

COUNTY AFFAIRS

No Paper Next Week. Each of the printers in this office is numbered among the elect, and requested to report at Scranton during the coming week, and no paper will be printed at this office, and no paper will be printed at this office, and no paper will be printed at this office...

Remember the Poor. Our well-to-do citizens who are confining the profits of the year, and making New Year presents and donations, should remember the worthy poor—especially the families of soldiers. No class as well deserve sympathy and aid. In some places, farmers and others send loads of wood and other necessities to each family. Let all speak at once in this matter, and act in concert.

The Draft for this district cannot be made before February. Our readers will be duly notified of important matters in reference thereto.

New Years. Many of the merchants and others, in town, propose to close their places of business to-morrow.

Conscripits and others who visit Scranton with "them $300" in their trousers, should beware of pickpockets, generally, and especially of that class who offer to procure exemptions by the use of money, or by some mysterious influence, unknown to the law. Advance these robbers none of your greenbacks; but examine the list of exempting disabilities in our last paper and judge for yourself, or consult your home physician, as to probable disability.

Burglary. On Wednesday night, Dec. 23d, the store of Abel Turrell, of this place, was entered from the rear, by some person, under circumstances indicating that he is well acquainted with the premises, who took therefrom two revolvers, and two watches, of the value of $85 00. Some other small articles may have been taken, not yet missed. The further progress of the thief was arrested by his hearing Mr. Turrell approaching. Mr. T. offers a reward of twenty dollars for the apprehension and conviction of the person who committed the theft.

Mining in Susq'a Co. S. C. Denton, a former resident ofinghamton, has been for some time past engaged in boring for coal and coal oil, on the farm of C. H. Trowbridge, in Great Bend township. At the depth of 65 feet, a bed of plaster was struck, 15 feet thick, and below that a bed of black slate, which has been bored 40 feet without getting through. Denton & Trowbridge are about to erect a plaster mill, and expect to have plaster for sale in the Spring.

Dangerous. The public cannot be too careful about handling fire-arms. They are so apt to go off, even when one don't know they are loaded, that many valuable and other lives are lost thereby. One night last week, a young man, well-known to most of our citizens, who was looking for some holiday presents, got to handling a couple of pistols, (which he supposed to be not loaded) in a drug store, down town, when they both went off, passing through two back doors, and a gate into the street, together with two watches and the boy, who escaped unhurt as the doors were open.

St. Charles Hotel, Scranton. Many of our country people will visit Scranton during January; and we recommend all to put up at the St. Charles Hotel, on Penn Avenue. Mr. J. W. Burgess, the proprietor is an obliging, gentlemanly person, and guests will find that their wants are satisfactorily attended to. Charges moderate.

$20 REWARD! Will be paid for the apprehension and conviction of the person who entered my store on the night of Dec. 23d, and stole therefrom the following described property, worth $65, (and perhaps some other small things not missed): One silver hunting-case watch, American style of movement, new, worth $30. One silver open face cylinder escapement watch, (been used), worth $8. One Union Arms Co. cartridge revolver, six shot, No. 32, five-inch-barrel, worth $14. One Union Arms Co. Colt's style, revolver, 5 shot, powder and ball, 4-inch barrel, worth $12. To the latter he forgot to take the wrench and mould, which he can have gratis by calling and "sizing up."

Personal. Early in the year 1860, the travelling agent of the Independent Republican, received from Mr. M. Oakley, $1,500 to pay for this paper for the year. He afterwards called at our office on some business, and referred to it, inquiring if the money was received. Finding it was not, he went to the Republican office to see if he could find the agent, or money. The editor of that sheet, claimed to remember that the agent at the time mentioned, that he had the money for us, and that he was coming right up to hand us the money, which he believed the agent did do; but agreed to inform him of the matter if Mr. O. was at our office not less than three times when the subject was talked about, and at his request we wrote the agent a very respectful note, reminding him of the matter, sending it in his sealed, in care of his brother, H. H.; to which we never received any reply. Finally, last year, Mr. O. proposed to pay the bill, as neither of us seemed likely to get the money of the agent. We then had a right to take $2, as arrears, but he suggested that he had been troubled enough, without the loss of another half dollar; we therefore accepted $1,500—making an entry on our book, stating the circumstance. Whether he ever recovered his money, or agreed to take the Republican for it, we are not informed. The agent recently informed us that he lied the money with "brother Homer," soon as his attention was called to his neglect; and in his card he states that the delay was that of the person with whom he lied the money. How that may be, we cannot know; but we know that after two years effort both ourself and Mr. O., (as he informed us) gave up the hope of dunning the money out of the agent or his sub-agent.

A few days before we printed our card, a gentleman (whose name, etc., we gave the agent and do not therefore publish), called at this office and stated that the agent came to his house (no date given), and asked him to subscribe for the Rep., which he declined to do, saying that if he took any county paper it would be the Democrat. After further ineffectual solicitation, the agent said, well, if you will not take the Republican, take the Democrat, I am agent for both. The man said he would subscribe for the Democrat six months, to which agent responded that he would send it, as he was agent for both papers. But instead of getting this paper, the agent sent the other, which he had positively refused to take! This, as we thought, was a strange case, and in our next paper we stated that E. W. was not an agent. He claims to think it might have been a brother who did this; but as we were not aware that any but himself was travelling, we can only judge that we are correct in our identity. Let us have proof that it was another, and we will take pleasure in explaining the fact.

We have the statement of another gentleman to the effect that the agent urged him to subscribe for the Democratic county paper, and that he questioned him as to the name of the sheet, till he gave it as Independent Republican, when he ordered him to move on, quick, or he would whip him—giving as a reason that he had been told the agent often induced men to take "the Democratic paper," and then send a different one, and was not pleased at the attempt to play a sharp game with him. Often have we heard that Democrats were coaxed to give this man their names, with the belief he would send a Democratic paper, or whereat was convenient, conceal the politics of his sheet; but we should have paid no attention to general stories, had no specific statements been made. Our readers can now judge whether we have a right to say that Frazier is not our agent. But as there has been an effort to shift the responsibility, we state respectfully that no person named Frazier has authority as agent for us.

To the slang phrases and libellous epithets used by the agent, we make no reply. Had he a cause that could stand upon merit, he need not have resorted to such words as he did; but as he evidently needed bracing, we allow him the benefit of his backguardism.

Many of the most respectable Western papers are very earnest in their denunciations of the alleged blunder by Gen. Hooker at Ringgold, where it is said that some five hundred of his best troops—men from Illinois and Ohio—were foolishly sacrificed.
