To the People of Susq'a Co:

Being about to remove from Montrose to Elmira, N. Y., I hereby tender to my friends in this county, my warm thanks for their generous patronage, and many kind attentions to myself and family during the past ten years. I regret to leave this county because my intercourse with its people has been pleasant, and the associations that I have formed here will always have a choice place in my memory. But a sense of duty to others calls me away. The business heretofore superintended by me here, will be continued under the management of Mr. Dessauer, one of the partners of firm of Guttenberg, Rosenbaum & Co. I trust that my friends will extend to him the same generous patronage that they have to me; and I am confident that they will find him worthy of it.

Truly, &c., L. Rosenbaum.

Montrose, April 2d, 1864.

The Sanitary Fair.

A meeting will be held in Montrose, at the Court House, Monday evening, April 11th, to take into consideration the best method of representing the patriotism and ability of Susquehanna County at the great Fair in June next at Philadelphia. All classes of citizens are requested to feel themselves invited to attend and to volunteer the products of their industry and skill to be forwarded for exhibition and for sale, to swell the receipts of the U. S. Sanitary Commission, and eventually to soothe and bless the suffering heroes of the National army. It is hoped in particular that all of the Aid Societies of the Co. may be represented. The offer of any treasured relic of public value will be gratefully received.

Let none feel that it is not in his or her power to do something to further the attractions of a Fair which Pennsylvania means shall equal if not exceed any held previous to it.

C. F. Read, Mrs. I. N. Bullard,
B. S. Bentley, " H. J. Webb,
M. C. Tyler, " C. F. Read,
A. Chamberlin, Committee.

The Great Central Fair.

To Henry Drinker, Esq.: Dear Sir: Agreeably to the authority vested in me by the Executive Committee of the Great Central Fair in aid of the United States Sanitary Commission, I have appointed you Chairman of the Susquehanna County Committee on Agriculture, of said Fair, which appointment I am happy to state, has been approved by the general Committee on Agriculture here. Upon this committee has devolved the duty of communicating with the Agriculturists of Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, of systematising their efforts and soliciting their contributions on behalf of the Fair, and of facilitating the transportation of those contributions hither. The objects of the Sanitary Commission, and of the Fair, are set forth in the circular of the Executive Committee, a copy of which is annexed. These objects, I cannot doubt, meet with your entire approval, and will enlist your active and zealous cooperation.

Permit me, therefore, respectfully to suggest, that you cause the fact of your appointment to be noticed in one or more of your county newspapers, and a copy of a paper containing the notice to be mailed to me,—that you at the earliest practicable moment constitute ten active and influential ladies and gentlemen of the county—say five of each—a County Committee, of which you shall be the Chairman—that this committee, in turn, appoint a responsible and energetic Committee in each township, to solicit therein contributions of the Products of the Farm, and of the Farmer's Household, to be exhibited and disposed of at the Fair, which will be held in this city early in June next.

You will please to consider yourself empowered to adopt such other measures as within your county may be well calculated to advance the cause in hand; reporting to me promptly, the names of the members of your county committee, and from time to time, the progress you are making.

Very respectfully, your ob't serv't,

Alfred L. Kennedy,
Chairman of Com. on Agriculture.

Phila'a, March 18, 1864.

In forwarding contributions, observe the following directions:

1. Let each box, parcel, package, or animal, have your name and county, and be distinctly marked thus:

To Alfred L. Kennedy, M. D., Chairman of Committee on Agriculture, Great Central Fair Warehouse, Philadelphia, Pa.

2. Send by express or railroad company or by private hand, but do not pre-pay charges.

3. Mail to me the bill of lading or rec't from the express or railroad company, and also a list of articles and of donor's names.

4. Let each contribution be labelled or marked with its reasonable value.

5. Let each box, parcel or package be well and securely put up, and the contents carefully marked.

On receipt of each box, &c., a proper acknowledgement will be sent.

The undersigned, in pursuance of the foregoing Memorial, has appointed as an associate committee, the following:

Mrs. F. P. Grow, Hon. B. A. Grow,
Mrs. F. B. Chandler, Hon. Geo. Bucknell,
Mrs. I. N. Bullard, James H. Carmalt,
Mrs. Henry J. Webb, George Walker,
Miss Sarah Wakelee, Thomas Nicholson.

Henry Drinker,
April 2d, 1864. Chairman.

MARRIAGES.

In Rush, on the 28th ult. by Eld. H. H. Gray, Mr. Walter Simpson and Miss Dora J. Lacey, both of Auburn.

In Camptown, March 28, by L. M. Hewitt, Esq., Henry C. Schermerhorn, of Montrose, and Catharine Snyder, of Rush.

DEATHS.

In Brooklyn, on Sunday March 20th, 1864, Dr. B. Richardson, aged 60 years.

Feb. 28, at Nevada, C. T. of billious typhoid pneumonia, after an illness of about 10 days, Solomon G. Fairbrother, son of William and Eutarpa Fairbrother, of Vestal, N. Y., aged 29 years, 1 month, and 26 days. He left his home in the year 1857 for the far distant west with bright and promising hopes for the future, but God has called him to a better land where no troubles are found and no sorrow felt. He has gone to meet his angel sister. A large circle of friends and relatives are left to mourn his loss. Always kind and cheerful, he was loved and respected by all who knew him.

And thy loss we deeply feel;
But 'tis God that hath bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal.

Although far from home and among strangers, he had friends who gave him the best attention; but his disease proved too deeply seated for human skill. May God grant that the remembrance of his last words, may prove a source of consolation to his kind father and mother, loving brothers and sorrowing sisters.

Almost seven years have gone over
Since Solomon first went away—
Solomon, our own beloved darling,
Ah, why could he not stay.

And now when the spring is bringing
Fresh flowers to deck his grave,
We think how the grass and violets
Will o'er it lovingly wave.

For each little blade points upward,
Away from the lowly bed;
Up to the glorious heaven,
Whither our darling has fled. E.

In New Milford, on the 20th ult., Leslie Hannah, aged 23 years. He was a good man, hard to spare from the home that so rested upon his life as a son and brother; hard to spare from the feeble Church in which his life seemed the most precious one for the years to come. Faithful is the name which he deserved and which most truly described his character, whether at home or as a teacher, or in the church or Sabbath school. He was always in his place, a true, tried, earnest man. It is very sad to us to lay he is ours no more for the earthly life. His sickness was only a week from the most vigorous health to the grave. He was considered as convalescent from the measles. He suddenly complained of dizziness, and at once became unconscious, and died in a few minutes. He could have had no thought of the great change until he went behind the veil, to see Him whom he loved—the Invisible—to be welcomed to the joy of his Lord, as faithful to the few things committed to his care. We sorrow over our loss, while we rejoice in his joy.

J. P. S.

In New Milford, on the 15th ult., D. F. McMillen, son of Daniel and Sarah McMillen, aged 25 years. Thus has gone another soldier-victim to his final rest. Mr. McMillen went from this county with D Comp. 50th P. V. in the fall of '61, and passed the terrible perils of a storm at sea on board the Winfield Scott. The exertions put forth there to save a sinking ship were quite too much for him. After arriving in S. C. he had the measles, and taking some cold then, he has never seen a well day since. Obtaining a discharge he returned to his home, and has now gone to his long home, leaving his friends and family connexion as mourners. Mr. McMillen was a brave soldier, a worthy young man, patient in sickness, resigned in death. [Com.

In Harford, Feb. 24th, of spotted fever, William Sweet, in the 32d year of his age.

We've placed within the silent grave
Another cherished form;
A soul has left life's rolling wave
And anchored from the storm.

A ransomed spirit free from care,
Has left its case of clay,
And gone to realms divinely fair—
To realms of endless day.

We cannot wish thee back again,
To fill the vacant chair;
For thou hast joined an angel train
In a world more bright and fair.

Sleep, brother, sleep! sweet is thy rest,
With loved ones gone before
To the bright world where spirits blest
Sing anthems evermore. N. J. S.

In Jessup, January 27, 1864, of spotted fever, Francis E. Mills, son of Henry and Irena Mills, aged 18 years, 11 months and 6 days.

Dear boy, there mourns a broken band,
That miss in thy old home,
The trusty heart and friendly hand,
That never more will come.

For thee the morn of life was bright;
The frost of death came soon.
And blighted hopes of fond delight—
Life's sun went down ere noon.

Thy youthful friends, in tears recall,
Glad hours with thee they passed;
And sorrow o'er thy early fall,
Yet hope to meet at last. [Com.

Troops furnished to the Rebel Armies.

The following statement recently made in the Rebel House of Representatives, shows in round numbers the number of men that have been furnished to the rebel armies by the respective states since the war began:

"Alabama has furnished 40,000 men; Florida, 5,000; Georgia, 61,000; Louisiana, 38,000; Mississippi, 40,000; North Carolina, 35,000; South Carolina, 25,000; Texas, 29,000; Virginia, 109,000; Arkansas, 28,000; Tennessee, 34,000; Kentucky and Maryland, 20,000 each; Missouri, 35,000.—Total, 501,000."

The entire population of the Southern States in 1860, not counting Maryland, nor the Unionists in Kentucky, Tennessee, Missouri or Virginia, was 9,200,000. Of these 3,200,000 were slaves, and 6,000,000 were white people. Of the latter, 1,500,000 were of the proper military age, and were enrolled as such. Of these, as stated above, only one-third have been as yet called out, leaving fully a million of able-bodied men at home.

ATTENTION, ALL!

MESSRS. GUTTENBERG, ROSENBAUM & CO.

OF MONTROSE, PA.,

Have concluded and are determined from this date to do NO MORE CREDIT BUSINESS; and further state that they are very desirous of settling up with their old friends and customers.—We would advise them to come forward and pay up their old accounts, either with cash or settle by note. Cash we have to pay for everything we buy; and cash we must have if we sell any Goods hereafter. We feel very delicate about initiating this rule as perhaps many customers of ours will feel touched about being refused a credit; but nevertheless the intelligent can see at once that the times have changed and with it the business. Therefore we would ask our old customers and friends in general to make due allowance for the above stated reasons.

GOODS CHEAP FOR CASH.

We also advise all who desire to buy GOODS CHEAP FOR CASH to call and examine and price our Stock, which is complete in all particulars, and we will satisfy any reasonable person that CASH purchases are quite a different thing from a credit.

CASH PRICES FOR FARM PRODUCE.

Those who are indebted to us and have so many excuses for not paying, we would advise to bring Grain, Butter, Lard, Dried Apples, Geese Feathers, Beeswax, Wool Stocking Yarn, or Socks, and we will allow them the cash price for them and place the amount to their credit.
