Our Next Paper.

We shall issue our next paper on Saturday of this week, so as to be free from office duties on election day.

Judge Boyle.

The negro suffrage party has reported that Hon. John Boyle is for Archibald. We know that Charles Denison has no better friend in the district, than the Judge, who has been, and now is, active in the support of the whole Democratic ticket, and none other.

Poll Every Vote.

Do not allow a single voter (nor a married voter) to remain at home on the day of election. See that every man comes to the polls, and watch the board until each vote is put into the box.

Bogus Reports.

Since our last paper was in press, we heard a report that C. S. Gilbert had declined running for Sheriff. Of course the report has no foundation in fact; and is as groundless as other rumors in circulation, but unworthy of mention.

Worthy of Mention.

We have been presented with a large basket of fine fall apples by Mr. A. B. Griffin of Forest Lake. Their richness of flavor and beautiful appearance are unequalled; and the Printers unanimously agree that they are entitled to the First Premium.

THE TWENTIETH ANNUAL FAIR OF THE SUSQUEHANNA COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY

Is adjourned to be held in Montrose, Wednesday & Thursday, October 10th and 11th, 1866.

The Annual Address will be delivered at 2 o'clock, p. m. on the second day. The Judges as originally appointed, and other officers are respectfully requested to be in attendance.

The only alterations that will be made in the programme, are as follows: There will be no exhibition of walking horses on the first day of the Fair.

The Judges on Stallions and Mares will award the following premiums: Best pair draught horses tested by drawing loaded stoneboats, $5 2d $3

No owner can assign a rider for his own mule, but can ride his neighbors. In cases of dispute, the Judges can substitute riders. The race consists in going three times around the track.

The Fair Grounds will be closed until next Fair. A premium of $2 will be awarded to the best 3-year old heifer in each class of cattle.

Address of the Democratic State Committee.

DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE, ROOMS, 828 WALNUT STREET, PHILADELPHIA.

To the People of Pennsylvania:

The Democratic party in its platform of principles, adopted at Harrisburg, on the 5th day of March, 1866, resolved,

1. That the States whereof the people were lately in rebellion are integral parts of the Union, and are entitled to representation in Congress, by men duly elected, who bear true faith to the Constitution and laws, and in order to vindicate the maxim that taxation without representation is tyranny, such representatives should be forthwith admitted.

2. That the faith of the republic is pledged to the payment of the national debt, and Congress should pass all laws necessary for that purpose.

3. That the white race alone is entitled to the control of the government of the republic, and we are unwilling to grant to negroes the right to vote.

Upon this platform we placed our candidate for Governor, and with these principles we confidently look for success in this contest.

Our opponents in their Convention, held at Harrisburg on the 7th day of March, 1866, also adopted a platform, and nominated a candidate. The principles they enunciated appear to be lost sight of, and the proposed constitutional amendment takes their place as the rule of Radical orthodoxy, and to it their candidate gives his unhesitating support.

Negro equality and negro suffrage are the essential elements in that amendment. By it the negro is made the equal of the white man in all his "privileges and immunities." The right of Pennsylvania to make laws to regulate the migration of negroes into the State is denied and she is deprived of her just share of representation in Congress unless her Constitution be amended and the negro allowed to vote.

The Radical candidates for Governor and for United States Senator; their leaders of public sentiment; their speakers and their newspapers are open advocates of this amendment, and their practice accords with their profession, for they mingle with the negro in social intercourse, in political conventions, and in public processions.

We hold that the negro is not the equal of the white man, and, whilst we accord to him freedom and protection of person, with the right to enjoyment of the fruits of his labor and aid in intellectual advancement, we affirm that our own race is entitled to control the entire machinery of the government.

Sustain this amendment, and you give the negro the right to aid in governing you; defeat it, and you maintain your own right of sovereignty.

EVERY MAN WHO VOTES FOR GEARY OR FOR A RADICAL CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS, VOTES AS DISTINCTLY FOR NEGRO SUFFRAGE AND NEGRO EQUALITY AS IF THEY WERE PRINTED ON HIS BALLOT.

Democrats of Pennsylvania: Power is no longer against you, but ranges itself upon your side. Opportunities for fraud do not exist. Aid comes to you from the ranks of the enemy. No Democrat who voted for McClellan votes against you now; your brethren are aroused from the Lakes to the Delaware. A change of five per cent. upon the vote of 1864 will sweep your opponents out of existence. You can count it in almost every election district in the Commonwealth; and it you will but execute the details of your organization, success is certain.

Faith in your principles, courage for the contest, and a determination to poll every Conservative vote, are the only requisites to an assured victory. By order of the Democratic State Committee.

WILLIAM A. WALLACE, Chairman.

Radicals for Disunion.

The leading radicals have always been and now are as heretofore, for disunion. Do the people wish to know who were original secessionists? Read the following:

[From the Tribune of Nov. 9, 1860.] If the cotton States shall become satisfied that they can do better out of the Union than in it, we insist on letting them go in peace. The right to secede may be a revolutionary one, but it exists nevertheless. We must ever resist the right of any State to remain in the Union and nullify or defy the laws thereof. To withdraw from the Union is quite another matter. Whenever a considerable section of our Union shall deliberately resolve to go out we shall resist all coercive measures to keep it in. We hope never to live in a Republic whereof one section is pinned to another by bayonets.

[From the Tribune, Nov. 23, 1860.] If the cotton States unitedly and earnestly wish to withdraw peacefully from the Union, we think they should and would be allowed to do so. Any attempt to compel them by force, to remain would be contrary to the principles enunciated in the immortal declaration of independence, contrary to the fundamental ideas on which human liberty is based.

[From the Tribune, Dec. 17th, 1860.] If it (the Declaration of Independence) justified the secession from the British Empire of three millions of colonists in 1776, we do not see why it would not justify the secession of five millions of Southerners from the Union in 1861.

[From the Tribune, Feb. 23, 1861.] Whenever it shall be clear that the great body of the Southern people have become conclusively alienated from the Union, and anxious to escape from it, we will do our best to forward their views.

—Maine was "colonized" by Disunionists from Massachusetts, which accounts for the increase of 140,000 voters in one year. When Massachusetts holds her election the favor will be reciprocated. Lending voters is now a prominent custom of the long pursued plunderers.

Pomeroy on Colfax.

Speaker Colfax, the ring-tailed roarer of the Washington Kump, has been making a speech in Indiana, in which he is said to have declared that he had lately been to Arlington, "and he had heard that Mrs. Lee had been there, and said that when she got possession of the place not a Yankee bone should stay on the ground." The Alexandria Gazette says that Mrs. Lee has not been to Arlington since the war, and the New York Times, (Republican,) adds: Speaker Colfax did not know, probably, when he uttered this language, that the estimable lady referred to had been a helpless invalid for several years. He did not know or care; he spoke for political effect merely, and was utterly regardless of truth or manliness so long as his point was gained.—La Cross Democrat.

"Drop the Subject."

The Radical journals are greatly alarmed at the unkind manner in which the Democrats and Conservatives are "keeping the negro question before the people." They propose to "drop the subject."—Can't accommodate them. The issue is made up, and the record can't be opened. It is—"Geary and negro suffrage and negro equality" on one side, and "Clymer and a white man's government" on the other. That's what's the matter!

A Hit! A Palpable Hit!

We are indebted to President Johnson for the most terse and truthful explanation of the Freedmen's Bureau Bill. Said the President at New York: "What is that bill? Nothing more or less than the transferring of four millions of slaves from their original owners to a new set of taskmasters, with the United States to pay all the expenses, and the taskmasters under the Government to reap all the profits.

—The design of the Freedmen's Bureau bill, which President Johnson vetoed, was to make the President of the United States equal to a king in despotic power. It was passed as a lure by the Rump Congress to win Andrew Johnson over to Radicalism with the temptation of unlimited aid over the people. But, being of and with the masses, his virtue rose superior to the temptation. Andrew Johnson spurned the offer of unlawful power, and denounced the traitors to republicanism and democracy, who tried to prostitute him and to destroy the liberties of his country. Andrew Johnson does not want to be a king.

—A squad of negroes was lately imported into Bellfonte and put to work on laying down the water pipes. The Disunion contractors refused to employ white men. So it will soon be all over the State, if the Geary party prevails.

—The Democracy are everywhere jubilant and enthusiastic. Hundreds of Republicans, who never voted the Democratic ticket before, are openly sustaining the cause of Union, Restoration, and Constitutional Liberty, while there are thousands of the same party who will quietly deposit their ballots in favor of a white man's government! The skies are bright on every side of the political horizon!
