The other companies lose a considerable number. Lieutenant-Colonel Guy H. Watkins, of the regiment, has lately been killed.

Drafted Men, See Here!

Your attention is particularly called to the 22d section of the amended Enrollment act, approved February 24th, 1864, as follows:

"Sec. 22. And be it further enacted, that the fees of agents and attorneys for making out causing to be executed any papers in support of a claim for exemption from draft, or for any services that may be rendered to the claimant, shall not, in any case exceed five dollars, and physicians or surgeons furnishing certificates of disability to any claimant for exemption, shall not be entitled to any fees or compensation therefor. And any agent or attorney, who shall, directly or indirectly, demand or receive any greater compensation for his services under this act, and any physician or surgeon who shall, directly or indirectly, demand or receive any compensation for furnishing said certificates of disability, and any officer, clerk, or deputy, connected with the board of enrollment, who shall receive compensation from any drafted man for any services, or obtaining the performance of such services required from any member of said board by the provisions of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a high misdemeanor, and upon conviction, shall, for every such offence, be fined not exceeding $500, to be recovered upon information or indictment before any court of competent jurisdiction, one-half for the use of informer who may prosecute for the same in the name of the United States, and shall also be subject to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, at the discretion of the court."

Let all drafted men be shown the above, so they need not be robbed, neither by outsiders nor insiders.

Terrific Hurricane.

On Thursday afternoon, June 8th, at about 4 o'clock, a streak of a few rods in width, of a terrific gale of wind, swept over West Hill, in Vestal, completely demolishing the timber and everything in its course, doing a large amount of damage. We have heard of one residence demolished that came in its course, and that was the one belonging to C. R. Dingman. The house and outbuildings were entirely demolished, together with the furniture, and everything they contained. The house was carried about 20 feet against a grove of trees, when it broke into fragments. Mrs. Dingman and two children, together with Mrs. D's mother, an old lady 70 years of age, escaped with some bad bruises, but nothing serious. The house parted where they were, and the broken timbers came together and formed a kind of pen around and over them. It evidently was nothing but a kind hand of Providence that saved their lives. Mr. D. was not at home at the time.—Union News.

Medical Meeting.

The Susquehanna County Medical Society will meet at the Office of E. L. Gardner, in Montrose, on Wednesday July 13, 1864. All regular practitioners are invited to attend.

E. L. GARDNER, Sec'y.

Fourth of July Festival.

The ladies of Jackson will hold an ice-cream and strawberry festival at the hotel in Jackson on the afternoon and evening of the Fourth, for the benefit of the wounded soldiers. All are invited—old and young.

Independence Ball.

A ball will be given at the Hotel of N. D. Snyder, in Keosauqua, on Monday evening, July 4th, 1864. A general invitation is respectfully extended.

Independence Ball.

A party will be given at the Hotel of N. D. Snyder, in Keosauqua, on Monday evening, July 4th, 1864. A general invitation is respectfully extended.

Josh Billings defines "a successful raid as the cutting a sharp knife and bringing in a blind mule and two negroes to board." Josh tells too much to be popular.

FOR THE DEMOCRAT.

The frosts of seventy winters have passed over me. I have seen the rise and fall of many; have been conversant with the variability of the affairs of this transient life, both in commercial and financial ups and downs; have assisted in making the wilderness become a fertile field; have enjoyed the blessings of heaven and earth in a good degree, for which I have reason to be thankful to the Giver of all good.

Prosperity has crowned us as individuals and as a nation, until the present administration of our government commenced. Since then a down-bill course has come upon us. The destruction of human life and property, with a debt unknown in the history of the world in so short a time, and has been gloried by the administration party, both saint and sinner; and for what? Not for liberty!—for both North and South have enjoyed more than they can ever have again. A few political aspirants at the North have been agitating the question of slavery to the discomfort of the South. Meddled with that which was none of their business, as slavery was not a national affair farther than the District of Columbia. Each state had a right to regulate their own affairs in that respect, and were accountable if wrong were done. I have no faith in fighting among brethren to settle difficulties. The party in power say there could not be a compromise with the south. History will tell a different story from that.

"A wise man foreseeth the evil and hideth himself from it." No wisdom or good sense about it. The democrats have been complained of by the republican party in years gone by, for their enormous expenditures. What inexperienced youth left an independent fortune could have been more reckless than the present administration? Millions unborn will have to suffer for it, beside being a by-word among the nations of the earth, for our reckless, inconsiderate management. As Job said when God left him to the rule of Satan: "Let the day perish wherein I was born," &c. So let the day perish when this administration was elected. Let the day be darkness—let not God regard it from above—neither let the light shine upon it. It may well be said we are a God-forsaken people, for there has been nothing like a Christian spirit manifested by a majority of the ruling party; it is right—minister and layman—both north and south.

The people are getting sick of it; had generally rather be at home, and I believe they had better throw away their arms on both sides, north and south, and let the officers fight it out. They are the ringleaders in the mischief, with a few hot-headed politicians. Better have paid for the negro in their weight of coin than have made orphans of so many innocent men, and millions of white slaves in consequence of the enormous debt incurred. What generous-minded men can be in worse bondage than be haunted with taxes in consequence of profligate administration. Time was when gold was plenty, and business lively, but millions will not get up high enough to withstand the great financial reaction that is surely coming; many will be rich, many more the poorer.

Where is the wise man, or man of reflection, a well-wisher of the country, who will not look with wonder and surprise upon it, and see that we are swiftly passing into a gulf from which no financial genius can rescue us. If the south can be conquered, they can't be subdued; and what will be the north? It will be so steeped in blood, that it will be a demon to haunt those enlisted in exciting this great national quarrel.

Ministers and men who have been praying to Abraham Lincoln had better begin to pray to the God of Heaven and Earth that he would grant them humility of heart, and more of patriotic spirit, than has been manifested, that Christian disgrace may be stayed.

There is no love of God, no love of humanity, nor love of country, in the ruling party of our government; if there was they would desist from their disgraceful and misguided course.

STEPHEN TUCKER. Jackson, June 24, 1864.

Now that Mr. Vallandigham has returned home, we hope the administration will have the good sense to let him alone. In our opinion this whole system of arbitrary arrests and suppression of newspapers has been a wrong and a mistake. We have no doubt it was well intended, but it is clear to us that it has weakened rather than strengthened the administration for its great work and duty, the suppression of the rebellion.—Carbonate Advocate, (Republican).

We saw a sight at the Lehigh Valley Depot on Friday last, such as we never expected to see in this free country.—A white man and a filthy negro, both said to be deserters from the army, were chained together by iron clasps around the wrists. In this condition they were marched through the public streets of Easton, on their way to the depot. That is carrying out the abolition doctrine of equality of the races, with a vengeance.—Easton Argus.

Another Abolition Outrage.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 3.—Last night a cowardly and disgraceful attack was made upon the Illinois State Register printing office by a number of abolitionists. After having learned the nomination of Lincoln, about twelve o'clock at night, fortifying themselves with whiskey, they collected in front of the Register office and threw brickbats and stones through the windows. The cowardly villains retreated after finding preparations were making to receive them on their entrance to the building.

DEATHS.

In Ararat, Feb. 27, 1864, SARAH JANE, daughter of N. J. and Lucretia West, aged 19 years.

Forewell, loved Jennie, thou art gone. Away from pain in youth's full morn; Thy pleasant voice, that used to ring, In praising now thy heavenly King.

Thy life departed like a flower— It seemed to tarry but an hour; Thy friends did watch with tender care, But strove in vain thy life to spare.

Forewell, farewell, loved Jennie dear; For thee we need not shed a tear; Since thou art now among the blest, There to enjoy a peaceful rest. [Com.]

THE FARMER

where still GOOD BARGAINS can be had, is at the store of GUTTENBERG, ROSENBAUM & CO.

THIS Firm have not been discouraged by the late advance in prices, accordingly they have resolved to sell goods that they only keep, and have therefore marked our prices accordingly low. We will certainly try to save a good many the trouble and expense of leaving the county and going a distance in order to buy cheap, so we say again, give us a trial and we will convince you with the facts of our assertion. Our assortment in

DRY GOODS, such as DRESS GOODS, in MOHAIRES, LUSTRES, ALPACCAS, PLAIDS, DELAINES, CHALLIES, LAWNS, &c., &c., is large.

CHOICE DOMESTIC GOODS. Mending, Bleaching and Unbleached, light and heavy grades, Calicoes and Ginghams of the best make, DeLaines, all colors, and quality.

PIECE GOODS. Broadcloth, Cassimeres, Ladies' Cloth, Cottonades, &c. HOOP-SKIRTS and CORSETS; the largest stock and of superior make and quality.

MILLINERY GOODS. We keep generally a First-Line of all goods used for millinery purposes, and offer such at New-York jobbing prices.

READY MADE CLOTHING. Our assortment in this branch of trade can not be excelled as our facilities are such that we are enabled to manufacture every garment we sell, we are certainly enabled to sell them much cheaper than those who are not so well connected.

Make up Garments to Order, and would ask all those who would like to have their clothing TASTY and REASONABLY MADE, as well as to secure a perfect FIT, to try us, as we are confident of being able to give satisfaction to the most particular.

The Notes and Books of the Firm, formerly in the hands of Mr. Rosenbaum are now left to the care of WILLIAM REARDON, late of the firm, who has charge of said business. He would respectfully request all those who are indebted to the firm to call and settle up on the books must be closed.
