Conveyancing.

Every person, other than one paying special tax as lawyer or claim agent, who makes it his business or any part of his business to draw deeds, bonds, mortgages, wills, writs, or other legal papers, or to examine titles to real estate, who, by advertisement or conversation, or by accepting the business whenever it is offered, holds himself out to the public as ready to undertake it, is a conveyancer, and should be required to pay tax as such.

Susq'a Depot P. M.

Among the reported confirmations we find the name of Walter Barber, Postmaster at Susquehanna Depot. Mr. B. as well as several others had previously been rejected.

The Collectorship.

John Stewart of Scranton has again been rejected for Collector of this District, and Caleb E. Wright again nominated and confirmed. Daniel Brewster was rejected for assessor. These nominations seem to have been made on the last day of the session:

The Senate adjourned on Saturday.

Tax on Watches.

All watches composed in whole or in part of gold or gilt, are liable to annual tax; and persons owning or having them in possession should report them to the assessors. Each head of a family should make return of all kept in the family.-The tax is a lien upon the watch, and can not be evaded. Those now refusing or neglecting to be assessed on watches are liable to future assessment with penalty; and the watch may be seized and sold for the tax, wherever found.

admit that the limit of improvement can ever be attained.

Before they had brought their Pianos to their present excellence, they had submitted tham to competition with distriments of the best maker of this country and Europe, and received the reward of merit, over all others, at the celebrated World's Fair. It is but justice to say that the judgment thus pronounced has not been overruled by the musical world.

Still, by the improvements lately aphified by them to their Plados, it is admitted that a more perfect instrument has been made. They have accordingly achieved the paradox of making excellence more excellent.—Surely, siter this, they are entitled to the motto, "Excelsion".
