That you will, on all occasions, prefer him, or assist him to obtain employment; that, if need be, you will extend the hand of charity, first to him, as one of those by whose side you have fought for your country; that you will sustain for all offices of trust and profit—other things being equal—at all times the citizen soldier of the Republic. You do further swear that you will he governed by the lawful rules and regplations of the encampment, and yield imphcit bedience to the encampment of which you may be a member, and to all the lawful rules and orders of the Grand Encompment, to which this is subordinate; and you further promise and declare, that should any books or papers belonging to this encampment, come or be placed in your hands, you will neither print nor copy, nor permit to be printed or copied, any part or portion thereof, except by special permission of the Grand Encampment. You do further swear, that you take this obligation upon your self without any mental reservation or equivocation, under no less a penalty than that of being treated as a spy and guaitor by this order. So help you God, and keep you steadfast.

Be firm—be true. Several voices now exclaim: Behold the proper reward of the per jured traitor! And at the same time the heads of the recruits are uncovered, and they see before them, as they kneel, the open coffin; with spade, shovel, and usual instruments used in military executions, and the guard drawn up in front, representing a firing party. The recruits then rise and are addressed by the P. C.

Comrades: You have now, of your own free will and accord, taken upon yourself the most solemn and binding oath that is possible for man to give or receive, and enrolled yourself in the most powerful army ever enlisted since the foundation of the world; and now it becomes me as the commander of this post, to explain to you the nature of this organization, and the necessities for such an order. You were blindfolded for the purpose of calling up vividly to your recollection the dark, gloomy days, months and years of the rebellion—the better to enable you to thank God for his kindness to us a peop'e, in that, as it were, Egyptian midnight of National darkness. In being caused to march round this encampment, blindfolded as you were, it will, no doubt, forcibly remind you of many a lonely midnight hour, in which you have groped your way toward the enemy's camp, or perhaps, bring to your remembrance some | and salute.) horrid scene of some well-contested field P. C.-Comrades, our labor for this dark singel of death was harriedly closing the last life scene of many a brave soldier, by whose side you fought that day. May God help us to profit by the call to mind the fact that in 1861, soon after the inauguration of Abraham Lincoln as the Chief Executive of this nation, the traitor's hand was put forth to loosen the fraternal ties of this glorious Union: to break the almost impregnable were aroused, and the nation awoke from ess of her sons in arms. Never, in the sult belongs to history. annals of history, was any country so seself government, and that, with a free lets of their subjects. But, my friends, let us turn from the glorious future; and may the solemn scenes which you have just witnessed teach you the great and important lesson of human life, that nothing is left for us to do but our duty to the living. And while we cherish in fond remembrance the recollection of our martyred comrades, let us pledge ourselves anew to the glorious Union, bequeathed us by our revolutionary fathers; to the wives and children of those who will return to us no more forever; and to the living representatives of the gallant army of the Union, the saviours of the country.

Instead of choosing for our rulers honest, upright and capable men, whose actions were guided by the welfare of their country, we have too frequently honored those who labored for self interest, and had no sympathy with the people; hence the late terrible rebellion. To prevent a like recurrence in the future, this army has been enlisted. The ground we stand upon towers transcendently above all party considerations. Place soldiers, and only loyal men in office, and treason will hide its bideous head, no more to be seen and felt in this land.

How many poor maimed coldiers do you see without employment trying to get a position where they may be able to eat a their bread without being compelled to perform hard manual labor, while other able bodied men, who never heard a gun fire are occupying most of the offices gun fire are occupying most of the offices of profit; a soldier can scarcely get employment. There seems to be a conspiracy ions, when not inconsistent with the duty against him. To remedy this evil is a part of the business of this order, but not its entire mission.

I will now call your attention to the great and main object of this order: The protection and education of families of deceased soldiers. Of the many hundreds of thousands who went to the field, thousands never returned, but bolong to that mighty army of martyred patriots, who paid the forfeit of their heart's blood on the field of battle, or lie buried in the vicinity of some General Hospital. The majority of these departed patriots have families at home who depended entirely upon their carnings for support. It is the duty of the people to feed, clothe, and educate them. The farmer, mechanic or day laborer, as the case may be, is induced by his devotion to his country, to leave his wife and children, and inspired by patriotism, he trusts mother, wife, sister and children to the care of friends, to meet the enemy on the open field. They read of among the peaceful dead!—their only three years are prop taken from them. This is but a particle which they were exhibited the past three years.

In all the Fairs at which they were exhibited the past three years have also been awarded these machines at the exhibitions of allel case to those you can find in any city or village. Our organization takes the little ones and gives them a home alike comfortable and respectable, and compels society, not only to do them justice, but to honor and respect them as children of departed patriots, who fell in defense of our free institutions.

This, my friends, is the principle of the organization to which you have attached yourself, and may God, the great commander of all, guard and protect this order and all its members, and aid us in His infinite wisdom; may He ever assist the Commander of this post to so command as will be to the interest of this nation. which has nursed and protected us with the care and fondness of the mother for her child. May He guide and direct the Commanders of the different districts and departments of the United States so that they will ever have an eye single to the good of mankind, and for the everlasting preservation of our noble institutions.

(The P. C. will then proceed with the assistance of the Adjutant, to instruct the recruits in the signs and grips-after which the P. C. will say:

"Comrades, you have passed through the ceremony of enlistment and muster, and now with pleasure, I greet you as members of the Grand Army of the Republic, and trust you will continue worthy and honored members. You will now take your seats as members of this encampment."

The Grover & Baker Elastic Stitch Sewing Machines are superior to all others for the following reasons:

1. They sew direct from the spools, and require no rewinding of thread.

3. They are capable of executing perfectly, without change of adjustment, a much greater variety of work than other machines.

5. This stitch, owing to the manner in which the under thrend is inwrought, is much the most plump and beautiful in use, and retains this plumpness and beauty even upon articles frequently washed and ironed until they are worn out.

7. Unlike other machines, these fasten both ends of

7. Unlike other machines, these lasten both chas of the seam by their own operation.

8. With these machines, while silk is used upon the right or face side of the seam, cotion may be used upon the other side without lessening the strength or durability of the seam. This can be done on no other machine, and is a great saving upon all articles stitched or made up with silk.

FOR FAMILIES & MANUFACTURERS.

THESE WORLD RENOWNED SEWING MACHINES

Were awarded the highest Premium at the World's Fair in London, and six first premiums at the New York State Fair of 1866, and are Celebrated for doing the best work, using a much smaller needle for the same thread than any other ma-chine, and by the introduction of the most approved machinery, we are now able to supply the very best ma-chines in the world. These machines are made at our new and spacious Factory at Bridgeport, Conn.,

under the immediate supervision of the President of the Company, Elias Howe, Jr., the ORIGINAL INVENTOR OF THE SEWING MA-CHINE.

They are adapted to all kinds of Family Sewing, and to the use of seamstresses, dress makers, tailors, manufacturers of Shirts, collars, ekirts, cloaks, mantillas, clothing, hats, caps, corsets, boots, shoes, harness, Saddles, linen goods, umbrellas, parasols, etc. They work equally well upon silk, linen, wooleh and cotton goods with silk, cotton or linen thread. They will seam, quilt, gather, fell, cord, braid, bind, and perform every species of sewing, making a beautiful and perfect silk-h, alike on both sides of the articles sewed.

The Stitch invented by Mr. Howe, and made on this Machine, is the most popular and durable, and all Sewing Machines are subject to the principle invented by him. SEND FOR A CIRCULAR. The Howe Machine Company,
