

COUNTY AFFAIRS.

Quarterly Meeting. Providence, permitting, Rev. D. C. O'Connell, the newly appointed Presiding Elder, will hold his first Quarterly Meeting in the M. E. Church of Montrose, next Saturday and Sabbath (15th and 16th), services to commence on Saturday, at 2 o'clock P. M.

Indian Concert. Ahwanetank's Great Indian Exhibition, Neoskalocta's Concert, and Willie Washburn's School of Olympian Games, three entertainments combined in one, will be presented to the people of Montrose and vicinity at the Academy Hall on Wednesday and Thursday evenings of this week. The managers promise a rich treat for a quarter.

Fire at Susquehanna. On Friday morning last, about 3 o'clock the barn of E. H. Fox, below the depot, was discovered to be on fire, and was consumed. The Eric Railroad Company's wood pile took fire from the barn, and about 1500 cords of wood were destroyed. An engine arrived from Owego, about noon, and the fire was being extinguished when our informant closed his letter.

Union Pacific Railroad. Attention is directed to the great enterprise of the day—the Union Pacific Railroad—a sketch of which may be found on first page. It is a matter which should interest not only those who may have funds to invest, but all who wish to be posted in reference to the internal improvements of the country and our routes of travel.

Accidental Drowning. Mr. William Clay, residing in the South Ward of Abington, near the gravel pond, was drowned on Monday night last, while engaged in fishing, with several others.—Deceased was about 40 years of age. He leaves a wife and child to mourn his loss. He was largely engaged in the fruit business.

Home Papers. Recollect if a home weekly paper is to be supported, home influence must do it. Every dollar sent to an Eastern paper is at the expense of the local journal. A county acquires prominence through its papers more than in any other way, and to every one who has an interest in his county at heart, his home paper is a necessity. Never will such a man take a paper from home until he is able to take a second paper. His first paper will be his home sheet and he will so identify his own interest with that of his county paper, as to consider his subscription as much a matter of yearly duty as payment of his yearly taxes.—Ex.

Catching Haws. Charles B. Holbrook, of Forest Lake township, in this county, informs us that he has captured twenty-three Haws of the variety known as "hen hawks," since the first of April, 1867. His mode is to erect a fence rail in the central portion of the field, with a mink-trap imbedded in the top end, so as to be not readily noticed. The traps are not baited, but fastened with a small chain to prevent them from being carried off. A hawk chances to alight upon the end of the rail to watch for its prey, is caught by the feet and secured alive. He states that several others have been caught by his neighbors. He has used but two traps to capture the above number within the two months.

A New Mode of Selecting Jurors. Following is a synopsis of the provisions of a law passed by the Legislature, at its last session, "for the better and more impartial selection of persons to serve as jurors." The law is a general one, except as to Philadelphia:

TWO COMMISSIONERS TO BE ELECTED. The act provides for the election, triennially, of two jury commissioners, the first to be chosen at the coming October election, for three years; They are not to be eligible for re-election more than once in any period of six years.

ONE OF EACH PARTY. Electors can only vote for one person as a jury commissioner, the two persons receiving the highest number of votes to be declared elected—the object manifestly being to provide a commissioner from each of the political parties.

HOW TO SELECT JURORS. The jury commissioners are required to meet with one of the judges of the courts, at the seat of justice, thirty days before the first term of the court of Common Pleas, in each year, and proceed to select, alternately, from the whole of the qualified electors of the county at large, "sober, intelligent, and judicious persons," to serve as jurors in the several courts during the year, the names of the persons so selected to be placed (as heretofore) in the proper jury wheel, the same to remain locked and in the custody of the jury commissioners, the keys to be kept by the Sheriff.

DRAWING OF JURORS. The law provides that the jury commissioners and the sheriff, or any two of them, shall draw from the wheel panels of jurors, grand and petit, in the manner heretofore practiced; but before proceeding to select or draw jurors, the jury commissioners must severally take the oath or affirmation prescribed by law to be taken by the sheriff and county commissioners.

THE NEW MODE goes into operation after the first of December next, when so much of any acts of Assembly as make it the duty of the sheriff and county commissioners, to draw jurors, will cease to have any force or effect. All acts in relation to the custody, sealing, unsealing, locking and opening of the jury wheel, and all acts imposing a penalty or punishment on the sheriff and county commissioners for anything done or omitted in relation to the custody or opening of the jury wheel and the selection of jurors, will remain in force, and apply to the jury commissioners and sheriff.

COMPENSATION AND PENALTY. The jury commissioners are allowed as compensation two dollars and fifty cents per day, and four cents per mile circular from their residence to the court house. The jury commissioners shall take upon themselves to discharge the duties of their office under a penalty of one hundred dollars for each and every neglect or refusal to attend to the same, to be sued for and recovered before any Justice of the peace as ordinary debts.

VACANCIES. In case of inability, sickness or death, or any other unavoidable cause, or in case of neglect or refusal to serve, a vacancy occurs, the President Judge is empowered to fill the same.

MARRIAGES. May 29th, by Rev. John E. Barnes, M. D., P. E. Brusin, M. D. and Miss JULIANA LATHROP, both of Springville.
