manifested.

The exciting stories in reference to another rebel invasion of Kentucky have this foundation; that a force of about 800 rebel cavalry entered Richmond, in that state, on Sunday, staid there about two hours, and then passed through Winchester, where a skirmish occurred, marked by small losses on either side. The rebels then put off towards Mount Sterling. Everything is quiet about Frankfort and Lexington, and appearances indicate that such will continue to be the case.

We learn that Col. D. M. Bull, of Tawanda, who was taken prisoner by the rebels in October last, has been exchanged and is now with his family in Washington. The Colonel, with his eldest son, enjoyed the hospitalities of Libby prison for about three months.

PROSPECT OF ANOTHER INDIAN WAR.—A letter from St. Paul, Minnesota, to the Chicago Tribune, says that the opinion of the oldest and best informed citizens is that there will be a severe Indian war on the frontier next summer. Little Crow is at Devil's Lake with plenty of arms and ammunition, at the head of three thousand warriors, having effected an alliance with the Yanktons, a stronger and more athletic race than the Sioux. He also hopes to induce the Chippewas to join him and will begin operations as soon as the grass starts in the spring.

The Siege of Vicksburg.

MEMPHIS, Feb. 20. The capture of Vicksburg was reported to-day by confederate officers who approached our lines with a flag of truce from the rebel general commanding at Tullahoma.

Capt. Hobbittzell, of Gen. McCook's staff, received the flag, and in conversation the officer in charge of the mission remarked: "well you have got Vicksburg at last, though you have paid dearly for the prize." After advertising to the subject in these words he refused to give any particulars. The rumor is credited at headquarters.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24. The Richmond Examiner, of the 21st instant is received here. It contains a dispatch dated Port Hudson, February 18, announcing the report of the capture of the Queen of the West, the United States iron-clad gunboat which recently ran the rebel batteries at Vicksburg.

She was attacking the fortifications on Red river, and after a brisk cannonading struck her colors. Thirteen of the officers and crew were captured.

Memphis, Feb. 18, via Cairo, Feb. 20. The tug Hercules, having two barges of coal in tow, going to the fleet, rounded to on the opposite side of the river early this morning, being unable to proceed on account of heavy fog. Scarcely had the boat touched the landing when a party of rebels rushed aboard, took possession, captured officers and crew, stole what they could and set fire to the vessel. All this was accomplished in a remarkably short time, but was not discovered by the gunboats, that lay not far off, till the flames attracted their attention. By that time those who had been taken prisoners were released, and the rebels were out of reach. The boat is a total loss.

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18. From statements of gentlemen who have returned from the Rappahannock, it appears that the rebels are working with great energy and industry. They have thrown up two lines of breast-works opposite to Falmouth, on the grounds near the river, and are continuing them along the river bank in front of Fredericksburg.

Jackson's force is said to be back of the first range of hills, two miles south of Fredericksburg. The smoke of a large camp there was plainly seen yesterday, and the woods are fast disappearing in that vicinity, showing the presence of a large force.

The rebels headquarters are plainly visible from our side (through a powerful glass.) Lee is supposed to be there. The position is two miles south-south-west from Fredericksburg.

There is trouble among the sutlers, General Patrick, the provost marshal-general, being engaged in rigorously carrying out the new order. A large cargo of unauthorized sutlers' stores was recently seized at Belle Plain and confiscated. Colonel Atchrose Thompson yesterday discovered new abuses in the quartermaster's department at Aquia Creek, and promptly applied a remedy. A thousand dollars worth of contraband goods was among the forfeitures.

The court-martial trials for desertion are kept very quiet. There is a determination to make examples of some if not all of those convicted.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27. To-day's Star says:

"A large force of rebel cavalry doubtless crossed the Rappahannock last night at Kelly's Ford, a few miles below Rappahannock Station. Their movements from that point indicated a raid upon our forces somewhere in the vicinity of Stafford Court House. Persons who came into our lines yesterday, represent that a considerable rebel force is now at Warrenton, while others say that Jackson with some force has gone up the valley to Strasburg. If all these things be true, our belief is that the venturesome rebels will find their movements duly attended to by the Union forces."

"Last night our picket cavalry guard, out from Centreville on the Chantilly road, were all but one man captured by a rebel force of about 100 men, after firing two rounds. An example will of course be made of the officer commanding this picket by dismissing him from the service, summarily for permitting this surprise to succeed."

Trouble in California.

San Francisco, Feb. 21. A serious controversy is going on in Honey Lake Valley over the boundary question between California and Nevada, both sides claiming jurisdiction over the land in dispute.

The California sheriff attempted to serve a civil process on the 15th instant, when the residents of the valley armed themselves and fired on the sheriff and his posse comitatus. Six of the sheriff's men were wounded.

The sheriff then sent for reinforcements and his assailants are also expoycing reinforcements.

Both parties are very defiant, and at last accounts were fortifying themselves in log houses.

A schooner just arrived brings advices from Mazatlan to the 22d of January. Four thousand Mexicans, commanded by Gen. La Vega, had sailed for Acapulco. The object of the movement was unknown.

ABOLITION BIGOTRY REBUKED.—The abolitionists in one of the counties of Iowa having held a meeting and proclaimed that they would hold no social or business intercourse with men who read newspapers which do not accord with their views, the Democracy held a meeting and adopted a series of resolutions among which are the following:

"Resolved, That we denounce any and every person who indorses, approves of, and sustains the foregoing and proscriptive abolition bigotry and intolerance, as an enemy to his government, to the peace and good order of society, and to the liberty of the people; and he should be scorned by every lover of liberty in the land."

"Resolved, That if we, as Democrats, are compelled, in self-defence, to meet this revolutionary spirit of bigotry and abolition intolerance, we will do so as freemen, and not in any spirit of retaliation or revenge, but as the defenders of constitutional liberty and the perpetuity of the Union and good order of society."

MARRIAGES.

In Harford, on the 16th inst., by Dexter Sibley, Esq., GEORGE D. WILLIAMS, of Brooklyn, and Miss LORANDA E. RICHARDSON, of Harford.

In Dimock, by Rev. A. N. Harding, Mr. ASA MEACHAM, of Auburn, and Miss FRANCES E. TYLER, of the former place.

DEATHS.

In Jessup, Feb. 18th, LEONORA J., daughter of John and Fernina Shay, aged 1 year and 5 months.

In Dimock, Feb. 19th, 1863, MYRON CARRIER, of Co. E, 177th Pa. Militia, aged 49 years and 8 days. Mr. Carrier first enlisted as a volunteer, but was refused probably on account of age; he then hired his services as a substitute to one of our drafted men, was accepted, and entered the service as above stated. In a conversation which the writer had with him eleven days previous to his death, he stated that up to a specified time he stood the service very well; but while in the act of loading some boxes on board a steamboat, assisted by another soldier, he received an internal injury which laid the foundation for the disease which terminated in quick consumption. He was in the hospital about six weeks; I think he told me, before he obtained his discharge, and then after having traveled over five hundred miles, during which time he was obliged to rest nearly a week in the hospital at Philadelphia on account of weakness, he reached home in Dimock, March 31st, nineteen days previous to his death, to greet and bid farewell to his friends and to die in his own home. But the best and sweetest consolation his friends have to console and comfort them is, that he died as none but a christian can die, peaceful and happy. He professed faith in Christ as his Saviour many years since, but in consequence of neglect of duty had done many things that were wrong, but upon going into the army and seeing the immorality that prevailed, he said to me that he prayed to his God for the forgiveness of his sins, and that he might be preserved from ungodly influences, and be enabled to exert an influence in favor of God and morality. He believed that his prayer was answered, and so we, his friends believe, by the kind and forgiving spirit that he manifested towards those with whom he had had difficulty, desiring that they might pray together, and bury all difficulties in forgetfulness. And with this spirit he sweetly fell asleep. J. F. D.

In Silver Lake, Susquehanna County Pa., KERRICK GAGE, in her 87th year.

She was born in Dutchess County New York, on the 4th day of July 1776, on our Nation's Birth day. In her childhood her parents moved into Albany County, then a new County, where she married Daniel Gage, who died in Silver Lake Township in Dec. 1851. in the 75th year of his age. Soon after her marriage she embraced the faith of the people called Quakers. She maintained her faith until the last. She with her husband and a family of four boys, moved to this County in March 1810, where they had to encounter and endure all the hardships of a new country with but few privileges and but few inhabitants; but she being a friend in deed as well as in name; she was faithful in deeds of charity, in visiting the sick and needy and sparing no pains to make glad the hearts of the afflicted. In her death she has left many to mourn her loss, but they mourn not like those that have no hope, for we believe that she lived the life of the righteous. Her last days were the brightest, and we trust she has gone to reap her reward. D. D. B. Silver Lake, Feb. 27th 1863.
