COUNTY AFFAIRS.

Money Wanted.—As many of our subscribers owe us for this year or more, and having immediate use for every dollar we can collect, we appeal to our friends, each one of them, to send the amount due us by the delegate to the Democratic County Convention. Don't one of you forget to do this. We need the money.

Fair Ground.—The Grocery Stands on the Fair Ground will be rented for the coming Fair, on Saturday, Sept. 19, at 2 o'clock, p. m., at the office of A. Lathrop, to the highest and best bidder.

One eating Saloon, one Stand on the Hill, one Stand at the entrance gate.

By order of Ex. Com.

Primary Meetings.—Every Democrat interested in the success of Democratic principles should attend the primary meetings on Saturday, and elect good men as delegates. It is all important that a good ticket should be presented to the voters of the county this fall—a glorious example has been set by the State Convention. Let it be imitated. Also select an active man for member of County Committee.

Baptist Association.—The Bridgewater Baptist Association will hold its thirty-eight annual meeting with the Baptist church in Montrose, Wednesday and Thursday, September 9th and 10th. Several ministers from abroad are expected to be present, and there will be preaching on both days, morning, afternoon, and evening, probably. The Introductory Sermon is to be preached by Elder Stone, at 10 o'clock, Wednesday morning. The public are invited to attend.

The Circus.—On Thursday, Sept 10th, Rice's National Circus and Model Show, a fine collection recently fitted out in Philadelphia at an expense of $25,000, will visit Montrose. The stock of performing horses, ponies, mules and other rare animals, are described by the leading Philadelphia journals as being far superior to any ever seen in an Equestrian establishment. Mrs. Charles Warner, better known as the former wife of the famous Dan Rice, is interested in the management, and will perform her great white blind horse, Surrey, and the war charger, Champion. Her eldest daughter, Miss Libbie Rice, will also participate in the entertainments. Mr. Harry Whitby, a successful horse trainer, is engaged, and will introduce his family, and some of his best educated imported horses. The clowns are Wm. Kennedy, and the German grotesque, Wm. Conrad.

Questionable.—There is some difference of opinion among men of both parties, as to the reason why the Republican Convention refused to nominate those candidates who offered to give a share of their fees to the Soldier's Aid Society. Motives can only be guessed at; while results are apparent. Two candidates offered to make a patriotic donation of several hundred dollars to a much needed fund; but their proposition met with decided opposition from the Convention, and particularly from the central clique who assume control, and the patriotic candidates were set aside—almost with a rebuke—for the more selfish office-seekers. The Convention refused by its voice, to allow many hundreds of dollars to be given to our sick and wounded soldiers. Who shall explain the motive? Was it indifference to the soldier—or something else?

FIRE IN JENKINS.—A disastrous fire occurred at Port Griffith, in Luzerne county, on the night of the 19th inst., which resulted in the destruction of a store and dwelling and another dwelling house, and saddest of all, in the death of three persons—two boys and a young man. The fire was first discovered in a room over the store, adjoining the bed room of the victims, and so rapid was its progress that the family had scarce time to escape. The persons burned to death were Jno. Barret, aged 21; Martin Barret, aged 18, and Thomas Barret, aged 16, all industrious and worthy young men. Their mother and little sister who were also in the house, escaped. Their charred bones were all that were found in the ruins, and they lay nearly as they were in bed. It is presumed they were suffocated before the fire reached them.

NEW MILITARY DISTRICT.—We notice that Maj. Gen. Couch, who commands in the eastern district of Pennsylvania, has created a new military district, comprising the counties of Berks, Schuylkill Lehigh, Northampton, Carbon, Monroe, Luzerne and Columbia, and placed it under the command of Maj. Gen. Siegel. What the necessity for this we cannot divine.

A McCLELLAN SOLDIER vs. AN ABOLITION PATRIOT.—A few days ago a McClellan man and an Abolitionist, happened together in the Barber Shop at Bloomsburg. The soldier was on the chair getting shaved when the Town Patriot and Abolitionist, on viewing the Military Pictures hanging against the wall, among which was the portrait of Gen. McClellan, commenced reviling and denouncing this General as a coward and traitor! The soldier not being able to contain himself and hear his favorite General slandered, sprang from the chair and would have chastised the stay-at-home Patriot soundly had it not been for the interference of the Barber, who would not allow fighting in his shop.

BOY DROWNED.—A little son of Benjamin L. Baldwin, of Towanda, fell off from his fathers boat into the canal, at South Wilkes-Barre, on Saturday, 15th inst., and was drowned. He was a bright and promising little fellow, and his untimely death has cast a deep gloom over the hearts of his fond parents. He was in his seventh year.

FIRE IN KINGSTON.—On Monday night or early on Tuesday morning the large boarding house at the Wyoming Seminary was entirely consumed by fire. There was no one living in the building at the time as Mr. Nelson has just had it thoroughly repaired, and was calculating to move into it in a few days. It is supposed to be the work of an incendiary, as the flames were first discovered in the upper part of the building. Every possible effort was made to put out the fire, but could not succeed.

—THE DIFFERENCE.—Wm. H. Jacoby Editor of a Democratic paper The Star of the North and Wm. Burgess present editor of an Abolition organ, both of Columbia county, were drafted last fall. Mr Jacoby suspended the publication of his paper, shouldered his musket, served through his time, and has now returned to resume its publication. Billy Button who had resigned the office of County Supt. and had made all his arrangements to come to Wyoming, and take charge of an abolition organ, was let off by trickery falsehood and in violation of law; and now cackles out this lunkeyed epithets of "copperhead" "southern sympathizer" "traitor" &c. in speaking of Mr. Jacoby and his political friends.

DISTURBING MEETINGS.—The Democrats of Allentown held a meeting last Saturday night week, and while Messrs. Witte and Northrop were speaking, the Abolitionists gathered round, hooted, hollowed, and used some of their usual inelegant epithets. This is but the teaching of some who know better; and to from whom better things are looked for. But when the Abolition papers encourage mob violence, what can be expected of their party.

DEATHS.

In Monroe county, Indiana, on the 10th ult., of typhoid fever, JOHN M. HARDING, formerly of Bridgewater, aged about 37 years.

On the 24th ult., of diptheria, ELIZABETH, daughter of Christian and Sally Davis, aged 10 years and 16 days.

In Bridgewater, Augu. 15th, of diptheria, CLARA E., youngest daughter of Catharine and Daniel Smart, aged 4 years, 4 months and 18 days.

Yes, God has called our Clara home,
To dwell in realms above;
And sing with angels round the Throne,
Anthems of praise and love.

The grave was not the spirit's goal,
The form must there decay.
We loved her, and we'll love the soul
That's passed from earth away.
