Ladies' Supper.

April 6th, 1864, for the benefit of the Church. The public are invited to attend. Tickets for the Supper, 50 cents.

Teachers' Association.

The Susq'a County Teachers' Association will meet at New Milford on Friday and Saturday, April 1st and 2d. Lecture on Friday evening by Rev. G. M. Slayman; on Saturday p. m. by J. Lamb. It is desired that all teachers, and friends who are interested in the cause of education should be present, as important matters are to be considered.

Soldiers' Orphans.

To Secretaries of School Boards: A plan is in contemplation to provide, by the State, for the maintenance and education of "the poor orphans of our soldiers who have given their lives to the country in this crisis." It is desired to ascertain the number of such children.

Will the Secretary of each Board send to me the number of indigent children in his district "whose fathers have been killed or have died in the military or naval service of the United States." The information is desired by the 10th of April. E. A. WESTON, Co. Supt.

A Call upon School Children.

The managers of the Philadelphia Sanitary Commission Fair, are desirous that the schools of the State shall be represented by contributions. Will all the children who are willing to aid in this object, prepare such little articles as they can -cakes of maple sugar, socks, mittens, slippers, &c.,—anything that can be either used or sold for the benefit of the sick or wounded soldiers; collect them together in each township or convenient district, mark on one corner of the box or package the name of your township and county, and forward it (without paying charges) to Edward Shippen, Chairman of School Committee Great Central Fair Warehouse, Philad'a.

Send also, by mail, to Mr. Shippen the receipt of the railroad or express company, together with a list of the articles, and their donors names. Before packing, mark on each article the reasonable value of it. Pack securely. All contributions are wanted before the 15th of May—the sarlier better. A proper acknowledgement will be sent back, duly attested.

Death of Dr. B. Richardson.

At a special meeting of the Medical So ciety of Susquehanna county, held at Brooklyn, Pa., March 23d, 1864, Dr. Halsey offered the following preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously .adopted : .

Whereas, It has pleased God to remove from earth our venerable and beloved President, Braton Richardson, M. D.,

Whereas, In view of this afflictive dispensation of Providence, we have met at this time to consider our bereavement, and make an appropriate expression of the affectionate regard and profound re- The Odd-Fellows' Hall Association spect we cherish for the memory of the mission to the Divine will, we feel that Hall, Montrose. A. O. WARREN, P. our Medical Society, in the death of Dr. Richardson, has lost a most efficient and faithful presiding officer; the medical profession an honored and highly esteemed member; and the community a citizen whose place cannot easily be filled.

Resolved, That we will ever cherish the memory of our dear, departed friend, and that his example of zeal and fidelity in the practice of the Healing Art, shall ingite us to increased earnestness and faithfulness in the discharge of our professional and social obligations.

. Resolved, That we tender to Mrs. Richardson the expression of our warmest of James Wells, aged 21 years, 6 months sympathy in the loss of a kind and affec- and 11 days. tionate husband

Resolved, That a copy of these resolu-tions be presented to Mrs. Richardson, and that they be published in the papers of the county.

THE CHEAPEST PAPER IN THE WORLD.

The extensive and comprehensive facilities in its possession enables, the Proprietor of the Weerly Herald to guarantee the intest and moet reliable information possibly to be obtained, not only from all parts of the United States, but from all parts of the world.

Its home correspondents, engaged at heavy cost, and connected with each new naval and military expedition of the government, prove that it is determined to leave no spot uncovered by its operations, and no event can occur that shall not find immediate report in its columns. It costs the proprietor over one hundred thousand dollars per year to maintain its corps of correspondents in the field.

In its collation of Foreign News the Herald has for years held a high position, and it will endeavor in the future to maintain the stand it has assumed. It has special correspondents stationed in all of the principal cities of the world.

Its telegraphic arrangements extend to wherever the electric wires are stretched. When the Atlantic cable is laid, which feat will so a be accomplished, telegrams will be received from Europe and Asla, as well as from the United States. Then our readers will have the events of the week in all parts of the cyvilized world regularly and clearly laid before them.

The proprietor devotes a portion of the paper to Literature, Fashion, Agriculture, the Mechanic Arta, Sporting Matters, Business, Thentrical and Financial Reports, Cattle Markets, General News, and Reports of all Events calculated to form an excellent metropolitan newspaper—a weekly photographic view of the events of the world—and all at a very low price.
