

SATANIC AGENCY.

A Reverend Dr. Newman, of New Orleans, on Wednesday last, opened the Radical Convention with prayer, in which he invoked the Deity to "deliver us from the rule of bad men, especially from him who, through satanic agency, had been raised to authority over us." As Andrew Johnson was "raised to authority" in the Federal government by Republican votes at the election of 1864, we might admit that the clerical gentleman's allusion to such an "agency" was in terms not altogether unfitting.

But the President's good use of the power he holds leads us to be more indulgent to the agency by which he reached it. He was avowedly placed on the Republican ticket for the purpose of attracting the votes of Democrats, and his most malignant assailant will admit that he is doing so, very effectively. It will be remembered that the Republican candidates of 1864 were always represented as differing from the Democrats in only one particular. General McClellan had said—"The Union is our one condition of peace" to this Mr. Lincoln added, "the abolition of slavery in conformity with my emancipation proclamation."

Now, slavery being abolished, restoration of the Union remains as the common object of both the parties of 1864. Andrew Johnson remains true to that; while the Radicals now try to add negro suffrage, and a relentless proscription of the vanquished, to the creed of their party. Without this they do not want the Union. This is just the issue between them and the conservative Republicans and Democrats who sustain the administration of Andrew Johnson.

On this issue we go to the people; to be decided in favor of justice and humanity, it only needs to be clearly understood. To prevent this, the most wily of the radicals resort to every shuffling evasion that the dexterous use of language affords.—They have in their present Convention two parties—one for openly avowing negro suffrage as their aim; the other for dissembling it in words and pursuing it covertly—but both have at heart the same thing. It is to prop their tottering power by Africanizing the Southern States, and then governing them by the bayonet. The object is unworthy of the age in which we live, of the race to which we belong, of the religion which we profess. To this Radical policy might be truly applied the word "Satanic."

Showing their Hand.

Hon. Horace Maynard, of Tennessee, made a speech at Athens, in that State, on the 21st inst., in which he said:

"I am an abolitionist, and have always been one. I was accused of being one when I first emigrated to this State. The charge was just; I was full and running over with abolitionism, but I denied it for policy sake.

I am proud to-day that I have been placed among that persecuted set, and deem it the highest compliment to be denounced as such. And I tell you, gentlemen, that in a short time all this complaint about negro equality will be done away with. Some months since and it was said that the negro would not be suffered to testify in your courts—that his oath would not be granted him.

But how stand matters to-day? He is not only permitted to testify in your courts with impunity, but there is every evidence that he will soon be on a social equality with the white man in your State. Yes, gentlemen, in a short time he will marry and intermarry in your families.—It is a little objectionable to-day, but you will soon get over this, and the persecuted negro will be welcomed to your parlors. This will be the result of the political and social changes of the next few months."

The Hon. gentleman acknowledges he played the hypocrite for policy's sake just as many Northern candidates for Congress are now doing, who deny they are for negro suffrage. By means of this hypocrisy the Radicals expect to carry the next Congress.

Maynard tells what the Radicals expect from success in the approaching Congressional elections. He says "the result of the political and social changes of the next few months will be—what? 'The negro in a short time will marry and intermarry in your families.'" It is a little objectionable to-day," he proceeds, "but you will soon get over this, and the persecuted negroes will be welcomed to your parlors."

Political and social equality of the two races is the real platform of the Radicals. Maynard states it clearly. It is put out of sight here and there to suit special localities, but success at the polls will make it public everywhere.

Negro Equality a Practical Issue.

The white men of Philadelphia have now seen negroes accepted as the equals of their race, and acknowledged upon a perfect level with themselves in the proceedings of a Convention called by one of the political parties of the country. Fred Douglass walked in the Republican procession arm in arm with a white man, and as a delegate was welcomed with cheers from the supporters of the action of the late Congress. General Geary, the Radical candidate for Governor in this State, was in that procession, and endorsed the proceedings.—Age.

Radical Principles.

The principal motto over the speaker's stand, in the Douglass-Geary-Brownlow convention, is—"LIBERTY, EQUALITY AND FRATERNITY." There's negro suffrage, negro equality, miscegenation or mongrelism in a nutshell. After that, and the presence of Fred Douglass, will the Geary faction pretend to deny their negro "principles?"

All the Decency.

In the Radical Convention on Thursday last the following scenes occurred, which cannot fail to shock the moral sense of every right-thinking man in the community.

Mr. Hamilton, of Texas, read the dispatch in yesterday's papers relating to the President's visit to the Northwest. On reading that part of Mr. Seward's speech, and inquiring whether the audience desired Mr. Johnson for King or President, loud cries of "Nary one," were heard from all parts of the Convention.

"A Delegate—No, sir; we'd see Andy Johnson 365 degrees into HELL, with Bill Seward and Montgomery Blair on top of him, first."

Parson Brownlow gave utterance to these disgusting remarks:

"Some gentleman, not through any unkind feelings toward me, but through a mistaken appreciation of my motives, has said that we were afraid of the negro-suffrage question and sought to dodge it. Why, I should feel disgraced now and forever if I felt doubtful on any national concern. I never was chained on both sides of any question, and never intend to be. While I am satisfied with what has been done, I am the advocate of negro-suffrage and of impartial suffrage.—(Great applause, including "three cheer for Brownlow.") I would sooner accept in private life with a loyal negro than a disloyal white man. I would sooner be buried in a negro graveyard than in a rebel graveyard. (Applause.) If I have after death to go either to hell or to heaven, I shall prefer to go with the loyal negroes to hell than with white traitors to heaven."

These sentiments, it must be borne in mind, were uttered on the floor of the Radical Convention, in the same hall in which Anna Dickinson and Fred Douglass spoke, and before the same body which received with enthusiastic applause General Geary, the disunion candidate for Governor.—Age.

Luzerne County.

In reply to numerous inquiries as to the position of Luzerne county this fall, we assure them it is as true as steel, and can be relied on in the time of our greatest need. There is no quailing, no shrinking back from the good work among her democratic sons.

The election this fall will show one of the greatest victories ever achieved with us. The enemy will be utterly routed and scattered to the very winds. Luzerne will this fall take her place in the foremost ranks of the Democratic countries. The cry is Johnson, Clymer, Denison and the whole Democratic county ticket, and the disappointment and rebuke of the enemy this fall will be most withering.—Scranton Register.

Shall we ask the Negro?

The New York Independent, which furnishes the keynote for Pennsylvania radical organs, says:

"No man shall be the next President of the United States who does not give permission of the negro?" What would the Radical do to secure the spoils of office? If anything shall ever convince us that the black race is superior to the white, it will be the conduct of those whites of the North who are continually eating dirt at the feet of the negroes.

Gen. Grant and the Radicals.

Since General Grant and his chief of staff composed a part of the audience at the interview between the President and the Philadelphia Convention Committee, and has taken the Western tour with Mr. Johnson, the radical papers have dropped the General like a hot potato. They don't see any negro in that fence, and we shall soon see them abusing Grant as heartily as they now do Andrew Johnson. The world seems to be uncommonly rough for the radicals just now, and they are very much in the predicament of the fellow who was under a tree which was struck with lightning—slightly confused.

There was a monster Johnson and Clymer meeting held at Pottsville on the 3d inst. The President, Gen. Henry Pleasants, and the Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, Col. Frank T. Bennett, both brave officers during the war, were formerly with the Republicans, but have now joined the party of the Union and the Constitution. The enthusiasm was intense, and the speeches up to the full measure of devotion to principle necessary at this crisis in the fate of the nation.

The Shirleysburg, (Huntingdon County) Herald, hitherto Republican journal, refuses to hoist the Geary flag. It will not support the Stevens-Douglass-Dickinson platform, nor the local ticket of the Radicals in Huntingdon county. The Herald remarks "for ourselves, we have only to say this week, that it is our determination not to support any part of the Republican district or county ticket." The demoralization of the Radicals in Huntingdon county, is further apparent by the Herald's account of the meeting of that party on the 8th inst.

Hon. G. V. Lawrence, the Radical nominee for Congress in the 24th district, in this State, recently admitted in a speech at Clarksville, that "Hon. Hiestor Clymer, the Democratic candidate for Governor, is a gentleman, an honest man, and superior to General Geary in point of talent."

Secretary Seward stated in his remarks at one of the stopping places along the line, that New York would go against the disunionists of the Thad Stevens school, by a majority of 40,000.

FOUTZ'S CELEBRATED Horse and Cattle Powders.

This preparation, long and favorably known, will thoroughly renovate broken-down and low-spirited horses, by strengthening and cleansing the stomach and intestines.

It is a sure preventive of all diseases incident to the horse, such as LUNG FEVER, Glanders, YELLOW WATER, HEAVES, COLIC, DISTEMPERS, FEVERS, FOUNDRY, LOSS OF APPETITE AND VITAL ENERGY, &c. Its use improves the appetite, increases the strength, and gives a smooth and glossy skin—and a miserable steed into a fine-looking and spirited horse.

To keepers of Cows this preparation is invaluable. It increases the quantity and improves the quality of their milk, and has been proven by actual experiment to increase the quantity of milk and cream twenty per cent, and make the butter firm and sweet. It gives them an appetite, loosens their bowels, and makes them thrive much faster.

In all diseases of Swine, such as Coughs, Ulcers in the Lungs, Liver, &c. this article, used as a specific. By putting from half a pint to a paper in a barrel of swill the swill will be eradicated or entirely prevented. If given in time, a certain preventive and cure for the Hog Cholera.

Manhood: How Lost, How Restored.
JUST published, a new edition of Dr. Culver's well-celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHOEA, or Seminal Weakness, Impotency, Premature Losses, Impotence, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediment to Marriage, &c.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Pits, induced by the use of mercury or actual extravagance. Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates (from a thirty years' successful practice) that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine, or the application of the knife—pointing a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land. Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, post paid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps addressed to the publisher.
