Cows for a Quarter.

The live-stock business has been active for the last few days, especially cows, and a large number have changed hands at 25 @ 31 cents. Those wanting cows at this rate can enquire at the Pound.

Effects of Lightning.

On Sunday last, a choice blooded bull, owned by Mathew Baldwin, Bridgaw which had on that day for the first, been turned into the pasture, was killed by a stroke of lightning, in the open field. No trace of the stroke could be found upon the body.

Take Care of Your Cows.

Norice .-- Owners of cattle, &c., will please take notice that the Borough Or dinance probibiting Cows, &c., from running at large in the streets of Montrose, WM. GARY, will be enforced. Constable. May 2d, 1864.

Money Wanted-$2,000.

A Farmer, owning a farm worth $6,000 desires to borrow $2,000 to pay off all his debts, and would secure the money by a mortgage to run not over six years, with interest annually. Any one wishing to make a safe investment, can learn the name and residence of the applicant by my12 3w* inquiring at this office.

Important Local News.

Citizens of Montrose who allow their fowls, dogs, etc., to visit their neighbors' gardens should remember that they-the dogs and fowls-are liable to come to grief and an early grave, "according to iaw." Also that COWS are prohibited from running at large in any street or road at any time by a State law, in addition to the Borough Ordinance.

Elder Bush.

One of our exchange newspapers says insects never touch the elder bush. The leaves of the elder, scattered over cucumbers, cabbage, squashes, and other plants subject to the ravages of insects, effectu-ally shields them. The plum and other fruits may be saved by placing on the branches and through them, bunches of elder leaves.

It is said that ants will not come about where elder leaves are scattered. This is easily tried, and if successful, of great importance.

A Strike, and Shooting Affray.

Monday and Tuesday of this (now last) week the workmen upon the new Shop, at Susq'a Depot, and in the quarry, were on a strike for higher wages. Their demands, we understand, were granted, and all is now brisk again.

During the strike a sort of riot occurred. A man was engaged at work, and the crowd of strikers gathering around him, his cousin attempted to protect him, but was stoned and driven back some distance. when he drew a revolver and shot one of the strikers in the breast. Upon this the
