The Canada Thistle Law. Several of the State Legislatures have enacted laws against the Canada thistle, and we trust they will wherever there is the least danger of it making its appearance.

In our Legislature, some five years ago there was a similar law passed against this, the vilest of all the encumbrances of a farm—mortgages scarcely excepted.—This law provides in effect, that "Hereafter any individual or corporation allowing the Canada thistle to ripen seed on his or their premises, shall be liable to fine or ten dollars, upon each complaint that is properly established; and any one who may fear the spread of the Canada thistle upon his lands from a careless thrifless neighbor, may, after five days notice, enter upon any lands where the weed is found growing, cut it and recover full cost for the labor and trouble.

Yale College. We copy below condensed extracts from the New York World, relative to the annual commencement exercises of Yale College. We are pleased to notice that a worthy student from Montrose, who has always stood high in his class, now graduates A No. 1.

New Haven, July 18th, 1867.—At 8 1/2 o'clock, A. M., the Graduating Class of 1867, formed in line, and accompanied by many of the alumni, marched to the Centre Church, where prayer was offered by President Woolsey, preparatory to the exercises of the class. The church was filled even at that early hour, by the friends of the College and those about to take part in the exercises. The speaking this year was good, throughout. The Orations by James F. Merriam, of Springfield, Mass., and Edgar A. Turrell, of Montrose, Pa., were unusually fine. (Subject of the latter, "The Statesman's Philosophy.") The Oration of Albert E. Dunning, upon the subject of "Modern English Poetry compared with the Poetry of the Seventeenth Century," and the one by D. F. Barrett, of Freeport, Illinois, whose fine oratory held the audience in breathless silence, (his subject being "Milton in his old age,") were also among the best productions of the day. The Orations of P. B. Porter, of Wilmington, Del., and J. G. Flanders, of Milwaukee, Wis., the latter upon the political future of the Northwest, were of rare merit. Space alone forbids us from making extracts from all of them. We can truly say that the appearance of the graduating class at the closing exercises is auspicious of a goodly future. In them, Old Yale has sent forth men.

Base Ball. A very interesting match between the Montrose B. B. Club and the Contest B. B. Club, of New Milford, was played on the grounds of the latter at New Milford on Wednesday afternoon, July 17th. The game was evenly contested till near the end. The Contest obtained the advantage on the first three innings, after which Montrose began to gain upon them, and at the end of the 8th innings having run up thirteen scores were eight ahead. On the 9th innings the Contest by a run of good luck and good play, assisted by some bad play from Montrose, made 24 scores, which won the game; Montrose only scoring one the last innings. The following is the score:

Drowned. A young man about twenty-one years of age, named Timothy Regan, who was engaged at the Horse-race dam, was drowned on Wednesday last, while attempting to ford the river a few rods below the dam. After finishing his work for the day, he—with a companion—proposed wading the river to their boarding place instead of returning by the boat, which was some distance above. Taking off his boots, he went into the stream until the depth and swiftness of the current carried his feet from under him, when he was carried rapidly down the stream and drowned, before assistance could be rendered. All efforts to recover the body have thus far been unsuccessful. He had on, when drowned a check shirt and linen pants. In the pocket of the pants is said to be four or five time checks. Any information concerning the body will be thankfully received by Cornelius Regan, father of the deceased, who resides in Apoloon Tp. Susquehanna Co., Pa. Post office address; Friendsville, Pa. or by Patrick Mahoney, Foreman, at dam—P. O. address; Russell Hill, Pa. If returned to the dam the expenses for securing and returning to the dam will be paid.—Thanklanok Democrat.

Congress. Mr. Editor:—I am just suited with the suggestions in your last issue on the subject of Congress. We must have a sound Democrat, and a man of first rate ability—a public speaker. I don't know who all are candidates, or likely to be; but there will no doubt be plenty of them. If R. B. Little, Esq., is a candidate, he is my choice, because he possesses the qualifications. Please inform us whether he is a candidate.

SUSQUEHANNA. We are not authorized to answer such questions, and refer our correspondent to Mr. Little. A. J. G.

J. W. Hornor of Parkburg, West Va., says that Dr. H. Anders' Iodine Water cured him of Scrofula. He had 37 running Ulcers when he commenced taking the medicine. Persons afflicted should make a note of this, and send to J. P. Dinmore, 36 Dey Street, New York, for a circular concerning this remarkable remedy.

The Radicals claim that Jeff Davis has triumphed at last, and it does look like it. He undertook to take the Southern States out of the Union, and did not quite succeed. The radicals took up the work, and finished it. The Southern States are out of the Union "according to act of Congress." Davis and the Radicals have triumphed at last.
