

COUNTY AFFAIRS

Lathrop Democratic Club. We are requested to state that a Democratic Club meeting will be held at the Hillsdale School House, in Lathrop township, on Saturday evening, May 12.

The Head Centre!

During all the days of the great Fenian excitement, when it was daily expected that England, Canada, and Fenian Bonds were to be taken by the initiates of the mystic circle, much curiosity was felt and expressed to learn whether the "Order of the Green" existed in this quarter, and whether we had a real, live Head Centre in town or county. It is now settled—and Fenians and others are alike privileged to know the fact—that the Head Centre is really here in Montrose. If any doubt this, let them call upon L. C. Keeler, two doors below this office, and he will show them a splendid stock of Straw Goods, Clothing, Furnishing Goods, Hats and Shoes, Hats and Caps, &c.—We have not space to note his various articles, but he seems to have a choice variety of everything in the line from shoe to hat or bonnet and upwards, for gentlemen or ladies. His establishment is neatly fitted up and well stocked; and the reader will do well to consult his advertisement in this paper and call and look at his goods.

Fire in Lathrop.

FIRE DEPARTMENT:—A fire has been raging to a considerable extent in the S. E. portion of our town along the line of the R. R., during the few dry and windy days past. Sunday last, it raged most furiously. The hills around Glenwood Switch seemed all ablaze; railroad wood, bark, fences and timber, shared in the general conflagration. A barn belonging to Mrs. Cordelia Snyder, (a soldier's widow) was burned, and with it a yearling heifer, some hay, and other effects. About twelve hundred cords of wood in one pile, belonging to the Railroad Co., was consumed. The timber land of O. L. Halstead, Esq., was badly injured. He estimates his damage at two thousand dollars. The southwestern portion of our township has also suffered some. Jasper Williams had a piece of winter grain, on new ground, burned over, and nearly all his fence consumed. Tuesday's rain demonstrated that "water will quench fire." Lathrop, May 3. E. M. T.

Fatal Accident.

Some ten days ago, John Moran, while engaged in sawing wood in South Bridge water, with a horse-power machine, attempted to walk over the pile of wood beside the platform, to relieve a horse which had fallen, when he fell upon the circular saw, had an arm badly injured and a leg nearly cut off. It was found necessary to amputate the leg, but he died on Monday.

County Superintendent.

The Convention of Directors met on Tuesday last, and elected W. W. Watson, of New Milford, as Superintendent for three years. Two ballots were had as follows: W. W. Watson, 52 $2. B. Thatcher, 21 24. E. A. Weston, 16 withdrawn. E. W. Rogers, 10 " The salary was fixed at $900 a year; for past three years it has been $600.

Methodist Conference.

The Wyoming Conference recently in session at Owego, made the following appointments for this county: Gibson—G. A. Severson. Clifford—S. F. Wright. Susquehanna—G. H. B. Akeslee. Thomson—Jonas Underwood. Lanesboro—J. W. Hewitt. Great Bend—Stephen Elwell. Montrose—Luther Peck. Brooklyne—S. F. Brown. McKayville—G. R. Hair. Auburn—J. H. Weston. Springville—J. F. Wilbur. Fairdale—Wm. Shelp. Rush—to be supplied. Little Meadows—C. E. Taylor. H. P. Browncomb, Presiding Elder.

Dentistry in Brooklyn.

At the solicitation of my friends in Brooklyn I have consented to send Dr. J. S. Smith to their village for the purpose of carrying the benefits of our profession to their very doors. Dr. Smith has been thirty-five years in the profession, and during that whole career has confined himself exclusively to curative operations, and is an easy master of Dental Surgery but I might with propriety say, Father of Dental Surgery. The Doctor may be found on Tuesday the 15th inst., at Bullard's Hotel or at his operating room with Dr. Blakelock. T. J. WHEATON. Binghamton, May 7, 1866.—1*

Very Provoking.

Most newspaper readers may have been tricked by commencing to read an item which starts well enough, but closes with an advertisement for somebody. Very provoking, this—but what I want to say is, that John Groves, Tailor, has removed to his old stand, first door west of Searle's Hotel, where he will be happy to see his old friends and new ones, and take their measure for the new Spring Styles of Clothing. Particular attention given to cutting, and satisfaction guaranteed. May 1, 1866. 4w

NOTICE.

OFFICE OF WM. H. COOPER & CO. BANKERS, MONTROSE, MAY 5th, 1866.

DEATHS.

In Lathrop, May 1st, 1866, ASA STRICKLAND, after a long illness, aged about 70 years.

At Meadville, Pa., on the 19th of April, 1866, JOHN FRANKLIN THOMAS, youngest and only son of David and Jane A. Thomas, of Great Bend, aged 25 years.

His remains were brought to Great Bend and interred in the Episcopal Cemetery ground on Sunday morning (22d) in accordance with the service of the Episcopal Church and that of the Order of Masons. The Rev. Dr. Lewis, of Binghamton, N. Y., and Rev. Charles H. Canfield, of Port Jervis, N. Y., conducted the services of the church, and Col. Page, Grand Master of the State of New York, gave the Masonic address at the grave. A large number of Masons from the neighboring Lodges were in attendance to testify their high regard for the deceased friend and brother. A large concourse of citizens also attended.

Mr. Thomas was an upright man, and from his boyhood bore the highest character as to probity. As a citizen, he was greatly respected wherever he resided. As a son, dutiful, and as a husband, tender and affectionate. He leaves a wife, a father, mother and three sisters to mourn his loss, besides a host of friends.

In his life pure, in his death he left the savor of a good name, and also the evidence that death was gain to him. Firmly putting his trust in the Redeemer and our Saviour, he passed upward and onward to the mansions of the just.

The Lord be with the stricken mourners, to comfort them in their sore bereavement, and to enable them to say, "Father, not my will, but thine be done." C. H. C.
