"Startling Revelations."

The peeple of the Union as it will be, were perhaps, greatly startled at the immense "startling-revelation" revealed-inthe editorial columns of a Montrose paper, some two days since. We quote:

cent speech at Harrisburg, made a start-ling develation concerning some of the Demogratic leaders in this State. He said river. Our total loss is thus far about that after his capture by the Union forces, the was a General in the rebel service,) at Island No. 10, he was brought war, and he declared that prominent Democrats of Pennsylvania then conferred rest the war by defeating the conscription ed two. and otherwise rendering the administration powerless' to prosecute it. And he added with withering emphasis—"I can give you the names if what I say is disputed!" A number of Democratic members the President. of the Legislature were present, but they did not dare question the statement, or call for the names. He said the Demoorats of the North advised them to war,

Military Confiscation.

The New York Day Book says the city is full of rare and valuable old pictures and paintings, which have been stolen from the private mansions of the South by the officers of Mr. Lincoln, and brought here and sold for the benefit of the thieves. Whole libraries have also been stolen by the Abolition patriots, who seem to regard books, as well as works of art, as being contraband of war. Everything is looked upon as contraband of war which is of a portable nature, and which can be disposed of for the private benefit of the official thief who has the good luck to lay hands upon it. A short time ago a cargo of pianos arrived in the harbor of Portland, Maine, several of which were addressed to Gen. Neal Dow-the result of that gentleman's successful foraging among the private houses in the neighborhood of N. Orleans. Not only pianos, but four or 5 army chests, the property of the United States, were found marked to the address of the same general; well filled with silver plate, jewelry, etc., of all descriptions, which must have been stolen from private houses, and from the persons of females. The custom is, it seems, to destroy what cannot be brought off."

and one idea." What more could be expected.

THE WAR.

A correspondent, writing from Knoxville on the 20th instant, says that considerable anxiety existed at Knoxville and something of a panic prevailed. Gen. Longstreet has been heavily reinforced. In the fight of Sunday morning, the enemy, who were below Danbridge, seeing that our cavalry was drawn back as far as possible, made a desperate attack with Hood's and Bushrod Johnson's divisions. The fortunes of the day, which at first were decidedly against us, were changed by a charge of a division of Elliott's cavalry under Colonel McCook. On the same "General Gantt, of Arkansas, in his re- day our forces fell back to Strawberry one hundred and fifty.

FRAUDS ON THE GOVERNMENT.

The Washington Chornicle, edited by John W. Forney, in a labored article, a into the U.S. service, of which number week or two ago, attempted an apology into the U. S. service, of which number only 400,000 then remained fit for service. The rest of this host, 700,000 had either been killed in battle, died of wounds or disease, or been disabled. A year has passed since then, and during that year many of the bloodiest battles of the war many of the bloodiest battles off the whole matter, and essays to show the same battles, and from like causes that swept away the 700,000? Who can tell? This terrible waste of human life has been constantly replenished by voluntary enlistments and by conscription, else we should itow be l'terribly without an army. Is it any mitigation of the horrors of such a picture to reflect, that the very guns and buillets which caused the slanghter of so many of our countrymen, were put into the hands of the reflect beet. By Mr. Lincoln's efficiently of the country with the epithet "These are the new who are such brawlers of the hands of the reflect, but the very guns and buillets which caused the slanghter of so many of our countrymen, were put into the hands of the reflect, but the very guns and buillets which caused the slanghter of so many of our countrymen, were put into the hands of the reflect by Mr. Lincoln's efficiently eithout on the conservative press from crying aloud and exposing the exposed to the gaze of the public.—These are the new who are such brawlers for continuing the war, and when flippant assurance is ever ready with the epithet "traitor," for all who do not vote for the Lincoln ticket.

Millitary Confiscation. only 400,000 then remained fit for service for the numerous outrageous frauds that conservative press from crying aloud and exposing the scoundrels who are robbing our poor bleeding country. We add the following from the New York Journal of Commerce, and earnestly commend it to the attention of our readers.:

"Daily exposures of the most atrocious frauds in public offices and in connection with the public service, are constantly attracting the attention of the people. They come so fast that the popular mind is no longer shocked when they are heard of. It seems to be taken for granted that men will rob the public treasury, and that this Administration above all others, must be expected to have thieves and plunderers in its employment. People laugh when a new fraud comes to light, and look with a sort of amused suspicion at office-holders not yet detected in the crime of stealing, and rather take it for granted that their turn will come next. There was never a time in American history when the public time in American natory when the public mind was so thoroughly demoralized in this respect. The simple fact is that the radicals have taught the people to look leniently on the erime of appropriating other men's property. Nay more, they have raised atcaling to be a virtue, and theft is praised as a proof of loyalty.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, thro' distrust of their ingredients and effects: I yet know of no sufficient reasons way a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others. I do the the more residily in regard to Hoofand's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C.Al. Jackson, of this city because I was prejudiced against them for many years under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker. Eag. for the removal of this prejudice by proper test, and for encouragement to try toem, when suffering from great and long continued debtify. The use of 8 bottles of these bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief; and restoration to a degree of bodily and, mental vigor which I had not felt to 6 months before, and had almost despatred of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

PHILAD'A, June 23d, 1861.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS! And the Friends of Soldiers.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine-tenthe of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the new papers, on arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large portion are uffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in saying that if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's hrups, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters:"

Philadriphia, Angust 23d, 1862.

We call attention to the following remargable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's hyroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters:"

Mearra. Jones & Evana:—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofman's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been, for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain B. B. Ayrea. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked as Nov last, with inflammation of the lungs, and was for 72 days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the Steamer "State of Maine." where I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low at any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to awallow anything, and if I dup force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not vere keep a glass of water on my atomach. Life could not last under these circamstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faitfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread sacker, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. "An acquaintance who "fisited me at the hospital y procured a bottle. From the time I ecommenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now thank God for it, getting better. Though I have takes but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and leel sanguined being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have hearf in thing for its manner, and kindly tower the correct to the in.
