

COUNTY AFFAIRS.

The Democratic Mass Meeting.—Tuesday the 15th was an auspicious day for the Democracy of Susquehanna county. In spite of the late day, at which the notices of the meeting announcing the speakers were issued, and the holding of the Glenwood Fair on the same day, which drew off many from the eastern towns, the turnout was the largest that has been witnessed in the county for many years.

President, R. B. Little, Esq.—Vice Presidents, F. M. Williams, I. B. Lathrop, G. W. Lewis, J. L. Merriman, Isaac Beckhow, Elisha Griffin, (some names may have been omitted).—Secretaries, C. M. Gere, A. J. Gerritsen.

After some introductory remarks, the President presented Geo. W. Bunnell, Esq., of Philadelphia, to the audience, who delivered an able, argumentative and spirited address of some length, reviewing and exposing the violation of the pledged faith of the nation as to the policy and objects of the war as laid down and adopted by a unanimous vote of Congress in July 1861.

Theodore Cutler, Esq., of Philadelphia, was next introduced, and favored the meeting with an able and powerful speech on the great issues of the day. He also paid a glowing tribute to the soldiers of the Union army, and to the ability and worth of Judges Woodward and Lowrie, and repudiated the foul libels attempted to be cast upon the former by the reckless partisans of Shoddy Curtin.

Gen. Wm. Patton, of Towanda, next made a brief speech, criticizing and exposing the inconsistencies of Wilmot & Co., and read extracts from the treasonable writings and speeches of leading abolition-republicans.

After a short but pointed speech from the Chairman, the meeting was adjourned with hearty cheers for speakers, the Constitution and the Union, and the ticket.

We are unable to present even a brief outline of the speeches, which were well-timed and made a lasting impression for good upon the people, and were greeted with frequent outbursts of applause from the Democrats and others present, who, in future, will vote with the party of the Union and Constitutional liberty.

Before the crowd dispersed, a returned soldier, who had served two years in the army of the Potomac, under McClellan, and who will vote with the Democrats this year for the first time, came forward and after a few appropriate remarks, proposed to take an expression of the people's feelings towards his General, by three cheers, which were given in such stentorian tones, as made the few stay-at-home reviewers of our best fighting General, who were present, feel like taking sudden leave.

The people then quietly dispersed to their homes, satisfied that a day had been well spent in the cause of our country, and with a determination to labor with renewed zeal for the Democratic ticket; and we are amply assured that in this our party will have the aid of many from the ranks of the Africanized party, who, seeing the folly of their fanatical leaders are daily breaking ranks to join the party that carries the flag and keeps step to the music of the Union.

Wood Wanted.—Any of our subscribers who intend paying their subscriptions in wood will please bring a load of dry wood immediately.

Found.—A small Traveling-Bag. The owner can have it by calling on Mrs. McJannet, at the Franklin House, Montrose, and describing it.

Fair Ground.—The Grocery stands on the Fair Ground will be rented for the coming Fair, on Saturday, Sept. 10, at 2 o'clock, p. m., at the office of A. Lathrop, to the highest and best bidder.

By order of Ex. Com.

Correction.—Our notice of the graded school last week represented the number of pupils at nearly 200. It was written and should have read 300.

TRIBUTE TO A SOLDIER.

We have received the following letter, dated "Head Quarters, Battery F & G, 1st Pa. Arty., R. V. C., near Morrisville, Va., Sept. 8th, 1863." Editor Democrat: Learning but only lately that a fellow member of this battery, who lost his life in the late battle of Gettysburg, had (like many others in this war for the Union) been forgotten, I deem it only a just to his many friends and relatives at home that more than a passing notice should be given of Sergt. Myron French, late of this battery. I never knew him previous to his entry into service, which was in July, 1861, as a private. In November of the same year, he was promoted to Corporal, and in that capacity fought in the engagements at Bunker Hill and Winchester in March '62. His next engagement was at the Rappahannock under Gen. Abercrombie; his next at Cedar Mountain, where he commanded a gun, and at the second fight at Rappahannock bridge, where we were under fire four days; he also commanded a gun; also, at second Bull Run, Chantilly and Antietam, he acted as Sergeant. The battery was reduced to two guns after Antietam, and it was not until Nov. '62 that he received his warrant as Sergeant, which position he filled in both movements against Fredericksburg and Chancellorville, and in that position he received the wound at Gettysburg which robbed him of life, and took from us a beloved member. Sergt. French was the soul of honor, and had he lived would have had a page in the history of this war. He was a young man of good intellectual powers, and a firm believer in his God. Loved by all who knew him, he possessed the love of his officers and fellow-members more than we ourselves were really aware of, until by the removal from our midst by a divine Providence, we felt the void in our breasts which he, living, had filled. His memory will ever live in the hearts of his friends in this battery, and may those he has left behind only follow in his footsteps, and they will be as well remembered on earth, and be as sure of grace in heaven.

Mean.—Handbills for the Democratic Mass Meeting were defaced and torn down several times, last week, in this village. At night, in particular, was this practiced; it being one of the dark and cowardly practices of abolitionism. When a party resorts to tearing down notices of the opposite party's meetings, as the "loyal" speaks do, it shows a low stage of demoralization. The defacement of the bills exhibited a total want of decency.

Stray.—Left the enclosure of the subscriber in East Bridgewater, about the 10th of Aug. last, a yearling Hoifer, all red. Whoever will return, or give information where she is, shall be suitably rewarded. DANIEL STUART, Bridgewater, Sept. 17th, 1863. 2w

FROM NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

FIRE.—The Pittston Coal Company's colliery, about a mile back of Pittston, (formerly known as the Butler shaft), was totally destroyed by fire last week, together with the engine house and some of the outbuildings. Supposed to have caught from the engine furnace.

LUZERNE.—The Democratic Convention met at Wilkesbarre last week, and nominated the following ticket: Representatives, Harry Hakes, of Hanover, Jacob Robinson, of Scranton, and Peter Walsh, of Blakely.—Recorder, Geo. B. Kulp, of Wilkesbarre.—Recorder, G. W. Kirkendall, of Wilkesbarre.—Commissioner, U. A. Gritman, of Scott.—Treasurer, Geo. A. Crockett, of Ross.—Auditor, G. C. McWayne. Never was there a Convention held in the county in which so much kindly feeling was exhibited. The ticket is certain of success by several thousand majority.

MURDER.—Mr. W. Peters, Supt. at Stanton's Mines, was slain on Saturday night of last week in the bore of Wilkesbarre, by a party of men, and beaten to death with stones. The deceased leaves a wife and five children. Three of the supposed murderers have been arrested, and a reward of $300 is offered by the citizens for others of the gang. The affair occurred before bed-time in the evening.

DISLOYALTY.—The Pottsville Standard, says the troops stationed there, and who left for Philadelphia on Sunday morning last, astonished the abolitionists of that place, by giving three hearty cheers for the "Copperheads" of Schuylkill county. We wonder whether they will be dismissed in a body for "disloyal conduct?"

MARRIAGES.
