

The Pittsburgh Commercial (Rep.) speaking of the capture, by the rebels, of Gen. Stoneman and his raiding forces, concludes thus:

"Mr. Lincoln is reported to have said on the occasion of a similar disaster, that he regretted it, but principally on account of the horses. He could make a Brigadier any day; but the horses cost $125 apiece, and were scarce at that."

Just so. The old ass-car for horses, but has no sympathy for men; for when they are gone can he not draft more?—And his shoddy followers enjoy his silly, heartless winks!

When the news was received at Bedford that Chambersburg had been burned by the rebels, some of the abolition jacobins openly expressed their delight, declaring that it was just what they wanted to hear of, as the "Copperheads" had suffered heavily in the loss of property, and it would operate to exasperate the people of the North. Such devilish malignity lurks only in the hearts of fiends. Shame! Shame!

SOLDIERS' FRIENDS.—On Tuesday last, says the Bedford Gazette, a wounded soldier at home on furlough; went up to the polls, in this borough, to vote against the amendments to the constitution. He had been badly wounded in the throat. As he approached the window, a leading partisan of Lincoln thus accosted him:

"Well John, I suppose you'll vote for the amendments—if you don't somebody ought to cut t'other side of your throat."

A "three years old" soldier complains in the Philadelphia Press that the Sanitary Commission stores never reach the soldiers, being exclusively appropriated by officers.

The Rochester Democrat, a Republican journal, states that there is a great deal of dissatisfaction in the army, and that a number of resignations have been tendered, among whom are five generals. The Boston Advertiser also alludes to rumors it has heard to the same effect.

Throughout the whole country there is not a single Lincoln leader who speaks one word in favor of the Union as our fathers made it and the observance of the Constitution, as our fathers observed it.

THIS article is prepared with the greatest care upon scientific principles, and warranted not to contain anything in the slightest degree deleterious to the Teeth or Gums. Some of our most eminent Dental Surgeons have given their sanction to, and cheerfully recommend it as a preparation of superior qualities for cleansing, whitening and preserving the Teeth. It cleans them readily, rendering them beautifully white and healthy, without the slightest injury to the enamel. It is healing to the gums when they are irritated and sore. It is also an excellent disinfectant for old and decayed teeth, which are often exceedingly offensive. It gives a rich and creamy taste to the mouth, cleansing it thoroughly, and imparting a delightful fragrance to the breath.

A. HAWLEY & CO.,
N. W. cor. 10th & Lombard sts., PHILADELPHIA,
AND SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS,

Testimonials.
The following opinion of Dr. White, as to the high esteem in which he holds the Dental Cream, may be sufficient evidence of its value; to quote other testimonials in detail it is needless, contenting ourselves by simply giving the names and addresses of persons who speak of its excellence for the teeth.

Having carefully examined A. Hawley's "Solidified Dental Cream," I hereby cheerfully recommend it to the public generally. It is an excellent preparation for cleansing and preserving the Teeth, and can be used by all persons with the utmost confidence, as its properties are perfectly harmless. Besides preserving the teeth, it promotes a healthy action to the gums, and imparts a pleasantness to the breath.
