

COUNTY AFFAIRS.

UNION!

DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS!

The friends of Woodward, Lowrie, the Union and Constitutional Liberty, Free Press, Free Speech, and Fair Elections, hold evening meetings as follows:

Saturday, Oct. 3d, in Jessup, at the Cornell School House.

Saturday, Oct. 3d, at Brackneys.

Tuesday, Oct. 6th, in Jackson at the Club Room—Roberts' Hall.

Wednesday, Oct. 7th, Snyder's in Rush.

Thursday, Oct. 8th, at Herrick Center.

Friday, Oct. 9th, at Dundaff.

Saturday, Oct. 10th, Brookline Centre.

R. B. Little, M. C. Tyler, A. J. Gerritson, and others will attend the respective meetings and discuss the issues of the day. All are respectfully invited to attend.

Be Assessed.—If any voter is not yet assessed, remember that it must be done on or before Saturday of this week, Oct. 3d. Let the friends of Liberty & Union see that all their friends are prepared to vote for Woodward.

Soldiers' Aid.—We renew our offer of last year, to donate half the money rec'd at this office for county printing, to the aid of sick and wounded soldiers.

So if the Sheriff or any other county officer will select the Democrat to publish any or all their notices in, one half the amount of the bill shall be handed over to the Ladies Soldiers' Aid Society.

Sheriff's Sales.—Members of the bar, and others controlling writs authorizing the sale of real estate by the Sheriff of the county, can, by an act of Assembly, direct by an endorsement on the precept for the writ, in which two papers said sale shall be printed.

This paper has a circulation several times larger than one of the sheets which has, for the past two years, printed the sales.

Univ. Association.—The next annual session of the Susquehanna Association of Universalists will be held at Meshoppen, Wyoming county, Pa., on Wednesday and Thursday Oct. 7th and 8th. All are cordially invited to attend.

A. O. WARREN, Clerk.

Our Meetings.—We are gratified to hear that the Democratic meetings in this Co. are always largely attended, and that as election approaches the interest increases. So do our numbers, for in every quarter Republicans are abandoning the Abolition Shoddy-Abolition party and coming out for Woodward and the Union.

Choice Pictures.—A few copies of the steel engravings of Washington, Edward Everett, and Washington Irving, for sale at this office, at low rates.

Deferred.—We have on hand several obituaries and communications, to which we will try to give room next week.

Personal Abuse.—The following communication explains itself:

Mr. Editor:—I have felt keenly and with regret and shame for some time with whom I have usually acted in politics, at the low attacks and sneers attempted to be cast by them, upon Mr. Tyler since his nomination for Representative, by the other party. I have known him for many years; I knew him when poor, as well as since he has become, as people say, "well off," and I would like to see the man who hears prosperity better, or who is less lifted up since he has honestly come into possession of a competency, or one more ready at all times to hand out to the poor and needy, or ready to divide, if necessary, his last meal with the hungry, be they white or black. I have watched him for years in his business and in his benevolence and charity, and although I have not been in the habit of voting as he does, yet for the honest and honorable course he has pursued both before and since this war, which is now desolating our land, broke out, for the patriotic sacrifices he has made as a true Union-loving man who would willingly give all he has, and his life with it, to restore the Union, while I have often heard him denounced as a "Copperhead,"—for the noble stand he has always taken, and the interest always manifested for the farmer and the mechanic, and the general interest of the county, I can fully trust him to legislate for me; and although not an admitted lawyer, nor boasting a classical education—having worked for his board, in Montrose, while attending school with me, at the Academy, when young—still his good sense, which has manifested itself in his business, and in the honorable situations which he has held in our county, satisfy me that he is fully as capable of framing laws as some "lawyers," who if capable, would seek to mystify rather than make plain the law, so that he who runs may read.

For myself my eyes are so wide open that I shall vote for him with all my heart, and would candidly ask my friends, who are not blind, to do the same.

A MONTROSE REPUBLICAN.

We learn that a man named Cole was killed on the Railroad at Waymart yesterday. It is stated that he has a brother residing near Dundaff, whom he was on his way to visit.—Carbondale Ad.

A friend writing from Centre county, Pa., the home of Governor Curtin, tells us that that county will give 1100 majority for Woodward. It gave 450 for Curtin three years ago but the people want another change.—Ex.

THE SIXTH ANNUAL FAIR OF THE HARFORD AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY

WILL BE HELD ON THE FAIR GROUNDS IN HARFORD VILLAGE

Tuesday & Wednesday Oct. 6 & 7, '93.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

The grounds will be open on Tuesday at 1 o'clock, p. m., for the reception of stock and all articles for exhibition. The payment of fifty cents for a badge of membership entitles any person to exhibit in all of the classes. Cards will be furnished at the Secretary's office on the grounds, to place on all animals or articles for exhibition. Exhibitors wishing to compete for premiums must have their animals or articles entered on the Secretary's book on Tuesday, or as early as ten o'clock, a. m., on Wednesday.

Arrangements have been made for keeping stock over night. A sufficient police force will be on the grounds day and night to protect the property of exhibitors.

No animal or article shall receive more than one premium; and the judges may withhold a premium where the animal or article is not worthy, though there be no competition.

The judges are requested to meet at the Secretary's office at ten o'clock on Wednesday and receive their books before entering upon their duties.

All premiums not applied for within six months will be considered donated to the society.

B. S. BENTLEY, Esq., of Montrose, will deliver the annual address on Wednesday at two o'clock, p. m.

The Harford Brass Band will be in attendance.

Clergymen and their families, Free.

Encouraged by the generous patronage of the public heretofore, the Society has this year extended its premium list, and erected a new building for the better protection of articles on exhibition. Hoping to make our Fair interesting and mutually beneficial, we cordially invite all the friends of Agricultural improvement to attend.

Ample arrangements are made for furnishing tables of refreshments on the grounds.

UNKIND.—The Bulletin, signed "Rossecrans" is defeated. The quotation is from the Tribune. This strikes us as unfair to the chief of the "Niggerheads."

The full extract from the Tribune is as follows:

"We see no reason for doubting that the result of the battles on the whole was a disaster to the national arms. The retreat settles that question. We were beaten, but not badly beaten."

A HINT TO OUR BRIGADIERS.

While our army was struggling with the enemy at Chattanooga, and suffering defeat, Gen. Butler, Carl Schurz, and we don't know how many other of our Major and Brig. Generals, were making parol speeches in Pennsylvania and Ohio, and daily pocketing their pay for such party services, when they ought to have been in the field. There are almost enough of these political Generals about to form a regiment, and they cost the country something—not a small sum, either. If there are not enough commands for them, let them be formed into special corps and do duty as cavalry—at any rate let them do something live on the public money and sport politics for the administration.

THE people of Pennsylvania must not overlook the important fact that Daniel Agnew, the Abolition nominee for Supreme Judge is in favor of negro suffrage in Pennsylvania. Whilst a member of the Reform Convention, he persistently voted to confer that right upon all colored men in the Commonwealth. He is a friend of Andrew J. Curtin, and running upon the same ticket; their views and opinions are identical. Can the "white freemen of Pennsylvania" cast their votes for the candidate of shoddy and negro equality?

AN ITEM FOR THE LADIES.—The latest style of pop skirts is the self-adjusting, double-belted, bustle, ecrusean, face expanded, Piccolomini attachment, gossamer-inductible, polioecomorama. It is a very neat thing.

THE friends of Andrew G. Curtin publicly announce that "it is better to lose a battle the field than the election in Pennsylvania." This is the Curtin platform. Matter how many precious lives are lost—no matter how much hard-earned treasure is expended—no matter what victories are gained by the rebels—no matter how much ruin and misery and bloodshed are scattered through the land—they all prefer, in the eyes of the Abolition fanatics, to the defeat of the shoddy candidate. Let the freemen of Pennsylvania ponder well upon this fearful truth!

It is rumored that the Republican victory Maine cost the United States government $1,000 per day including Sundays the shape of pay to the crowd of civil military office-holders, from Vice-President Hamlin down to Brigadiers Bush and Hamilton; who stumped the State against the Democratic candidate for more than a month before the election.

A REMARKABLE PREDICTION.

Henry Laurens who was President of the Continental Congress in 1779, in 1780 was sent as Minister to Holland. On his way he was captured and imprisoned in the Tower of London for fourteen months. When Lord Shelburn became Premier, Laurens was brought up on habeas corpus and released. After his release he was treated with great kindness and respect by the British authorities. He dined with Lord Shelburn, and afterwards the conversation turned on the separation of the two countries. Lord Shelburn remarked: "I am sorry for your people." "Why so?" asked Laurens, "they will lose the habeas corpus," was the reply. "Lose the habeas corpus?" said Laurens, "Yes," replied Shelburn. "We purchased it with centuries of wrangling, many years of fighting, and had it confirmed by at least fifty acts of Parliament. All this taught the nation its value, and is so ingrained into their creed as the very foundation of their liberty, that no man or party will ever dare trample on it; your people will pick it up and attempt to use it, but having cost them nothing, they will not know how to appreciate it. At the first great internal feud that you have, the majority will trample upon it, and the people will permit it to be done, and so will go your liberty."—Published Journal of Henry Laurens.

Governor Andrew G. Curtin in direct opposition to the law and the testimony recently pardoned two notorious characters by the name of Oliver and Osterstock, of Northampton county, who had been convicted of an aggravated assault and battery upon A. S. Knecht, because they were Republicans, and their victim a Democrat.

Gov. Curtin pardoned a mob in Columbia county, who had been tried and convicted of the most outrageous riotings, because they were partisans of his own stripe.

Gov. Curtin pardoned a like mob under like circumstances in Muncy, because they were partisans of his own stamp. Would it not be outrageous to re-elect such a recent violator of Justice and law, to a position which he has already disgraced.
