

For President: GEO. B. McCLELLAN, OF NEW JERSEY. For Vice President: GEO. H. PENDLETON, OF OHIO. For Congress: CHARLES DENISON, OF LUZERNE COUNTY.

A McClellan ratification meeting will be held at Montrose on Saturday the 17th inst. Handbills will be issued in a few days, and our next issue will announce the speakers engaged.

The Democratic State Central Committee will meet at the Merchants' Hotel, in Philadelphia, on Tuesday, September 13, 1864, at 10 o'clock, a. m. Punctual attendance is requested.

The last card of Lincolnism is a dispatch from Baltimore stating that the "secessionists" do not endorse the nomination of McClellan. Of course not; he was not nominated to please them.

The shoddy organs are hunting up slanders against McClellan, and quite naturally they begin to quote from rebel papers and other secession sources.

The Carbondale Advance, a Republican paper says:

The present indications are that the nominations will be pretty fully acquiesced in, and be supported with a good degree of vigor and harmony by the rank and file of the Democratic party.

THE CHICAGO CONVENTION.

Our time and space are so much occupied that we are unable to write at length of the Chicago Convention, and its results, as we desire to do.

It was the largest known to the American Union; its enthusiasm was unparalleled; the unity of sentiment upon the great question of the day was without precedent.

Lincoln will be Defeated. The Peoria Deutsche Zeitung says that the Democrats may nominate who they please against Oglesby, and he will be elected.

Well may a cotemporary ask, "Where is Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, who has wept rivers of Crocodiles tears over Southern slave auctions?"

Twenty volunteers wanted to fill the quota of Brooklyn township. The highest bounties will be paid, and young men wishing to volunteer and thus escape the draft, will find it to their interest to call upon either member of the recruiting committee.

Money wanted by loan for Bridgewater Township, in sums to suit lenders. Men liable to draft, come forward with funds. Apply to B. O. THACHER, under Hatch's Hotel.

The first McClellan flag hoisted in Wayne county, on receipt of the news of his nomination; was by R. E. Lord, Esq., a Fremont Elector in 1856.

THE CHICAGO CONVENTION.

The Democratic National Convention has completed its labors and given us a ticket and a platform which can not fail to be triumphantly sustained at the coming election.

McClellan is a tower of strength in itself. There is an outburst of enthusiasm following his nomination, such as has never before been witnessed in this country.

Mr. Tilden moved that one delegate be appointed from each delegation to report resolutions for the consideration of the Convention, and that all resolutions be referred to the Committee without debate.

The Convention re-assembled at 10 o'clock, and after being called to order, prayer was offered by Bishop Whitehouse, of Illinois.

THE LATEST WAR NEWS!

The capture of Atlanta is confirmed. The Confederates have taken a new position twenty-six miles south of it.

Hood blew up his works in evacuating Atlanta, and destroyed some trains loaded with ammunition. The spoils reaped by Slocum were fourteen cannon and the ruins of the destroyed trains.

THE CHICAGO CONVENTION.

There is nothing of importance from Gen. Grant's army. His force is acknowledged by Secretary Stanton to be too small to do anything, and that he wants 100,000 more men to take Richmond.

"NIGGER DEALERS."—The abolitionists used to speak contemptuously of southerners as "nigger dealers," because they bought and sold negroes.

The State of Pennsylvania is now in the nigger business, having already some sixty or a hundred recruiting agents at work buying up southern negroes to fill up our State quota.

On the 1st instant a colored woman living at Chatham Four Corners, New York, put up her son at auction, at her house, as a substitute, and sold him to the highest bidder.

Volunteers Wanted. Twenty volunteers wanted to fill the quota of Brooklyn township.

Bridgewater Bounty and Volunteers. Money wanted by loan for Bridgewater Township, in sums to suit lenders.

Also a few men to fill the township's quota. Volunteers call on Mr. Thacher, as above, or upon H. S. Searle, M. J. Harrington, Lewis Chamberlin.

Desds. Very superior Desds are sold at this office, at moderate prices.

THE CHICAGO CONVENTION.

The National Democratic Convention assembled at Chicago, on Monday, August 29th. All the states adhering to the Union were fully represented; and over one hundred thousand visitors were present.

At 12 o'clock the Convention was called to order by August Belmont, chairman of the National Democratic Committee, who made a few able remarks suited to the occasion.

Mr. Tilden moved that one delegate be appointed from each delegation to report resolutions for the consideration of the Convention, and that all resolutions be referred to the Committee without debate.

The Convention re-assembled at 10 o'clock, and after being called to order, prayer was offered by Bishop Whitehouse, of Illinois.

Manufacture of Woolen Goods.

THE MANUFACTURE OF WOOLEN GOODS, both in the household and factories, has become of great importance on account of its forming at present our principal article of clothing. The nature of our climate makes it necessary and the necessity has greatly increased the value of wool and fabric made from it, and being sought in the business of making cloth and flannel, and by the trade in general, is becoming every day more and more appreciated. Dressing, we have thought that a few remarks with regard to handling wool, and the proper process of manufacture, might be of service to the consumer and a benefit to ourselves.
