A Negro Competitor for the United States Senatorship.

At the recent meeting of the wooly-head society in Philadelphia, where Chief Justice Chase expounded darkness to his dark audience, Mr. Aaron Powell, editor of the Anti-Slavery Standard, said in a speech, that in the Senatorial canvas in in this State he wished that one distinguished representative man of the State, one favorably known in this country and Europe, a man of marked ability, whose name is Robert Purvis, could be sent to the chair occupied by Senator Cowan. It wouldn't be long that the Sare of Pennsylvania would be dishonored in disfranchising the black. He knew that Kelly, if consulted, and believed that Curtin and Stevens, if consulted, would magnanimously stand aside and allow such a result to occur. He urged the putting forward of Mr. Purvis with all the energy the Society could command.

It must not be forgotten that Robert Purvis is a negro.

The Stroudsburg Bank.

We very much regret to learn that the Stroudsburg Bank has got into a very critical condition, through the inexplienble disappearance of a large amount of its assets. The board of directors, in their notice to the Stock holders, say it appears from an examination of the Books and Accounts of the Bank that there is a deficit of $43,409,95, after absorbing the Sinking fund, which can only be accounted for upon the supposition that a large amount of our own Bank Notes were in some way stolen from the vault, put in circulation and redeemed by the Bank. We cannot understand how an institution of this kind should lose one half its Capital without the officers discovering it at once. A meeting of the stockholders is called, to be held on the 7th of January next, to look the matter up .-Easton Sentinel.
