

COUNTY AFFAIRS

Local News. We wish our friends throughout the county would furnish us with any items of local interest that occur in their respective neighborhoods.

Choice Deeds, &c. Superior Deeds and Mortgages, also, Administrators, Executors, Trustees, and Guardian's Deeds—all of the most approved form and style, for sale at this office, at fair prices.

Sewing Machines. Any one wishing to buy a first rate sewing machine, can, by inquiring of the editor of this paper, learn how to procure one so as to save $10; or two persons can each buy one, and save $25.

Pianos, Melodeons, &c. Those wishing to purchase a first-rate Organ or Melodeon made by Geo. A. Prince & Co., or a Piano from either of several popular manufacturers, can learn how to procure an instrument of their own selection, at the factory, with the makers' warranty, at a considerable price less than they can otherwise purchase, by calling upon or addressing the editor of the Montrose Democrat.

Congressional Globe. We wish to procure, to complete our file, a copy of the Congressional Globe and Appendix for the First Session of the Thirty-sixth Congress; and the Globe and Appendix for the Third Session of the Thirty-seventh Congress.

Commercial Colleges. We can sell scholarships in several leading Commercial Colleges—Binghamton, Poughkeepsie, and others—at a handsome reduction from usual rates.

Information Free. The half-dozen Republican organs published in this corner of the State, are respectfully informed that Andrew Johnson made a speech on the 22d of Feb. veto three days after the date of his first veto message; and their readers ought to know what their President says.

Something New. We learn that L. C. Keeler will open a large stock of Boots & Shoes, Hats & Caps, Furs, etc., in a few days, in the store recently occupied by F. B. Weeks, two doors below this office.

Township Elections. At the township elections held on Friday, Feb. 19th, the officers elected were as follows:—(we deferred publishing the list last week to give place to a part of the President's speech, which was received a late day.)
