The Ticket.

We place at the head of our column, the Democratic ticket, completed. It will be noted that we now vote but three ballots; one headed on outside, "State," and containing, inside, the words: "Governor, Hiester Clymer."

Another ballot is headed "County," and contains inside, the officers from Congress to Coroner.

The third ballot has for its caption "Judiciary," and encloses candidates for Associate Judges.

John Jackson, Esq.

It will be noticed that John Jackson, Esq., has been selected by the Democrats of Wyoming, as the candidate for that county for Representative. Mr. J. was on our ticket two years ago; is well known as a staunch, reliable Democrat, and a citizen of excellent reputation; and his nomination will therefore prove highly acceptable to all who prefer to elect honest men who will legislate for the interest of the people and the restoration of the Union.

Are you Assessed?

Every voter must see that he is assessed, for a personal tax, at least ten days before election, or lose his vote. Those not assessed last year, cannot vote now unless assessed. Let every man see that himself and all his friends and neighbors are on the assessor's list. Officers of clubs, and all Democrats who can look after such matters, will please not neglect this important duty. Hundreds of votes will be lost in this county, if the assessments are not attended to. Every voter must pay a State or County tax, or lose his vote. Soldiers who have returned from service must be assessed now to secure their vote.

Our Mass Meeting.

The Clymer Mass Meeting of which we could give but a brief notice last week, was organized by the selection of the following officers: President, R. B. Little, Esq.; Vice Presidents, G. L. Swisher, J. O. Bullard, O. S. Beebe, A. Calby, Z. Smith, E. Griffith, S. J. Griffith, D. Wilmarth, J. L. Merriam, F. W. Boyle, N. Tingley, D. C. Roberts, H. White, D. McMillan, C. Læz, N. Camp, I. Reekhow, N. D. Snyder, O. Trowbridge. Secretaries, J. Blanding, A. J. Gerritsen.

The attendance was large—and for a rainy day, much larger than would be expected. Hon. Montgomery Blair, late of Mr. Lincoln's Cabinet, was the first speaker, and from his Republican standpoint, made many effective arguments showing that the President is right and the radicals wrong upon the question of reconstruction.

Hon. Hiester Clymer, our gallant candidate for Governor, followed with one of his thrillingly eloquent and powerful speeches upon the issues of the day. He clearly refuted the vile slanders of the radical press and speakers in reference to his legislative record, and left no chance for their future repetition. The person who has been instrumental in circulating them in this county was present and heard his slanders most fully demolished; and if any newspaper attempts to charge Hiester Clymer, as a Senator, with having voted against the amendment to allow soldiers to vote, it will do so knowing such statement to be a deliberate falsehood. He voted for the bill, which was first adopted by a Democratic Legislature.

We would like to publish a full report of these speeches; and will take occasion to publish further facts upon the subject. Our people were highly pleased with our candidate, and will labor with renewed zeal for his triumphant election.

Lying in Advance.

Last week's Montrose Republican had an article which spoke of the Clymer meeting as a "small crowd." As that article was written the week previous to our meeting, was put in type, printed and sent out in the morning before the meeting assembled, the utter want of truthful intent is apparent.

But the "crowd" proved to be a large one, and the false intent of the writer will be more fully exposed if he to-day does not retract his falsehood, uttered in advance.

The Right of Deserters to Vote.

The Act of Congress of March 3, 1865, declared that deserters from the military or naval service of the U. S., forfeited their rights of citizenship.

The Pennsylvania Legislature, by act of June 4th, 1866, prohibited the Judges or Inspectors of any election from receiving the ballot of any person embraced in the said act of Congress.

The Supreme Court of this State have, however, since decided, in the case of "Huber vs. Keilly," that an election board is not competent to try and convict a citizen of the crime of desertion—that his citizen-rights are not lost, until he is convicted and sentenced for that crime, by some judicial tribunal, having jurisdiction in the case. The rights of the electors are thus placed upon grounds which preclude hesitation or mistake.

According to the Supreme Court, therefore, an election board cannot lawfully refuse the ballot of any man upon the allegation of desertion, whether that allegation be true or untrue.

R. B. LITTLE, J. B. MCCOLLUM. Montrose, Sept. 24, 1866.

The Last Week.

Remember that all who are not assessed on or before Saturday of this week, (Sept. 29th), cannot vote.

Get assessed this week, and you can pay the tax on or before election day—October 9th.

Representative Conference.

At a meeting of the conferees of this Representative district, held at Tunkhannock, Sept. 18, 1866, there were present H. J. Webb and A. Lathrop from Susquehanna county, and Thos. Osterhout and Ziba Billings, of Wyoming co.

On motion, Thos. Osterhout was chosen Chairman, and A. Lathrop Sec'y.

On motion, C. M. Gere, of Susquehanna county, and John Jackson, of Wyoming, were unanimously nominated as candidates for Representatives.

THOS. OSTERHOUT, Ch'n. A. LATHROP, Sec'y.

Lecture.

The celebrated humorist and Lecturer, Mr. Henry W. Shaw, alias Josh Billings, of Poughkeepsie, will give one of his characteristic Lectures at the new Court House, Montrose, Pa., on Putty and Varnish, or Pouton Philosophy, Tuesday evening, Sept. 25th. Let the people turn out and hear one of the greatest wits of the age. Admission 40 cents.

Be Assessed.

Be sure that you are assessed! Don't take it for granted, but see it in person! We lose votes every year by carelessness in this matter. The election comes on Tuesday, October 9th. See to it that every Democratic voter is assessed at least ten days before that time. Do not wait until the last day. Attend to this important matter at once. This is the last week in which assessments can be made.

Slippery Instructions.

At the recent Republican convention in Montrose, a resolution was adopted puffing Curtin as the "soldiers' friend," and instructing the candidates for Representatives to support him for United States Senator.

At the conference, the same men were instructed to support Grow!

This is a shameless fraud upon the masses of that party. The "soldiers' friend" resolution was a fine thing to tickle the fancy and catch votes, but afterwards all that was set aside for the benefit of a played-out politician who is mostly remarkable now as the man who was whipped out of Congress by the people with 1,767 majority, in a district made for his especial benefit; and whose latest performance was under the title of President of the Reno Oil Co., one of the greatest humbugs of the day.

But the last instructions will do as little good as the first; for the people will see that Grow does not slip into the Senate upon worthless oil stock.
