

The Sailing of the Yachts.

BY J. W. WATSON.

Up pennon—leave the deep sea land, Our course lies to the sun; God's grace to each stout mariner, Until the strife be done.

Between us and the restless waves An inch of plank stands guard; White bearded, and with threatening moans, They follow swift and hard.

With three proud colors in the air, The red, the white, the blue, Three tiny vessels, trusting God, A way to eastward show.

Stout hearts looked forward on the path, Nor dreamed mishap could be, Such faith had each bold seaman in These graces of the sea.

Through blinding snow and cutting wind, In dreary winter time, They swept along the trackless deep Like some fierce Norseman's rhyme.

They sped as speeds the wild sea bird When huzza the tempest wind, And sped as speeds the swift narwhale, And leave the waves behind.

Sweeps down the icy northern blast Along their watery courses, Yet never dreams the seaman bold Of shipwreck or of loss.

His watchful eye is fondly bent Toward an alien shore, And watchful for each offering gale, To haste the journey o'er.

Speed on ye tiny winged barks, By yankee seamen manned, And bear glad news thro' waves and wind To yon proud Eastern land.

Show them the blood from whence ye sprang Has in your keeping throve, And that a native of your land Is one remove from Jove.

Show them that when your manhood wills No winds can stop the way, That angry waves but speed you on, By darkness or by day.

Show them that this same doubtless will That bore you to their shore, Within the land you left behind Lives in a million more.

Show them that thro' our steady pains Still throbb'd the nation's heart; That word and bayonet has not Yet killed the nation's art.

GROVER & BAKER'S SEWING MACHINES.

THEIR AWARDED THE HIGHEST PREMIUMS

At the State Fairs of New York, Illinois, Virginia, New Jersey, Michigan, N. Carolina, Vermont, Wisconsin, Tennessee, Pennsylvania, Iowa, Alabama, Ohio, Kentucky, Oregon, Indiana, Missouri, California.

At the Fairs of the American Institute, Franklin Institute, Maryland Institute, Massachusetts Mechanics' Association, Fair, Mechanics' Institute, St. Louis Agricultural and Mechanical Association.

And at numerous Institute and County Fairs, including all the Fairs at which they were exhibited the past three years. For particulars have also been awarded these machines at the exhibitions of London, Paris, Dublin, Litz, Besancon, Bayonne, St. Dizier, Chalons,

And they have been furnished by special command to the Empress of France, Empress of Austria, Empress of Russia, Empress of Brazil, Queen of Spain, and Queen of Bavaria.

The Grover & Baker Elastic Stitch Sewing Machines are superior to all others for the following reasons:

1. They sew direct from the spools, and require no re-winding of thread.

2. They are more easily understood and used, and less liable to derangement than any other kind of sewing machine.

3. They are capable of executing perfectly, without change of adjustment, a much greater variety of work than other machines.

4. With these machines, which are much more firm, elastic and durable, especially upon articles which require to be washed and ironed, than any other stitch.

5. This stitch, owing to the manner in which the under thread is introduced, is much the most plump and beautiful in use, and retains this plumpness and beauty even upon articles frequently washed and ironed until they are worn out.

6. The structure of the seam is such that, though it be cut or broken at intervals of only a few stitches, it will neither open, run, or ravel, but remains firm and durable.

7. Unlike other machines, these fasten both ends of the seam by their own operation.

8. With these machines, while silk is used upon the right or face side of the seam, cotton may be used upon the other side without lessening the strength or durability of the seam. This can be done on no other machine, and is a great saving upon all articles stitched or made up with silk.

9. These machines, in addition to their superior merits as instruments for sewing, by a change of adjustment, are easily learned and practiced, execute the most beautiful and permanent embroidery and ornamental work.

Manhood: How Lost, How Restored.

JUST published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHOEA, or Seminal Weakness, Impotence, Sexual Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Debility, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits, induced by Indiscretion or excess of sexual gratification. Price, in a sealed envelope, only 50 cents.

The celebrated Dr. in this admirable essay clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife—pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.
