Mr. Clark's Concert.

Prof. James G. Clark gave a concert at dale advance-extra, March 30th. Academy Hall last evening; but the hour at which we go to press precludes us Teachers' Examinations. from saying more than that he had a full house and gave general satisfaction.

He gives a concert at Susq'a Depot on Susq'a Depot Friday evening, April 12, and lovers of good music will do well to attend.

We observe that our exchanges speak very highly of Mr. Clark's success in other places which he visits.

Gymnastics.

A repetition of the exhibition of Miss Frinklin, Salt Springs Mary J. Carr's class in gymnastics, came | Montrose, off at Academy Hall on Friday evening New Mittord, hast. The class gave such evidences of Har o d skill and accuracy in the performance, as Jackson, Corners reflected much credit upon themselves and teacher. The exhibition was acc in clock, a. in. panied with music, and, towards the close merged into something very much resembling what we supposed was called "daneing," but which we now understand to mer term only. Only those will be ex-be the pleasantest style of gymnastics. We learn that Miss Carr is about to commence training a c'ass of "olde. folks," and we trust that when their drulis ended they will allow her to invite the spring in such places only as will best acpublic to witness their proficiency in the graceful art.

Sad Accident.

GEORGE GOODRICH, a young man, and son of HART W. GCOURICH, of Clifford township, was injured fatally by an acc.dent upon the railroad in town, near the Stope mines, on Wednesday of this week. His head was so badly crushed as to cause his death in a few hours. He had a high ches of the state Legislature, and is now reputation for character and intelligence, a law: and his death will be much lamented .-Carbondale Advance
