Of all political parties that ever existed in this country, the present disunion par- | al?) and !! ty is the most given to sustaining itself by atrocious falsehoods, and by malignant slander of its opponents; and of all its newspaper organs with which we are acquinted, none will publish a wilful, malignant falsehood, to injure an opponent, more readily than the Montrose Republican. Ohio Democratic State Convention.

Columbus, Ohio, May 24. The Democratic State Convention to day nominated Benjamin Lefevre, of Shelby county, Secretary of State; William Lorwill, of Ashland county, Chief of the Board of Public Works, and Thomas K. Key, of Hamilton county, Judge of the Supreme Court.

The Convention adopted the following olatform :

Resolved, That the Democracy of Ohio adhere with unfaltering fidelity and firmness to the organization of the Democratgreat Apostle of American Democracy, as acknowledged and accepted by the party from the foundation of the Government, subject to taxation.

Resolved, That the great question of the day is the immediate and unconditional restoration of all the States to the exercise of their rights within the Federal Union under the Constitution; that we will cordially and actively support Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, in all necessary and proper measures to carry out his policy, as directed to that end, and especially in securing immediate representation in the Senate and House of Representatives to the eleven States, and unconstitutionally and arbitrarily withheld, on the degrading condition of inferiority in the Union, and negro, policical and civil equality, enforced by the Federal Government.

Resolved, That for the purposes above set forth we will co operate in public meetings, conventions and at the polls with all men, without reference to their their acts and votes, as well as professions, support the President in his policy of restoration as now declared.

Fenian Affairs.

The Fenian muddle presents no new aspect in New York. O'Mahony has resigned the "Presidency" and Killian been turned out of the Treasuryship, after they have squandered all the funds to no good purpose; and Roberts refuses to yield to the authority of Head Centre Stephens.
