Death of A. J. Hyde.

At a meeting of the Montrose Fire Co. No. 2, March 18, 1864, the following resolutions, drawn by a Committee previously appointed, were unanimously adopted :

Whereas, The members of this Company are called upon to mourn the death of our friend and brother, ASBER J. HYDE, and

Whereas, We regret his loss as a final separation from one whom we have long loved and esteemed for his kind, generous and noble qualities; and as a tribute of respect to the memory of our deceased friend and brother,

Recolved, That in the death of ASHER J. HYDE, the members of this Company have lost a kind, generous friend and coworker, who has been for many years an earnest, energetic, and faithful member, slways willing and ready with zeal and fidelity to perform every duty incident to s freman's life.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathise with the relatives and friends of the deceased in their bereavement-in the loss of a four hashand, a kind and affectionate father and brother, and a dutiful son. Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family of the decessed, and be furnished to the papers for publication.
