

Southern Barbarism.
A few days ago a telegram from Rochester, N. Y., stated that two boys named Ellsworth and Wilson started from the city, armed with an old musket and a single barreled pistol, intending to shoot the first man they met. They jumped into the sleigh of a German named Krafts, near the town of Ironduquoit, and shot him in the head, inflicting a dangerous wound. After arrest appeared these facts and also that they jumped into several other sleighs before a favorable opportunity presented itself. Forney's Washington-Chronicle changed the scene of occurrence from Rochester, N. Y., to "Montgomery, Alabama," notwithstanding that snow and sleighs are not common in that locality, especially on the 24th of February.

The editors table of the "Knickerbocker," has the subjoined meurceau:—"A young gentleman, a member of our college, was expelled for the crime of drawing young ladies up to his room in the morning, by means of a basket, from his window. Of course a great deal of gossiping conversation was the consequence. The colloquy occurred between two ladies:—"Jane, do you believe that students draw girls up to their rooms?" "Certainly, my dear, more than that, I know they do." "How?" "Well, I was going to college one morning; it was just before light; 'twas very early in the morning, and I heard a noise in the direction of the college buildings. I looked that way, and as I see you now, I saw a girl in a basket about half way from a three story window from the ground, and just then the rope broke, and down I came." "Oh! Jane!"

The shylock who with head erect, with honest people mingles, should cease to shave his fellow men, and go to shaving shingles. The lawyer would be better off, his science far less pliant, who owned a little farm in fee, and made that farm a client. We have some doctors in our midst, whose talents they should use by practicing the healing art—healing boots and shoes. The minister, whose sage advice a moral lesson teaches, should try to "watch as well as pray," and practice what he preaches. The world should have its docket called, and sluggards all defaulted, and those should be the upper ten whom labor hath exalted."

ORGANIZING FOR THE CONSTITUTION.
The heavy losses of the radicals at the late election in New Hampshire have alarmed the Connecticut radicals in this city, and they have organized a club composed principally of department clerks from that State, who are pledged to go home and vote the radical ticket at the election next month. These clerks are scattered through all the departments here, and will no doubt obtain leave of absence for the purpose of assisting the election of sworn enemies of the administration.

Chicago was in a bad way, Thursday night, according to the papers. An unnatural mother threw her infant into the river; another heartlessly left her baby on the door step of a citizen; a worthless fellow deserted his wife—and Wendell Phillips delivered a lecture. Enough of evils for one night.

Something Dickinson's new lecture on "The Independent" is a plea, the Independent says, for the enlargement of woman's sphere of labor.

Can the Independent inform us about how long a period is required for the enlargement of the sphere.

Bullock, the Radical Governor of Massachusetts, has appointed a negro as justice of the peace. A Massachusetts town lately elected a darkee constable. There is no accounting for tastes. We suppose, however, that these things occur up there because the "white trash" are no "great shakes."

The political economists all over the states are trying to cypher out why flour and certain other stuff should be cheaper with gold at 289 than it is now with gold at 134. It does seem strange but such is the fact.

Benjamin Franklin, once putting to press a form of the Common Prayer, the letter c in the following passage dropped out, unperceived by him. "We shall all be changed in the twinkling of an eye." When the book appeared, to the horror of the devout worshippers, the passage read: "We shall all be hanged in the twinkling of an eye."

We shall know what are the necessities of life," said a country storekeeper during a severe storm, "as no one will venture forth to day except to procure them." In the evening he found that most of his sales were yellow snuff and rum.

The right of each State to order and control its own domestic institutions according to its own judgment exclusively is essential to the balance of power on which the perfection and endurance of our political fabric depend.

The foregoing language was used by the late President Lincoln in 1860. How many Republicans endorse the doctrine to day?

GROVER & BAKER'S
SEWING MACHINES
WEEK AWARDED THE HIGHEST PREMIUMS

At the State Fairs of
New York, Illinois, Virginia,
New Jersey, Michigan, N. Carolina,
Vermont, Wisconsin, Tennessee,
Pennsylvania, Iowa, Alabama,
Ohio, Kentucky, Oregon,
Louisiana, Missouri, California.

At the Fair of the American Institute, Franklin Institute, Maryland Institute, Massachusetts Mechanics' Association, Penn. Mechanics' Institute, St. Louis Agricultural and Mechanical Association.

And at numerous Institute and County Fairs, including all the Fairs at which they were exhibited the past three years.
First prizes have also been awarded these machines at the exhibitions of

London, Paris, Dublin, Litz, Besancon, Bayonne, St. Dizier, Chalons,
And they have been furnished by special command to the

Empress of France,
Empress of Austria,
Empress of Russia,
Queen of Spain, and Queen of Bavaria.

The Grover & Baker Elastic Stitch Sewing Machines
are superior to all others for the following reasons:

1. They sew direct from the spools, and require no re-winding of thread.
2. They are more easily understood and used, and less liable to jamment than any other machines.
3. They are capable of executing perfectly, without change of adjustment, a much greater variety of work than other machines.
4. The stitch made by these machines is much more firm, elastic and durable, especially upon articles which require to be washed and ironed, than any other stitch.
5. This stitch, owing to the manner in which the thread is sewn, is much the most plump and beautiful in use, and retains this plumpness and beauty even upon articles frequently washed and ironed until they are worn out.
6. The structure of the seam is such, that though it be cut or broken at intervals of only a few stitches, it will neither open, run, or unravel, but remains firm and durable.
7. Unlike other machines, these fasten both ends of the seam by their own operation, while silk is used upon the right or face side of the seam, cotton may be used upon the other side without lessening the strength or durability of the seam. This can be done on any other machine, and is a great saving upon all articles stitched or sewed up with silk.
8. These machines, in addition to their superior merits as instruments for sewing, by a change of adjustment, easily learned and practiced, execute the most valuable and permanent embroidery and ornamental work.

Latest Fashion Demand
J. W. BRADLEY'S Celebrated Patent
DUPLEX ELLIPTIC
(OR DOUBLE SPRING)
SKIRT.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic will be experienced particularly in all crowded Assembles, Operas, Carriages, railroad cars, church-pews, arm chairs, for promenade and house-dress, as the skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place in a case, or even worn as a silk or muslin dress, an invaluable quality in crinolines, not found in any single spring skirt.
A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispenze with their use. For children, misses, and young ladies they are superior to all others.
They will not bend or break like the single spring,
but will preserve their perfect and graceful shape three or four ordinary skirts would have been thrown away as useless. The hoops are covered with double and twisted thread, and the bottom edge is not only double spring, but twice (or double) covered, preventing them from wearing out when dragging down steep skirts, &c.
The Duplex Elliptic is a great favorite with all ladies and is universally recommended by the Fashionable Magazines as the standard skirt of the fashionable world.
To enjoy the following inestimable advantages in crinolines, viz: superior quality, perfect manufacture, stylish shape and finish, durability, comfort and economy, inquire for J. W. Bradley's Duplex Elliptic or Double Spring Skirt, and be sure you get the genuine article.
CAUTION.—To guard against imposition be particularly to notice that skirts offered as "Duplex" will have the red ink stamp, viz: "J. W. Bradley's Duplex Skirt" upon the waistband—those others are pensions. Also notice that every body who has been passed through the centre, thus revealing the two (or double) springs braided together therein, which is the secret of their flexibility and adaptability, and a combination not to be found in any other skirt.
For sale in all stores where first class skirts are sold throughout the United States and Europe.
Manufactured by the sole owners of the Patent.
