There has been much said within the last twenty-years with regard to woman's rights, and there never was a time when their rights were more sacred than at present. Our middle-aged and young men have been slain and mangled in the late war by hundreds of thousands, leaving thousands of widows and maiden ladies, many of whom are destitute of any home, or nearly so; and the chance for many of our terms for job printing, transient ad- them to get married is rather doubtful; vertisements, &c., are CASH. It is too and doubtless many of them would make excellent housewives if they had a fair chance; and as some of the bachelors are somewhat diffident, we had thought it trouble, delay, and losses, in such trifling would be well enough to give the ladies a fears of better chance than they have heretofore had.

Now, if it is right for negroes to vote, it is certainly right for the ladies to go courting. On the principle of equal rights tlemen have to make their wishes known to the ladies. A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort and great convenience of wearing the duplex elliptic steel spring skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly a dispense with their use. For children, missup and young indes they are superior to all others.

They will not bend or break like the Single Spring, but will preserve their graceful and perfect shape when three or four ordinary skirts will have been thrown aside as useless. The hoops are covered with double and twisted thread, and the bottom are not only double springs, but twice (or double) covered: preventing them from wearing out when dragging down stoons, stairs, &c.

The Duplex Elliptic is a great favorite with all ladies, and is universally recommended by the Fashion Magazines as the standard Skirt of the fashionable world. To enjoy the following inestimable sdwantages in Crinoline, viz: superior quality, perfect manufacture, and conomy, inquire for J. W. Bradley's Duplex Elliptic, or double spring Skirt, and be sure you get the genuine article.

CAUTION.—To guard against imposition, be particular to notice that skirts offered as "Duplex" have the red ink stamp, viz: "J. W. Bradley's Duplex Elliptic, or double springs braided together therein, which is the secret of their flexibility and strongth, and a combination not to be found in any other skirt.
