COUNTY A PRATRE Attend to the Assessments

See that every McClellan voter, both at home and in the army, is assessed at once. Do not delay, or votes will be lost. This week situated, October 1st, is the last day for assessments.

The Soldiers' Vote.

THE SOLDIERS' VOTE. Every township should, without delay, get their county ticket and send tickets, and a collector's receipt for ten cents tax, immediately to their soldiers in the army.—
The folls for each county drand be obtained and each county and township will be obliged to take care of itself. Let the people of every township remember that apon their, own exertions resis the responsibility of this soldiers vote.

Soldiers at home on furlough, and new recruits are constantly going to the army; these should be supplied, and every other means, by letter, and through papers, should be exhausted to send tickets and thus give the soldier the right to vote the ticket of his choice. - Ex.

Can't defeat Denison.

Every honest and sensible man in this district knows that Mr. Denison was elected to Congress by a large and honest majority of votes, and the false and silly pretence of one or two babitually lying shoddy organs to the contrary, amounts only to so much Lie. The woolly party is too small in this district, and that's what's the matter. Every Democrat should still east his vote as earnestly, though, as if it the means of accomplishing this desirable would change the result, for shoddy will end. try to carry the district by freud and corruption. They tried bribery two years ago and failed, as they will again because the honest Democratic vote is too large.

The Democracy were so large a party that shoddy could'nt grow fast enough to match them, and now they are still so far ahead that no woolly horse can run fast enough to ketch'em.

Soldiers' Friends.

A soldiers wishes to remind the voters that last winter some Veterans allowed themselves to be credited to Montrose, to save it from the draft. Verbal promise was made of $225 bonnty, and although other towns paid more, several leading citizens afterwards used their utmost infinence to cheat the Veterans out of their money, by opposition to levying a tax to raise the money.

The leader in this attempt to defraud the Veterans, was Charles F. Read, who is an Elector on the Lincoln ticket. He claims to be "the soldiers' friend," and denounces such soldiers and citizens as won't vote for him, as being copperneads, traitors, &c. I voted the so-called union ticket with Judge Read on it, the first year of the war; now I shall vote the true Union ticket for McClellau with Judge Read nor on it. Heaven save us from all such "saldiers friends?" Volumen.

How Soldiers Vote.

Soldiers must be assessed on or before Saturday next. Any citizen can require the assessor to assess a ten cent tax upon a private or non-commissioned officer who enlisted from his town, in the military or naval service; even if be be in a regiment of another State, or now prisoner of war.

"This is to certify, that on the day of 1864, in pursuance of an in actual military service," approved Au- have so right to demand that he shall go

Pennsylvania a County Tax of for the year 1864, he being a in Company Regiment Volunteers. Assessor,
For the ... of ... Susq'a co., Pa."

This properly filled up is to be taken to the collector (or county treasurer) and the ten cents paid, when the officer must give a receipt upon the back of it as follows: "Rec'd 1864, by the hand of the sum of, being payment in full of the within assessed county tax.

Collector,

For the of Susq'a co., Pa."

Commissioned officers pay their usual tax, like citizens. Soldiers who can swear they have paid State or County tax within two years, can vote without above assessment, but the surest way is to assess now.

The above receipt, must be sent to the soldier, together with tickets. If soldiers are with the Company, a poll is opened and they vote on election day. But any soldier who is where there are less than ten Pennsylvania voting soldiers, must vote by proxy: that is, some time before election day, he must have a proxy blank and envelope to be filled up signed, and witnessed by his commanding officer, or other witness, and in this he incloses his folded ballots, and send the letter to some VOTER at his residence, who must keep the envelope visiopened till election day, and then present it to the election board, who open and cast or reject the vote according to law. If a voter be naturalized, this papers must be shown where his vote is cast. We have 500 proxy blanks and terrelaper, and plenty of tickets to give to our friends who call for them. We will send them by mail on receipt of stamps for return postage. Proxy envelopes and blanks should be obtained at once and sent by the soldier as soon as possible, so as to be sure that it is ready before election day.

For the Campaign.

We will send the DEMOGRAT until after the November election to single subscri-No paper sent till paid for.

A Word to Peace Democrats.

It appears that Mr. McClellan's letter of acceptance is not entirely satisfactory to a portion of the so-called peace men.-A few remarks on the subject from an old ling Reace Democrat will perhaps be use;

When the long-pending controversy between the two sections of our once glo-rious and happy Union had at less; as had often been predicted collainated in open rupture, and there began to be talk about war, I was in favor of submitting the question to the arbitrament of the God of peace rather than to the decision of the god of war, because the decision of the latter would at hest be but arbitrary, and that of the former could alone do exact and equal justice to each of the contending parties. The powers that be chose to bring the suit into the court of Mars. Mars has had the case before him three years and over, but as yet has given us no decision. What I propose now, is to take it out of his court, and bring it before the god of peace. .-

Whatever may be thought or said to the contrary, the peace Democrats are Union men. Whoever says that they are or ever were secessionists, dinnionists or traitors, gives utterance to as vile a slander as was ever uttered by mortal man. The greatest desire of our hearts is the restoration of the old Union under the old Constitution. If the Republicans are Unionists also in this sense, (which we emphatically deny,) then the only differ-ence between them and us, is in regard to

It is because the peace Democrats are Union men, that we are peace men. We always opposed the agitation of the slavery question in the North, because we always regarded it as an unwarrantable interference with that which was none of our business, and because such agitation endangered the safety of the Union. We opposed the organization of a sectional political party in the North, because such organization impaired the Constitutional right of the South to hold slaves; and hence threatened to divide the Union .-And when at last the Union was rent in twain, and it became desirable to re-unite it, we opposed the inauguration of civi war for that purpose, because we thought the means totally inadequate to the end. The Union was founded on the voluntary principle, and on that principle alone can it ever be restored. We do not say that the seceding States cannot be conquered and subjugated. We do not say that they cannot be compelled by force to come back into the Union. But we do say that if they are, it will not be the Union framed by our fathers, nor under the Constitution we have so long admired and revered. Besides, we feel positively certain, not only that the Union can never be restored by war, as it is now being prosecuted, but also that all the means and appliances in the power of the present administration will be employed to pre-vent a restoration on the old basis. On this the very existence of this Republican sectional party is dependent. On the other hand the salvation and future prosperity of the Democratic party is dependent on the restoration of the Union as it was, under the Constitution as it is.

Now, Mr. McClellan, by the platform on which he was nominated, and by his The assessor must give a certificate such letter of acceptance, stands pledged in the strongest possible language to employ all honorable, peaceable means to restore the Union as it was. And I, as a peace man, Act of Assembly of Pennsylvania, entitled firmly believing that by compromise and Act of Assembly of Pennsylvania, enutied prints the Union can be restored, Prints, Sheetings, Stripes, Ticks, Denims, &c. &c. "An Act to regulate elections by soldiers conditation, the Union can be restored, Flan tels and Collars, fancy Shirting and opera do. in actual military service," approved Au-gust 25, 1864, I did assess upon....., a citizen and resident of the....... of will pursue in case that honorable proffers in Susquehanna county, State of of peace and union made to the South people should be rejected by them. Suppose he should deem it necessary in such a case to prosecute the war. Then, certainly, as a choice between two evils, it is infinitely better that it should be prosecuted under Mr. McClellan, than under Mr Lincoln. Because, under the one it would be to force the seceding States into the Union with all their Constitutional rights unimpaired; under the other to force them back with all their rights wrested from them. Besides, under the one it would be conducted in accordance with the usages of civilized nations, and thereby save us from the reproach of being a nation of barbarians.

Does it not then evidently appear that the peace men who are not satisfied with Mr. McClellan's position openly man-ifest a want of confidence in the efficacy of the means which they advocate for the restoration of the Union? Wake up, brethren. "Examine yourselves, whether you be in the faith." Let us make one more united effort for the salvation of our country. Such are the views of an original, simon-pure peace Democrat. If they are endorsed by the Democracy of Susquehanna county, very well; if not, then so far as the writer is personally concerned, it will be just as well. I can ask favors, E. E. Guild. but have no fears.

Gibson, Sept. 20, 1864.

Lincoln Meeting. A Lincoln meeting was held at Court House on Saturday night, which for want of numbers was considerably made up by ladies, children, and negroes. One speaker was the "Governor Pierpoint" whom Gen. Butler accuses of living upon liquor licenses. The other impressed many with the fact that he subsisted more upon the liquor. Very appropriately the meeting was presided over by an (white) office-hol-der, the chairman of the Lincoln county committee, who is so much opposed to the Union that he says, publicly, that he infinitely prefers its final dissolution, with an eternal war upon the border, rather bers for 80 cents; and where four ormore than let the Government survive the war are ordered by one person, 26 cents each. and the good old order of things be restored.

The Susquehama Association of Universilist will hold its next anathreet ing at Brooklyn, Oct. 5 and 6. Alfara cordially invited to attend. A. O. W. BREN, Standing Clerk.
